LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. REPRESENTATIVE.—Last Thursday evening Fritz Harnes, a lad 17 years of age and nephew of one of the proprietors of Harnes & Palm's chowry ranch, had been in this city about 11 o'clock. At that hour he and some young friends started for the chowry ranch.

They were about to put the thought into execution, and had crossed the fence for that purpose, when suddenly a man, supposed to be the owner of the premises, who had been concealed, raised up and without giving any warning of his intention fired at the boys and young Harnes, who fell fatally wounded. The bullet struck him in the right breast, inflicting an ugly wound. His companions brought their wounded comrade back to this city for medical aid. They arrived at the city about 11 o'clock, and the wounds were dressed by a physician. Young Harnes is still in a very critical condition.

YOUTH CLUB.—Last night the Capital Turf Club held a business meeting at the Capital Hotel. The following entries have been made for the races to come off on June 14th, 15th and 16th: Race 1, Duke of Norfolk, Haddington and Atlanta; race 2, Boots, Atlanta and Nighthawk; race 3, Clara W., Monday and Lily M. E.; race 4, Adria, General Reno and Lady L.; race 5, Clairmont, Inca and Blackmore; race 6, Inca, 7—which was for three-year-olds, was decided to change to a five-year-old. The dash for two-year-olds, entries to close at once; also, in place of the two-mile dash, the dash for three-year-olds, entries to close at once; also, in place of the one-mile dash, entries to close at once. A committee consisting of Messrs. Wilson, Frost and Lee were appointed to name the same. Race 12, gentlemen's buggy stake, McAssar, Tommy and Young. The entries being satisfactory the above races will be given.

"THE GATHERING OF THE CLANS."—The Sacramento Caledonia Club will celebrate the sixth grand annual gathering and games at East Park to-day. This will be a gala day for athletic sports, as forty national games of Scotland will be contested for. Two hundred prizes will be awarded—$500 in gold coin, twenty gold and silver medals, and a great number of valuable and useful prizes. Large delegations are expected from San Francisco, Stockton, Virginia City, Bodie and Colfax to compete. The day's sport will conclude with a grand open-air ball in the evening. The park will be well lighted, and no pains have been spared to provide for the comfort of all who attend. The prize walk will take place at the close of the ball—ladies' prize, a silk dress pattern; gentlemen's prize, $50 in coin. The club will start for the grove at 8 o'clock. The games will commence at 9 o'clock and continue during the day. The Hussars' ball will furnish music for the occasion.

FR.—Yesterday afternoon, about half-past 4 o'clock, an alarm was turned in from signal box 24, at Twelfth and G streets. The fire department responded promptly, and found the cause of the alarm to be at the residence of Governor Greer, at Twelfth and E and Eleventh streets. The fire was occasioned by the accidental ignition of a box of matches. The fire was communicated to lace curtains at a window up stairs above the front entrance. The curtains were consumed, the carpet slightly injured, and the home badly smoked. The fire was extinguished by the firemen. Messrs. Gorman, Francis and others who were in the vicinity, assisted in subduing the flames before much damage had been done, and the firemen's attention arrested a service were not needed.

INCORPORATIONS.—There were filed in the Secretary of State's office yesterday articles of incorporation of the Hecla Sugar Plantation Company. Principal place of business, San Francisco. Directors—Carl Johnson, Tully P. Wise, H. H. Freeman, Albert Meyer, M. Neisser. Capital stock, $1,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares. Also of the Leave Valley Gravel Mining Company. Principal place of business, Sacramento. Directors—John Ryan, P. A. Miller, Geo. M. Hayton, Ed. Ellis, E. Blum, James McGuire, Jasper Drake. Capital stock, $100,000, divided into 100,000 shares.

HORSE DIED OF LOCKJAW.—About two weeks since the fire truck horse of DeBernardi & Co. ran a nail in one of his feet, which caused a slight limping for a day, and then seemed well again. Day before yesterday morning, when the stableman went to hitch him up, he was found to be dead. He had died of lockjaw, and had been discovered as he had been found in a pool of water. The horse was valued at $500, and the best farriers employed, but the disease proved fatal yesterday.

HOSPITAL REPORT.—Dr. A. B. NIXON, the physician in charge of the Railroad Hospital of this city, reports that there were present in the hospital May 1, 1882, 41 patients; that 47 were admitted during the month; total, 88; discharged, 47; died, 1; total, 48. Remaining in hospital June 1, 1882, 40; hospital patients treated at office and at their residences, 194; total, 282.

SKIDADDLED.—John Duffy, the gold brick swindler, who was released on (straw) bail at San Francisco pending the hearing of his case on habeas corpus, forgot to return at the time it came up, and has continued in his aberrated condition of mind ever since. He outwitted the San Franciscans much easier than he did the Sacramento officers.

NATURALIZED.—Yesterday the Superior Court admitted Nicholas Coffield, a native of Denmark, to citizenship, on the testimony of Thomas H. Berkeley and George Coe; and of Wm. Vogt, a native of Germany, on the testimony of B. Steinman and Albert Coe. THE PHOTOGRAPHER.—The portrait of Joe Hartado, published by the RECORD-UNION Thursday, was engraved from an excellent photograph taken by S. A. Wolfe, photographer, Sacramento. FREE EXHIBITIONS.—We shall open out today the finest display of cherries ever made in this city. We promise the public that the sight will pay them, and invite everybody to give us a call. Longton & May, Fifth and K.

A Swindler Captures the Entire Fortune of a Sacramento Lady. Mrs. Eliza L. Berry recently had a very strong confidence game played upon her, and for the timely interposition of a brother-in-law would have lost some $2,000. The facts are as follows: On the 13th of May an advertisement appeared in a San Francisco paper stating that a lady who was wanted to take care of her children and to do light house work. This came to the attention of Mrs. Berry, whose husband committed suicide at Joe Goddard's saloon on K street, in this city, about the 1st of last February. He will be remembered as the proprietor of what was known as the "Red Jacket" bar on K street. Fourth and Fifth. His wife was the possessor of about $2,000, which had been paid her by the Ancient Order of United Workmen of this city as an insurance upon her husband's life. She answered the advertisement, and about two weeks ago she received a letter from a man, who represented himself as the proprietor of the party advertised, and that he would soon be returning to his home at San Francisco, and would call on her. Saunders has several aliases, and has resided here, and also at Yountville, Lincoln and San Francisco. He is calling Saunders made inquiry of the antecedents of the lady, and learned that she was possessed of the money above mentioned, and set himself about to possess it. He called upon Mrs. Berry, and represented to her that he was a bookkeeper, with a place of business on Sansome street, San Francisco; that he was a widower with two children, and was a city resident, and had a ranch near Hayward's. She engaged on promise of $30 per month to take charge of the country school, and he secured her that he had a German partner and a woman to do the cooking, and that she would only be required to keep house. On these representations the lady broke up housekeeping here and went to San Francisco with Saunders. Last Wednesday Saunders claimed to be temporarily short of money, and asked the lady for a loan of $300. When the newly-engaged housekeeper stated that the money was in a bank in this city, Saunders offered to go for it, and presented a check for $2,000. The swindler procured the money and sent it, for some unexplained reason, per Wells, Fargo & Co. to San Francisco, in the care of Charles Holman, returning to that city himself the same day. Upon going into the express office here to transmit the coin, he unexpectedly met a man, whom he had known for some time. This disconcerted him considerably—so much so that his hand trembled violently while counting the money. This agitated him, and he decided to change to a five-year-old. He hid her he had drawn it from the express office. Later in the day she visited her husband-in-law, who, after hearing the circumstances, concluded that his relative had been deceived, and informed Captain Lee of the affair. Less with detective John Coffey, soon found Saunders' trail and located the money he had deposited, and at 2 o'clock yesterday morning captured the swindler in a saloon on Montgomery street and placed him in the city prison, charged with the crime. They recovered $1,700 deposited at the Russ House, which, with $50 found on Saunders, made $1,750. The confidence operator is of prepossessing appearance, 42 years of age and claims to have two children. Saunders' aliases are Miller, Gaford, S. P. Danforth and Charles Holman. He is the son of a deceased newspaper correspondent named Miller, who several years ago wrote from Tomolone county under the name of "Stinger Hog." The prisoner some months ago tried to obtain $900 from a man and wife on promise of giving them situations in Mendocino county.

SIGNAL-SERVICE OFFICE REMOVED.—The United States Signal Office has been removed by order of General W. B. Hazen, Chief Signal Officer at Washington, from Second and K streets to the building now occupied by T. Brewer & Co. The office was moved on the 1st of June, without the loss of a single observation. Sergeant Barwick was greatly assisted in his search for information of the location of the office by Mr. Beesley, the City Surveyor, Mr. Cosby of the State Engineer's office, and Mr. Shearer, train dispatcher. The information obtained from the several parties, it is ascertained that the city of Sacramento is about 32 feet above the mean low tide at San Francisco, the bottom of the river being 4.05 feet above sea level, and the stone sills in Brewer & Co.'s store is 28.22 feet above the bottom or zero point of the gauge. The cistern of the Signal Office is 67 feet above sea level; that is, there is about 67 feet less atmosphere in a vertical line pressing on the barometer here than there would be on one at sea level. At San Francisco, the Parties who may have a desire to see an observation taken will be admitted if they call at the Signal Office at any time from 10:30 A. M. to 12 M., or from 3 P. M. to 4:30 P. M., on any day. The office is not yet completely in order, but will be in a few days.

ODD FELLOWS' BANK CASES.—The Odd Fellows' Bank cases have drawn their weary length along for two weeks, and still the case is not yet. On the adjournment of the Court yesterday the cases were continued until Judge Williams could go to his own country, and dispose of a matter case, set for trial on Monday next.

IMMIGRANTS.—One hundred and sixteen immigrant passengers will arrive here from the East this afternoon by rail. Seventy-four of them are males.

TRADE-MARK.—M. Morandau, of San Francisco, has secured a trade-mark. It consists of monogram letters, M. C. W.

NEW FRUIT AND VEGETABLES.—We are in receipt daily of a large assortment of raspberries, blackberries, strawberries, cherries, gooseberries, currants, strawberries, ripe tomatoes, green peppers, summer squash, celery, Roman lettuce, cauliflower, cucumbers, string beans, wax beans, and all other varieties of vegetables and fruits in season can be had fresh daily at DeBernardi & Co., 308 and 310 K street.

A LONG-NEEDED WANT.—George Morhouse, of the Fulton Market, Fifth and K streets, has just fitted up one of the most complete for horses in this city. As 4,500 pounds of ice was used the first time it was filled, an idea can be had of its capacity. He proposes to make a specialty of fine meats and invites those who have been afflicted with lathery steaks to give him a call.

The preliminary Fourth of July meeting was held last evening at the Court-house. On motion of Judge Hoy Mayor Brown was elected President of the Fourth of July Committee. O. P. Dodge was chosen Secretary of the meeting.

The Mayor, on taking the Chair, said the city must have a Fourth of July celebration, and those present must take hold and set the ball in motion, and the people would come to the aid of the committees.

T. H. Berkeley thought some new features might be introduced by having a concert in the forenoon and afternoon at the Plaza and Carroll Park and a concert and fireworks at night. Also, to have the usual parade and usual literary exercises. The Fantastic would parade in the afternoon.

The Mayor said the first thing was to see how much money could be raised, and shape the celebration accordingly. Committees should go out immediately and report upon a committee which first be named which the people wish. Perhaps the meeting would have been postponed and not sufficient to adopt the usual parade and usual literary exercises. The Fantastic would parade in the afternoon.

Judge Hoy thought it hardly necessary for the present meeting to send on the Finance and Committees as yet. There was a sentiment quite strong desiring of having some novel or varied attractions in the celebration. He thought a committee should be named to lay out a plan for the celebration and make the advice of all citizens who may respond on notice on the subject. Then, when the plan is adopted, the people will contribute more freely with greater pleasure. His idea was to name now a committee to lay out a plan of celebration and report at that time, and he suggested his suggestion into a motion for a committee of five, to report a plan of celebration and estimate the cost.

The meeting was adjourned on motion of Mr. J. H. O'Connell, to meet on Monday. Judge Hoy desires all who have suggestions to make to submit them to the meeting tonight.

CURIOUS AFFILIATION.—There is a black-and-tan female dog whose owner resides on M street, between Sixth and Seventh, in this city. She recently had a litter of pups, but was unsuccessful in raising any of them; they all died. As a joke, some children took a young kitten whose eyes had not yet seen the light of day, and placed it in the dog's mouth. Now if there is anything in the world that a dog hates, it is a cat; and vice versa; but in this instance the theory does not hold good. Strange to say, the mother dog took kindly to the little stranger, and cared for it exactly as she would have cared for her own offspring. The kitten has grown to be a good-sized tabby. The mother dog is a very kind dog, and found it out on the sidewalk, and gave chase. The cat's nature came to its rescue, and it was not long before she was on her feet, and was over, being inexperienced, it felt afraid of falling if it tried to come down. Therefore it set up quite a yell, which attracted the attention of the children, and they came to the foot of the tree and howled piteously until assistance came, in the person of some kindly-disposed children. They climbed the tree and rescued the kitten. The dog expressed its delight at the restoration of her pet in every way that a dog can express delight.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE.—No company in a long time has appeared here that has presented better acting than the Metropolitan. It is to be called the Pavilion Theatre. "My Partner," Aldrich, Chaffin and Hogue especially are noticeable. One of these gentlemen makes up (unintentionally probably) so as to quite resemble a well-known ex-official of this State. The company is a strong one, and the play above its legitimate level. But it is a drama that is popular, evidently, and the applause it receives evinces the satisfaction of the audience. In connection with this, it is nothing, but the "cast," as it is, gives it a vigor and a melodramatic interest that probably its author did not conceive as within the possibilities of the drama. The company is in the theatre at the matinee this afternoon, and a final presentation of the piece will be made this evening.

PAVILION THEATRE.—A theatre will be opened at the Pavilion while the alterations and repairs are being made on the Metropolitan. It is to be called the Pavilion Theatre. The first performance will be given therein on the night of June 5th, when the Callender Original Colored Minstrels will occupy it for a limited season of three nights, and will give a matinee on the 4th. The theatre is in proper condition, and the stage has been built of ample size in order to give due effect to the scenic painting of the original first part by the Callender Minstrels, representing a beautiful scene in the South. This troupe is in every respect a first-class one, and the minstrel companies ever seen upon the coast.

A NEW DRIVE.—The Supervisors agreed to give twice as much as the people along to give toward improving the drive from Willow street to Y street, generally known as the Freepoot road. The people raised $800, and thus $1,800 is assured for the improvement of the four miles of road. Work has commenced already. The road just east of the bridge is being worked, straightened and rounded up. It will be worked along the whole line, and the grade will be raised to the level of the street. When completed it will make an old road into an agreeable and fast drive.

AUCTION SALE.—The Great Crevice mine and mining property, situated in Placer and El Dorado counties, on Murderer's Bar, on the Middle Fork of the American river, consisting of about 67.25 acres of ground, engine, boiler, pump, belting, works, tools, etc., will be sold in one lot, at the saleroom of Sherburne & Smith, No. 318 K street, Sacramento, at 10 o'clock, this morning, by order of the stockholders.

SALE OF HORSES.—To-day at 11 o'clock A. M. Bell & Co., auctioneers, will sell at their saleroom the 5-year-old pacing mare Drew.

MILLIONS IN IT.—EYE-WATER NOWHERE. My son, you wish to go into business? Try baking powders. Form a company. Call it the "Imperial Timbuctoo." Advertise—lay claim to everything. Get the people not only to buy, but to eat them. The company is responsible for what you advertise—not you. About making the powder? That is the last thing to think about. Use starch, ammonia, alum, "anything." Make them cheap and charge a high price. You are not obliged to combine yourself to cream of tartar and soda, as the manufacturers of the New England Baking Powder do. To be sure they do make the best powder—but you make money, my son.

ART IN CARRIAGE WORK.—One of the finest pieces of workmanship ever manufactured upon the coast, in the phaeton line, is just being completed by Palm Bros., at their carriage works, on J, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets. It is made to order for Samuel Gottlieb, of this city, is exceedingly unique in design, and may be said to be upon the bric-a-brac order, in accordance with the rage of the hour. The running gear is somewhat heavy, but the carriage is so arranged as to be light, and with an angular rise to a point in the center, which portion is eight-square and pivotal. The curved spring attaches ingeniously to the durable material of the shaft and the pivot point of the axle-tree with a Brewster clip, which has not heretofore been applied to this kind of carriage. It is supported by a network of four angular braces, which give an ethereal air and stylish finish. The body of the phaeton is of the style known as Brewster's extra-curved, and is supported upon three springs, neatly set. The canopy is of an improved order, in that it extends further back, and also further forward, than the former styles, thus affording greater protection from the sun, and still presenting a more graceful appearance. The trimmings of the phaeton are of the finest quality, and the material is of the best. The harness is of the richest variety, and of color to match. It was made to order, in four weeks, and is now ready for delivery. The whole is a masterpiece of art, and is a credit to the skill of the carriage-builders art.
