

PACIFIC SLOPE.

Disastrous Rain-storm and Flood in Oregon—Robbery in Arizona—Death at a Table—Arrest for a Murder Committed Eighteen Years Ago—Soldier Drowned in New Mexico—Youthful Adventurer—A Boy Accidentally Kills Himself—Suicide of a Young Lady with strychnine.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-EXAMINER.]

CALIFORNIA.

YOUNG ADVENTURERS.

MARYSVILLE, December 15th.—Willis Smith, Willis Sierp and Joseph McInerney, about 14 years of age, were taken from San Francisco last September to live in the mountains. Each one was armed with a new revolver. Part of the plan was to shoot every coyote's scalp. On the road to Spenceville from Westland, September 19th, the young adventurers met a Chinese peddler of vegetables in a wagon. They stopped and held the horse, and drawing a pistol, demanded the man's money. The frightened peddler surrendered $17.50, but yielding to his entreaties they returned him $5, and ordered him to take the boys to their home in the mountains. The Chinese man lodged information at Westland against the boys, who were paroled and arrested. Willis Smith was tried today in the Superior Court, the jury finding him guilty of robbery. Sentence will be passed Monday. The other boys, it is understood, will receive a similar sentence. All are respectably connected. The convicted boy's sister, a school teacher, sat by his side in the Court-room today. The lad has an interesting history. About seven months ago his parents died, and he was placed in the care of the Sisters of Charity at Grass Valley. When 9 years old he started out to earn a living, and for four years wandered about the State, getting employment as a sheep herder and in other occupations. An elder brother in the meantime pursued and educated his sister. About seven months ago they learned Willis's whereabouts, and had him placed at the school in San Francisco. He left school with the other two boys to live with his mother.

Accidentally Shot Dead.

SANTA ROSA, December 15th.—A lad named Wilson, son of a widow in this city, shot himself dead accidentally this afternoon, about two miles east of his home. He was a young man of 18 years of age, and was on his way to school. He was carrying a revolver, and was playing with it when he accidentally shot himself in the chest. He died in a few minutes. His mother is a widow, and has a family of five children. He was a very bright and promising young man.

Robbed by Masked Men.

TUCSON, December 15th.—A citizen of Tucson, Arizona, was robbed of $400 this morning by two masked men. The victim was on his way to work, and was carrying a large sum of money. The robbers approached him from behind, and held him at gunpoint. They demanded the money, and fled with it. The victim reported the robbery to the police, and a search for the robbers is being made.

Soldier Drowned—Residences Burned.

LAS VEGAS, December 15th.—Patrick Murphy, a private of Company E, Twenty-third Infantry, was drowned in the Colorado River today. He was on a raft with several other men, and the raft overturned in a heavy current. Murphy was the only one who was able to swim, but he was exhausted and was unable to reach the shore. He was found floating in the river, and was taken to a hospital, but he died before he could be revived. In another part of the city, several residences were burned down by a fire that started in a kitchen. The fire spread rapidly, and destroyed several buildings. The cause of the fire is being investigated.

Heavy Rain-storms and Floods.

THE DALLES, December 15th.—Nearly 48 hours of rain has fallen in the last two days in this city, and the result is a very serious flood. The water has risen to a level that is dangerous to the city. Several bridges have been washed away, and many houses are threatened. The city authorities are taking steps to evacuate the people, and to protect the property. The flood is expected to continue for several days more.

Long Memorial Association.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—The Long Memorial Association has been organized here to co-operate with the Eastern Society. The association was formed to honor the memory of a man who died in the service of his country. The association will hold a memorial service on the anniversary of his death. The service will be held in a public hall, and will be attended by a large number of people.

Death Preferred to Further Suffering.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Henry B. Smith, a man of 45 years of age, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head last night. He had been ill for some time, and was suffering from a severe disease. He had been in the hospital for several weeks, and was unable to get any better. He decided to end his suffering, and shot himself with a revolver. He died in a few minutes. His family is very sad.

Bank Closed—Sellers Bank—Criminal Court Balance Sheet.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—The Bank of California was closed today for business. The bank was closed because of a fire that destroyed the building. The fire started in a kitchen, and spread to the main part of the building. The bank's records and other property were destroyed. The bank is expected to be open again in a few days. In another part of the city, the Criminal Court has received a balance sheet from the Bank of California. The balance sheet shows that the bank has a large amount of money on hand. The court is satisfied with the balance sheet, and has ordered the bank to be open again.

Patrol Accidents—A Company Company.

PORTLAND, December 15th.—Fred Welkin, a German carpenter, aged 35, fell from the new three-story building on the corner of Front and Clay streets yesterday afternoon, and was instantly killed. He was working on the roof of the building, and was carrying a large amount of lumber. He lost his footing, and fell about 30 feet. He was taken to a hospital, but he died before he could be revived. In another part of the city, a company of soldiers was on duty. One of the soldiers was accidentally shot by a comrade. The soldier was taken to a hospital, and is recovering from his wounds.

Woman Charged with Mail Robbery.

PORTLAND, December 15th.—Mrs. Carrie Deputy Eastman, aged 35, was charged with robbing a mail train on the coast yesterday. She was seen to get out of the train, and to take a large amount of money. She was taken to a police station, and is being held for trial. Her husband is a well-known merchant in the city. He is very shocked by the news of his wife's alleged crime.

Arrest of a Californian for Murder.

PORTLAND, December 15th.—John A. Carr, alias John A. Carr, has been arrested here for a murder at Oroville, Butte county, Cal., eighteen years ago. Carr was arrested while on his way to work. He was carrying a large amount of money, and was seen to get out of a building. He was taken to a police station, and is being held for trial. Carr is a well-known man in the city. He has been in and out of prison several times. He is very nervous, and is being watched closely.

Woman Charged with Mail Robbery.

PORTLAND, December 15th.—Mrs. Carrie Deputy Eastman, aged 35, was charged with robbing a mail train on the coast yesterday. She was seen to get out of the train, and to take a large amount of money. She was taken to a police station, and is being held for trial. Her husband is a well-known merchant in the city. He is very shocked by the news of his wife's alleged crime.

CHRISTMAS AND CHARITY.

SOME CHURCH FAIRS, AND WHAT WAS SEEN THERE.

Some Charities in San Francisco—Foreign Missions—St. James' Concerts—Her Dressing.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE RECORD-EXAMINER.]

SAN FRANCISCO, December 13, 1882.

People have no need to provide for Christmas now as they used to—knitting, crocheting, doll-dressing—since the material is taken out of private hands and things are made by the quantity. Different societies are now holding bazaars, a sort of "Christmas made easy," in which all kinds of articles are offered for sale, with an eye to the holidays. These societies are all attached to churches, to well known institutions, or are floating charities. To the latter belongs the B'nai B'rith Club, which throughout the year gives entertainments of various kinds—sometimes dramatic, sometimes literary, sometimes salutory—and has just held a little fair, charging two bits admission, ice cream and cake etc., flowers for sale, fancy tables on view, dancing till midnight. They made $300. The society has very jolly times at its meetings, and at benefits each member in turn has the privilege of nominating some worthy object for charity. The B'nai B'rith have done a very great deal of good, and this Christmas they intend to provide dinners for all the people in their neighborhood who are too poor to provide for themselves. They also give an entertainment for the benefit of the Women and Children's Hospital in a week or so. It is not a society much known to the public; it never solicits aid; it does what it can of itself and has a good time doing it. As to the missionary societies, they sell toilet sets, scrap bags, etc., in the interests of the foreign missions. A score of ladies, one time and another have passed through at various times on their way to China and Japan as missionaries. If you are interested in some of the banquets, you may attend one of the banquets. The foreign missions supported by the different churches, and by it will be required for two years of training at its expense. At the expiration of the two years, you will go to some of the foreign things are taken into consideration in the decision as to where you will go—your age, your acquirements, your education as a teacher, the character of the country and the people, but you yourself have no voice in the matter.

NO VOICE IN THE MATTER.

Having given a pledge to be at the disposal of the Mission. This seems like an ironclad pledge, but the Mission is never hard-hearted, though its first duty is in the direction of the land to be Christianized. The ladies passing through San Francisco have, to my knowledge, never been alone, but leave here in groups of two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, or more. They are accompanied by a companion who is more than likely, being married and accompanying her husband, thus changing the others. I have seen a great many letters from missionaries in China, Japan and the other islands of the Pacific, and they are very pleasant reading. They do not represent such a life as one of perpetual danger and hardship, but often dwell upon the beauties and curiosities of the country. The pleasure of the writers have found in traveling, and in the habits which they observe the people and their habits, beside the enjoyment they find in their chosen occupation. Yet through it all there runs a plaintive cry, "Away from home, away from home."

THE VARIOUS MISSIONS.

In San Francisco where Chinese are received and taught are curious places, and would be interesting to visit, without the visitor approved of them or not. By consulting a directory at any corner grocery or apothecary shop the location of the Methodist, the Baptist, the Presbyterian and other resident mission schools may be easily learned, and visitors are always made warmly welcome. The lady teachers are all of the highest order, and they have done duty over and over and over again as guardians to Chinese women and girls, thus rescuing them from the lives of shame to which they had been doomed. Some of the Eastern ladies have found refuge in the hands of low class customers. Beggars of California and Washington Territory have been rescued from a life of crime, and claim that current rates for confinement can be maintained. Fair fees, $1.00 per day, $2.00 per week, $5.00 per month, $10.00 per year. The Eastern ladies are all of the highest order, and they have done duty over and over and over again as guardians to Chinese women and girls, thus rescuing them from the lives of shame to which they had been doomed.

A THATCHED COTTAGE.

With dormer windows, was fitted up as an Old Curiosity Shop, and was attended by grandfather and little Nell. It was devoted to the sale of oddities and curios. A fancy booth offered dressed dolls and articles of needlework for sale. Whittier's "Snow Bound" was represented by a cottage with cotton batting covering the roof, the cheerful room within fully revealed to an old-fashioned fire-place, a clock on the mantle, a high-backed rocker and a table with a red and white check hanging about. It was attended by Mrs. K. L. Dodge. In the middle of the room stood a table, captained by Mrs. D. Byron, the young ladies under her leadership being dressed in sailor costume. They sold flowers and candies.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

CHRISTMAS AND CHARITY.

SOME CHURCH FAIRS, AND WHAT WAS SEEN THERE.

Some Charities in San Francisco—Foreign Missions—St. James' Concerts—Her Dressing.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE RECORD-EXAMINER.]

SAN FRANCISCO, December 13, 1882.

People have no need to provide for Christmas now as they used to—knitting, crocheting, doll-dressing—since the material is taken out of private hands and things are made by the quantity. Different societies are now holding bazaars, a sort of "Christmas made easy," in which all kinds of articles are offered for sale, with an eye to the holidays. These societies are all attached to churches, to well known institutions, or are floating charities. To the latter belongs the B'nai B'rith Club, which throughout the year gives entertainments of various kinds—sometimes dramatic, sometimes literary, sometimes salutory—and has just held a little fair, charging two bits admission, ice cream and cake etc., flowers for sale, fancy tables on view, dancing till midnight. They made $300. The society has very jolly times at its meetings, and at benefits each member in turn has the privilege of nominating some worthy object for charity. The B'nai B'rith have done a very great deal of good, and this Christmas they intend to provide dinners for all the people in their neighborhood who are too poor to provide for themselves. They also give an entertainment for the benefit of the Women and Children's Hospital in a week or so. It is not a society much known to the public; it never solicits aid; it does what it can of itself and has a good time doing it. As to the missionary societies, they sell toilet sets, scrap bags, etc., in the interests of the foreign missions. A score of ladies, one time and another have passed through at various times on their way to China and Japan as missionaries. If you are interested in some of the banquets, you may attend one of the banquets. The foreign missions supported by the different churches, and by it will be required for two years of training at its expense. At the expiration of the two years, you will go to some of the foreign things are taken into consideration in the decision as to where you will go—your age, your acquirements, your education as a teacher, the character of the country and the people, but you yourself have no voice in the matter.

NO VOICE IN THE MATTER.

Having given a pledge to be at the disposal of the Mission. This seems like an ironclad pledge, but the Mission is never hard-hearted, though its first duty is in the direction of the land to be Christianized. The ladies passing through San Francisco have, to my knowledge, never been alone, but leave here in groups of two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, or more. They are accompanied by a companion who is more than likely, being married and accompanying her husband, thus changing the others. I have seen a great many letters from missionaries in China, Japan and the other islands of the Pacific, and they are very pleasant reading. They do not represent such a life as one of perpetual danger and hardship, but often dwell upon the beauties and curiosities of the country. The pleasure of the writers have found in traveling, and in the habits which they observe the people and their habits, beside the enjoyment they find in their chosen occupation. Yet through it all there runs a plaintive cry, "Away from home, away from home."

THE VARIOUS MISSIONS.

In San Francisco where Chinese are received and taught are curious places, and would be interesting to visit, without the visitor approved of them or not. By consulting a directory at any corner grocery or apothecary shop the location of the Methodist, the Baptist, the Presbyterian and other resident mission schools may be easily learned, and visitors are always made warmly welcome. The lady teachers are all of the highest order, and they have done duty over and over and over again as guardians to Chinese women and girls, thus rescuing them from the lives of shame to which they had been doomed. Some of the Eastern ladies have found refuge in the hands of low class customers. Beggars of California and Washington Territory have been rescued from a life of crime, and claim that current rates for confinement can be maintained. Fair fees, $1.00 per day, $2.00 per week, $5.00 per month, $10.00 per year. The Eastern ladies are all of the highest order, and they have done duty over and over and over again as guardians to Chinese women and girls, thus rescuing them from the lives of shame to which they had been doomed.

A THATCHED COTTAGE.

With dormer windows, was fitted up as an Old Curiosity Shop, and was attended by grandfather and little Nell. It was devoted to the sale of oddities and curios. A fancy booth offered dressed dolls and articles of needlework for sale. Whittier's "Snow Bound" was represented by a cottage with cotton batting covering the roof, the cheerful room within fully revealed to an old-fashioned fire-place, a clock on the mantle, a high-backed rocker and a table with a red and white check hanging about. It was attended by Mrs. K. L. Dodge. In the middle of the room stood a table, captained by Mrs. D. Byron, the young ladies under her leadership being dressed in sailor costume. They sold flowers and candies.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

THE GREAT TRINAMON ARRESTED—SOLD HER INTEREST.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 15th.—Tomorrow the trotting races between Overman and Belmont meet at the Bay District Course. The races is mile heats, three in five, for $2,000 a side. At the pool-rooms tonight Overman was the favorite, and in the first race he won by a large margin. In the second race Overman was again the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the third race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fourth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the fifth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the sixth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the seventh race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the eighth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the ninth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin. In the tenth race Belmont was the favorite, and he won by a large margin.

CHRISTMAS AND CHARITY.

SOME CHURCH FAIRS, AND WHAT WAS SEEN THERE.

Some Charities in San Francisco—Foreign Missions—St. James' Concerts—Her Dressing.

[CORRESPONDENCE OF THE RECORD-EXAMINER.]

SAN FRANCISCO, December 13, 1882.

People have no need to provide for Christmas now as they used to—knitting, crocheting, doll-dressing—since the material is taken out of private hands and things are made by the quantity. Different societies are now holding bazaars, a sort of "Christmas made easy," in which all kinds of articles are offered for sale, with an eye to the holidays. These societies are all attached to churches, to well known institutions, or are floating charities. To the latter belongs the B'nai B'rith Club, which throughout the year gives entertainments of various kinds—sometimes dramatic, sometimes literary, sometimes salutory—and has just held a little fair, charging two