HOME HAPPENINGS.

ITEMS CONCERNING THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Several Executions for Murder—Destruction by Fire—Return of the Greely Party—Etc.

The American Turf—A Mile Trained in 2:10.

PROVIDENCE, August 1st.—Jay-Eye-See, on the Narragansett Park track to-day, surpassed all previous performances, making a mile in 2:10, thus beating his own previous record of 2:10, and that of Mand S. of 2:10.

WARMING UP HEATS.

Presently there was a movement in the direction of the stables, and Ed. Bithers, driver of Jay-Eye-See, was seen preparing the little wonder, his purple cap and driving jacket making him conspicuous figure in the groups in front of the quarters.

THE GREAT EVENT.

After this came the great event of the day, and greatest event in the history of the trotting turf. Jay-Eye-See came on the track at 10:30, and at 10:35 he was stretched the judges announced that he would make an attempt to break his record.

himself out by this time, and his competitors flew past him one by one, until they began to diminish in the rear.

BALDWIN'S SAVANNAH.

SARATOGA, August 1st.—Baldwin's Savannah won the first mile race for three-year-olds, beating Flyaway and Quicker.

Belford, of Colorado—His Views on the Political Outlook.

WASHINGTON, August 1st.—"Blaine is going to be elected," said Belford, of Colorado, in a speech which he will carry New York, West Virginia and Ohio.

THE DEATH PENALTY.

NEW YORK, August 1st.—Alexander Jefferson, the negro, who in a jealous rage killed Henry Hicks and Emma Jackson, was executed by hanging at Sing Sing.

SCOTT'S BURN.

SACRAMENTO, August 1st.—George Smith, Ashbury Hughes and Geo. Hughes, all now in the city, were severely burned here at 11 p. m. to-day.

CAMBRIDGE (MA.), August 1st.—Frederick "Big" Phelps (colored), was hanged at the foot of the gallows for the murder of Mrs. Ceila Bush on April 17th.

A Marine Mystery.

PHILADELPHIA, August 1st.—The startling news of the crew of the schooner Julia Baker, from New York for Point Pitre, had mutinied, killed Captain John Lewis, and had been selling the cargo in the West Indies.

THE REPLY.

NEW YORK, August 1st, 1884. Warmer & Merrill, the master assigns no reason for deviating from the course.

REVENUE OF ARMY OFFICIALS.

OCEAN GREY (N. J.), August 1st.—A reunion of army chaplains, Federal and Confederate, together with members of the Sanitary and Christian Commissions, began here to-day.

here to-day, George H. Stuart, President of the Christian Commission, presided at the morning session, and in the afternoon, led by a banding musician, the veterans, 900 strong, marched to the auditorium, where 6,000 persons greeted them with waving hats and cheers.

Return of the Greely Survivors.

PORTSMOUTH (N. H.), August 1st.—The Greely relief squadron, in receipt of the signal early this morning, the Alliance put out at 4 a. m. from Portsmouth, with orders to meet the relief squadron on Saturday.

THE OFFICIAL RECEPTION.

A great number of invited guests, including many distinguished persons, and families of naval officers, were carried by the naval steam launch to the flagship Tennessee, on the quarter-deck of which the chief ceremonies were held.

"Suspected of Infection."

WASHINGTON, August 1st.—The Acting Secretary of Treasury has issued instructions to Customs officers to declare all cases coming from European ports "suspected of infection," and prevent the landing of them unless clear proof is furnished that they are free from disease.

The Case of General Swain.

WASHINGTON, August 1st.—Major Scott, Judge Advocate of the court-martial appointed to try General Swain, has prepared charges upon which that officer will be called to account.

A Week's Business Failures.

NEW YORK, August 1st.—Failures for the past seven days were 251, against 234 for the preceding week.

WASHINGTON, August 1st.—William P. Oulster has been commissioned Postmaster at Bennettville, Cal.

The President Likes the Republican Ticket.

NEW YORK, August 1st.—President Arthur was called upon yesterday by C. F. Huntington, and he expressed his preference for the Republican ticket, and believed it would be elected, but he did not propose to take an active part in the campaign.

The Texas Cattle Fever.

LANCASTER (Pa.), August 1st.—Abe Buzard, the celebrated outlaw and leader of the Welsh Mountain gang, left his mountain haunts a few days ago, and, accompanied by another outlaw named Winebold, visited the blacksmith shop of George Wright, at Cambridge, in this county.

Considered Out of Danger.

WASHINGTON, August 1st.—Representative Culbertson is considered out of danger.

Arrested for Murder.

NEW YORK, August 1st.—Specials from Alliance, O., say: Two months ago the body of John Reese was found on the railroad track, ground to pieces. The authorities were suspicious, and made an arrest for murder. The detectives succeeded in gathering evidence sufficient to implicate Henry Morrison, Sam Bailey, Eli Hamlin and Mollie Baker.

He stated that he had gained rapidly in flesh since his rescue, but much of it was soft, and more injurious than beneficial.

SOME GHOST STORIES.

Wield Witches, Strange Lights and Mysterious Messages. There is a superstition idea with some that horses are witch-riders. We take no stock in this relic of an ignorant age, but a strange incident that recalls this oft-quoted matter is the fact that for several days the horse of S. B. Coburn, a merchant of this city, has been found in a profuse perspiration in the early morning, with the point of a leg on either side, as if he had been ridden bare-backed. The stable is locked at night and the horse is in his stable at daylight every morning, but for the past few mornings he is panting as if he had just returned from a long ride, and is wholly unfit for service during the entire day.

A PEUPLE'S GHOST.

Licking, near the northern boundary of West Liberty, is a long grave, a large mound, marked by rugged stones at head and foot, but no inscription to inform the passer-by who sleeps beneath. Here lies, according to the tradition, the spirit of a man named Haggerty, an Irish pedler, who was murdered in this county in 1833.

WOMAN BY A WRIT.

Jesse Miller, a farmer living in Greenville township, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, is ready to swear that his household is afflicted with a witch. Some time ago he found a saddle hanging on a hook in the chimney. He had placed it on the balusters. This occurred three times, and every member of the family accused, solemnly declared that they had never touched the saddle. Mr. Miller took it to the woodshed, and again it was displaced. He then removed the saddle to a sawmill and spiked it to a standard. It was there again.

The Miller family is thoroughly terrified, as is the entire community.
