

In New York yesterday Government bonds were quoted at 123 1/2 for 4 1/2 percent, 112 1/2 for 4 1/2 percent, 84 1/2 for 4 1/2 percent, 103 1/2 for 3 1/2 percent, 107 1/2 for 3 1/2 percent.

Higher prices for the favorites prevailed in the San Francisco mining-share market yesterday morning. At noon the following were the bidding rates: Hale & Norcross, 41; Savage, 31; Collier, 31; Ophir, 31 cents; Best & Belcher, 31; Holmes, 30 1/2; Mono, 30; Bodie, 31 1/2; Bullion, 30 cents; Consolidated California, 31 1/2; Mexican, 30 cents; Gould & Curry, 30 cents; Peerless, 30 cents.

John Brown, a farm laborer, was found dead in a field near Durham, Butte county, Wednesday.

Annie Miley made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide at Chico, yesterday morning, with laudanum.

The body of S. W. Heath, who has been missing from his ranch near Merced since Tuesday, was found yesterday in Bear creek.

A man named J. C. Harris has been sentenced at San Jose to one year's imprisonment for perjury.

G. M. Lander, Postmaster at St. Helena, is dead.

Great excitement prevails in Lake county over the killing of Harry Hunt by a man named Copsy.

Daniel Delaney was shot in Virginia, Nevada, yesterday morning, by Patrick Lincoln, and probably fatally wounded.

The students of the Wisconsin State University revolted against their military instructor, and a number of them were suspended.

A ruling of the Supreme Court rendered by the Ohio Supreme Court in regard to railroad discrimination.

A type-setting contest for $500 a side has been arranged in New York between two "reading" machines.

Montague R. Loversa proposes to contest Congressman Morrow's seat in the House.

A workman exploded his life in Kansas City in darkness Tuesday night.

Severe storms prevail on the Atlantic coast. The North American Union of Radicals have memorialized Congress to have the Constitution so amended as to abolish the office of President.

A Scotch colony, numbering 150 persons, has arrived in New York, en route to Florida.

Great preparations are making to receive Parand and his associates at Chicago.

The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad switchmen at Chicago have struck.

Heavy snow-storms are reported from Michigan and Wisconsin.

The persons recently attacked with trichinosis in New York are recovering.

Joseph Diga, the insane billiardist, is regarding his reason.

Two men were drowned near Greenville, Ill., Wednesday, by the upsetting of a boat.

Boston's sanitary condition is now said to be excellent.

John Langdon Shibley, the venerable Librarian of Harvard University, is dead.

The Grant monument fund in New York has now reached $104,218.

The United States Senate yesterday adjourned on Monday.

The Prussian Bunderrath has approved the bill for the construction of a ship canal between the Baltic, the Elbe and the North Sea.

Washington has been selected as the site of the proposed G. B. monument to General Grant.

Official obsequies of the late King Alfonso were celebrated yesterday in Havana.

The Serbian system of civilization and Bulgarian outposts, and were repulsed at all points.

A WITNESS ON THE STAND.

One of the constant arguments of the New York and Boston press against the restriction of Chinese immigration is that it will injure our commercial relations with China.

That is to say, because we do not admit the Chinese serf, therefore the Government of China will retaliate by such commercial restrictions upon us as will cut short our trade with that country.

We have already shown that sentimental reasons seldom, if ever, enter into trade codes. China will buy where she can buy to best advantage, and permit those to sell within her domain who can sell to the best advantage in China.

ANTI-CHINESE.

MASS MEETING OF CITIZENS AT TURNER HALL.

Vigorous Speeches—Sensible Resolutions—Methods Advised—Permanent Organization.

The meeting that assembled at Turner Hall last evening, for the purpose of considering the Chinese problem and devising means for the amelioration of the present deplorable condition of the laboring element, was one of the largest, most enthusiastic and representative gatherings of business men, mechanics and laborers that ever convened in this city. Long before the hour of 7 arrived the street in front of the hall was crowded with people, and the sidewalks on either side were thronged with citizens, who were waiting anxiously for the doors to be opened so that they might assemble in the hall.

The doors were opened, and the crowd rushed in pell-mell. In less than five minutes the hall was filled to the top. The speaker, Mr. Turner, then addressed the assembly, and in a few minutes he had called the attention of the assembly to the most important question, by a united effort he thought it was possible to free our shores from the Chinese.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

The Chinaman, directly or indirectly, and you will be successful. I believe firmly in this question, and I believe that we can peacefully settled in this manner in from sixty to ninety days. I do not believe, however, that the Chinese will undergo the incidental remarks of those who hope to proceed upon Chinatown with a torch in one hand and a shotgun in the other.

The speaker, Mr. Turner, then addressed the assembly, and in a few minutes he had called the attention of the assembly to the most important question, by a united effort he thought it was possible to free our shores from the Chinese.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

D. E. Alexander said he agreed in all that had been said by those preceding him. He said that he had been in the country for some time, and that he had seen the Chinese in various parts of the country.

The speaker, Mr. Turner, then addressed the assembly, and in a few minutes he had called the attention of the assembly to the most important question, by a united effort he thought it was possible to free our shores from the Chinese.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

in this city, and unmarried men as well, who are suffering for the necessities of life. They are unable to get employment, and they are unable to get on their feet. They are unable to get on their feet, and they are unable to get on their feet.

The speaker, Mr. Turner, then addressed the assembly, and in a few minutes he had called the attention of the assembly to the most important question, by a united effort he thought it was possible to free our shores from the Chinese.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

will succeed. Abroad they say it is the lawless. Here the whole people, with one voice, is of one accord. It is a question of short hours, and it is a question of short hours, and it is a question of short hours.

The speaker, Mr. Turner, then addressed the assembly, and in a few minutes he had called the attention of the assembly to the most important question, by a united effort he thought it was possible to free our shores from the Chinese.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

On motion, the Chair was directed to appoint a committee on resolutions. The committee reported the following resolutions: That the Chinese immigration is a national evil, and that it is the duty of the people to resist its progress; That the people of this country have submitted to this evil so long and patiently, and that they are now ready to take more energetic measures to stop it.

HOLIDAY TRADE, 1885

Toilet Cases, Purses, Card Cases, Portfolios, Fancy Paperettes, Satchels, Cigarette Cases, Cigar Cases, Magic Charm Pencils and Pens.

CHRISTMAS CARDS!

Glove and Handkerchief Cases, Gold Pens, Fancy Inkstands, Scrap Books, Checkers, Dominoes, Writing Desks, New Year's Cards.

H. S. CROCKER & CO.

Blocks, Games, Toys, Colored Photographs, Autograph Albums, Photograph Albums, Celluloid Sets, Diaries for 1886, Opera Glasses, AND A FULL LINE OF—

CHOICE BOOKS

In endless variety, for Juveniles and Adults, in paper, cloth and rich leather bindings—with many other fancy articles which all should see.

208 and 210 J Street, Sacramento.

HOLIDAY GOODS!

The LARGEST and MOST COMPLETE ASSORTMENT of HOLIDAY GOODS EVER DISPLAYED IN SACRAMENTO IS NOW READY FOR THE INSPECTION OF BOTH YOUNG AND OLD AT—

C. A. SAWTELLE'S,

Nos. 708 and 710 J Street, Sacramento. THIS IMMENSE BAZAR IS FILLED WITH—

Dolls, Wagons, Books, Toys, ALBUMS AND FANCY GOODS of every description for everybody.

Orders from the Country promptly attended to.

APRON BAZAAR!

AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH A. Parlor, FRIDAY, December 11th, day and evening. DINNER will be served from 12 to 2 P. M., including turkey, chicken pie, mince, cranberry sauce, etc., etc. Admission, 25 cents.

Mr. Geo. C. Bailey, by the Trustees of the Congregational Church, Sacramento, and his many friends.

THE BEGGAR STUDENT!

Elegantly Costumed! Beautifully Mounted! Splendid Chorus and Orchestra!

GRACE HAWTHORNE!

Supported by the Brilliant Young Actor, WILLIAM F. CLIFTON, and a Powerful Dramatic Company presenting—

THE NEW GAMBLES!

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11th, 1885. The Celebrated "FRODO" and "ADRIENNE LE COUVREUR!"

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11th, 1885.

"ADRIENNE LE COUVREUR!" The Famous Emotional Play, "ARTICLE 41!"

DALE & CO.

Third-second Year. 1885! 1885! 1885!

E. LYON & CO.,

700 J Street. A COMPLETE ASSORTMENT of Dress Goods

CHARLES R. PARSONS,

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE AGENT FOR UNION INSURANCE COMPANY, OF SAN FRANCISCO.

MONEY TO LOAN, NOTARY PUBLIC

DR. G. L. SIMMONS, 512 J Street, Sacramento. OFFICE HOURS: 9 to 12, 2 to 5, 7 to 9.

C. H. DENTON,

803 J Street, Sacramento. SPECIAL SALE. HOLIDAY CARDS TO BE CLOSED OUT AT HALF PRICE.

CLUNIE OPERA HOUSE. CHEWROTH & WILKINS, Lessees and Managers. FRIDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 11th, 1885. FAREWELL BENEFIT! OCCASION EXTRAORDINARY! COMPLIMENTARY TESTIMONIAL.—(TENDERED TO)—