FIRE EVENTS.

Sable Wilkes Lowers the Three-Year-Old Record—Blood-Horse Races. San Francisco, October 30th.—Notwithstanding the large crowd attracted by the opening races of the Blood-Horse Meeting at Oakland yesterday, there was an immense attendance at the Bay District track.

Although the filly failed to break the record, it was broken all the same, and the achievement was made from a distance of quarter, although it was announced that Corbett's colt Sable Wilkes, by Guy Wilkes, would attempt to break the record. He was attended by a running mate, without a skip, made the mile in the world's record, 2:15.2, leaving Falton's record of 2:19. He made the first quarter in 32 seconds, the half in 1:03, three-quarters in 1:44 and the mile in 2:15.2.

The next event was a racing race, free for all, for a purse of $1,000. L. O. Lee, Homestead and Ella S. were the starters. Lee was made a strong favorite, and won in straight heats. Time, 2:15.2—2:15.2—2:15.2.

The last race was a trot for a purse of $1,000 between Wells Fargo and Diamond. The first and second heats were in 2:18 and 2:15 respectively. Diamond made a dead heat of it for the fourth in 2:20. Jane L. took the fifth heat in 2:20. Owing to the lateness of the hour, it was decided to postpone the final heats.

THE BLOOD-HORSE RACES. OAKLAND, October 30th.—The Fall meeting of the Pacific Coast Blood-Horse Association began here yesterday under the most favorable auspices. The weather was delightful, and the attendance excellent. Among those present were many Eastern people who are sojourning temporarily in the city. Pool and book-selling was lively, and a large sum of money changed hands.

The first race was for a purse of $400, $50 second, $25 to third, and $10 to fourth, upward, one and a half miles. The starters were Haggin's Duke of Montrose, T. Jones' Amphibious, Ash's Trilobite, Black Pilot, Jack Brady, Torpedo, Repetta, Lizzie Dunbar and Not Idle. Montrose started in 1:40, Amphibious second.

The Ladies' Stakes, a three-quarters of a mile, had as starters Ash's Geraldine, Garland's Snowdrop and Haggin's Welcome. The horses came in in this order: Geraldine, 1:14.

The third event was the Bay City Stakes, handicap for all ages, for a purse of $750, added, $100 to second, third to save stakes, one and a half miles. The starters were Holly's Maud, Haggin's Duke of Montrose, Edgewood, Laura Gardner, Moonlight, Adeline, Narcissa, Dave Douglas and Patti Shama. Maud won, second, Edgewood third. Time, 2:38.

The last race was for a purse of $400, $50 second, $25 to third, for two-year-olds, seven-eighths of a mile. The starters were Echo won, Kidaree second, Pritchard's Danny Scott third. Time, 1:24. Questionaire and State also ran.

SOMEbody IS STUBBORN.

No Verdict in the McCord Case at Last Accounts. SAN FRANCISCO, October 30th.—Shortly after 6 o'clock evening the McCord case was submitted to the jury. At 7 o'clock the jury returned a verdict of guilty on all the charges, and again retired a few minutes later.

By 12 o'clock Judge, defense and prosecution had argued their case, and the jury retired for the night, to be called at 8 A. M. This morning the jury returned a verdict of guilty on all the charges, and again retired a few minutes later.

PAID TO AGREE. LATER, the jury was unable to agree seven for acquittal and five for conviction. McCord is held in $25,000 bonds pending a new trial.

MONEY OR BLOOD.

A Carriage-Painter Fatally Shoots Hisself. NEW YORK, October 31st.—A man named William Denver in the head-to-head, which will probably prove a fatal wound. Denver is well known in the city, and is a carriage-painter employed by Denver. The latter owed Ryan money for wages, and Ryan threatened to kill him when they met again. To-day on Main street they met again, and Ryan shot him.

THE INDIAN TROUBLE.

Troops About Ready to Surround the Warlike Crows. FORT CUSTER (Mont.), October 30th.—It is ascertained on good authority that the Crow Indians, who are now camped on the north side of the river, are ready to surround the troops. The Crow Indians are now camped on the north side of the river, and are ready to surround the troops.

ARIZONA.

A Constable Who Stood Off Two Tough Characters. WINDSOR, October 30th.—The constable of the Arizona Company attempted to take the town yesterday, but was frustrated by the constable McKinnon. The constable McKinnon was notified, but refused to interfere. The company has the reputation of having the most lawless characters in their employ, whom they uphold.

CALIFORNIA EXHIBIT.

To Be Made by the State Board of Trade at the National Grange.

On the 10th of November the National Grange convenes at Lansing, Mich. In the light of the California exhibit, represented there in a proper manner, the State Board of Trade has been notified in its report to the National Grange, that the different roads in order to enable that body to place the products of this State before the public in the most perfect condition as possible. They have found a successful arrangement with the Southern Railway and Central Pacific Railroads for the transportation of a carload of fruit and cereals. The car will be fitted up with the Allright coolers, so as to insure the greatest possible perfect preservation. Yesterday A. T. Devore, Secretary of the State Grange of California, advised the members of the National Grange, to County Boards of Trade, and to kindred organizations, to send forward the exhibit, and asking that specimens be sent by all who can. The State Grange will accompany the exhibit. All articles must be accompanied by the full name and address of the exhibitor, and a circular memorandum furnished the California State Board of Trade, 12 Second Street, San Francisco. All exhibits must be sent to the State Grange, 12 Second Street, San Francisco, by the morning of November 6th, the latest possible date.

A circular letter has been prepared by John Q. Brown, General Manager of the Southern Railway, and a copy of which will be placed in the hands of every passenger coming into the State by way of Shasta, Chico, Denning, El Paso and other routes. The letter is addressed to the passengers, and contains a list of the names of the Board, 12 Second Street, where they can see the exhibits of the different roads, and a list of the names of the Board, 12 Second Street, where they can see the exhibits of the different roads.

DISGUSTED TEXANS. Ex-Confederates Who Repudiate Georgian Sentiment. NEW YORK, October 31st.—San Antonio is a town of 50,000 inhabitants. A majority of them are Southern men, of course, are many ex-Confederates—men of Malvern Hill and the Wilderness—who followed the "stars and bars" for four years and came home broken in limbs, maimed and mangled.

UNMEASURED CONDEMNATION. Been heard. They denounce the manly and the womanly, and the sentimentality which were exhibited in the speech. They say that Jackson and the people who heard him, represent the South, and that the South is the one that is to be blamed for the war.

DOWN IN GEORGIA. Interesting Affair Between the Governor and Senator Brown. [Copyright, 1887, by the California Associated Press.] NEW YORK, October 31st.—The Tribune's Atlanta (Ga.) special correspondent writes from Atlanta, Ga., that the Piedmont Exposition and President Cleveland fractured the Atlanta ring which had long reigned on the Georgians. This ring was composed of General Gordon, the present Governor, Senator "Joe" Brown, Senator Colquhoun and Henry W. Gray, who are the main pillars of the Atlanta ring.

IN GOOD DEMAND. Eastern People Still Feasting on California Fruit. OAKLAND, October 30th.—California fruit is in good demand and firm. The demand for grapes, which has fallen off during the last few days, is now picking up, and remains light. The supply is liberal, but with sales rather light, and the feeling is not very bright.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH. An Aeronaut's Balloon Collapses and He Falls 500 Feet. ST. LOUIS, October 30th.—At the closing of the season for ballooning, a frightful accident occurred, resulting in the death of Antonio Infantes. To-night being the last of the season, Antonio Infantes proposed to make a balloon ascent.

THE TRAIN ROBBERY. TUCSON, October 30th.—A dispatch from El Paso says that George Green, arrested for complicity in the Arizona train robbery, has made a full written confession implicating all concerned in the robbery. He will not be turned over to the Arizona authorities until an indictment has been found against him here.

A $45,000 Fire in Traver. TRAVER, October 30th.—One of the principal business blocks in Traver was destroyed to-day at 2 o'clock. The losses are: G. F. Wolf, $34,000; insurance, $12,000; G. F. Alexander, $8,000; insurance, $3,000; R. C. Shelton, $1,500; insurance, $1,000. P. K. Dooly, $5,000; insurance, $3,000. Loss, $15,000; insurance, $2,500. John Ross, $5,000; insurance, $700. H. W. Johnston, $3,000; insurance, $300.

STOCKTON DEMOCRATS. Stockton, October 30th.—The Democratic City Convention has nominated the following ticket for the election on November 8th: For Mayor, Hugh J. Corcoran; Judge of Police, B. F. Rogers; Joseph Child, A. B. Trethewey; Attorney, Joseph H. Child; Collector, John S. Davis; Assessor, John S. Davis; Superintendent of Schools, W. F. Hanlon; Superintendent of the City, Frank Laning.

THE OREGON RIVER. A RIVER OF ICE.—In Algeria there is a small stream which is called the "River of Ice." It is formed by the union of two rivulets, one of which is impregnated with iron, while the other is impregnated with sulphur. The two rivulets meet, and the result is a stream of ice.

Civil Authorities in Arizona Who Would Destroy the Wrecks of the Indians. Some weeks ago the military authorities of Arizona reported to the War Department that the Sheriff of Pima county had twenty-seven other Indians living on the San Pedro river, in that Territory, upon charges of grand larceny and resisting arrest, and had called upon Captain Pierce, the commanding military officer of the San Carlos Agency, who is also Acting Indian Agent, to aid him in making the arrests. General Miles, in response to the report, directed the arrest of the twenty-eight Indians by local civil officers, upon the condition that they should be restored to the Indians their abandoned property.
