OPENING

OF

**ANOTHER GREAT BARGAIN WEEK**

CONTINUANCE OF THE GREAT SUMMER CLEARANCE and Bankrupt Stock Sale. Everything reduced. You can't go amiss. Every dollar deposited with us this week for goods is a saving to the purchaser of from 20 to 50 per cent. The Bankrupt purchase we made recently put into our hands many very desirable goods at from one-third to one-half less than manufacturers' cost. We are always doing wonderful things, but a surprise awaits all customers to-day. A few strews from the great harvest field of bargains:

- Ladies' Balbriggan Ribbed Jersey Vests—Colors pink, blue and tan. Considered good values a little earlier in the season. Price to-day, 31 cents, a saving to the purchaser of 80 per cent. White Victoria Lawns—The firm but delicate texture of simplicity in the design. Regular price, 7 cents per yard, and well worth it; to-day 31 cents, just one half. Figured Lawns—A bud, a bit of branch, a tiny flower, is all the pattern, but that is every-thing. Price to-day, 31 cents a yard. Double-fold Figured Nun's Velling—To-day, 4 cents a yard. Go anywhere else the price is double. Etc., etc.

The above list but average specimens of the thousands of special bargains offered in our Summer Clearance Sale.

ARE YOU GOING TO TRAVEL?

The whole family of Trunks, Grist and Traveling Bags are where you can take them at a glance (first floor, basement). Pass the prices—you know they are right.

ON THE SAME FLOOR—MATTINGS. A carload rolled in Saturday. Finer qualities and patterns were never shown in your city. Prices of one-quarter for this week only. Quick buying means a handsome saving.

PENNIES MEAN NICKELS—In the Tin, Japan and Glassware Department this week. Prices damaged on every article. Housekeepers' particular attention called here.

THIS WEEK

A general clean up of all broken lines. Often but one of a kind. Stragglers from earlier in the season. Anything and everything that has shown a sign of holding back is put on the list, and prices plucked so they must go. Picking will be first-class to-day.

THE CAPITAL.

THE REPUBLICAN TARIFF BILL NEARLY FINISHED.

Uncertainty of the Political Outlook—Inglis Able to Throw More Cobwebs.

HARD AT WORK.

Republican Senators Working Finely With Their Services.

WASHINGTON, July 29th.—The Senate Tariff Committee is working with all diligence on the Republican tariff bill, but notwithstanding the fact that no effort is being spared to complete the measure, it is believed that the bill will not be reported until Saturday of this week.

Senator Hiseok, speaking about the progress the committee were making, said to-night: "We had hoped to get the bill into the Senate by this time, but it has been met with so many unforeseen obstacles that it was simply impossible. Although the work has been very slow, it has been altogether quite satisfactory. As we have progressed it has become more and more evident that the Republicans can and will do better than anything which has delayed us was the strict adherence to our determination to grant hearings to the bill. We are very severely criticized the method of the Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee of the House in running things on a star-chamber basis since the decision of the Republican caucus at Senator Ervart's house, the other night, those Republicans opposed to the introduction of a bill have come to realize what utter folly it would have been for us to have gone any further with the bill. It would have called an extra session for the purpose of forcing Congress to do something to get rid of the increasing surplus. This would simply have placed us in the position of obstructing needed legislation. It was a clever trap into which we were nearly falling. Then, again, had we gone away without taking a decided stand on the tariff issue it would have been a Democratic chance to hedge on the question of free trade in localities where it has been a subject of discussion. At the time they had a chance to vote on this bill of ours, I don't believe they will be in a position to do so without the Randall can be of any service to them after that I am very much mistaken."

A QUEEN SNAKE CASE.

Politicians Akin to Sea as to the Outcome of the Campaign.

WASHINGTON, July 29th.—The political prophets of the Capital (and their name is legion) are beginning to realize how risky a game it is to attempt to predict the outcome of the coming election. There probably never was a time before when the stars of the Presidential election were so dimly lighted as they are to-day. In the important, in doubt, that the election will be decided almost wholly on the tariff issue everyone seems to agree. As it is an issue yet undecided, it will be the subject of a conclusion of view regarding the outcome. In addition to the uncertainty of following a straight course, there is the Prohibition vote, the exact strength of which no one seems in a position to estimate. That the vote of the unusually large one, is admitted. In the Northern States the Prohibitionists will draw greatly from the ranks of the Republicans while in the Southern States the Democrats will be reversed.

Speaking about this vote in the South, Representative Nichols of North Carolina says: "The campaign in the North State is already in full blast, and the result does not come off until November. We have a big State to go over, and not as many voters as you have in California, so it takes longer to get an opinion. From the present outlook, I am inclined to believe that the Prohibitionists will poll a very heavy vote. The outlook in my State for Republican success is really very encouraging, and I believe there is a good chance of their carrying the State. The Prohibitionists will poll a heavy vote in the middle counties, where it will count most."

THE LAWMAKERS.

Measures that Will Occupy Congress this Week.

WASHINGTON, July 29th.—The sundry civil bill will probably occupy the attention of the Senate to-morrow. It is Senator Fry's purpose to ask that the fisheries treaty be taken up for consideration until passed. After the sundry civil bill is passed, the bill for the admission of Washington Territory and the bill to encourage the holding of a national industrial exposition of the arts, mechanics and products of the United States will be brought forward for consideration. It is now thought to be doubtful whether the tariff bill will make its appearance in the Senate this week.

The general deficiency appropriation is likely to occupy the attention of the House for several days to come. After the bill providing for the payment of the French spoliation claims is disposed of, Sayers will endeavor to secure passage for the fortifications appropriation bill. The Senate amendments to the army appropriation bill cover nearly the same ground. It is expected that the Committee on Military Affairs will antagonize the fortifications bill and try to have their bill first acted upon with a view to having it passed in conference and ultimately adopting the Senate plan of defense.

It would appear that whatever time remains after the disposition of the deficiency bill will be consumed in the discussion of the subject of fortifications.

A LONG SESSION.

Likelihood that Congress Will Not Adjourn Within Six Weeks.

WASHINGTON, July 29th.—Senator Allison said to-night that he expected the tariff bill to be reported to the Senate by the end of the month, and that Congress will adjourn about the middle of September. He would make this the longest session Congress ever held in time of peace. The joint conference of the two houses will require two weeks between the 1st and 15th of September to find out that they could not agree.

From that remark it is easy to see that there is to be no half-way business about the present bill, and the hope of the Democrats that it would be such a bill that they could accept is idle. Mr. Breckinridge of the House said the other day that rather than adjourn on anything else, the Democrats might propose a bill emanating from the Senate, having but a scant Republican majority of two.

Thirty More Carriers for San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, July 29th.—Under the increased appropriations for the free delivery system for the fiscal year in the Postoffice appropriation bill, Postmaster-General Dickins has authorized the purchase of thirty more letter-carriers to San Francisco. These appointments will be made after the bill is passed in the Senate by the Postmaster. Bryan will make the appointments.

Information for Citrus-Growers.

WASHINGTON, July 29th.—Representative Felton's resolution providing for printing 10,000 copies of a pamphlet containing the Agricultural Department of the white scale and other pests, was adopted by the House to-day. The books are to be distributed in the orange-growing districts of the United States to those who may apply for them.

Big Hydraulic Mining Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 29th.—The Senate yesterday reported favorably from the Committee on Mines and Mining the House bill for the improvement of the mining district in California.

officers of the Engineer Corps are detailed by the bill to make investigations.

INDIANA POLITICS.

Es-Governor Porter Wants no Office, But Will Work for the Ticket.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 29th.—General Harrison passed a quiet Sabbath and had few calls, now his political friends are busy with conversation all day has been the refusal of ex-Governor Porter to accept the gubernatorial nomination tendered. In his letter, the Governor says:

"I have taken an active part in every Republican campaign since the Republican party was organized, except that which occurred while I was holding office at Washington. In this long service, the State has seen many candidates for the gubernatorial office, and I have been a candidate, I shall not be indifferent to the success of the Republican party, nor shall I refuse to accept the nomination tendered. I shall give whatever aid I shall be able to give to the success of the party, but I shall not be a candidate, I shall not be a candidate, I shall not be a candidate."

TO HELP FREE TRADE.

British Good Will to be Cutting a Figure in the Campaign.

NEW YORK, July 29th.—The Herald and Express start a story that a large amount of money has been subscribed in England to help the free trade cause, and says: "A gentleman recently from England declared that Englishmen are interested in American politics and are anxious that the free trade cause should succeed. He said that he had already cheerfully subscribed to the free trade cause, and was willing to do so again. He said that he was a member of the Democratic campaign fund."

The Mail and Express seem to credit the story, and say it is believed that the reported subscription by the British has reached this country and is now at the disposal of the Democratic National Committee with a view to its use in the coming campaign.

A REAL BONANZA.

Americans to Operate a Wonderful Mine in Mexico.

PITTSBURGH, July 29th.—A company was formed in this city last evening with a capital stock of $1,000,000, the object being to explore for and operate a mine in Mexico. A tract of land has been purchased covering an area of ten miles square. An expedition of 200 men is being sent to the tract, and it is expected that the mine will be discovered within a few days. The mine is believed to be one of the largest in the world. The distributing bill will be filed to-day.

SWITCHED OFF.

The President Abandons Bluebird and Reporters, and Goes for Mackeral.

CLEVELAND, July 29th.—President Cleveland and party stole a march this morning on the assembled newspaper men at Fire Island, and says it is believed that the President has gone to the Mackeral ground.

Sumner Cox's July Ambition.

NEW YORK, July 29th.—Congressman Cox is now with a sore throat at the Manhattan Beach Hotel on Coney Island. He said today that he would not be a candidate for Mayor of New York, even if nominally tendered. His place is in Cleveland, and he is a candidate for election this fall.

A Yellow Fever Suspect.

JACKSONVILLE (Fla.), July 29th.—A yellow fever suspect from Tampa, who arrived here, was promptly put in the pest-house.

Brown Valley Irrigation District.

ENS. RECORD URGED: Last Thursday, July 29th, a large and enthusiastic meeting was held at the flourishing town of Brown Valley to discuss the possibility of forming an irrigation district, which, as is always the case, met with some opposition on the part of those who are opposed to the project. The principal topic of the meeting was to decide which route would be taken, as the district would be divided into two parts. There were twenty-four ballots cast, of which the route of the lower river was chosen by a vote of 18 to 6. The route was highly cleared. Work will be commenced on the route, which will be rapidly pushed to completion.

This enterprise will be known as the Brown Valley Irrigation District. A petition for the same was presented to the Board of Supervisors of Yuba county, to call an election. Should the petition be granted, the district will be made Yuba county the banner county of the State. FRANK GORMAN. Brown's Valley, July 29th, 1888.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? It is a nervous trouble, and is known as "malaria" was comparatively unknown to-day it is as common as any ailment which afflicts the human race. It covers only the meaning of malaria used by our forefathers in times past. It is a nervous disease, and is caused by malarial germs which are carried by mosquitoes. It is a disease which is common to all climates, and is caused by malarial germs which are carried by mosquitoes. It is a disease which is common to all climates, and is caused by malarial germs which are carried by mosquitoes.

THE KANSAS SHOOTERS.

Confirmation of the Reports of Bloody War in Western Kansas.

TOWNS, July 29th.—Advices received to-day by Governor Martin from the scene of the war in Stevens county state that the affair has not been exaggerated in the least. The number of men killed during the conflict is reliably stated to be six, including Sheriff Crook and his posse. The bodies of the slain were recovered this evening by the Governor, which said the whole country is in arms, and the feeling is so intense there is likely to be an outbreak at any moment, which would result in wholesale bloodshed.

There is no telegraph station within fifty miles of the scene, and it is impossible to obtain direct information as to the true state of affairs. Governor Martin dispatched a messenger to the scene this afternoon to the scene. He will be joined by Brigadier-General Murray of the State militia, and together they will restore order if possible. A private message received this evening from Head Quarters, fifty miles east of Hughton, says that the shooting has been going on since Monday night, and that the men are instructed to fire upon any Hughton man who may attempt to pass them.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT WOODSDALE.

ST. LOUIS, July 29th.—Mayor Price, of Woodsdale, Kan., said to-night that Governor Martin with reference to the Stevens county war, stated that when the news of the shooting at Woodsdale was received, his posse reached Woodsdale it held and held with excitement. A meeting was called and everybody was ready to start out. It was decided to go to the scene of the shooting as soon as possible, then burning the town in revenge if the shooting prevailed.

While the meeting was in session Mrs. Cross received a telegram from Hughton lawyer telling her where the body of her husband could be found.

THE PARNELL MATTER.

The Irish Leader Advised to See the "Times" for Label.

LONDON, July 29th.—The Liberals and Parnellites held a consultation in the House of Commons on Friday evening concerning the charges and counter charges made by the Times and Parnell. Many of the present expressed their opinion that the bringing of an action for libel by Parnell would be preferable to his investigation by the commission authorized by the present shape of the bill for that purpose, and declared that an action in law would be the simplest way to solve the difficulty.

John Morley, upon whose advice Parnell implicitly relies, urged the Irish leader to let his case rest upon the outcome of a suit, unless the commission inquired into the charges, and instructs the investigating body to make the alleged Parnell letters the primary issue. All agree that Parnell would be better off before a jury than in the hands of the commission authorized by the bill as it now stands.

A LONDON SCANDAL.

Elopement of a Rich and Pretty Heiress With Her Married Groom.

LONDON, July 29th.—Thomas Aspin, a groom who has been seven years in the employ of Mr. Roston, a wealthy Liverpool merchant, who resides at Stockport, has eloped with his employer's daughter, Miss Lucy, and sailed for the Continent, from Liverpool, on Thursday, for Boston.

The young lady, having telegraphed to the Queenstown police, and on Friday the Bothnia, on her arrival at Queenstown, was boarded by Miss Roston and her daughter. Aspin attempted to follow her, but was prevented by the constables from leaving the boat. He was taken to the police station, and his son arrived by train Friday night. When Miss Roston heard of her father and brother's arrival she sailed for Liverpool, and her father and brother were arrested. She is in Ireland, and has £40,000 in her own right. She is only 18, is very handsome, with beautiful light golden hair, which she wears hanging loose down her back.

Aspin, the groom, is 35 years old, married, and has five children. The fugitives had £200 between them when they left Stockport. Aspin is sadly disappointed, and has written to his father-in-law, Mr. Roston, New York, by the Servia, which sails to-day, thus trying to avoid arrest under a warrant which has been issued against him for deserting his wife.

PRISON OUTRAGES.

Startling Revelations as to the Treatment of English Prisoners.

LONDON, July 29th.—The committee inquiring concerning the treatment of prisoners before trials in the Courts of summary justice in England and Wales have discovered a shocking state of affairs in the prisons of the United Kingdom, and that the punishment attending preliminary detention was frequently as severe as that which was inflicted as a part of the sentence. The report makes a bad showing for the Police Courts, which are named and many particulars are given.

THE WORK OF A CRANK.

A Workman in Ireland Murdered in Cold Blood by a Stranger.

DUBLIN, July 29th.—Farmer McAuliffe was working with a laborer named Egan in a field at Glomacanny, County Cork, on Saturday, when some dispute occurred and the farmer demanded that the laborer give a false name. He was ordered by the laborer to fall upon his hands, and when the stranger shot him twice, and he died an hour afterward. The laborer was arrested, and his identity is not known to McAuliffe.

AWFUL DEPRAVITY.

Terrible Tragedy of an Eight-Year-Old French Boy.

PARIS, July 29th.—A small, blonde, living on the Rue de la Harpe, died at an early hour this morning by loud screams. She had been in the children's hospital, on Saturday, when she was found by her mother, who was in the hospital, and she died an hour afterward. The mother screamed for assistance, but before the neighbors arrived Alfonso had cut his own throat from ear to ear. He died soon afterwards.
