Special Dispatches to the Record-Union. A Pugilistic Surprise. Jackson, the Australian, Easily Defeats Godfrey, of Boston.

San Francisco, August 24th.-(Special.)-Peter Jackson and George Godfrey, the former the champion heavyweight of Australia, and the latter the champion colored heavyweight of America, fought for a purse of $2,000 to-night, offered for by the California Athletic Club.

In the nineteenth round Godfrey, seeing he was completely out of fighting and shook hands with his opponent as an acknowledgment of his defeat. It is reported that Godfrey is hurt internally.

Jack looked like a giant slumped in his opponent, being fully three inches taller and weighing twenty pounds more. There were 900 spectators present.

Godfrey was the first to step into the ring and was greeted with loud applause. He was followed by Jackson, who was accompanied by his manager, Mr. J. C. Cook.

Both men were in splendid condition. Time was called at 9:21. In the first round Godfrey led with his left, and landed a stinging blow on Jackson's nose.

Second round-Godfrey being forced against the ropes as time was called, neither side having any advantage. Second round-Godfrey got in some heavy blows on Godfrey's face and body, and his superior reach told effectively.

Godfrey could not reach Jackson at all. It was plain to see that Jackson was overmatched, and that it was only a question as to how much punishment he could stand.

Third round-Jackson forced the fighting from the start, and drove Godfrey against the ropes. There was a rapid exchange of blows at short range, and Godfrey escaped some vicious blows by Jackson.

The succeeding rounds were but repetitions of the other. Jackson did not get into a light tap on Jackson's ribs or neck. Both men perspired freely.

Jack was badly wounded at the end of this round, and it was thought that another round would finish him. In the next two rounds Jackson did some effective work on Godfrey's ribs, mouth, and in the middle of the fifteenth round Godfrey attempted to take his seat, but was forced away by his seconds.

BRITISH VIEWS.

View the London Press Regarding Cleveland's Fisheries Message.

LONDON, August 24th.-The St. James Gazette, commenting on Cleveland's message, says: "The position is awkward and unpleasant for both countries. It may be intended to influence voters or it may be merely to bluff Canada into granting the American demands. There is no doubt that the matter is a serious one for Canada. Not merely local affairs are concerned, but imperial interests are also involved. England must and will supply proper safeguards for her Canadian interests. We must await the next step. It is difficult to suppose that the matter will be allowed to end otherwise than in a perfectly friendly manner."
