SHERMAN SPEAKS ON THE RETALIATION BILL.

The Democratic Caucus Takes No Action on Adjournment—Other Matters.

CHANCE TO RETALIATE.

Alleged Discrimination Against United States Merchants.

WASHINGTON, September 18th.—The Treasury Department has published a circular, addressed to collectors of customs and others, stating that the department is informed that lines of foreign and Costa Rica vessels plying between Costa Rica ports, as well as between Costa Rica and European ports, are allowed to enter a rebate of 5 per cent of the customs duties, and also certain privileges to port charges, which are not conceded to vessels of the United States. The charges of Costa Rican vessels entering United States ports, therefore, will be subjected to the discriminating duties provided by the tariff act of 1883, and customs officers will act accordingly.

ALL AT SEA.

The Democratic Caucus Falls to Agree on Early Adjournment.

WASHINGTON, September 18th.—The Democratic members of the House, in their effort to bring on the question of adjournment, failed to come to any conclusion. A number of speeches were made, and the caucus adjourned for its course in opposing an early adjournment. During the speaking references to the Irish vote could be heard being made in various quarters, and it was simply agreed to adjourn the caucus over to await any action that the Senate might take.

TIMELY ACTION.

A War Steamer Ordered to Go on Once to the Samoa Islands.

WASHINGTON, September 18th.—The Secretary of the Navy has telegraphed Rear-Admiral Kimball commanding the Pacific Station, and who is now at San Francisco, to send one of the vessels of his fleet to the Samoa Islands for such services as may be required of it in protecting American interests. The steamer Albatross, under the command of Commodore Adams is now cruising in the vicinity of the islands, and one of these will be sent to Samoa at once.

Light Day in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, September 18th.—The discussion over the bill to create an executive department was continued in the Senate today, after the debate on the retention bill. A motion was made to suspend the rules and take up the private pension bill, but Senator Plumb objected, and the bill was not taken up.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, September 18th.—Most of the time of the House was spent in discussing the amendment in the sundry civil bill making an appropriation for the new Congressional building.

Senator Stanford's Health.

WASHINGTON, September 18th.—A letter from Mrs. Stanford denies the rumor about her husband's health. She says that Senator Stanford will, she says, return in a couple of weeks and take an active part in the political campaign.

Bids for Work on the Charleston.

WASHINGTON, September 18th.—Bids for building articles for the cruiser Charleston have been awarded to the following firms: James McCudden, California; oak knees, A. Powell, San Francisco; iron plates, Park Road, San Francisco.

Sullivan is a very sick man, and although in no danger of dying, he will require much careful treatment before he will be able to appear again in the ring. He is at Trilium Cottage, near the beach, under the care of Dr. Bush and a trained nurse.

THE OLD "Q" TROUBLE AGAIN.

St. Louis, September 18th.—The arrival in London of the through Chicago, Burlington and Quincy train over the Wash tracks was signalized by the refusal of the Brotherhood engineers employed as conductors to get on the train. The men were refused to get on the train because the Brotherhood engineers would not get on or sleep in the same house with the men who were employed to work the train. The men were compelled to come down town for accommodations. The most serious aspect of the trouble is that the Brotherhood has a contract with the Burlington road which demands the housing of its employees, and the Wash orders its employees to fulfill their contract a strike on that road will follow.

BLUE GRASS REPUBLICANS.

OLD AGE.

IS ATTENDED WITH WEAKNESS OF THE STOMACH AND BOWELS, LOSS OF APPETITE, INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, etc., with their attendant troubles. It is a natural warning, and if neglected, leads to serious results. To persons advanced in years, and those who are unable to take food, a simple, natural, and delicate diet is most particularly adapted. Owing to its being a natural food, it is easily digested, and gives tone and vigor to the whole system.
