LOCAL INTELLIGENCE
POLICE COURT.
Disposition of Sundry Minor Cases by Judge Buckley Yesterday.

Judge Buckley Yesterday.
The Police Court calendar contained little of interest yesterday. The case of May Hamilton, charged with battery and disturbance during the party, having riding down K street Sunday evening, run over and injured Miss Gouget, was continued until Saturday, on motion of the prosecution, the injured lady being too ill to appear as a witness.

Robert Nourse To-Night.
Dr. Robert Nourse will deliver his famous lecture, "John and Jonathan," at the Congregational Church, this evening. In speaking of politics to a reporter, Dr. Nourse said: "I have always been a Republican, but I am pretty well committed now to the American party. I am not in favor of the extreme measures proposed by some, to exclude all foreign born immigrants from our country. But I am firmly opposed to pauper and criminal immigration, and to one of the American party I thoroughly subscribe; that is, that every elector should vote. In Massachusetts a man may be prosecuted for such failure, and I think that should extend to other States. In England I was a free trader, because England needs cheap importations, being a manufacturing and vast population by the products of her limited area. With us on this side of the water it is different. We can be self-sufficient, and, in my opinion, should make ourselves so by the policy of protection."

California Parlor, No. 22, N. D. G. W., gave a very pleasant entertainment at Pioneer Hall last evening, to which a large number of their friends were invited. The following programme was rendered: Piano solo, Mrs. Jessie Neale; vocal solo, Mrs. Nettie Leake; piano solo, Miss Daisy Siddons; vocal solo, Miss L. Clinch. At the close of the musical part, the evening was spent in dancing, tables were cleared for card-playing, and the young people spent a congenial and pleasant evening. About 11 o'clock refreshments were served. The officers of the parlor are:
President, Mrs. Mattie K. Grams; First Vice-President, Miss Lizzie M. Griffin; Second Vice-President, Mrs. M. Buckendrew; Treasurer, Mrs. Frank G. Groves; Recording Secretary, Miss M. Johnson; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Nettie Leake; Trustees, Mrs. Inez M. Giesse, Miss Garfield and Miss Emily Thompson.

The Prohibitionists.
On Tuesday evening a small number of citizens of Elk Grove assembled in Toronto Hall to listen to Colonel Sobieski, the Prohibition party's orator, and some of their county candidates. The meeting was called to order and presided over by Dr.
Clayton, of Sacramento. After a few remarks he introduced Chauncey Dunn, their candidate for Superior Judge, who, after delivering his address, was the object of their party's rapid growth and the good it had done, concluded by stating that if he had not been a Prohibitionist, he would have been a Republican. He then stated some facts which would cause every mind to vote their ticket from top to bottom. He was followed by Colonel Sobieski, the speaker of the evening, who denounced both the Democratic and Republican parties. He kept his audience amused by his jokes, and made some comparisons of the Democratic and Republican parties.

Sheriff's Report.
The report of Sheriff Drew for the month of September shows that during that month there was confined in the County Jail 21 prisoners, for the following offenses: Assault with a deadly weapon, 2; assault with a deadly weapon, 2; grand larceny, 1; burglary, 1; passing counterfeit money, 1; embezzlement, 1; forgery, 1; perjury, 1; battery, 1; disturbing the peace, 7; vagrancy, 15; misdemeanor, 1; seditious libel, 1; exposure of person, 5; statement of property, 3. Of these 39 were discharged as follows: Upon expiration of sentence, 17; order of Court, 1; sent to County Hospital, 1; wanted for charge, 3; satisfaction of bond, 1; escaped, 4; furnishing bond, 1.

There remain in the jail 41 prisoners.

A Bold Robbery.
One of the boldest robberies that has occurred in this city for several years took place about 9 o'clock last evening. Mrs. H.
Bennett, who resides at 714 Seventh street, came up from the Bay last evening, and was walking to her residence alone. When near her home, F and G, a man stepped up behind her, put an arm around her neck, grasped the rings from her ears and fled.
She gave the best description of the robber she could to the police, and is now on the lookout for the bold highwayman.

Wedding at Stockton.
The Rev. John F. von Herlich officiated at a very interesting wedding at Stockton yesterday morning. The ceremony took place in a large arbor beneath a massive wedding bed of flowers. The groom was Dr. Andrew Hochstetler, and the bride Miss Frederica Bours, one of Stockton's most beautiful maidens. The wedding feast was served beneath the extensive arbors.

The Weather.
The average Signal Service temperature yesterday was 68°, being 4° warmer than the normal for this day. The highest and lowest was 86° and 52°. The highest and lowest of the week was 85° and 48°. The temperature at 5 A. M. was 54°, 12 M., 77°, and 5 P. M., 81°. Barometer steady.

THE WOOLEN MILLS.

Some Definite Action Taken in the Right Direction.
A public meeting was held at the Courthouse last night to discuss the proposition of the Santa Rosa Woollen Mills to move their plant to this city. A large number of merchants and business men were present.

Judge W. H. Beatty, President of the Improvement Association, called the meeting to order, and nominated Mayor Gregory to preside. The Mayor was unanimously elected, and took the chair. F. A. Baker was selected Secretary.
Robert Devlin, being called upon, stated the objects of the meeting, substantially as follows: The meeting of the Improvement Association and published at length in the Record-Union. He stated that the Santa Rosa Woollen Mills had bought out the other member of the firm, Mr. Walker, and desired to move their mill to a more advantageous location. It was desired to form a stock company to build a mill and carry it on in this city. It would take $40,000 to build the mill and $20,000 to carry it on.
Loughery would each take $10,000 worth of stock, but were willing that the citizens of Sacramento should control the mill, if they desired. The California State Bank would lend $3,500 in stock, and the other member of the firm, Mr. Walker, had taken $2,000 of stock. He said that Mr. Loughery would explain more fully.

Mr. Loughery addressed the meeting, showing why Sacramento was the best place in the State to carry on woolen mill business. He said it was a simple business proposition. This city was the best possible location for the mills, as the productive section of California was from Benicia north and east. He believed that the investment would pay from one to three per cent per month.

SCHOOL BOOKS.

Meeting of the School Directors—Mr.
Hopkins' Explanation.
A special meeting of the City Board of Education was held at the office of the Superintendent last evening to consider the question of the sale of school books.
Nearly all the pupils in the city, at least 95 per cent, of them, have already purchased the books at the retail price charged by the dealers.

Director Martin said he had called upon County Superintendent Howard, who had agreed to furnish all who call at his office with the books at the retail price. He had inserted the following advertisement in the daily paper:

The public is hereby notified that by courtesy of E. F. Howard, County Superintendent, School text-books can be obtained at his office at State cost price. E. M. Martin, County Superintendent, Contra Costa County.

Director Hopkins said he wished to place himself right before the people. The bookkeepers had gone to their agreement with the Board. If they had done so agreed, there would have been no cause for complaint. Before making any of the distribution of school-books was considered at all. Mr. Howard, County Superintendent, said that he had called upon the City Board of Education, and he would furnish the books at the same price as he would furnish the books throughout the county. It was the intention all the time of every member of the Board that the pupils should be furnished the books at State cost. It never was the intention for a single moment that dealers should in any way profit by their interposition. The matter was referred to me to ascertain the best terms upon which the books would be furnished to the city. I have had to do with the matter for some time, and I have concluded to call for a copy having to form a revolving fund, which would incur more or less expense.
I had, of course, $50,000 offered to handle them for 5 per cent.
Houghton wanted 10 per cent for handling them. At the next meeting of the Board the book terms were asked to state the best terms they would give to become the agents of the Board and have the exclusive sale of the books at State cost. Mr. McGee, called before the Board and voluntarily said he intended to keep the books and sell them at State cost. Mr. Martin offered $25 for the exclusive right to sell at State cost and Mr. Houghton offered $50 for the same privilege. Mr. Houghton, who was the highest bidder, said he would sell all the books he was allowed to sell. No other price was mentioned at State cost. That was so understood, and the fact was so understood is evident from the action of the bookkeepers themselves, who commenced and did sell the books at State cost for the first half day. It was so understood that I went out believing that the dealers would do as they agreed, and that the Saturday before school commenced the books would be sold at State cost.

the books would be sold at State cost.
I heard then that the dealers were trying to form a combination. I went to Mr. Houghton and spoke to him about it. Mr. Houghton said he was sorry to hear of such talk but that he proposed to stand by his agreement. The bookkeepers have acted in the best faith. They are entirely satisfied. They failed to stand by the agreement entered into by them with this Board. It was a good thing for Sacramento if back upon their word, if they had simply informed us of that fact we could have started a revolving fund that would have answered every purpose and saved to the parents this unwarranted charge. He said he thought the dealers had made a great mistake, they had by their action shown the confidence of the community, at least those who have bought school books will not feel so kindly toward them in the future.
They have in the past. He did not think the bookkeepers now would compel children to go to the County Superintendent to buy their books, but sell them at State cost.
Mr. Martin said the only thing that the Board was to blame for, was that they did not make the agreement with the dealers in writing.

Mr. Conklin said he did not care how it was done, but some arrangements should be made whereby the books could be furnished at cost and not have to go to the County Superintendent to buy them.
Mr. Pettie thought the arrangement with the Superintendent the best thing to be done. He said he would like to see the agreement in writing.
Mr. Chipman—If we had them in the door they wouldn't dare do it. They had a chance to squeal and make something by it, and they did it.

The report of Mr. Martin was unanimously adopted accepting the proposition of the County Superintendent.
The rule relative to the furnishing of books to indigent children was discussed at some length, and Director Martin stated that he would move an amendment at the next regular meeting.

Eighteen new desks were ordered for the Sacramento Grammar School. The Furniture and Supply Committee was also instructed to furnish the necessary desks for the other schools.

At a meeting some weeks ago the teachers of the High School were furnished for their books certain amount of money. A motion was introduced last night to furnish all the teachers in the schools with a set of such books as they used, but it was voted down.

Clothing Opera House.
This evening the Silton family appears with the Dais Brothers and a supporting company. It is a troupe of artists, acrobats, etc., with a comedian, a juggler and a contortionist. The Stockton Independent says of the company that "its entertainment was very good. The Siltons, in their groupings and aerial acts, are most entertaining. They were applauded in every act. The Los Angeles Times says: "Some of the feats and tricks executed by the company are of a most extraordinary character." It added: "The clown act of Dales is exceptionally good. They do some wonderful things and are very amusing and made a hit. The performance concluded with a sensational aerial act by the Siltons. Their act was a thrilling one, and was done near the top of the building. A couple of the family make some wonderful jumps in mid-air. The Silton family are simply wonderful!"
