Something New in Shoes. We have just received two new lines of Ladies' Shoes that are likely to attract much more than ordinary attention.

One of these Shoes records quite an achievement in the Shoemakers' art, namely—the successful combination of a pointed toe, with a low, flat heel. Hitherto such combinations have produced only awkward and ill-fitting shapes.

An entirely new and stylish Shoe is an Oxford Tie, with pointed toes and tips. Color, orange or tan, $3. Are intended especially for Spring and Summer wear, but make desirable house shoes for all seasons of the year.

Bird Cage Season. Three or four days ago we received heavy shipments of Bird Cages and offer an exceptionally fine assortment of styles.

Concerning Charles A. Washburn. The San Francisco Call, referring to the death of Charles A.
