

DAILY RECORD-UNION

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1889. ISSUED BY THE SACRAMENTO PUBLISHING COMPANY. Office, Third Street, between J and K.

THE DAILY RECORD-UNION, Published six days in each week, with Double Sheet on Saturdays, and THE SUNDAY UNION, Published every Sunday morning, making a splendid SEVEN-DAY paper.

THE WEEKLY UNION, the cheapest and most desirable Home, News and Literary Journal published on the Pacific Coast. The SUNDAY UNION is sent to every subscriber to the WEEKLY UNION.

To-day's Weather Indications. California—Fair in northern portion; local rains southern; southerly winds; nearly stationary temperature along coast; cooler in the interior.

THE SCHOOL CENSUS. There is some expressed discontent that the school census report for this city should fall off some 1,500 from the returns of last year.

THE PRESBYTERIAN General Assembly got itself into a tangle over the prohibition question. A resolution was introduced that brought up the subject. It was sent to a committee which by majority report advised a pledge...

THE SPIRIT OF SYMPATHY among the citizens of Sacramento does not flag; all day yesterday they sent in their contributions to the Pennsylvania relief fund, enabling this office before the close of bank hours yesterday to forward to Governor Beaver another $500.

THE FENCES about the Permanent Exposition Grounds are being nearly washed by the chain-gang, under the supervision of Enoch Dodge.
