

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

WHAT OTHER PLACES ARE DOING TO SECURE THE PRIZE.

San Jose and Fresno Want It Bad—The Sacramento Committee Not Troubled About It.

The local members of the Republican State Central Committee seem to feel quite sure that Sacramento will win in the struggle over the location of the coming State Convention. They expect that of the extensive southern and central members of the committee, leaving those from the counties below San Jose to divide their strength between San Jose and Fresno, both of which are making a red-hot fight for the prize.

At the late Republican Convention in San Jose a committee consisting of H. V. Morehouse, Jas. R. Lowe, J. C. Black, A. E. Minto, C. M. Shortridge and O. A. Hale was appointed to represent Sacramento's interests at the meeting of the State Central Committee. They have sent out circulars to every member of the committee asking that the State Convention be held in San Jose. They promise that if the Convention is held in their city they will be "relieved of the expense necessary to perform the business of the Convention," which is a very large sum.

Fresno makes similar claims, and a committee of citizens has issued a circular setting forth the advantages possessed by that city for the holding of a State Convention. They also promise to relieve the State Central Committee of the expense necessary to perform the business of the Convention, which probably is intended to include hall rent, gas, salaries, etc.

Committee member McMillen of this city was asked by a Record-Union reporter what steps, if any, were being taken toward securing the Convention to Sacramento, and whether there seemed to be any likelihood of either San Jose or Fresno being selected. Mr. McMillen replied that particular line of action had been planned, except that himself and fellow-committee men from this city were consulting with the hotel proprietors and other directly interested, looking toward making some arrangement by which as advantageous terms could be offered to Sacramento as the other places had promised. The committee from this county, he said, also were going to Sacramento, and would be present at the meeting of the State Central Committee to work with the country members.

It would seem, however, that the efforts of Sacramento are being put forth in a more earnest and aggressive manner than those of Fresno, Sacramento should be up and going in the matter. It is true, beyond a doubt, that the most delegates to the State Convention would prefer coming to Sacramento rather than to either of the cities mentioned. The Record-Union understands that the city has better accommodations than any other place outside of San Francisco, and is more centrally located, but the delegates have not notified any of the committee as to where they will settle the matter next Wednesday. Hence it behooves our committee to be ready to meet any overtures to the Central Committee.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Metropolitan Theater this evening Aronson's New York Casino Company will produce "The Black Hussars." The opera was given in San Francisco two years ago, and at the time was indorsed by the press as an altogether charming composition and very strong in dramatic action. The present presentation by Aronson's company is a masterpiece, and proved equally good as on the occasion of its introduction. It has never been sung in Sacramento. The company will be here early in March, secured a great success. It has capable people throughout and a strong and artistic management. The troupe carries a large amount of scenery, painted especially for the pieces it presents, and its repertoire is exceedingly fine. It is promised that the piece shall be as well staged here as in San Francisco. Miss Lamont, the leading singer, and the other comedians of the organization, will be remembered, as also David, the tenor, Miss Cheate, Miss Hanley, Mr. Porter and Miss Worth, all comedians of more than ordinary capacity found in comic opera troupes.

At the Clunie Opera House Monday and Tuesday evenings next, John Slater, "the Psychological Phenomenon," will give two of his entertainments. It is claimed that Slater's "test medium" has given these entertainments in San Francisco for three years past with great success, and presents them there still weekly to immense audiences. He uses weekly to immense audiences. He uses "spiritual" devices. The San Diego pronounces his entertainments "perfect success." The San Diego pronounces his entertainments "perfect success." The San Diego pronounces his entertainments "perfect success."

At the lecture-room of the Congregational Church this evening an entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Home Mission fund. It is a beneficial representation by about thirty participants of an old-fashioned "District School." Mrs. Hodgkins of San Francisco, an elderly lady, who is said to have peculiar comedy talents, will entertain the "old-time" school. Those who have witnessed the rehearsals pronounce the clever bit of burlesque to be exceedingly humorous, and are charged to the brim with neat wit, cynicism and ludicrous situations.

Accident to a Driver.

A serious accident happened yesterday to a man named Frank Shoemaker, an employe of Mr. Stoddard, the L-street blacksmith. He was driving a young and high-spirited horse at East Park, and was thrown from his vehicle while turning one of the sharp corners in the driveway. His injuries seemed to be chiefly internal, and he was taken to the County Hospital.

Capital Packing Company.

Judge Van Fleet has made an order confirming the sale of the property of the Capital Packing Company, belonging to the estate of the late J. H. Carroll. The new owners are W. Beck, Edgar A. Cohn and R. A. Simpson, and the purchase price was $39,000. Some weeks ago the Record-Union published the names, capital stock, etc., of the new Capital Packing Company, which takes the place of the former one of that name.

Rain Stopped the Game.

The Sacramento and San Francisco played one inning at baseball yesterday in San Francisco, when rain fell, preventing further playing. The score then was two to nothing in favor of San Francisco. Perrier was on first base, and Buckley in left field for the Sacramento.

Malignant Mischief.

An elderly man who said his name was John Farrell, was arrested yesterday by railroad officer True for throwing a stone through a window at the depot. He was charged with malicious mischief.

HANDSOME PHANTOMS—Harry Bernard, the well-known actor, is turning out a number of very stylish ladies' fashions. They are light, handsomely finished, and upholstered in the most luxurious and substantial manner. Just the thing for style and comfort.

THE FAIR-PALMER CASE.

Judge Armstrong Hears Palmer's Petition for a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Most of the time of Judge Armstrong's Court was taken up yesterday with the hearing of the matter of the application of H. J. Palmer for release from the obligation imposed upon him by Justice Devine to appear for trial on a charge of embezzlement. Palmer is charged with having embezzled $385 received by him, while manager of the Reed ranch in Yolo, for horses and mules sold. He was examined some weeks ago in Justice Devine's Court and held to answer.

The defense made at the time was that Palmer had made various sales of ranch products during the month the horses were sold, amounting to some $1,500, as shown by books of the ranch and that the money received included the proceeds of the sale referred to.

The petition for the writ of habeas corpus sets forth, among other points, that Senator Fair had never demanded a settlement of accounts with Palmer, and that he had never been committed to jail on embezzlement; that if any crime had been committed it was grand larceny; and that he had never been committed to jail at all—in Yolo county. The further point was made that the complaint had been returned after the case was called in the Justice's Court.

Counsel for Palmer also held that it had not been shown that the transaction referred to was not covered by the committee of the Hamilton ranch, from which some of the horses had been taken, which accounts had been closed at the time Palmer gave up his stewardship, but which books had not been produced in Court as any stage of the proceedings, the plaintiff claiming not to know of their whereabouts.

The afternoon was consumed by Mr. Hinkson, in answer to a question put to the Court the voluminous report of the evidence given at the examination, and the case was then adjourned to next week. The prosecution is represented by Chas. T. Jones, and the defense by Messrs. Hinkson, Sprague and Gett.

POLICE COURT.

The Ruggles-Jost Labor Agitation Settled Satisfactorily.

The case of A. Zemanski, charged with violating the health ordinance, was dismissed in the Police Court yesterday on the filing of a stipulation of satisfaction.

The charge of disturbing the peace against David Martin was also dismissed. In the case of J. D. Jost, charged with disturbing the peace of a contractor named Ruggles, the latter agreed to have the charge dismissed if the defendant would promise to pay for the cost of the trial, which he did.

John Heppy was sent to the County Jail for forty days for being a common drunkard. Frank Murphy was ordered to appear for trial for disturbing the peace of a contractor named Ruggles, the latter agreed to have the charge dismissed if the defendant would promise to pay for the cost of the trial, which he did.

IT WAS NOT RED.

How Mrs. Lopez Room Was Painted While She Slept.

Mrs. Annie Lopez, the woman who went to the Police Station on Wednesday night and stated that she had been robbed of $25 in a down-town lodging-house, and that she woke up in a different room from the one in which she went to bed, has not yet recovered her money. Chief Drew has learned, however, that she was not removed from one room to another. It seems she went to bed about 10 o'clock at night and did not get up until 11 o'clock. She had no key to the door, and some unknown person or persons entered the room and painted the door and woodwork in blue. The number of the room was also obliterated. She did not recognize her apartment when she awoke, and could not imagine in what room or place she was.

The Deceased Pioneer.

There was a large attendance yesterday afternoon at the funeral of the late Wyman Mitchell, which took place from his daughter's residence, Rev. J. von Herlich officiating. The exercises at the grave were conducted by El Dorado Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F., of which deceased had been a member.

Apparenty Out of His Head.

Yesterday afternoon a man who gives his name as John Wirtz created quite a scene in Judge Armstrong's Court by demanding that he be paid certain moneys that are due him. He talked in such an incoherent manner that the Judge had him locked up to await examination for insanity.

Bell's Lot Sale To-day.

At 11 o'clock to-day Bell & Co. will sell a residence lot on Capitol avenue, only one and one-half blocks from K street, corner of Fifth, being the northwest corner of Fifth and M streets. The lot is 100 feet by 160, and will be subdivided into six lots.

The Fruit Season.

Cherries and apricots are growing rapidly, and the crop of the former will be very heavy. It is expected that there will be ripe cherries in market in less than three weeks. Many of the fruit of the Union, was in the city yesterday and informed a Record-Union reporter that he had no doubt they would begin making shipments of cherries to the East within a month.

Visiting Red Men.

Night before last the members of the United Order of Red Men in this city were honored by a visit from Grand Chief J. Bernheim of Santa Cruz, Grand Secretary J. Remetch of San Francisco, and Grand Marshal F. Wickham of Los Angeles. After the conclusion of its business, Sacramento Union entertained the visitors at a banquet in the Old Fellows' banquet hall.

PROGRESS OF SANITATION.

Dr. Cluness Reads an Interesting Paper to the State Medical Society.

The Sacramento doctors held very well at the annual election of officers of the State Medical Society. W. R. Cluness was elected President; T. W. Huntington was elected one of the Vice-Presidents; G. C. Simmons, one of the Assistant Secretaries; J. H. Parkinson, Treasurer, and W. A. Briggs was given a place on the Board of Censors.

A paper was read by Dr. Cluness, of Sacramento, on the hygiene and the adulteration of food and drugs, entitled "Recent Progress of Sanitation in California and Our Present Sanitary Needs." After speaking of the sanitary needs of the State, Dr. Cluness devoted his attention to the slaughter-houses of the large cities and the cremation of offensive nuisances.

"Public abattoirs have always met the strenuous opposition of stock dealers and butchers, and are called upon to be erected in California. On the other hand, it is found that all will become satisfied with the plan when accustomed to it, but it may be presumed that the same will be true of the sanitary progress which they would like to dispense with. This, however, is not the case. Most concerns consumers, and should be dispensed with."

The experience of San Francisco within the last two years satisfies me that the sanitary reform ought no longer to be postponed. It is the true solution of the whole problem that can be effected by the determined and persistent action of the local authorities. This step means war, but it cannot long be deferred and the difficulty will only increase by postponement. The example, once set by San Francisco, can be followed by the other cities with diminished effort."

HELD TO ANSWER.

Murray, Wagner, Emerson and Armstrong Held to Answer by Judge Buckley yesterday for receiving stolen property, knowing the same to have been stolen. The defendants were the parties at whose house Wagner, Murray and Emerson, the young crooks who burglarized several bars in this city, had disposed of their goods.

When Wagner was faced upon the witness stand he tried to shield Armstrong as well as he could, but Murray was out for him, and told a straight story. He said that himself, Emerson and Wagner had entered as many as ten bars, but that things worth stealing were only six or seven. The wifegone of the goods in this case, Murray said, they threw into the slough. Murray said that he and Wagner had the goods he stored for them were stolen, and had asked him (Murray) to try and get a watch, as he had no money.

When the City Attorney asked Murray where he became acquainted with Armstrong, he replied that he had become acquainted with him at Folsom Prison about five years ago.

PUNISHED ENOUGH.

The Governor Explains Why He Pardoned Patrick Morrissey.

The Governor on yesterday granted a pardon to Patrick Morrissey, convicted in Humboldt county in February, 1886, of assault to murder and sentenced to prison for eleven years. The Governor says: "Morrissey is a young man who, prior to his trouble, bore an excellent reputation among his neighbors for sobriety, integrity and general good character, and his family is one of the best in the community in which they reside. He committed this act in a moment of passion, without premeditation, and in my opinion, has already suffered enough by the punishment and disgrace. He has earned, with credits—all of which he has served—over two years of his term in prison, and is truly repentant prisoner. His pardon is requested by the jury, by the party injured and by the Mayor and members of the City Council of Eureka. Senator Frank McDougall, William H. Pratt and a large number of the prominent citizens of Eureka and vicinity."

Some men grabbed him, and no serious damage was done.

Serious Charge.

Late yesterday afternoon an altercation occurred between B. H. Chapman, janitor at Old Fellows Temple, and P. H. Dodge, the groveler, who has his factory in the building. During the affray Dodge received a blow over one eye, which made an ugly-looking wound, and was required for repairs. He swore out a warrant for Chapman's arrest, charging him with intent to commit murder.

A DEAD BEAT.

One of That Breed Who Has Been Working for the Town.

For some time past a fellow has been playing the confidence game on the usually good-natured and unsuspecting people of this city. He went about showing a Bishop Wingfield of this Episcopal Diocese, authorizing him to receive subscriptions for a church to be erected in another county.

He is said to have collected a few dollars in this way, but the scheme did not pan out to suit him, so he tried another. Representing himself to be the owner of a hotel at Lathrop, he directed him to a place and had her to call him to a Wilson and called upon that lady at her hotel. The lady referred him to a widow named Mills, and called upon that lady at her hotel. He is said to have collected a few dollars in this way, but the scheme did not pan out to suit him, so he tried another.

Her new employer asked and was given $250 for the same. The next morning he requested her to lend him $50 until he could get a check of $150 from the bank. Mills went out to get the money, and while she was absent he left the house and has not returned. A pair of $12 trousers, belonging to a lodger, are also missing.
