

CLOSING SCENES.

Wind-Up of the Democratic Convention at San Jose.

JOHN P. DUNN FOR CONTROLLER.

Judges Coffey and Smith Nominated for the Supreme Court—W. C. Hendricks Renominated.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

SAN JOSE, August 22.—When the Convention met at 10:15 this morning there was a noticeable falling off in the attendance.

The galleries were nearly deserted and the seats reserved in the back part of the hall for the spectators was for the most part vacant.

After the nomination for Governor was settled the interest in the proceedings seemed to flag.

A quarter of an hour was wasted in a wrangle over the question of levying an additional assessment of fifty cents on each delegate to pay the attaches. It was voted down and the Santa Clara County Committee promised to look after the matter.

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE.

The nominations for two Associate Justices of the Supreme Court were next declared in order.

Sam Braunhart of San Francisco presented the name of Judge James V. Coffey, "the friend of the widow and orphan."

He said that Judge Coffey was one of the strongest candidates who could be placed on the ticket, for he ran 10,000 votes ahead of Mayor Pond and 3,000 ahead of Grover Cleveland.

Jackson Temple placed Judge John G. Pressly of Sonoma in nomination. Judge Pressly, he said, possessed all the qualifications necessary for honorably and faithfully fulfilling the duties of a Justice of the Supreme Court.

C. E. McLaughlin of Plumas, in a short but telling speech, presented the name of Judge John W. Armstrong of Sacramento was placed in nomination by Joseph Rothchild of San Francisco.

F. A. Cutter of Eureka placed Judge James E. Murphy of Del Norte in nomination. The claims of Attorney-General George A. Johnson for a place on the Supreme bench were ably presented by Henry E. Highton of San Francisco.

The nomination of Judge James E. Murphy was seconded by M. E. C. Munday of Los Angeles.

Steve White, who followed Munday, placed Colonel George A. Smith in nomination.

E. V. Price of Butte seconded the nomination of Judge Armstrong.

T. J. Hart of Colusa endorsed the name of Judge Coffey.

Judge Snowball of Yolo seconded the nomination of Judge Pressly.

The nomination of Judge Pressly was seconded by George R. B. Hayes of San Francisco.

W. A. Harris of San Bernardino seconded the nomination of Colonel Smith. The roll-call was then ordered.

An attempt was made to vote the San Francisco delegation solid. The Chairman announced that the delegation gave Coffey 48 votes and Armstrong 14.

The friends of Judge Coffey insisted on the roll being called, and it so ordered.

The result was that Coffey got 76 votes—a gain of 28, while Armstrong only received 119—a loss of 19. The call of the other counties proceeded. When the roll-call had been finished, but before the vote was announced, San Joaquin changed her vote and went solid for Coffey.

San Francisco next changed 90 votes from Smith to Coffey. The votes given from the delegation for Coffey and Pressly then were changed to Armstrong.

El Dorado tried to stem the tide by changing from Pressly to Smith.

San Francisco again changed, and gave Coffey and Armstrong each 144 votes. Three cheers were given for Coffey, and the few spectators in the gallery applauded.

San Diego next gave 10 more votes to Coffey, and 10 more to Armstrong.

A scene of wild excitement followed when Los Angeles changed her vote and gave Coffey 46 and Smith the same number of votes.

When order was restored and the clerks were trying to straighten out the tally sheets, Solano changed her vote so it stood 12 for Coffey and 12 for Armstrong.

Alameda next fell into line and gave 29 to Coffey and the same to Smith. Cheering and waving of hats greeted the announcement.

In an endeavor to straighten out the vote the roll was ordered called by counties to get the changes. There were loud shouts of disapproval, and a hundred delegates were on their feet talking at the same time.

COFFEY AND SMITH NOMINATED. An effort was made to secure an adjournment, but the majority of the delegates were against the motion.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

Nominations for Attorney-General came next. G. G. Coucher of Mariposa nominated Walker C. Graves of San Francisco.

Frank Nichols of Stockton nominated John R. Kittrell of Stanislaus.

Ad. C. Hinkson of Sacramento nominated United States District Attorney John T. Carey, but Carey withdrew from the contest.

The ballot resulted: Graves 469 and Kittrell 165. Graves was declared nominated.

SURVEYOR-GENERAL.

H. W. Hatton of Los Angeles, Stanley C. Boon of Humboldt, and Preston R. Davis of Sonoma, were put in nomination for Surveyor-General.

The vote stood on the first ballot: H. W. Hatton 271, S. W. Boon 362 and P. R. Davis 6. Boon's nomination was made unanimous.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

W. A. C. Smith of Napa, Charles C. Smith of Marin, E. Clark of Santa Cruz, W. T. Weicker of Berkeley, and H. Clay Hall of San Mateo, were put in nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The vote on the first ballot was: W. A. C. Smith 42, C. C. Smith 141, Clark 92, Weicker 157, Hall 209.

As 320 votes were necessary for choice, another vote was ordered.

The second ballot for State Superintendent of Schools resulted thus: W. H. C. Smith 34, E. C. Clark 47, Henry C. Hall 440, W. C. Weicker 10, C. H. Smith 46. Hall was declared nominated.

CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT.

For Clerk of the Supreme Court, R. B. Orr, Robert W. L. Ashe of Fresno, and A. C. Farnsworth nominated J. D. Spencer, the present incumbent.

Spencer was nominated on the first ballot by 406 votes, to 223 for Ashe.

Some of the street sprinklers have been suiting their personal convenience this week as to the time and manner of doing their work. The people who pay them are to be at their sweet mercy.

To-morrow Evening's Concert. There will be an open-air concert at the Plaza to-morrow evening, the music for which will be furnished by the Huszar Band, George C. Holbrook conductor. An Expensive Shopping Tour. Mrs. Charles Locke and Miss Annie Byers, of Arbnckle, Colusa county, were about the city a couple of days ago doing some shopping. After they returned to their hotel, one of the ladies missed her purse, which is supposed to have been mislaid somewhere during the shopping tour. The purse contained $90 in money and a $100 note. The latter is valuable only to the owner, while the coin will be a legal tender in any person's hands. The ladies have no idea where they lost the purse.

Marseilles, in France, is the headquarters for the sale of false hair. Twenty bales of Chinese human hair recently arrived there, and Yum Yum's and Fou Fou's headgear will be manufactured into curls, frizzes and crimps for American ladies.

OAKLAND'S NEW PITCHER.

THE SACRAMENTOS HAMMER HIS CURVES MOST UNMERRIFULLY.

Poor, unfortunate Stockton Surrendered Another Game to the "Dripples" of San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 22.—The Oaklanders were terribly muddled on their own grounds to-day. They had their new Eastern pitcher in the box, but the Senators won by a score of 20 to 5.

It was a nice game for three innings. Then Shaw grew unsteady, the Senators began to hit, and Oakland to make errors. The jig was then up with the Colts.

Shaw has plenty of curves, shoots and speed, but judging by to-day's game he is an inferior pitcher to Casey and Cobb.

The fielding of the Senators was fair to the latter part of the game, when the visitors put up ragged ball. But they were too far ahead to lose. Score:

Stockton Plays Second Fiddle Again With San Francisco. STOCKTON, August 22.—The San Francisco outbatted the Stocktons to-day, winning easily by a score of 6 to 2.

Lookabaugh pitched great ball, allowing only four singles and giving not a base on balls.

The feature of the game was the batting of Everett. Out of four times up, he got four hits—a triple, two doubles and one single. He was twice robbed of triples by being thrown out at second base, Fudger in left field making splendid assists.

Erbright and Veach carried off the fielding honors for San Francisco, and Wilson for Stockton. Score:

To-morrow's Game. There will be a ball game here to-morrow at 3 o'clock between the Sacramentos and Stocktons. Harper and Perrott are scheduled to do the box work for their respective clubs.

The two clubs play at Stockton on the morning of the same day.

THE CIRCUS.

John Robinson's Circus and Menagerie to Exhibit To-day. John Robinson's circus and menagerie is to exhibit at Agricultural Park at 1 o'clock this afternoon and at 8 o'clock this evening.

At 10 o'clock this morning there will be a street parade, concerning which much promise is made and the testimony of all the press where Robinson's show has been that he makes good every promise to the public either or otherwise authorized.

On rare occasions the RECORD-UNION has fully and in detail set forth the announced attractions of the mammoth exhibition. It is not necessary, therefore, to go over the ground again.

It is sufficient to say that Robinson's is the largest circus and menagerie establishment ever brought to the city; that it really embraces ten shows in one; that it has a remarkably large number of novelties in the zoological department, and no less than one hundred and twenty in the latter; that it has the champion female rider of the world, Miss Demott, and the champion equestrian families of the world, the Hollands and Demotts; that there are ten clowns, with famous John Lowlow at the head; and that all our exchanges agree in saying that Robinson's exhibition is in every respect the superior of any that has visited this coast, and that its contracts with the public are kept to the letter.

SPECIAL OFFICERS.

Those Selected on Last Monday Will Probably Not Be Discharged. At the last meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners, held on Monday afternoon, fifteen special officers were appointed to serve during the State Fair, but as an agreement could not be reached as to what the new men should commence duty, it was given out that the meeting be declared off until the Mayor returned from a trip to San Jose.

Yesterday, on his return, Mayor Comstock was asked by the Record-Union reporter when the Commissioners would meet again. He replied that he did not know there was to be another meeting. He considered that the fifteen men appointed would serve, and as far as he was concerned he did not see that there was any necessity for another meeting.

Chief Clerk said it was understood by the three Commissioners that another meeting was to be held. The list of names announced did not suit him.

Judge Buckley was willing to let the action of the Board at the last meeting stand. There might be more trouble, he said, if it was sought to make any changes.

REMINISCENT.

FIENDISH DEED OF ONE OF THE RECENT ESCAPES FROM FOLSOM.

Matt Blumer's Murder of His Companion in Ruba County Eight Years Ago—His Own Confession.

The escape of Matthias Blumer from Folsom State Prison recalls to memory a brutal murder committed close to our city eight years ago, says the Marysville Democrat.

Blumer and Fred Schindler were working on Regli's milk ranch (now known as Schimpf's dairy). Blumer murdered his companion in the barn at an early hour in the morning of October 23, 1882, and at midnight dumped his body into Simerly's slough. The body was found several days afterwards, and suspicion pointed to Blumer, who was arrested on October 27th, and a few days afterwards a charge of murder was placed against him. At the examination in the Police Court the testimony of Joseph Regli, Dr. C. C. Harrington and Marshal Maben was taken. The Marshal testified that Blumer had on the previous day made a confession to him. The confession, as repeated by the Marshal, was substantially as follows:

"I killed Schindler on the morning of Monday, October 23d. He had not been on good terms with me, and wanted me to leave the ranch. He was jealous of me on account of a woman. On the morning of the homicide Schindler got up first and harnessed the horses for Regli; when Regli drove away Schindler went back to bed. I got up and fed the cows under my care. Schindler came to the barn about the time I got through feeding. He was in a bad humor and swore at me, saying that I had taken all the feed from the trough and left nothing but water. In trying to get some of the cows into the proper places Schindler came into the passage-way connecting the two main divisions of the barn. I was standing in the passage way, leaning on the handle of a heavy rearing broom. When Schindler came up he called me a— and made a thrust at me with the pitch-fork. I dodged, and the fork struck the wall beside me, doing me no harm. I then struck an upward blow at him with the broom, striking him on the chin. The blow made him stagger back, and as he threw up his hands his right hand caught hold of a hammer that was hanging on the wall behind him. He raised the hammer to strike, and I caught hold of it and took it from him. In the scuffle I hit him on the head with the hammer, and he fell to the floor. I hit him again a number of times, and when I saw that I had killed him I was frightened. I hid his body in a manger at the northeast corner of the barn under a heap of hay. The blood was hanging on the floor and got Schindler's valise and hid it under the barn floor. I also hid the cap in the same way. When Regli came back I told him that Schindler had gone away to look for better wages. About half-past 10 o'clock that night, when all was still, I harnessed the milk team to the malt wagon and put the body into the wagon. Then I drove north along the road that runs inside the levee, and turned into a road running west; when I got to Simerly's slough I threw the body in, and drove back home. I killed him in self-defense."

He told officer Clark that he would sooner be hanged than be sent to the State Prison. He was not hanged, however, as the jury rendered a verdict of "guilty of murder in the first degree," and the punishment was fixed at imprisonment for life.

Judge Keyser sentenced him. The jury would not have been so severe if evidence had been produced to corroborate the statement he had made to Marshal Maben.

ANOTHER PRIZE.

Messrs. Haggin and Mackey Purchase a Stallion in Ireland. William Fawcett, of this city, lately received a letter from John Mackey, dated at Dublin, Ireland, whither he had gone with J. B. Haggin to purchase some Irish horses, on which they had their eyes, for importation to the Rancho del Paso breeding farm in this county. Mr. Mackey writes that they had already secured the thoroughbred stallion Tactus, eight years old, a bay with dark points, for which they paid $30,000. This horse is grandly bred, being by The Hermit, dam by Young Melbourne; second dam by Young Annonie, by Stockwell; third dam by Star, by Duke of Devon; fourth dam, Miss Sarah, by Stockwell.

With this addition to the Australian sire, Darbin and Sir Mabel, and the grand American thoroughbred now on the famous Rancho del Paso, Mr. Haggin will have an aggregation of racing sires that no other breeder in the world can equal.

Have Taxpayers Rights? EDS. RECORD-UNION: On Thursday night a couple of citizens, who pay taxes and thus help to defray the expense of having the streets sprinkled in very bad fashion, were crossing M street at Seventh, and made an effort to pass in front of a sprinkling cart that was leaving a deluge of water and mud in its wake. The driver of the cart, seeing that they were aiming to avoid walking through mud, whipped up his team apparently so as to head them off, which he did, and as the nearest crossing was approached turned on an extra head of water, so that the pedestrians had to do the wading act.

This is a small matter, but it only serves to illustrate the disposition of some of the city's hirelings to treat with contempt the people who pay them for their work.
