

DAILY RECORD-UNION

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1890. "LOW-DOWN" JOURNALISM.

The New York Times is a pessimist. It sees nothing good in anything. It is a continual scolder. Its one and only aim seems to be to find fault, and especially with the party in power.

Its latest growl is about the silver bill, which it asserts was passed with the attaching suspicion that some of the members of Congress were speculating in silver.

That is the argument of the dishonest and the cowardly; of the man who is always impugning the motives of his fellows; of the person who suspects that every man has his price, and who can form no conception of native honesty.

It is a fact, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum and other diseases of afection arising from impure state or low condition of the blood, overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite and gives strength to every part of the system.

THE BILL IN A NUTSHELL. Henry Cabot Lodge, the author of the measure, comes to the defense of the election supervision bill, in an able paper in the North American Review for September.

It is not a force bill; it does not interfere in any way with local elections or local government. It is not a force bill; it does not interfere in any way with local elections or local government.

CONDENSED TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES from All Parts of the World. The Australian Government is chartering steamers to bring coal for the use of railways.

THE FINANCIAL MINISTER OF Austria is blamed for a misdeed in regard to providing protection against floods. It is claimed that insufficient appropriations have been made.

Two men, while mining on the east side of Moran mountain, about twelve miles from Spokane Falls Monday, smelled a strong odor of a dead human body, and upon investigation found the decomposed remains of a young man about thirty years of age.

Mrs. Debra Westfall, while traveling from Parkersburg, W. Va., to Mexico with her seven children, is so unaccountably manner lost on a night of five years, between El Paso, Tex., and Sierra Blanca, the mother was wild with grief and inconsolable when she arrived at El Paso.

California's last session is beginning to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, the commission merchant of 127 and 128 North Commercial Street, was one of the first to test Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla in sick headaches.

THE CONFIRMATION OF THE AUCTION sale of the Estate of LORINDA WASHBURN, deceased, will take place in the Superior Court on Friday, September 13th, at 10 o'clock.

JOHN A. SUTTER. A Pioneer Who Insists That He was Not the Hero or Origin of the Gold Discovery.

Enrico Picozzi, of the San Francisco Call of September 8th, appeared a history of the pioneers of California, including John A. Sutter. The whole article is of the usual contradictory style, and inaccurate as to dates, etc.

These declarations of Mr. Sutter are mainly true, but they were acted independently, being influenced by the advice of others. He was not an adventurer, but circumstances forced him from country to country.

Final Arrangements for its Improvement to be Made To-day. This is the day set for the final conference between the Supervisors and City Trustees to decide upon a plan of action in the matter of widening and deepening the drainage canal from Snodgrass slough to this city.
