

NEARLY SHOT OUT.

THE STOCKTONS WAKE UP AND DRIVE THE SACRAMENTOS.

The Gas City Men Bunched Their Hints—The Oakland Fall Victims to the San Franciscos.

STOCKTON, October 24th.—For eight innings to-day the Sacramentos were not in the game with Stockton, but in the last inning two hits and Hoffman's error allowed the Senators one run and saved them a shut-out.

Harper again pitched for Sacramento, and was not hit hard, but the Stocktons made hits just when they were wanted.

Armstrong lined out a triple with three men on bases, and Fudger made a sacrifice, which led to two runs.

Kilroy pitched fine ball.

club would eat humble pie at the dictation of the London Field and a few dissatisfied British yachtsmen will be agreeably disappointed when they read what occurred at the club.

Fred Schaffer, a good-looking young German on his way from San Francisco to the Fatherland, thought to see the town while waiting for a vessel to sail from New York.

He made the acquaintance of two young men, who suggested Mr. Schaffer's case, and when he awoke his watch, money and letter of credit on a Hanover bank for $1,000 were gone.

The unusual circumstances of a husband being called as a witness in his wife's behalf in her suit against him for divorce was presented before Judge Andrews of the New York Supreme Court Special Term.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchings asks a decree of divorce from her husband, Augustus F. Hutchings. He had put in no defense and was suspended by his wife to prove her charges of infidelity.

At Santa Ana, Lloyd, a 10-year-old son of Mrs. S. W. Smith, was seriously injured while racing horseback with another boy this afternoon.

The horse in turning suddenly fell and the boy fell from the ground with such violence as to fracture the skull, just back of the crown. Several pieces of the skull were removed and the wound dressed, but evidence is hardly to be expected.

MILITARY CRITICISMS.

An Army Officer Discusses the Recent English Insurrections.

New York, October 24th.—A gentleman, who stands high in the department of the army, talks with some vigor of the recent disclosures of insubordination and rebellion in the English Insurrections.

"It is all well enough," he said, "for careless correspondents and critics to make light of the doings of the Grand Guards and the East Surrey regiment. But these things are alarming indications of conditions in the British army which will be taken advantage of promptly in the War Offices of France, Germany, Austria and Russia."

"When two of the crack regiments revolt against orders for foreign service within a few months, and are subsequently ordered away in disgrace and punishment, it indicates that the general structure of the British army is in a decidedly precarious condition. If any Russian, Austrian, Italian or French regiment should make such an exhibition of cowardice and revolt it would be punished at once in the most summary manner and an investigation of the entire military system ordered at once. When I say punished, I mean the men, both of rank and the line, would be degraded. The result of the mistake in treating the riots of the Grenadier Guards is that the East Surrey regiment has followed exactly in their footsteps, and there seems to be as much militant sentiment over this collection of foolish warriors as there was over the Grenadiers. I wonder what the present representatives of England's once invincible body of soldiers would say if they were ordered to such duty as our men have to perform on the plains and in the extreme Northwest."

TRAIN WRECKED.

The Denver Vestibule Train Derailed and Passengers Hurt.

TOPEKA (Kan.), October 24th.—The Denver vestibule train on the Santa Fe, which left here to-day, was derailed while going around a sharp curve at a high rate of speed near Waukesha.

The mail car turned bottom-up, the express and baggage cars were toppled over on the other side, two coaches turned crosswise on the track, while the chair car, sleeper and the transit car fell over on their sides, completing an almost total wreck of the train.

No one was killed, but many were injured. Up to a late hour to-night no deaths have occurred, but some of the injured are in a critical condition.

The injured are: W. F. Jones and Harry Stone, mail agents; Mrs. Ellen Stone of New York; F. L. Turner, express messenger; T. T. Johnson, baggage manager; Hank Lindsey of Topeka; Mattie O'Connell of Chicago; Mrs. Dr. Deasie of Telluride, Col.; E. M. Beasie; Mrs. George T. Freese of Fresno, Cal.; Mrs. J. McFarland of Ohio; S. Sylvester of Milton, Cal.; D. T. Farmington, Lisbon, Ill.; J. J. Buckley, brakeman; Elizabeth Babbitt, Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. W. J. McClure, Kansas City; F. A. Fair, Albuquerque, N. M.; G. F. Reppy, Denver; Solon E. Rose, Albuquerque; Carl E. Hawkins, Aspen, Col.; and J. A. Colton of Colorado Springs; Mrs. J. White, Oakland, Cal.

COAL WILL BOOM.

No More Natural Gas for the Puddling Furnaces.

PITTSBURGH, October 24th.—A sensation was created to-day in iron and steel circles by the announcement that the Philadelphia Gas Company had decided to discontinue supplying natural gas to the puddling furnaces for fuel. There are 1,000 puddling furnaces in the city and over half of them will be shut down as the result of the order. This will necessitate an enormous expense in changing the construction of the furnaces. In addition there will be heavy added cost owing to the higher price of coal, as most of the puddling furnaces work with the gas people at a very low rate.

The gas people claim that the move is not made on account of any scarcity in gas, but that it is made to much greater advantage in private houses and at much higher rates.

The estimated daily consumption of natural gas in this city is equal to 25,000 tons of coal.

The shutting off of gas from the furnaces will give an almost incredible impetus to the coal mining industry.

ROBBING INSURANCE COMPANIES.

A Sharp Individual Who Reaped Considerable Profit.

New York, October 24th.—The Chronicle, an insurance journal, in the current issue gives the details of a conspiracy that was being worked on for some time, the intent of which being to defraud life insurance companies.

A certain person in New York has been engaged in insuring the lives of a number of men of dissolute habits for moderate amounts, the policies all being made payable in a manner that would allow the conspirator to reap the profits. His plan was to take these men and put them under a course of training until they were in good physical condition, and then insure them. The men would be paid $50 or $75, and the insurance companies would be defrauded of the sum of some ten or twelve hundred dollars.

This Morning's Fire Bell. McMahon's circus pulled up stakes last night, and before leaving, the employees set fire to a quantity of straw and other rubbish used on the lot. It was blazing up merrily about 1:15 this morning, and the watchman at the Phoenix Mill saw it and turned in an alarm from box 23, at Thirteenth and J streets.

Italy justly claims to have led the revival of cremation in Europe. The first crematory in Italy was established in Milan on January 26, 1876, and on December 31, 1888, twenty-one communes in the country had crematories in constant operation, and twenty-one more had them in course of completion or in contemplation.

In this matter Italy is returning to a usage that belonged to her classic period, but from a sanitary point of view she was compelled to adopt cremation. Five years ago, out of 8,258 communes, 394 had no cemeteries, in 274 the dead were interred in churches or receptacles near the churches, and in 628 the only means of disposing of the corpses of the poor was to throw them into a common pit. In other words, the mode of burial in war, and excusable only on the ground of necessity, was the established everyday custom in 628 Italian communes five years ago. With the introduction of cremation a change has been effected in the system of burial, and last year 8,008 communes had cemeteries of their own, while the common charnel pits had decreased from 815 in 1885 to 287.
