The present bill exceeds the amount appropriated for 1880 by $1,255,933.47. Among the other prominent items of the bill are the following: For public printing and binding, $1,600,000, including $750,000 for the proceedings and debates of Congress; for expenses of engraving and printing government notes, bonds, stamps, &c. for propagation of food fishes, $26,500; expenses of national currency, $120,000; fuel, light and water for public buildings, $380,000; to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to provide suitable accommodations for the storage of coin, $100,000; for current expenses of the Government Hospital for Insane, $138,000; for construction and repairs at the different navy yards and stations, $300,000. Two Fires Last Night. Fire broke out in Ahorne & Thornton's stable, No. 1710 Tenth street, about 7:40 o'clock last night and the flames spread to the adjoining sheds and stables of Albert McIntosh, No. 1708 Tenth, and James Desper, No. 1712, and also the Liberty school building, which was damaged to the extent of $75. The total damage was about $500, fully insured. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

An alarm was turned in from box 32 about 8:30 o'clock by General Brown for a fire in house No. 1014 Seventeenth street, occupied by Major Bell. The damage amounted to about $600. There was no insurance.

Ocean Cable Flashes. The British Parliament yesterday began work in earnest for the short session. The foreign policy of the Liberal administration was further developed. The propriety of allowing Chas. Bradlaugh to take his seat was referred to a select committee.

Boyd, the oarsman, sailed for America. Emperor William thinks the new German Church bill will settle existing difficulties between church and state.

Fighting has been renewed in Afghanistan. PRESIDENT HAYES' trip to Hampton was a most agreeable one and the proficiency of the students there pleased him. He was struck with the peculiar names of the Indian students, some of which are attached in order to give an idea of what the teachers have to grapple with, though a good many of them have assumed other names: Bear's Heart, Yellow Bird, Bushooter, Otaga-Strong, Pamin, (one who hoots when he walks), Pahitachella, Nowatisk, Zienzi, Aygon-whoa, An-hatch-klah, Ties-ah-uph, Shu-tah-nay, To-tohn-kah, Skah-wecha-ka-ka-ka, (lays out of doors) E-corrup-ta-ha, Karunah, U-ha-ko-tum-pa, Bull Head, Medicine Rock, Woman, Taso-gin-an-win.

Peter Negley, Assistant United States Treasurer, of Baltimore, and proprietor of the Hagerstown Herald and Torch. He belonged to a long-lived family. His father, mother and seven children constituted the family, and their ages are as follows: 48, 73, 80, 83, 84, 86, 87, 87 and 88.

The green-legged Baltimore ball club came over here yesterday and squared themselves for an easy defeat of the Nationals. They failed miserably. The Nationals got on to Critchley's pitching, opened their shoulders and pounded the sheepskin all over the field. The result was a bad defeat of the visitors. Score, Nationals 5, Baltimore 1.

Mr. Tilden says he does not want delegates to the Cincinnati convention instructed to vote for him.

Arraignments and Sentences.

In the Criminal Court to-day Frank Churchill, who was convicted of the larceny of a horse and buggy from Lewis H. Jones, was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year. The motion for a new trial in the case of Thomas Carey, the marine convicted of picking the pockets of Mrs. Gross, was overruled and a sentence of one year in the penitentiary imposed. Budd Warner was arraigned in two cases of burglary and entered a plea of not guilty in each case. The Court ordered the discharge from custody of Mollie Jarboe, a witness in the case against Andrew Lewis, detained in jail by the United States. A motion for a new trial in the case of George Brown, convicted of perjury, was argued at length by Col. Cook and Assistant District Attorney Perry.

Monte Men Committed. Two white men, named Frederick Wayland and George Wilmot, were tried in the Police Court to-day as vagrants. Sergeant Saffell testified that he arrested them yesterday afternoon with a lot of cards and other paraphernalia of three-card monte men in their possession. Another witness testified to seeing them pitching cards at the corner of Fifteenth and R streets, and trying to inveigle persons into the game. One pretended to be a countryman and was betting against the other. They were sent to the workhouse for ninety days each in default of bonds.

Local Sports. The Hanlan-Riley boat race is an assured fact now, and each oarsman is in regular training for next Wednesday's contest. Riley is out in a card in reply to a published statement that he believed Hanlan was the best man, in which he says: "I do not consider Mr. Hanlan invincible, and he will have all he can do to win the race with me, if he does win. So far as I am concerned, I promise there will not be a repetition of Wednesday's fiasco. I shall do all that an earnest man can do to sustain the honor of the American flag. I mean business, and shall put it to win."

Accident to a Steamer. The steamer Mary Washington, with excursionists on board, ran upon a rock and stove a hole in her side while attempting to affect a landing in Coogan bay yesterday afternoon. At first it was thought that she was in danger of sinking, but the damages were repaired, and though she did not arrive here on time last night, she got up and landed her passengers safely this morning about 5:30 o'clock.

A Juvenile Assault. A very small boy named Joseph Van Horn, stood at the bar of the Police Court to-day, charged with an assault on a girl, named Kate Soper, and the testimony showed that he had pushed her down, and that two of her teeth were knocked out. The boy cried as though his heart would break, and could not tell the Court anything about the assault. The Court imposed a fine of $3 without costs.

An Amazonian Fight. Eliza Cudlip, colored, was tried in the Police Court to-day for an assault on Jennie Wood, also colored, who testified that Eliza came to her bedroom, knocked her down with the butt of a heavy whip and then jumped on and beat her. It was shown that there were extenuating circumstances in connection with the assault, and the Court imposed a nominal fine of $5.

Larceny of a Feather Bed. A colored girl, named Mary Brooks, was charged in the Police Court to-day with the larceny of a feather bed from Salina Waters, who testified that she stole the bed while the witness' house was on fire. It being shown that the defendant was merely removing the bed to a place of safety, the court dismissed the case.

A Coat Thief. It was shown in the Police Court to-day that George Smith stole a coat from Jeremiah Shehan and Judge Snell thought sixty days in jail would be a benefit to him and a satisfaction to the community.

Not the Color Question. In your report of the Criminal Court proceedings of Thursday and Friday I am represented as having raised the color question. Now I ask you to do me the justice to correct that statement. I said nothing in reference to color or to the color question.

I simply said what I did on account of the witness being a woman. It was not necessary for me to raise the color question. Very respectfully, May 22, 1880. THEODORE C. RAY.

Postponed. The Sunday School mass meeting has been indefinitely postponed on account of the weather.

The EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE of the Society of the Army and Navy of the Confederate States of Baltimore, arranging for the dedication of the Confederate memorial monument at Winchester, Va., decided yesterday that Mrs. T. J. Jackson, the widow of the late Stonewall Jackson, and her only child, Miss Julia Jackson, be invited to unveil the monument. Mrs. Jackson is now residing at the Albion House, Baltimore, and Miss Jackson is attending Mrs. Pogram's boarding school in that city.

A MYSTERIOUS ROBBERY.

Sneak Thieving at the District Building. A mysterious robbery occurred at the District building last night. The vault of the Auditor's Office was entered and the contents of the cash box—$20 in money—stolen. There were a few checks for small amounts in the box, which remained untouched. The money was to pay laborers. There is not the slightest clue to the thief, who must be a person thoroughly acquainted with the building and the habits of the clerks. The vault had been opened in the regular way and the thief must have used the office key or a duplicate, but how he could have obtained either is unknown. The vault was locked as usual by Mr. Robert P. Bradley at the close of office hours yesterday and left the key with the colored messenger, Harris, whose duty it was to lock up the office. Upon opening the office this morning, everything was found in the usual condition, except the cash box which had been broken open and the money removed. The messenger says he locked up the office yesterday as usual and put the key in its accustomed place, where it was found this morning. The facts were reported to the Commissioners and to the police authorities and a searching investigation is being made. The watchmen say that no one was admitted to the building last night. The box was broken open with a poker used in the vault.
