A Sudden Death.

Crowds of people were attracted to the corner of Ninth and M streets this morning, by the sad story of a remarkably sudden and curious death.

Mr. Robert G. Yewell, the proprietor of the large grocery store at the corner of Ninth and M streets northwest, has long been in the habit of rising at a very early hour in the morning. To-day he did not rise at his customary hour, and at seven o'clock his father and confidential clerk became uneasy, and their fears were increased on finding that all knocks at his bedroom door were unanswered.

As the door was locked and apprehensions as to the condition in which Mr. Yewell would be found were entertained, Dr. Leroy M. Taylor who lives a square or two away was sent for, he arrived at half past seven and assisted in breaking open the door.

Mr. Yewell is reported to have been found lying naturally and peacefully, but cold and stiff, showing that death had occurred some hours previous. The rumor that death was caused by heart disease was natural and gained general credence, in spite of the statement of his nearest friends and relatives of the deceased that during the past ten years he had never been heard to complain of any pain or sickness of any kind. The circumstance of Mr. Yewell's long freedom from sickness and his perfect health up to the time of retiring last evening made the matter more inexplicable, and the fact that the gentleman had been very successful and was of a singularly genial disposition dispelled all fears of suicide.

At ten o'clock the theory that apoplexy had caused his sudden death was accepted and continued until about half past eleven, when Coroner Patterson, who, with Dr. Hartigan and others, had held a post mortem examination, gave a certificate of burial of death from congestion of the lungs. Mr. Yewell was an unmarried man and had not reached his thirty-fifth year.

The Census Bureau.

The necessity of a wholesale reduction in the force of the census bureau is so great that the superintendent has determined to dispense at once with the services of all not absolutely essential. As a consequence there is great fear and trembling among the employees, who had hoped that the discharges of several hundred made prior to this time would have been sufficient. One reason for the condition of affairs is the fact that a great many incompetent clerks were absolutely thrust upon the superintendent through the importunities of members of Congress and that a considerable portion of the large appropriations made was drawn on without any corresponding benefit.

In Demand as a Bridemaid.

Miss Sherrill of this city is in demand as a bridemaid; she leaves here this week for Utica, N. Y., where she will officiate as bridemaid for Miss Crouse. The bridegroom elect is Mr. Bartlett, of Hartford, Conn. There will be eight bridesmaids and groomsmen at the wedding, which will be quite a grand affair. Miss Sherrill will also be a bridemaid for Miss Cooke, the daughter of Mr. Pitt Cooke, of Sandusky, O., who is to be married early in June to Mr. Sloan, son of a gentleman well known in railroad circles. At this wedding there will also be eight bridesmaids and groomsmen.

Obituary Solemnities.

The notice of the death of the "Months Man" of Father Barotti excited a good deal of curiosity yesterday, and a large number of people witnessed the ceremonies at St. Augustine's Church. The church was draped throughout with black. The children of the parish schools and members of the church were all present. The requiem mass and choir music formed the principal part of the ceremonies. A large number of priests from other cities were in attendance.

A Hebrew Festival.

"Shebnuth, the feast of Weeks," was celebrated to-day in all of the Hebrew synagogues. It began at sundown last evening and will continue until sundown this evening, although the more orthodox congregations will celebrate the feast two days. It commemorates the event of the revelation of the commandments on Mount Sinai. The different synagogues are handsomely decorated.

Going to the Arctic Region.

Mr. George W. Rice, the popular young photographer, will accompany the Greeley Arctic expedition in that capacity. He was with the Howgate expedition last year and brought back splendid views of Arctic scenery. Mr. Rice will also act as special correspondent for the New York Herald. He will leave this city on Monday next and expects to be gone about two years.

Mt. Vernon Seminary.

The commencement exercises of Mt. Vernon Seminary will take place at the Foundry M. E. Church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. On account of some misunderstanding the invitations will not be ready for distribution until Monday next.

H. G. Pearson."

The National Rifles.—This organization met last night and accepted an invitation from the Alexandria Light Infantry Company to send a team of seven to Glymont June 15 to shoot for a prize to be offered by the mayor of Alexandria. Dr. Carroll Morgan was elected surgeon of the company, with the rank of first lieutenant.

A Good Appetite.—Edward Mason, a colored boy of fourteen years, was dismissed from a charge of larceny in the Police Court to-day, as no witnesses appeared. It is stated Mason entered the eating rooms of Moses Anderson yesterday, and ordering a dinner, which he despatched and called for another, eating a quantity that attracted considerable attention. "The more he ate, the more the wonder grew, how one small boy could carry all he'd chew." After satisfying his delicate appetite the promising youth watched his opportunity and slid for the door. He ran up Pennsylvania to Eleventh, where he was caught.

Good Tidings from the South.—Alabama crops, of all kinds, are reported generally in a flourishing condition. The same may be said of Georgia.

National Hotel Arrivals.—E. P. Torbert and wife, Springfield, O.; N. Whitesides, Mt. Vernon, O.; A. B. Moore, Mt. Vernon, O.; J. J. Fitzpatrick, Lancaster, Pa.; J. C. Edgecombe, Flaggtown, N. C.; M. Oppenheim, N. Y.; W. A. Huffmas, Cincinnati; F. S. Bartram, N. Y.; Wm. Krauss, N. Y.; Warren C. Johnson, Okaloosa, Ia.; G. M. McLeod, Ashville, N. C.; John Thompson, Phila.; H. Rollins, N. Y.; A. B. Larrabee, Balto.; A. Schaub, N. Y.; G. W. Glaser, N. Y.; E. L. Taney, Bangor, Me.; E. Johnson, Balto.; Wm. Scott, Madison, Ind.

The President's Private Secretary.

Mr. J. Stanley Brown, the President's private secretary, left for New York city yesterday on the steamship City of Brussels of the Inman line for England. He goes on a mission in connection with the continued three per cent. bonds, and carried with him a large amount of those bonds to be delivered to the American agency in London. He expects to be back by the 1st of July. During his absence Mr. O. L. Pruden, Assistant Secretary to the President, will be acting private secretary. He occupied that position for the first time yesterday, and had a busy time of it with the legion of Maryland delegations. The rumor in a morning paper that there was to be a change in the office is absurd. Mr. Brown has worked like a beaver since his appointment, and it is a matter of comment that the duties of the office were never better performed and with as much satisfaction to the hosts of callers, who desire his intercession with the President. Mr. Brown's close application to his office has made it necessary that he should seek some relaxation from the responsible duties of his present position. His friends all hope for a speedy return and that the sea breezes will restore the blue of health to his cheek.

It is confidently anticipated that in two or three years more the postal service of the country will become self-sustaining, and in a short time thereafter will yield a handsome profit to the government.

The Lintihum Institute.

The fifth commencement of the Lintihum Institute took place last evening. A salutatory was delivered by J. H. FEVER AND AGUE. Fever and Ague cured for Fifty Cents. There is not a remedial agent in the world that will cure Fever and Ague, and all other Malarious, Bilious, Scarlet, Typhoid, Yellow and other fevers (aided by RADWAY'S PILLS) so quick as RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. Within a few minutes, when taken according to directions, cure Cramps, Spasms, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Sick Headache, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Wind in the Bowels, and all Internal Pains. Travellers should always carry a bottle of Radway's Ready Relief with them. Few drops of water will prevent sickness or pain from change of water. It is better than French brandy or bitters as stimulant. Miners and Lumbermen should always be provided with it.

CAUTION. All remedial agents capable of destroying life by an overdose should be avoided. Morphine, opium, strychnine, arsenic, iocyanus and other powerful remedies relieve the patient during their action, the system, but afterwards, when repeated, may aggravate and increase the suffering, and another dose causes death. There is no necessity for using these uncertain agents, when a positive remedy like RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will stop the most excruciating pain, quicker without entailing the least difficulty in either infant or adult.

THE TRUE RELIEF. RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is the only remedial agent in vogue that will stop pain. FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.
