

DAILY NATIONAL WHIG. WASHINGTON CITY.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, JANUARY 8, 1848.

The Girard College was formally opened on Saturday last in the presence of a large assemblage.

Mr. CRITTENDEN offered an amendment, placing at the discretion of the President...

Mr. DAVIS, of Miss., opposed the amendment, as he said that regulars were better adapted for the service...

Mr. GANN said by saying that about 21,000 including the ten regiments added at last session...

Mr. CALHOUN then remarked that if it were that time to recruit the regular service with a force of only 11,000 men...

Mr. CALHOUN inquired what number of regulars had been recruited and added to the service since the commencement of the war...

Mr. GANN answered by saying that about 21,000 including the ten regiments added at last session...

The question on the amendment was then taken by yeas and nays, when it was lost: Yeas 19, nays 26.

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, when the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Prayer was said by the Rev. Mr. GURLEY.

After the Journal of yesterday was read, Mr. VENABLE rose to a privileged question.

He said that the House passed a resolution yesterday for the relief of the officers of the 11th Maine...

Mr. SAWYER moved to reconsider the vote by which a resolution had passed the House yesterday...

Before the motion was entertained, the SPEAKER said there were several communications from the President...

Mr. JOHNSTON, of Tennessee, called for a division of the question, which was agreed to and the motion to lie on the table having been adopted...

Mr. CALHOUN'S SPEECH. Mr. Calhoun addressed the Senate yesterday with more than his usual eloquence.

His speech occupied about an hour in the delivery. It was characterized by his usual rapidity, analysis, and power of condensation.

He defined his position in regard to Mexico, and gave his views at large as to the policy to be pursued by the Government...

There seems to be a determination on the part of the Administration to conquer and possess all Mexico.

Nothing short of this will satisfy their voracious appetite for plunder. All the force of reason, all the dictates of wisdom and humanity will be feared, availed nothing to arrest their onward march to conquest and dominion.

But though we have been involved in this "unnecessary and unconstitutional war," by the sheerest folly, it is very questionable whether, after having gone so far, we can now stop with safety and honor, till a peace shall be concluded.

We must now stand by our country. On this subject, we refer our readers to some articles from the New York Enquirer, Albany Evening Journal, Utica Daily Herald, &c., which contain sentiments worthy of consideration.

Among the distinguished visitors in Washington, who attended the Assembly last night, were Gen. Quitman and Col. Harney, whose military services and commanding positions made them objects of general admiration.

It is somewhat singular that the last named gentleman was not invited to the dinner given to Gen. Quitman and Shields.

His gallantry and military services certainly entitled him to such a distinction.

The Calcedonia, from Liverpool on the 19th ult., arrived at Boston yesterday evening.

BEAUTIFUL DAY.—After days of impetuous gloom and gloom, with the accompaniments of sleet, rain, and mud, the weather has at last cleared away, and the sun is again visible.

NAVIGATION OPEN.—The Delaware is as free from ice, from the city to the Cape, as in the month of July.

BEATON'S COMIC SINGING, in the Noland Circus, has made quite a sensation at the Arch.

General Quitman and Shields, both Masons, were received by the Grand Lodge of this District, on Monday night last, with great distinction.

They were afterwards conducted to the Columbian Tavern, kept by Mr. Eberbach, who had prepared a sumptuous collation for the company, in which all participated, and spent the evening in that harmony which should always characterize the brotherhood.

Major JOHN P. GAINES, a Representative from the 10th Congressional District of Kentucky, and lately attached to the Army in Mexico, arrived in this city last night.

Major G. appeared in the House of Representatives this morning, was qualified, and took his seat.

The Telegraph Beaten. We clip the following from the New York Tribune of yesterday.

The Washington correspondent of that paper must have an excellent pair of spectacles to see Henry Clay on the 3d instant, as he was then at Cumberland, Maryland, and not here.

He will not reach this city until to-morrow. By Telegraph to the Tribune.

Henry Clay in Washington. HENRY CLAY arrived from the West this morning to attend the Supreme Court.

There has been a cordial greeting among his old friends, and he seems happily to have felt the severity of his journey, accomplished during very inclement weather.

Again: By Telegraph to the Tribune. Mr. CLAY. Philadelphia, Jan. 3-2 p. m. HENRY CLAY has arrived at Cumberland, Md., and will be at Washington to-night.

So much for the accuracy of Washington correspondents.

THIRTIETH CONGRESS.—First Session. WASHINGTON CITY.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 5, 1848.

After the presentation of resolutions and petitions, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day, which was the Ten Regiment Bill.

Mr. CRITTENDEN offered an amendment, placing at the discretion of the President...

Mr. DAVIS, of Miss., opposed the amendment, as he said that regulars were better adapted for the service...

Mr. GANN said by saying that about 21,000 including the ten regiments added at last session...

Mr. CALHOUN then remarked that if it were that time to recruit the regular service with a force of only 11,000 men...

Mr. CALHOUN inquired what number of regulars had been recruited and added to the service since the commencement of the war...

Mr. GANN answered by saying that about 21,000 including the ten regiments added at last session...

The question on the amendment was then taken by yeas and nays, when it was lost: Yeas 19, nays 26.

The bill was then ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, when the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Prayer was said by the Rev. Mr. GURLEY.

After the Journal of yesterday was read, Mr. VENABLE rose to a privileged question.

He said that the House passed a resolution yesterday for the relief of the officers of the 11th Maine...

Mr. SAWYER moved to reconsider the vote by which a resolution had passed the House yesterday...

Before the motion was entertained, the SPEAKER said there were several communications from the President...

Mr. JOHNSTON, of Tennessee, called for a division of the question, which was agreed to and the motion to lie on the table having been adopted...

Mr. CALHOUN'S SPEECH. Mr. Calhoun addressed the Senate yesterday with more than his usual eloquence.

His speech occupied about an hour in the delivery. It was characterized by his usual rapidity, analysis, and power of condensation.

He defined his position in regard to Mexico, and gave his views at large as to the policy to be pursued by the Government...

There seems to be a determination on the part of the Administration to conquer and possess all Mexico.

Nothing short of this will satisfy their voracious appetite for plunder. All the force of reason, all the dictates of wisdom and humanity will be feared, availed nothing to arrest their onward march to conquest and dominion.

But though we have been involved in this "unnecessary and unconstitutional war," by the sheerest folly, it is very questionable whether, after having gone so far, we can now stop with safety and honor, till a peace shall be concluded.

We must now stand by our country. On this subject, we refer our readers to some articles from the New York Enquirer, Albany Evening Journal, Utica Daily Herald, &c., which contain sentiments worthy of consideration.

Among the distinguished visitors in Washington, who attended the Assembly last night, were Gen. Quitman and Col. Harney, whose military services and commanding positions made them objects of general admiration.

It is somewhat singular that the last named gentleman was not invited to the dinner given to Gen. Quitman and Shields.

His gallantry and military services certainly entitled him to such a distinction.

The Calcedonia, from Liverpool on the 19th ult., arrived at Boston yesterday evening.

BEAUTIFUL DAY.—After days of impetuous gloom and gloom, with the accompaniments of sleet, rain, and mud, the weather has at last cleared away, and the sun is again visible.

NAVIGATION OPEN.—The Delaware is as free from ice, from the city to the Cape, as in the month of July.

BEATON'S COMIC SINGING, in the Noland Circus, has made quite a sensation at the Arch.

General Quitman and Shields, both Masons, were received by the Grand Lodge of this District, on Monday night last, with great distinction.

They were afterwards conducted to the Columbian Tavern, kept by Mr. Eberbach, who had prepared a sumptuous collation for the company, in which all participated, and spent the evening in that harmony which should always characterize the brotherhood.

Major JOHN P. GAINES, a Representative from the 10th Congressional District of Kentucky, and lately attached to the Army in Mexico, arrived in this city last night.

Major G. appeared in the House of Representatives this morning, was qualified, and took his seat.

The Telegraph Beaten. We clip the following from the New York Tribune of yesterday.

The Washington correspondent of that paper must have an excellent pair of spectacles to see Henry Clay on the 3d instant, as he was then at Cumberland, Maryland, and not here.

He will not reach this city until to-morrow. By Telegraph to the Tribune.

Henry Clay in Washington. HENRY CLAY arrived from the West this morning to attend the Supreme Court.

There has been a cordial greeting among his old friends, and he seems happily to have felt the severity of his journey, accomplished during very inclement weather.

Again: By Telegraph to the Tribune. Mr. CLAY. Philadelphia, Jan. 3-2 p. m. HENRY CLAY has arrived at Cumberland, Md., and will be at Washington to-night.

So much for the accuracy of Washington correspondents.

City Intelligence.

For advertisements of advertisements, see first column of third page.

ABERDEEN.—Last night the "Hunchback" was sustained most admirably. Mr. Nichols is unquestionably a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

Mr. Herberst as "Sir Thomas Clifford," maintained the opinion already entertained of him. We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

Mr. Brown is quite the hit of all his acts as always sustained with the unflinching accuracy.

PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL.—We were fortunate enough to have presented to us, for a new year's gift, the January number of Fowler and Wells's Phrenological Journal.

It is interesting and instructive, and worthy of a perusal by every reader, whether a fine reader, and performs the character of "Julia" equally as well as ever saw it on any stage.

We understand that Mr. Herberst has but recently done the dramatic garb, and from his present acting, we must say that he bids fair to shine as a star.

ALMANAC.

For the month of January, 1848.

1st Tuesday, 12 43 43. 2nd Wednesday, 13 44 44. 3rd Thursday, 14 45 45.

4th Friday, 15 46 46. 5th Saturday, 16 47 47. 6th Sunday, 17 48 48.

7th Monday, 18 49 49. 8th Tuesday, 19 50 50. 9th Wednesday, 20 51 51.

10th Thursday, 21 52 52. 11th Friday, 22 53 53. 12th Saturday, 23 54 54.

13th Sunday, 24 55 55. 14th Monday, 25 56 56. 15th Tuesday, 26 57 57.

16th Wednesday, 27 58 58. 17th Thursday, 28 59 59. 18th Friday, 29 60 60.

19th Saturday, 30 61 61. 20th Sunday, 31 62 62. 21st Monday, 1 63 63.

22nd Tuesday, 2 64 64. 23rd Wednesday, 3 65 65. 24th Thursday, 4 66 66.

25th Friday, 5 67 67. 26th Saturday, 6 68 68. 27th Sunday, 7 69 69.

28th Monday, 8 70 70. 29th Tuesday, 9 71 71. 30th Wednesday, 10 72 72.

31st Thursday, 11 73 73. 1st Friday, 12 74 74. 2nd Saturday, 13 75 75.

3rd Sunday, 14 76 76. 4th Monday, 15 77 77. 5th Tuesday, 16 78 78.

6th Wednesday, 17 79 79. 7th Thursday, 18 80 80. 8th Friday, 19 81 81.

9th Saturday, 20 82 82. 10th Sunday, 21 83 83. 11th Monday, 22 84 84.

12th Tuesday, 23 85 85. 13th Wednesday, 24 86 86. 14th Thursday, 25 87 87.

15th Friday, 26 88 88. 16th Saturday, 27 89 89. 17th Sunday, 28 90 90.

18th Monday, 29 91 91. 19th Tuesday, 30 92 92. 20th Wednesday, 31 93 93.

21st Thursday, 1 94 94. 22nd Friday, 2 95 95. 23rd Saturday, 3 96 96.

24th Sunday, 4 97 97. 25th Monday, 5 98 98. 26th Tuesday, 6 99 99.

27th Wednesday, 7 100 100. 28th Thursday, 8 101 101. 29th Friday, 9 102 102.

30th Saturday, 10 103 103. 31st Sunday, 11 104 104. 1st Monday, 12 105 105.

2nd Tuesday, 13 106 106. 3rd Wednesday, 14 107 107. 4th Thursday, 15 108 108.

5th Friday, 16 109 109. 6th Saturday, 17 110 110. 7th Sunday, 18 111 111.

8th Monday, 19 112 112. 9th Tuesday, 20 113 113. 10th Wednesday, 21 114 114.

11th Thursday, 22 115 115. 12th Friday, 23 116 116. 13th Saturday, 24 117 117.

14th Sunday, 25 118 118. 15th Monday, 26 119 119. 16th Tuesday, 27 120 120.

17th Wednesday, 28 121 121. 18th Thursday, 29 122 122. 19th Friday, 30 123 123.

20th Saturday, 31 124 124. 21st Sunday, 1 125 125. 22nd Monday, 2 126 126.

23rd Tuesday, 3 127 127. 24th Wednesday, 4 128 128. 25th Thursday, 5 129 129.

26th Friday, 6 130 130. 27th Saturday, 7 131 131. 28th Sunday, 8 132 132.

29th Monday, 9 133 133. 30th Tuesday, 10 134 134. 31st Wednesday, 11 135 135.

1st Thursday, 12 136 136. 2nd Friday, 13 137 137. 3rd Saturday, 14 138 138.

4th Sunday, 15 139 139. 5th Monday, 16 140 140. 6th Tuesday, 17 141 141.

7th Wednesday, 18 142 142. 8th Thursday, 19 143 143. 9th Friday, 20 144 144.

10th Saturday, 21 145 145. 11th Sunday, 22 146 146. 12th Monday, 23 147 147.

13th Tuesday, 24 148 148. 14th Wednesday, 25 149 149. 15th Thursday, 26 150 150.

16th Friday, 27 151 151. 17th Saturday, 28 152 152. 18th Sunday, 29 153 153.

19th Monday, 30 154 154. 20th Tuesday, 31 155 155. 21st Wednesday, 1 156 156.

22nd Thursday, 2 157 157. 23rd Friday, 3 158 158. 24th Saturday, 4 159 159.

25th Sunday, 5 160 160. 26th Monday, 6 161 161. 27th Tuesday, 7 162 162.

28th Wednesday, 8 163 163. 29th Thursday, 9 164 164. 30th Friday, 10 165 165.

31st Saturday, 11 166 166. 1st Sunday, 12 167 167. 2nd Monday, 13 168 168.

3rd Tuesday, 14 169 169. 4th Wednesday, 15 170 170. 5th Thursday, 16 171 171.

6th Friday, 17 172 172. 7th Saturday, 18 173 173. 8th Sunday, 19 174 174.

9th Monday, 20 175 175. 10th Tuesday, 21 176 176. 11th Wednesday, 22 177 177.

12th Thursday, 23 178 178. 13th Friday, 24 179 179. 14th Saturday, 25 180 180.

15th Sunday, 26 181 181. 16th Monday, 27 182 182. 17th Tuesday, 28 183 183.

18th Wednesday, 29 184 184. 19th Thursday, 30 185 185. 20th Friday, 31 186 186.

21st Saturday, 1 187 187. 22nd Sunday, 2 188 188. 23rd Monday, 3 189 189.

24th Tuesday, 4