

THE EVENING CRITIC.

ESTABLISHED AUGUST 1868. WEATHER INDICATIONS. The special bulletin issued from the Signal Office to-day says: The indications are that fair weather will prevail in New England and cloudy weather and rain in the Middle Atlantic States during Sunday.

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS. JIM HARRISON, colored, got seven days for fast driving.

EVERYTHING in cards and pictures at 421 Ninth street.

A VERY great scarcity of phonograms is remarked—going to St. Stephen's.

The street-lamps will be lighted at 8:30 p. m. and extinguished at 3:30 a. m.

The police made twenty-seven arrests during the twenty-four hours ending at 9 a. m.

LIZIE ARMBREID, colored, detained for thirty days for hanging two other frail creatures.

JAMES TAYLOR struck Charles Shorter on the head with a stone and has gone to jail for fifteen days.

JAMES JONES was sentenced by Judge Smith to-day to fifteen days in jail for assaulting William Day.

ANNE HERBERT and Elizabeth Green had a little set-to in the street yesterday, and were put under personal bonds to-day.

There will be a meeting of the board of managers of the Associated Charities of the District Monday, April 24, 1882, at 7:30 p. m.

ROBERT QUIET pleaded guilty in the Police Court to-day to the charge of peevish larceny, and was sent to the Reform School during minority.

FORFEITURE of a license is in pickle at the National Museum. The bill has been cast for the framing of a first-class set-up of an elephant's hide.

HERBERT PARKER has instituted suit for divorce from his wife, Elizabeth Parker, on grounds which the complainant does not care to have made public.

Mr. GEORGE H. TUCKER tendered a reception and supper to Mr. R. E. Graham and other members of the Middle Palace troupe, after the performance of the same at his residence, No. 627 Virginia Avenue, yesterday.

NATHAN E. THOMAS, a venerable looking old man, took "a bit too much gin" and swore a blue streak at a meeting of the defense Judge Small sent him down for seven days.

ABOUT 4 a. m. to-day a police officer saw a thief endeavoring to force an entrance into the British Minors' house through a rear window and pursued him. The thief took to his heels and the policeman followed him but did not succeed in capturing the fugitive.

A. S. WORTHINGTON and Randall Hagner, as trustees, have filed a bill in equity against Catherine A. Reed, administratrix of William B. Reed, to remove cloud on title to certain 23 acres of land, and as trustee of the interest of William B. Reed on the property may be sold.

FLOWER-THEFTS have already begun their depredations in East Washington. A lot of choice flowers having been taken from the front yard of a house on Eighth street, between G and H streets, last evening, as early as 8 o'clock. This is the latest kind of stealing.

JAMES A. TITNEY stood up in the Police Court this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons. James pleaded as if he had been "beating" or some thing of the kind, and as he had been so long in the cell, Judge Small took his personal recognizance.

Six little colored boys, whose ages ranged from 6 to 11 years, were charged in the Police Court this morning with throwing stones in the streets. The evidence was about evenly balanced, and the Judge dismissed all, except James Carrick, whose personal recognizance was taken for a further investigation of the case.

HENRY JACKSON, the colored man who was arrested on the night of Emancipation Day for shooting Mrs. Anne Hargrave, and the ball at the Gallatin Fisherman's Hall, was tried in the Police Court to-day on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, and was committed in default of $500 bonds to await the trial of Grand Jury.

It is said that the Washington & Georgetown Railroad Company contemplates increasing the hours of labor of the boys who drive the hill horses. The boys work about seven hours per day now, and it seems that an additional eight hours might be put on them without doing serious injury to the boys or the company. The Washington & Georgetown Railroad Company is a liberal corporation.

LIEUTENANT L. C. HEILNER has been ordered to the receiving-ship Colorado. Master J. C. Chesap has been detached from the Colorado and ordered to instruct in torpedo service. Ensign David Daniels, from the Walden, and ordered to the Coast Survey. Leave has been granted to Assistant Paymaster G. M. Allen, for one year from April 21, and to Master (retired list), for six months, with permission to leave the United States.

The days of hard work and weariness over the sewing machine are over, and they are with the majority of women. The new acts at the present popular price are fast driving those days out of the lives of the householders. Taylor & Hurty have dresses at prices which cannot be duplicated by those who purchase their own material and have them made up, even at home. Ladies need no longer wash themselves out in the effort to keep well dressed, but get and have every new garment ready made.

BRIDGET KELLY is a veteran vag. She has probably served more time in the work-house than any other woman in any other house in the District. Bridget was hauled up before the Police Court yesterday on the charge of being drunk in the streets. Judge Small sentenced her to thirty days. Bridget, however, has never been over, met the heart of the kind-hearted Judge, who consented to let her go if she would leave the city within a week. She would do, and forthwith left the court-room apparently as happy as a lark.

News Notes. Sixty families have been evicted on the estate of the Marquis of Salgo.
