THE EVENING CRITIC.

RETAILED AUGUST 1882. LAGONIC LOCALS. Go to Yeerhoff's, 919 Seventh street, for valentines.

SAMUEL BROWN furnished $10 to-day at Police Court for keeping a disorderly house. The ladies of the Assembly (Dr. Little's) Church will give a social entertainment on Friday evening.

JAMES HAYMAN pleaded guilty to-day to assaulting Frederick W. O'Keefe, and submitted to a nominal fine. The alarm of fire struck from box 134, about 6:30 o'clock last evening, was for a slight fire in a frame house 1220 1/2 street.

The case of receiving money under false pretenses against Zelig Hovey was postponed until Wednesday next for trial. Hovey has furnished bail and retained Colonel Cook as counsel.

At the Union Bethel Historic and Literary Association Tuesday evening, Mr. Cardozo presented a paper on the subject of "An Evening With Shakespeare." All welcome.

A YOUNG MAN named Willis Ragan was before Judge Snell to-day for stealing some wool from a freight car and with assaulting the officer who arrested him. Ragan was sent to jail for sixty days.

The city was left in almost total darkness last night until nearly 5 o'clock. Only lamp-posts and the public building were lit, and the power of the water-fall in search of spiritual comfort.

MARY DONOVAN, a lady who took a broomstick to Thomas Welsh when he went to her house drunk and troubled her about a woman and a child, was yesterday jointly interested, was fined one cent by Judge Snell to-day.

In the Court in Banc to-day, Justice Hecker delivered the opinion of the Court in the case of the People vs. Hovey, which came up on exception to the defendant for false arrest and imprisonment; one got a verdict for $50 and in the other case the judgment of the court below was affirmed.

MANZELLA BROWN, the servant girl at General Emory's, was charged in the Police Court to-day with applying indecent epithets to Eva Snell, the widow of General Beckwith's. Miss Snell testified that her sphere of usefulness and that of her rival were only separated by a back-yard fence, as they lived in adjoining houses, and that she was a domestic.

A MEETING of the Hamilton College alumni was held on the 11th Grand Place, Washington, so simple that it might be called the annual of that college. The president of the alumni, Judge Scofield, of the Court of Claims, was elected president; Senator Hawley and Director of the Mint Burdick, vice-presidents; General Assistant Postmaster General Elmer, treasurer, and Dr. H. Randall White, secretary. The twenty-first of this month was set for their first annual dinner.

WILLIAM H. HANSEN, a colored man, was charged before Judge Snell to-day with various offenses, including the carrying of a dangerous weapon, and the carrying of a dangerous weapon, and the carrying of a dangerous weapon.

"THE BLACK LIST"

Adopted by New England Manufacturers to Intimidate Employees. Frank R. Foster, secretary of the Federation of Trade and Labor Unions of Massachusetts, continued his testimony before the Senate Committee on Education and Labor this morning. He spoke of the "black-listing" system in the New England mills, and said that it had been prominent in labor organizations during the strikes were put on black lists, and that no matter how good workmen they might be, they would not find employment afterward.

He cited the case of the Lowell mills at Lawrence, Mass., last year. He thinks that a board of arbitration established in each State would be a good thing. It should be the power of this board to adjust all differences between employer and employee. He does not care how it should be appointed, but it should be created by either the State or National Government, and the enforcement of the eight-hour law, the lawful incorporation of trades unions, and the abolition of all conspiracy laws.

THE ELKS' SOCIAL.

A Delightful Time at Abner's Last Night. Washington Lodge, No. 15, B. P. O. Elks, observed the anniversary of their institution by a social session at Abner's Hall last night. A new organization styled the "Grove" purely social was yesterday day, had a banquet at the hall, which terminated at 9 o'clock, and it was in progress when the Elks and their friends began to arrive for the Elks' social. They immediately extended an invitation to the latter to unite with them in their festivities, and the Elks, not to be outdone in courtesy, returned the compliment by inviting the old and young "Grovers" to remain at the Elks' social. The invitation was generally accepted, and many of the New Yorkers tarried over night to attend, and passed an enjoyable evening.

The popularity of the Elks and their social has been manifest, and some time since they found that the lodge-room was too limited in space in which to receive and comfortably provide for their friends on the guests at the hall. The invitation was generally accepted, and many of the New Yorkers tarried over night to attend, and passed an enjoyable evening.

EAST WASHINGTON.

Owing to the disagreeable weather yesterday the East Washington churches were not so well attended as usual, although the services were of an interesting character. The Episcopal church conducted religious services in the Navy-Yard in the morning. The W. O. T. U. conducted a social session at the hall, which terminated at 9 o'clock, and it was in progress when the Elks and their friends began to arrive for the Elks' social.
