

NATIONAL WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT, GENERAL WINFIELD SCOTT, OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. GRAHAM, OF NORTH CAROLINA.

RESOLVED, That the Whig people of Washington, conscious that the ground they tread is worthy of the consecrated name it bears only so long as it is occupied by men who hold to the Union of the States as the source and fountain of the blessings of public order and private right...

NOTICE:

It is absolutely necessary that all indebtedness to the office of the DAILY AMERICAN TELEGRAPH, prior to the 10th of August, 1852, shall be paid forthwith. An earnest appeal is hereby made to every subscriber and advertiser...

Grand Whig Rally at Baltimore.

The Washington Whig Club having received and accepted an invitation from their brother Whigs of Baltimore to attend the Grand Whig Mass Meeting to be held in that city on Monday next, the 13th instant, will hold an adjourned meeting of the Club on Saturday evening, the 11th instant...

R. H. LASKEY, Secretary. sept 10-2t

Independent Editors.

There has been some talk of late about the recent bestowment by the Secretary of State, of the patronage of his office upon two newspapers, one in North Carolina and the other in Tennessee...

Mr. Fillmore.

The Republic of this morning says: The Union has repeatedly intimated and even avowed that Mr. Fillmore is indifferent to the success of the Whig candidate at the approaching Presidential election...

"The Odious!"

The Lynchburg Virginian saith: "We frequently hear Democratic orators speak of the 'odious bankrupt law,' as a Whig measure. It is well enough, under such circumstances, to let the people know that Wm. R. King, the Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency in 1852, voted for that identical measure, 'odious' as it is."

Lucky Mr. Gorman.

The New York papers state that the Hon. W. A. Gorman of the House of Representatives from Indiana, one of the committee to investigate the causes of explosion and disasters on the rivers and lakes, was among the passengers on the Reindeer, and just previous to the explosion was standing on the upper deck, almost directly over the boiler, conversing upon the subject...

"Ion," of the Baltimore Sun.

This writer in his letter of to-day, says that "the fate of the Whig party is strongly stated by a Whig seer, in the 'Republic': that the future of the Whig party is, probably, to exist no where 'except in the party which Mr. Seward and Mr. Thaddeus Stevens have already paraded as the 'great party of the North.'"

"Bogus" Banking.

"In," in this morning's Sun, says truly: "Wall street is exceedingly concerned about the bogus banks of this city. The fact is, it's a Wall street, and not a Washington swindle, of which the New Yorkers complain. The Metropolitan Bank is of New York origin, and has no local habitation hereabouts. The Wall street journals call upon the public to repudiate all the Washington notes under the denomination of five dollars. But I know of no notes issued here and ordinarily circulated here, that are not better and safer than the spurious notes which are sent to us from abroad."

"Fuss and Feathers."

It is astonishing how generally the Loco papers have dropped this nickname for a great and venerated hero! We met with it this morning in the Trenton True American, for the first time we believe in several weeks. That spirited organ of Com. Stockton says: "He never has done anything without pay. For his valuable services, he has received from the public treasury about $300,000—without ever having incurred any personal risk since the war of 1812."

Standing on Principles.

The United States navy is sustained for the protection of our commerce with foreign nations. Vessels, thus protected at great expense to the nation, bring to our shores manufactured articles, and sell them at a slight advance upon European prices, and our people buy them at a little lower price than our own manufacturers can produce them.

The Harmonious Democracy.

The reliance of the Loco, as may be seen by any one who peruses their papers, is on the "cohort of the bolters." Meantime, they forget to note the deserters from their own camp-fires. It might be profitable to turn their eyes that way. Massachusetts is at present an interesting point of observation. The Democratic convention of that State met at Fitchburg on Wednesday, and is not readers have been informed, and organized by calling Nathan Wood, of Fitchburg, to the chair.

General Armstrong.

At the head of the Union newspaper appears the name of ROBERT ARMSTRONG, as its proprietor and responsible conductor. We believe that he is a worthy and honorable gentleman, but he has surrendered the columns of his journal to very exceptional uses. His co-operators will bring disgrace upon his gray hairs if he does not curb their licentiousness.

The Bragging Game.

The Richmond Whig is quoting columns from the files of the Richmond Enquirer, in 1840, wherein the defeat of Harrison was regarded as certain! It is astonishing how much the articles read like those now in circulation in the Loco press, with reference to General Scott. With the substitution of new names and dates, some of the articles would suit just as well as those of more recent manufacture.

Out of Date.

Somebody has marked and sent us a Tennessee Loco paper containing certain denunciations of Gen. Scott by some of the late bolters. But these bolters have emulated the example of a certain man described in ancient classic rhymes, as follows: There was a man in our town, And he was wondrous wise; He jumped into a briar bush And scratched out both his eyes!

Temperance Festival at Alexandria.

We learn that on Monday next there will be a grand celebration at Alexandria, and that a banner is to be presented by the ladies of that city to Mt. Vernon Division. The brethren of this city are invited to participate in the festivities of the day, and we doubt not they will cheerfully and promptly respond.

Mr. Turner's Concerts.

We learn that the first of these will be given on Tuesday evening next, and that arrangements are in progress to secure a brilliant turn-out.

Drayton, of the "Pearl."

The Boston Chronicle has the following: "CAPTAIN DRAYTON.—This gentleman, who was confined at Washington for interfering with slaves and their masters, addressed the people of New Bedford last Sunday evening. A series of resolutions were passed on the occasion."

Life Preservers.

Every traveller by steamboat, or other water conveyance, should procure a life-preserver, which may easily be worn about the person at all times, ready for inflation in the time of danger. A cubic foot of air in the preserver will float a weight of fifty pounds, in addition to the weight of the human body, the latter having nearly the same specific gravity as water. It may be easily seen, from this fact, that it is impossible to sink with a life-preserver on, properly inflated, and containing one cubic foot of air; to do so, a person would have to attack fifty pounds weight to his feet. So it is said.

City Items.

Reader, whether you will burn wood or coal next winter? Make up your mind in season, and adapt your stove or fireplace to the required use. We think everybody ought to use coal, and especially those who desire to practise economy.

There is an opposition omnibus line to Georgetown again, and the whips crack and the wheels spin furiously. Opposition is said to be the life of trade; but, whether in 'buses or steamers, it is often the death of passengers!

Some of our principal merchants are using their leisure time to advantage by refitting their stores. We shall soon be able to boast of as fine stores as can be found in any of our larger cities.

Charles Ellis, alias Charles Carter, was sent to jail this morning, by Captain Goddard, for an assault and battery on his mother. He is a negro, and his mother has bought him. She declares she will sell him again, but will probably forget to do so. Charles does not deserve such a mother.

We saw a number of empty bottles and flasks at the watch-house last night, formerly belonging to persons who were brought in for various offences. All such articles are confiscated, when the owners are taken to the watch-house, and the contents destroyed. They looked like Deadends of the most fearful kind.

The Pueblo Indians left the city yesterday morning, in the six o'clock train of cars, for their homes in New Mexico—having before them a tiresome journey, to occupy them about two months. Captain Love will accompany them to the frontiers, when Dr. Stake will take them under his especial charge. Major Weightman, the delegate in Congress from that Territory, was extremely kind and attentive to this Indian delegation during their sojourn among us; and we learn he is now engaged in measures having in view an increase of their species of vegetable productions.

Laconic.

A Southern paper says that a young man who had gone to Vicksburg, with his brother, to sell some corn, wrote the following reply to his father: "Dear dad, times is hard, corn is low, money are scarce, and Bill am dead."

Pay and Allowances.

The occupant of Henry Clay's seat in the Senate of the United States is the person who moved a call for information as to the sums of money received from the Treasury by Gen. Scott and Gen. Pierce respectively during the periods of their military service. "Mr. Morrill," says the Washington Union, "as the representative of a sovereign State, had a perfect right to make such a call."

Ohio—glorious Ohio—is all right.

From a thousand other sources we have the same assurance. She is right for Scott, Graham, protection, and river and harbor improvements.

A NOTABLE FACT.—So wealthy is the city of New Bedford, that, were its property divided between every man, woman, and child in the city, each would have upwards of one thousand dollars. We doubt if there is another like place in the country. There are 18,000 inhabitants.

Well, it is for Ireland to respond in both instances.

To gratify England, however, is not usually the dearest object of an Irishman's heart!

The Mobile Register has published in its columns the Life of Pierce, and the Advertiser the Life of Scott.

The latter proposes to interchange lives, that the readers of both papers may read both. The Register "doesn't take," and no doubt for satisfactory reasons.

Military Visitors to Baltimore.

We learn that the German Yagers, Captain Schwarzwald, will visit Baltimore on Sunday afternoon, to unite with the military of that city in the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of North Point on Monday. They will take with them a band of music. It is understood they are to be received by the Independent German Yagers of Baltimore.

Mr. Webster.

The position of this distinguished statesman before the country is rather anomalous at present, and we regret, on his account solely, that he does not at once see proper to lift the clouds and veils which surround him, and show to the country what he is now, as ever, worthy of the distinguished position which he has ever held in the Whig party, so long a distinguished member. While we have never for a moment supposed that Mr. Webster could turn traitor to the organization of his party, while we have always acknowledged him to be, in the language of his Marshallfield speech, a "leader of the Whig party," still we hesitate not to say that his action of late has appeared not as that of high-souled magnanimity, which we would gladly have seen him exhibit under the circumstances by which he has been surrounded.

All cannot receive the Presidential office. The great Whig party of the country have said that Winfield Scott shall have their preference. He is worthy of it, and while we cannot believe that Mr. Webster seriously contemplates lending himself, as did Mr. Van Buren, to disorganizing factions, still it is due to the country, to the great principles and party with which he is identified, and above all, to himself, to frown down every effort, come whence it may, to endanger the success of the great Whig party of the Union. That Mr. Webster was disappointed at not receiving the Baltimore nomination we doubt not, that he should be magnanimous now, is due to the party, his long cherished principles, their success, and above all, to the high character of the great American, who needs not the prestige of the White House to perpetuate his fame and hand him down to posterity as one of the great names of a great people.—Whedding Intelligence.

Georgia.

The Columbus Enquirer, a staunch advocate of the Constitutional Union Party, has placed the names of Scott and Graham at the head of its columns, and goes to work manfully in their cause. We notice also that the Savannah Republican places both the Scott and Graham ticket and the Webster and Jenkins ticket at the head of its columns. All the Whig and Union papers in the State are doing battle against Pierce and King; and the chances seem to be that many of the Union Democrats will not vote for those gentlemen, on the ground that it is peculiarly the ticket of the Secessionists.

In a NUTSHELL.

The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser tells the whole story in the following brief paragraph: "The only practical question before the people, in regard to the Presidency, is, Shall Scott and Whig principles prevail, or Pierce and modern Democracy? And the man who pretends to the contrary is either an enemy to the Whig cause, or a duce of the most unmitigated description."

Affairs in Georgetown.

GEORGETOWN, Sept. 10—12 m. The Montgomery County Fair.—Many of our citizens went to Rockville yesterday to attend the Montgomery agricultural fair. The address of Mr. Hallowell, of Alexandria, was a masterly effort, and highly delighted all who had the pleasure of hearing him. The collection of articles was much larger than ever witnessed there on any similar occasion—consisting of almost everything that could be mentioned in connection with the agricultural business, and nearly all of a superior quality to the contributions heretofore exhibited at this place—clearly demonstrating that old Montgomery county is fast improving and growing in importance, and will soon become the garden-spot of Maryland.

Among the contributions there were a number of ploughs from the manufactory of Jos. Libbey, in our town, and made by Richard King. These ploughs, of superior quality, and finished in beautiful style, were universally admired.

It had been reported that President Fillmore would be present, which report drew together an unusually large concourse of people.

Business upon our canal is again quiet brisk. The cause of the interruption to navigation for a few days, (viz., a leak near Williamsport), has been entirely removed, and boats are now running the entire length of the line.

The Whigs who visited Rockville yesterday bring home with them the most cheering reports of the prospect of the success of the good cause in the coming election. The feeling manifest among the large concourse of persons there, clearly showed, that, if other portions of the State do anything like as well as this county, the State will give Scott and Graham a handsome majority. Let the Whigs, however, be on their guard. A leading man of the opposition remarked the other day, to a friend in this district, that they were determined to carry Maryland, if in no other way, (to use his own words) by lying!

Small sales of flour yesterday and this morning, at $4.12 1/2 to $4.25. ELECTRO.

Where are the business-like advertisements that ought to fill these columns?

Oh, where!

Comments.

MESSRS. EDITORS: I have to congratulate the citizens of this place upon the very timely arrival of Kunkel's celebrated band of Ethiopian Serenaders. Having for a long time heard this band so highly, and to a high degree of extravagantly, I repaired on last evening to the Old-Fellows Hall for the purpose of witnessing their performance. My highest expectations were more than realized. Strains of "Inked sweetens long drawn out" fell upon the ears of a delighted audience. The very voice of Master Adams alone, in so soft a tone, and the other members of the company—all of whom perform their parts in the most artistic manner—was sufficient to elicit from them crowded houses. All who are lovers of this style of music could certainly avail themselves of this opportunity to hear something rich, rare, and racy. I regret that the company could not procure a larger room, as many persons are nightly shut out for want of seats.

R. R. REMEDIES.

FIVE COMPLAINTS raging in one system, cured by R. R. Remedies, in TWENTY-FOUR HOURS—RHEUMATISM, LIVER COMPLAINT, NEURALGIA, FEVER SORES, CHILLS AND FEVER. Mr. G., a gentleman lately returned from a western tour, was afflicted with each of the above complaints at the same time. He commenced the use of the R. R. Remedies on the 24th of June. For RHEUMATISM he used Radway's Ready Relief—he used it externally. In less than ten minutes after the first application he was free from pain; he could use his limbs as free as ever. For NEURALGIA he used the Ready Relief, internally and externally. It instantly allayed the most violent irritations and restored his impaired strength and vitality to his nerves. He has not been troubled since the tenth day with any neuralgic pain. CHILLS AND FEVER—Radway's Ready Relief—internally and externally—it imparted heat, health, and strength to the cold and chilly blood, and neutralized the poisonous miasms of ague. LIVER COMPLAINT—RADWAY'S REGULATORS—To regulate the organs of the system and to give tone and energy to the liver; to ensure a pleasant and hearty digestion and a regular action of the bowels; to prevent costiveness, indigestion, &c. He was entirely cured of this complaint by the 1st of July. FEVER SORES—He took the Blandifying Remedy—he had numerous very large ones. The Remedy cleansed and purified his blood, made it pure and rich, and freed away from the body all diseased and poisonous deposits and irritating humors. On the 16th of July he called at the R. R. office and represented himself cured. His rheumatism, chills and fever, neuralgia, and fever sores, had all been cured and removed by the R. R. Remedies in twenty-two days. R. R. office, 102 Fulton street, opposite St. Paul's, up stairs. sept 6-602t
