

V. L. PALMER, the American Newspaper Agent, is the only authorized agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York, and Philadelphia...

Nothing gives us greater pleasure than to see good order prevail among our citizens upon occasions when they are called upon to assemble and rejoice over the success of the political party to which they may be attached...

The affair last evening was well managed; the procession was a long one, and was so arranged that among the many beautiful and appropriate transparencies carried in the line, not one was seen that could give offence to the defeated party...

We presume this to be the last public demonstration by either political party, that will take place in this city before the opening of the next Presidential campaign.

The President Elect. We find the following interesting sketch of the character and qualifications of General Franklin Pierce...

Never did a young man enter upon a more splendid career than that which now opens to Franklin Pierce. Backed by the almost unanimous support of the entire country, he will commence his presidential term, untrammelled by other pledges than those which his own past acts and avowed sentiments have given to the world.

New Illustrated Paper. We perceive that Henry D. Beach and P. T. Barnum have formed a partnership for the publication of an illustrated weekly newspaper in the city of New York.

The New Orleans Crescent perpetrates the following: OUTRAGEOUS FRAUD!!!—We are not afraid to speak out the truth, even where our own party is concerned...

Good qualities, like great abilities, are incomprehensible and inconceivable to such as are deprived of them. Messrs. Meneely, of West Troy, are constructing a peal of ten bells, at a cost of $4,000, for the Episcopal Church at Savannah.

The Boston Commonwealth has sold 16,000 copies of Parker's sermon on Mr. Webster. Forty-five per cent. of the soil of England is not cultivated. Fencing the Indianapolis railroad costs $30,000.

The National Theatre. The lessee of the above establishment announces that he will commence the dramatic season on Monday evening next, with the strongest company ever assembled here, embracing the names of some of the best artists in the Union...

The following inscription was on the back of a bank note which was circulating in Georgetown yesterday, and if true, clearly shows that the fellow would be much better off in charge of a rigid keeper than at large with a pocket full of money.

Putnam, the publisher, is going to start a new monthly magazine on the 1st of January, a rival of Harper's probably. It is to be made up of original articles, liberally paid for; and it is to combine the characteristics of a popular magazine with those of a quarterly review.

A reading people will become a thinking people; and then, they are capable of becoming a great people. Somebody shrewdly remarks that one half of the reports and two-thirds of the bosoms that you run against are false.

The novels of Sue, Sande, Soule, Scribe, and Dumas, are interdicted in Spain.

An Irish Exile. We clip the following from the Savannah Georgian of Monday last, as of his interest to his numerous fellow-countrymen and friends in our city.

RICHARD O'GORMAN.—This distinguished exile arrived here in the Alabama on Tuesday last, and has since been stopping at the Pulaski House. He visits our city on business connected with his profession, and has declined all public honors since his arrival.

Our readers have already been informed of Mr. O'Gorman's escape to France, and his subsequent arrival at New York, where he has since occupied himself in the practice of the law.

In one of Mr. Willis's recent letters to the Home Journal, we find the following paragraph relating to the original purchase of, and the amount paid for, the Mammoth Cave in Kentucky.

Colonel Croghan, to whose family it belongs, was a resident of Louisville. He went to Europe some twenty years ago, and, as an American, found himself frequently questioned of the wonders of the Mammoth Cave—a place he had never visited, and of which, at home, though living within ninety miles of it, he had heard very little.

Ye parents and citizens of Washington; this is no Association of a secular character, which can so affect, and which does so affect your own interests. If you do not believe it, come to the meetings and you shall be convinced.

Remember! The next meeting, with a lecture from Rev. M. Noble, will be at 6 o'clock on Saturday, Nov. 13th.

The Washington Light Infantry respectfully announces that their Annual Ball will take place on the 8th of January.

MRS. MARY J. CAMPBELL, formerly Miss M. J. Coffey, First Ward, will open a fashionable MILLinery Store on 7th street, between F and G, on Saturday, the 12th instant.

WE have the pleasure to announce to our friends and the public generally, that we have just received a very large stock of Foreign and Domestic Sewing and Fancy Goods.

ONE DOLLAR REWARD!! IOST, last evening on Pennsylvania avenue between 7th and 11th streets, a BLACK SATIN VEST, with trimmings of purple and gold, and a pair of black trousers.

THE TEMPLE respectfully informs his friends and the public that he will give his first, or BALL OF INTRODUCTION, at Temperance Hall, on Thursday, November 13th.

YANKEE TRUST.—The ice trade of the United States, it is said, exceeds in amount the wine trade of Bordeaux.

The Boston Commonwealth has sold 16,000 copies of Parker's sermon on Mr. Webster.

Forty-five per cent. of the soil of England is not cultivated.

City Items.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Page was badly bruised yesterday, by the overturning of a carriage, in which she was riding with her husband (Dr. Page) and her daughter. The accident happened near the corner of 7th and G streets.

The Democratic Jubilee yesterday afternoon and evening, was a very respectable and orderly affair. The torch light procession was one of the most beautiful we have ever witnessed, and the promptness with which everything tending in the least to give offence was excluded from the line, was creditable in the highest degree to the managers.

The concert of Kendall & Dickinson's troupe last night at Odd Fellows' Hall, was postponed on account of the Democratic Jubilee. To-night they will perform some of their most amusing and beautiful solos and choruses, Kendall with the alto-horn, and Fenton with the violin!

To-night is the last but one of the re-engagement of the Ravens. The "Red Monster," the Elopement, the Aged Dancers, and other interesting and amusing pieces constitute the excellent bill of fare at the Theatre, and of course there will be a large audience.

The Teacher's Association. Look this way fellow-teachers! Do you claim to belong to the teacher's profession? Do you respect it? Do you wish to honor it? Do you wish it to be honored? If so, will you not show your claim, your respect, and your honor by attending the meetings of the Association?
