

For telegraphic reports and correspondence, see third page.

TO THE PUBLIC.—From the 1st day of July, 1851, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington...

THE "AMERICAN TELEGRAPH."—The nomination of our paper by our city fathers as one worthy the task of chronicling their proceedings...

The Lockport (N. Y.) Courier says: "This compliment is well deserved. The Telegraph is a spicy paper, devoted to the welfare and interests of the city, and is bound to prosper."

The Rockville Journal says: "The Telegraph is decidedly one of the most spicy and interesting of our exchanges, and ought to be, and we believe will be sustained, if the District cities do their duty as well as consult their interests."

The Providence (R. I.) Union says: "We have long wished to see a liberal people's paper at Washington, and rejoice that one has started in a cheap form."

The Baltimore Clipper, Baltimore Argus, and other papers remote from this city, have cheered us by like generous and kindly words of encouragement.

DAN RICE.—This gentleman (or somebody in his name) has written to us from Mayville, Ky., asking our opinion upon his chance for the Presidential nomination in the Baltimore, Philadelphia, or any other convention, to be held next year!

The question is a grave one, and we would prefer withholding our reply until we can see and converse with the editors of the Union and Republic, who have more to do with such matters than anybody else.

THE U. S. POSTAL GUIDE AND OFFICIAL ADVERTISER.—We return our thanks to Messrs. P. G. Washington and C. Alexander, the proprietors, for the eleven numbers of this monthly publication, which are soon to be followed by the twelfth and concluding number of the first volume.

THE NORTH AMERICA FOR GALWAY.—We never witnessed an instance of puffing to exceed that gotten up to announce the departure of this ship from New York on Tuesday, and passengers continued to bring their baggage and pay their fare even on Tuesday morning; and yet all were doomed to disappointment. It did not sail.

PORTLAND, MAINE, is said to contain but 20,000 inhabitants. We are told that a railway from the Atlantic to the river St. Lawrence was projected, about two hundred and seventy-five miles long.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN.—We are indebted to the Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 131 Nassau street, New York, for a copy of this excellent work, by GEORGE COMBE—a work that should be read by every rational being.

THOMAS W. WALTER, Esq., architect for extending the Capitol, arrived in this city last night. We understand that he will immediately apply himself to maturing the details of the work.

THE BIBLE is not silent in reference to the Trower Court case. We read in Deuteronomy, chapter 22d, 5th verse:

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto man, neither shall a man put on woman's garment; for all that do so, shall be cut off from their people."

INDIANA CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.—We learn from the papers of that State that the Hon. E. W. McGaughey was nominated at the Whig Convention held on the 11th instant, at Rockville, Ia., as a candidate for Congress from the seventh district. His majority was about seventy.

Short dresses, if adopted by the ladies, will have one good effect, at any rate. It will oblige them to mend their stockings.—Ech. paper.

Exceedingly funny, to be sure; but, in the first place, American ladies have nothing to learn of neatness or industry from the other sex; and, in the second place, the foot and ankle are more completely and more delicately concealed by the new than by the old style of dress.

For telegraphic reports and correspondence, see third page.

TO THE PUBLIC.—From the 1st day of July, 1851, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington...

THE "AMERICAN TELEGRAPH."—The nomination of our paper by our city fathers as one worthy the task of chronicling their proceedings...

The Lockport (N. Y.) Courier says: "This compliment is well deserved. The Telegraph is a spicy paper, devoted to the welfare and interests of the city, and is bound to prosper."

The Rockville Journal says: "The Telegraph is decidedly one of the most spicy and interesting of our exchanges, and ought to be, and we believe will be sustained, if the District cities do their duty as well as consult their interests."

The Providence (R. I.) Union says: "We have long wished to see a liberal people's paper at Washington, and rejoice that one has started in a cheap form."

The Baltimore Clipper, Baltimore Argus, and other papers remote from this city, have cheered us by like generous and kindly words of encouragement.

DAN RICE.—This gentleman (or somebody in his name) has written to us from Mayville, Ky., asking our opinion upon his chance for the Presidential nomination in the Baltimore, Philadelphia, or any other convention, to be held next year!

The question is a grave one, and we would prefer withholding our reply until we can see and converse with the editors of the Union and Republic, who have more to do with such matters than anybody else.

THE U. S. POSTAL GUIDE AND OFFICIAL ADVERTISER.—We return our thanks to Messrs. P. G. Washington and C. Alexander, the proprietors, for the eleven numbers of this monthly publication, which are soon to be followed by the twelfth and concluding number of the first volume.

THE NORTH AMERICA FOR GALWAY.—We never witnessed an instance of puffing to exceed that gotten up to announce the departure of this ship from New York on Tuesday, and passengers continued to bring their baggage and pay their fare even on Tuesday morning; and yet all were doomed to disappointment. It did not sail.

PORTLAND, MAINE, is said to contain but 20,000 inhabitants. We are told that a railway from the Atlantic to the river St. Lawrence was projected, about two hundred and seventy-five miles long.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN.—We are indebted to the Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 131 Nassau street, New York, for a copy of this excellent work, by GEORGE COMBE—a work that should be read by every rational being.

THOMAS W. WALTER, Esq., architect for extending the Capitol, arrived in this city last night. We understand that he will immediately apply himself to maturing the details of the work.

THE BIBLE is not silent in reference to the Trower Court case. We read in Deuteronomy, chapter 22d, 5th verse:

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto man, neither shall a man put on woman's garment; for all that do so, shall be cut off from their people."

INDIANA CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.—We learn from the papers of that State that the Hon. E. W. McGaughey was nominated at the Whig Convention held on the 11th instant, at Rockville, Ia., as a candidate for Congress from the seventh district. His majority was about seventy.

Short dresses, if adopted by the ladies, will have one good effect, at any rate. It will oblige them to mend their stockings.—Ech. paper.

Exceedingly funny, to be sure; but, in the first place, American ladies have nothing to learn of neatness or industry from the other sex; and, in the second place, the foot and ankle are more completely and more delicately concealed by the new than by the old style of dress.

For telegraphic reports and correspondence, see third page.

TO THE PUBLIC.—From the 1st day of July, 1851, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington...

THE "AMERICAN TELEGRAPH."—The nomination of our paper by our city fathers as one worthy the task of chronicling their proceedings...

The Lockport (N. Y.) Courier says: "This compliment is well deserved. The Telegraph is a spicy paper, devoted to the welfare and interests of the city, and is bound to prosper."

The Rockville Journal says: "The Telegraph is decidedly one of the most spicy and interesting of our exchanges, and ought to be, and we believe will be sustained, if the District cities do their duty as well as consult their interests."

The Providence (R. I.) Union says: "We have long wished to see a liberal people's paper at Washington, and rejoice that one has started in a cheap form."

The Baltimore Clipper, Baltimore Argus, and other papers remote from this city, have cheered us by like generous and kindly words of encouragement.

DAN RICE.—This gentleman (or somebody in his name) has written to us from Mayville, Ky., asking our opinion upon his chance for the Presidential nomination in the Baltimore, Philadelphia, or any other convention, to be held next year!

The question is a grave one, and we would prefer withholding our reply until we can see and converse with the editors of the Union and Republic, who have more to do with such matters than anybody else.

THE U. S. POSTAL GUIDE AND OFFICIAL ADVERTISER.—We return our thanks to Messrs. P. G. Washington and C. Alexander, the proprietors, for the eleven numbers of this monthly publication, which are soon to be followed by the twelfth and concluding number of the first volume.

THE NORTH AMERICA FOR GALWAY.—We never witnessed an instance of puffing to exceed that gotten up to announce the departure of this ship from New York on Tuesday, and passengers continued to bring their baggage and pay their fare even on Tuesday morning; and yet all were doomed to disappointment. It did not sail.

PORTLAND, MAINE, is said to contain but 20,000 inhabitants. We are told that a railway from the Atlantic to the river St. Lawrence was projected, about two hundred and seventy-five miles long.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN.—We are indebted to the Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 131 Nassau street, New York, for a copy of this excellent work, by GEORGE COMBE—a work that should be read by every rational being.

THOMAS W. WALTER, Esq., architect for extending the Capitol, arrived in this city last night. We understand that he will immediately apply himself to maturing the details of the work.

THE BIBLE is not silent in reference to the Trower Court case. We read in Deuteronomy, chapter 22d, 5th verse:

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto man, neither shall a man put on woman's garment; for all that do so, shall be cut off from their people."

INDIANA CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.—We learn from the papers of that State that the Hon. E. W. McGaughey was nominated at the Whig Convention held on the 11th instant, at Rockville, Ia., as a candidate for Congress from the seventh district. His majority was about seventy.

Short dresses, if adopted by the ladies, will have one good effect, at any rate. It will oblige them to mend their stockings.—Ech. paper.

Exceedingly funny, to be sure; but, in the first place, American ladies have nothing to learn of neatness or industry from the other sex; and, in the second place, the foot and ankle are more completely and more delicately concealed by the new than by the old style of dress.

For telegraphic reports and correspondence, see third page.

TO THE PUBLIC.—From the 1st day of July, 1851, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington...

THE "AMERICAN TELEGRAPH."—The nomination of our paper by our city fathers as one worthy the task of chronicling their proceedings...

The Lockport (N. Y.) Courier says: "This compliment is well deserved. The Telegraph is a spicy paper, devoted to the welfare and interests of the city, and is bound to prosper."

The Rockville Journal says: "The Telegraph is decidedly one of the most spicy and interesting of our exchanges, and ought to be, and we believe will be sustained, if the District cities do their duty as well as consult their interests."

The Providence (R. I.) Union says: "We have long wished to see a liberal people's paper at Washington, and rejoice that one has started in a cheap form."

The Baltimore Clipper, Baltimore Argus, and other papers remote from this city, have cheered us by like generous and kindly words of encouragement.

DAN RICE.—This gentleman (or somebody in his name) has written to us from Mayville, Ky., asking our opinion upon his chance for the Presidential nomination in the Baltimore, Philadelphia, or any other convention, to be held next year!

The question is a grave one, and we would prefer withholding our reply until we can see and converse with the editors of the Union and Republic, who have more to do with such matters than anybody else.

THE U. S. POSTAL GUIDE AND OFFICIAL ADVERTISER.—We return our thanks to Messrs. P. G. Washington and C. Alexander, the proprietors, for the eleven numbers of this monthly publication, which are soon to be followed by the twelfth and concluding number of the first volume.

THE NORTH AMERICA FOR GALWAY.—We never witnessed an instance of puffing to exceed that gotten up to announce the departure of this ship from New York on Tuesday, and passengers continued to bring their baggage and pay their fare even on Tuesday morning; and yet all were doomed to disappointment. It did not sail.

PORTLAND, MAINE, is said to contain but 20,000 inhabitants. We are told that a railway from the Atlantic to the river St. Lawrence was projected, about two hundred and seventy-five miles long.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN.—We are indebted to the Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 131 Nassau street, New York, for a copy of this excellent work, by GEORGE COMBE—a work that should be read by every rational being.

THOMAS W. WALTER, Esq., architect for extending the Capitol, arrived in this city last night. We understand that he will immediately apply himself to maturing the details of the work.

THE BIBLE is not silent in reference to the Trower Court case. We read in Deuteronomy, chapter 22d, 5th verse:

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto man, neither shall a man put on woman's garment; for all that do so, shall be cut off from their people."

INDIANA CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.—We learn from the papers of that State that the Hon. E. W. McGaughey was nominated at the Whig Convention held on the 11th instant, at Rockville, Ia., as a candidate for Congress from the seventh district. His majority was about seventy.

Short dresses, if adopted by the ladies, will have one good effect, at any rate. It will oblige them to mend their stockings.—Ech. paper.

Exceedingly funny, to be sure; but, in the first place, American ladies have nothing to learn of neatness or industry from the other sex; and, in the second place, the foot and ankle are more completely and more delicately concealed by the new than by the old style of dress.

For telegraphic reports and correspondence, see third page.

TO THE PUBLIC.—From the 1st day of July, 1851, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington...

THE "AMERICAN TELEGRAPH."—The nomination of our paper by our city fathers as one worthy the task of chronicling their proceedings...

The Lockport (N. Y.) Courier says: "This compliment is well deserved. The Telegraph is a spicy paper, devoted to the welfare and interests of the city, and is bound to prosper."

The Rockville Journal says: "The Telegraph is decidedly one of the most spicy and interesting of our exchanges, and ought to be, and we believe will be sustained, if the District cities do their duty as well as consult their interests."

The Providence (R. I.) Union says: "We have long wished to see a liberal people's paper at Washington, and rejoice that one has started in a cheap form."

The Baltimore Clipper, Baltimore Argus, and other papers remote from this city, have cheered us by like generous and kindly words of encouragement.

DAN RICE.—This gentleman (or somebody in his name) has written to us from Mayville, Ky., asking our opinion upon his chance for the Presidential nomination in the Baltimore, Philadelphia, or any other convention, to be held next year!

The question is a grave one, and we would prefer withholding our reply until we can see and converse with the editors of the Union and Republic, who have more to do with such matters than anybody else.

THE U. S. POSTAL GUIDE AND OFFICIAL ADVERTISER.—We return our thanks to Messrs. P. G. Washington and C. Alexander, the proprietors, for the eleven numbers of this monthly publication, which are soon to be followed by the twelfth and concluding number of the first volume.

THE NORTH AMERICA FOR GALWAY.—We never witnessed an instance of puffing to exceed that gotten up to announce the departure of this ship from New York on Tuesday, and passengers continued to bring their baggage and pay their fare even on Tuesday morning; and yet all were doomed to disappointment. It did not sail.

PORTLAND, MAINE, is said to contain but 20,000 inhabitants. We are told that a railway from the Atlantic to the river St. Lawrence was projected, about two hundred and seventy-five miles long.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN.—We are indebted to the Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 131 Nassau street, New York, for a copy of this excellent work, by GEORGE COMBE—a work that should be read by every rational being.

THOMAS W. WALTER, Esq., architect for extending the Capitol, arrived in this city last night. We understand that he will immediately apply himself to maturing the details of the work.

THE BIBLE is not silent in reference to the Trower Court case. We read in Deuteronomy, chapter 22d, 5th verse:

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto man, neither shall a man put on woman's garment; for all that do so, shall be cut off from their people."

INDIANA CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.—We learn from the papers of that State that the Hon. E. W. McGaughey was nominated at the Whig Convention held on the 11th instant, at Rockville, Ia., as a candidate for Congress from the seventh district. His majority was about seventy.

Short dresses, if adopted by the ladies, will have one good effect, at any rate. It will oblige them to mend their stockings.—Ech. paper.

Exceedingly funny, to be sure; but, in the first place, American ladies have nothing to learn of neatness or industry from the other sex; and, in the second place, the foot and ankle are more completely and more delicately concealed by the new than by the old style of dress.

For telegraphic reports and correspondence, see third page.

TO THE PUBLIC.—From the 1st day of July, 1851, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington...

THE "AMERICAN TELEGRAPH."—The nomination of our paper by our city fathers as one worthy the task of chronicling their proceedings...

The Lockport (N. Y.) Courier says: "This compliment is well deserved. The Telegraph is a spicy paper, devoted to the welfare and interests of the city, and is bound to prosper."

The Rockville Journal says: "The Telegraph is decidedly one of the most spicy and interesting of our exchanges, and ought to be, and we believe will be sustained, if the District cities do their duty as well as consult their interests."

The Providence (R. I.) Union says: "We have long wished to see a liberal people's paper at Washington, and rejoice that one has started in a cheap form."

The Baltimore Clipper, Baltimore Argus, and other papers remote from this city, have cheered us by like generous and kindly words of encouragement.

DAN RICE.—This gentleman (or somebody in his name) has written to us from Mayville, Ky., asking our opinion upon his chance for the Presidential nomination in the Baltimore, Philadelphia, or any other convention, to be held next year!

The question is a grave one, and we would prefer withholding our reply until we can see and converse with the editors of the Union and Republic, who have more to do with such matters than anybody else.

THE U. S. POSTAL GUIDE AND OFFICIAL ADVERTISER.—We return our thanks to Messrs. P. G. Washington and C. Alexander, the proprietors, for the eleven numbers of this monthly publication, which are soon to be followed by the twelfth and concluding number of the first volume.

THE NORTH AMERICA FOR GALWAY.—We never witnessed an instance of puffing to exceed that gotten up to announce the departure of this ship from New York on Tuesday, and passengers continued to bring their baggage and pay their fare even on Tuesday morning; and yet all were doomed to disappointment. It did not sail.

PORTLAND, MAINE, is said to contain but 20,000 inhabitants. We are told that a railway from the Atlantic to the river St. Lawrence was projected, about two hundred and seventy-five miles long.

THE CONSTITUTION OF MAN.—We are indebted to the Messrs. Fowler & Wells, 131 Nassau street, New York, for a copy of this excellent work, by GEORGE COMBE—a work that should be read by every rational being.

THOMAS W. WALTER, Esq., architect for extending the Capitol, arrived in this city last night. We understand that he will immediately apply himself to maturing the details of the work.

THE BIBLE is not silent in reference to the Trower Court case. We read in Deuteronomy, chapter 22d, 5th verse:

"The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto man, neither shall a man put on woman's garment; for all that do so, shall be cut off from their people."

INDIANA CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.—We learn from the papers of that State that the Hon. E. W. McGaughey was nominated at the Whig Convention held on the 11th instant, at Rockville, Ia., as a candidate for Congress from the seventh district. His majority was about seventy.

Short dresses, if adopted by the ladies, will have one good effect, at any rate. It will oblige them to mend their stockings.—Ech. paper.

Exceedingly funny, to be sure; but, in the first place, American ladies have nothing to learn of neatness or industry from the other sex; and, in the second place, the foot and ankle are more completely and more delicately concealed by the new than by the old style of dress.

THE HON. CALLES CUSHING.—This gentleman was on Monday last almost unanimously elected Mayor of Newburyport, Massachusetts, being the first Mayor of that newly chartered city.

ROCKHILL & WILSON, 111 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, are making fortunes by manufacturing and selling clothing. They have the courage to advertise freely, and well they know how to do it.

RHETORICAL FLOURISHERS.—A correspondent of the Literary World cites, as an example of an identity of expression, the address of a lawyer, who spoke somewhat to this effect: "Here comes the plaintiff into court like a motionless statue, with the cloak of hypocrisy in his mouth, and trying to screw three large oak trees out of my client's pocket."

CRIMINAL COURT.—Mary Lee, a feminine negro of very dark complexion, was to-day tried for the larceny of some four or five dollars' worth, but the jury had not brought in a verdict when our reporter left the courtroom at 12 1/2 o'clock. The attorney for the United States, (Mr. Feadall,) and Mr. Ratcliffe for the defendant, made long and strong speeches.

TO-DAY.—The unusuals are few. The sun is severe, but the breezes are lively and refreshing. The avenue is cheerful, and the ladies pleasant to look upon.

BIBLE PRESENTATION.—We have to-day seen five handsome pulpit Bibles, which we understand, are to be forwarded to the West as a present from the Home Missionary Societies of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of this city to the five churches or preaching-stations under the pastoral care of the Rev. Geo. F. Davis, a Missionary sent to the State of Illinois by these Societies about a year since. Upon each of the Bibles is a suitable inscription in gilt letters.

THE PLANK ROAD.—The editor of the Rockville Journal desires to have a plank road on which the good people of Montgomery county may drive to market, and does not appear to have any decided preferences as to whom they may deal with, so the thing is done. He says: "The citizens of Washington are determined to have the Montgomery trade, and they are right. They intend making a plank road for that purpose. Now, we feel some interest in this matter, and have labored hard to convince our Georgetown friends that they could not much longer have the benefit of the Montgomery trade, if a plank road was not made to bring it to their market. Georgetown, Frederick, and Montgomery counties, with any thing like liberality on the part of its most interested citizens, could do the work in a very short time, and we hope no more time will be lost in talking. One thing is now certain, that if the road be not made, and that speedily, Georgetown will find the whole trade of this country, and of the western counties, tending to another market."

DEATH OF EX-JUSTICE BLOODGOOD.—This well-known minister of police died suddenly at New York on Monday, from the rupture of a blood vessel.

IMMENSE APPROPRIATION.—The city of Newport has appropriated one hundred and fifty dollars (lawful currency, we suppose) for celebrating "in a becoming manner" the approaching Fourth of July. This is expected to approach each citizen a pint of small beer and a piece of gingerbread.—Ech. paper.

DO YOU THINK THAT "a becoming manner" or do you really mean to ridicule the appropriation? The Rule of Three will show that one hundred and fifty is as large for Newport as are the larger sums appropriated in our larger cities. Then, again, the National Anniversary is not celebrated "in a becoming manner" either by burning gunpowder or drinking spirits, the only costly means that are usual.

THE RIGHT BOX.—This is a musical box, such as Hibbs has for sale. He has lots of harmonizing instruments of various kinds.

MEXICO.—We have never belonged, nor do we ever expect to belong, to the "manifest destiny" school of philosophers; nevertheless it is exceedingly difficult to look at the spectacle presented at this moment by the poor sister republic of Mexico, without fancying that we see the handwriting on the wall, and hear the voice of the interpreter expounding the words of her doom. We may, in her case, fall back upon the maxim of the old pagan superstition, and anticipate the destruction which a nation prepares for itself by its own act of suicidal folly and madness. The last hope would seem to be exhausted. It is the military men of Mexico who have heretofore been denounced as the authors of her ruin. But that class was effectually broken down by the American war; and the civilians who succeeded have fully equalled, if they have not entirely eclipsed, the soldiers by the mischievous perversity of their measures. The army commenced, the representatives of the people complete, the deadly work.

IT is known that Mexico is perishing of poverty. She has been robbed in every way by her rulers, who have alienated her property, and covered her—buried her alive, as it were—under a mountain of public debt, of which she possesses no means of paying the interest. Her income, it is now clear enough, is insufficient to meet even the ordinary expenses of government; and universal destitution pervades every department of official employment, from the highest down to the lowest servant of state. Congress was called upon to consider this lamentable state of things. Dismissing the consideration of all disagreeable matters of finance, government bankruptcy and beggary, the national distress, the coming ruin and threatened dissolution of the republic, it contented itself with rejecting the Tehuantepec treaty, and annulling the grant under which American citizens have commenced a great enterprise there, whereby it has invited trouble with the United States; and having performed this great feat, and voted down the several schemes for raising money, it suddenly adjourned upon the 23d ultimo, leaving the government to shift for itself.

No wonder that President Arista, who professing to regard the delinquency of Congress as a thing designed mainly to break down his administration, yet rebuking it as "a violation of the constitution," and an attempt "to bring ridicule on republican institutions," declares it as his "firm determination" that "a just punishment" shall follow this act, and that the government shall be sustained in spite of it. He will assume the powers denied to him, taking the most direct and summary measures to keep the republic alive—and, very probably, as much at the expense and cost of the recreant legislators as possible. This is the Mexican way of doing things, and Congress has rendered it necessary. Arista, however, is neither a popular nor an influential leader. He wants greatness of resolution and comprehensiveness of views. The prospect is that his efforts, if he attempt any thing, will only lead from bad to worse—from confusion to strife, from civil war to anarchy; a few years more of which now must seal the fate of poor Mexico for ever. (North American.)

ARRIVALS AT THE PRINCIPAL HOTELS. Up to 12 o'clock, to-day.

GRADLEY—S. KRAMER and D. HOCK, Pennsylvania; G. LAYTON and C. M. BACH, do; C. W. BAWLWYN, U. S. N.; W. C. OGLE, Maryland; R. J. PETERIK, Virginia; M. D. BENJAMIN, New York; R. OAKFORD, Philadelphia; M. SHERMAN, U. S. N.; G. A. PORTER, Delaware; R. GRIS, B. & R. R. Mrs. JAMES, D. C.; J. H. SULLIVAN, J. JEWETT, Virginia; Th. JENSENBACH, Bremen; R. D. BOYD, Alabama; T. G. WALL, Rev. Dr. Fisher, Italy, three daughters and Miss E. Lunderback, New York; Gen. Chapman, Md.

THE CARRIER will at times leave single numbers of this paper with persons who he hopes to enter upon his list. He will call for a response to the request made in this manner.

NOTHING FOR NOTHING.—Advertisements of every description must be paid for in this paper; but church notices and announcements of marriages and deaths are charged only half price, viz: twelve and a half cents for six lines or less.

AUCTION SALES.

By A. GREEN, Auctioneer.

TRUSTEE'S Sale of Real Estate.—On Friday, the 27th instant, I shall sell, on the premises, at 6 o'clock a. m., being fully authorized by a deed of trust recorded in Liber W. B. No. 113, folios 134, 135, and 136, on the land record for Washington county, a two-story Frame House and Lot, situated in square 367, lot No. 52, (subdivided) on 9th street between N and O streets, fronting on the 30-foot alley. Title to be made good or lost free. Belonging to the estate of the late Sarah Brown, deceased. Terms cash. By order of the Trustee. A. GREEN.

NOTICE.—By virtue of a writ of venditioni exponas, issued for Washington County, District of Columbia, and to me directed, I shall offer for sale to the highest bidder, for cash, on Monday, June 20th, at 4 o'clock, p. m., the following property, to-wit: House and lot No. 10, in square 535. Seized and taken as the property of John A. Sasser, and will be sold to satisfy a judgment in favor of Thomas G. Ford. The above sale to take place on the premises, on Fourth and a half street, west, near Maryland avenue, on Monday, May 20th—o'erts. H. E. L. KEESSE, Constable.

ART UNION OF PHILADELPHIA. I, EVERETT member, for the year 1851, will receive for each subscription of $5 a print of Huntington's "Christians and her Children," and the companion, a print of Huntington's "Dreadful Choice," the choice of any two of the following four splendid engravings, viz: 1. John Knox's Interviews with Mary, Queen of Scots; 2. Ruth and Boaz, by Rothemal; 3. Christians and her Children; 4. Mercy's Dream. And a copy of the Philadelphia Art Union Reporter. The Art Union of Philadelphia awards prizes in the form of certificates, with which original American works of Art may be purchased in any part of the United States, at the option and selection of the person who may obtain a prize at the annual distribution. A copy of the engraving of "Mercy's Dream" can be seen on application to JAS. T.