GEORGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

GEORGETOWN, July 24—12 m. The Odson, at the Convent of Visitation, on yesterday was crowded to overflowing, from the commencement to the close of the exercises.

The exercises throughout were highly interesting, and I regret that the time and space allotted will not permit me to notice the great number of beautiful pieces performed and the names of the performers, and the names of those young ladies who received the beautiful medals and the rich premiums as awards of merit.

President Fillmore, assisted by the Rev. Mr. McGuire, distributed the medals and premiums. Officer Adams arrested John Glascoe, a free negro, charged with attempting to commit a rape upon a girl, thirteen years of age, by the name of Carter.

He was taken before Justice Reaver, who committed him to jail. Officer Adams also arrested Chas. Cole, free negro, for breaking into the house of Catharine Barnes. He was committed to jail by the same Justice.

The flour and grain market remains unchanged. There was a sale yesterday of 500 bushels of prime old white wheat, at 92c., to the Columbia mills.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday Mrs. Waring, of Maryland, was on her way down to witness the exhibition at the Convent, her horse became frightened and ran off with the carriage, which upset and very seriously injured her, besides breaking the carriage. The lady's face and head, I understand, was very badly cut and bruised.

Arrivals.—Schr. D. Phillips, Small, Eastport, Maine, to Wheatley & Walker; schr. G. A. Johnson, Johnson, Philadelphia, coast to Georgetown College; bark Eben Dodge, Clarence, Salem, to F. & A. H. Dodge.

Canal Trade.—Arrived, Star, 73 mills, wheat and flour; Wm. Jackson, 62 mills, limestone; Thomas Jefferson, do.; American Flag, 127 mills, wheat, flour, hay, and cement; Edward Pains, 62 mills, limestone.

Departed.—Capt. Walker, Buena Vista, Rambler, C. Arthur, J. R. Annan, Louisa, J. Motter, Ohio, Metacomb, Experiment, Wm. Jackson, Thos. Jefferson, L. A. Phelps. ELECTRO.

BY TELEGRAPH.

New York, July 24—1 p. m. Market unchanged, U. S. 6's, 1867, declined five-eighths.

BALTIMORE, July 24—2 p. m. Sales 1,000 bls. City Mills flour, at $4.50. Grain unchanged.

PITTSBURG, July 22.—A fire broke out this morning in the 5th ward, destroying two brick houses. A woman and child who were in one of the buildings were burned to death.

The railroad excitement here is increasing—a meeting was held last evening in favor of constructing a road from Beaver to Wellsville, which will give Pittsburg direct communication with the lake.

A party of eight hundred left this morning at the city of a pleasure excursion to Rochester. The river is falling slowly, with six feet of water in the channel.

Boston, July 22.—A man named Stephen Lincoln, of Cornish, Maine, attempted to murder his wife on Monday last week, by cutting her throat with a razor. A deep wound was inflicted, exposing the windpipe, but it did not cause immediate death.

Lincoln, it is supposed, was laboring under the effects of delirium tremens. He had in his possession six quarts of rum at the time the deed was committed.

July 23, 2 p. m.—The Canada sailed to-day with forty-eight passengers for Liverpool, fourteen for Halifax, and $16,000 in specie.

Two brothers named Dudley, and a man named Brown, returned Californians, were robbed to-day of $8,000 in gold at the Adonis House.

ROXBURY, Mass., July 22.—Three men belonging to this place, while digging at the corner of Ruggles and Parker streets, last night, at the depth of three or four feet discovered a box or trunk containing a large amount of money, supposed to have been buried by a notorious character named Walker, who occupied a cage in the vicinity some time since.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Advices from Rio Janeiro to June 10th, state that the yellow fever had entirely disappeared.

SALE OF CITY PROPERTY.—J. C. Green (for A. Green, auctioneer) yesterday sold at public sale the following property, to wit:

Lot No. 14, situated in square No. 455, fronting 28 feet 3 inches on G street north, running back 120 feet 23 inches deep, between Sixth and Seventh streets, was sold to John Throckmorton for 21 1/2 cents a square foot; also a two-story brick house, lot fronting 16 feet on north G street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets, were sold to E. Roe for $970; also lot No. 2, in square No. 552, sold to J. F. Wollard for 4 1/2 mills; lot No. 4, in same square, No. 552, sold to same person, for 3 mills; lot No. 5, in same square, sold for same price to same; lot 6, in same square, sold to same person for 3 1/2 mills; lots 8 and 32, in same square, sold to same person for 3 mills; lot 1, in square No. 558, sold to Capt. John Goddard, for 4 mills; lots 2, 3, 4, and 20, sold to same person, for 3 1/2 mills a square foot; lot 5, in square No. 389, sold to Captain Jones, for 5 1/2 cents; lot 8, in square No. 389, sold to T. B. Goddard, for 4 1/2 cents; lots 21 and 22, in square 390, sold to E. A. C. Goddard, for 3 cents a foot.

Nearly all of these lots are on the boundary of the city.

GEN. CASS.—The Philadelphia Statesman says: We scarcely pick up a Democratic paper, either from the North, West, or South, provided that paper is sincerely devoted to the Union—which does not openly advocate the claims of General Cass for the Presidency, or else speak of him in the most flattering terms, as among the most prominent and available of the candidates yet presented to the consideration of the Democracy of the Union.

It is true, the claims of other good and worthy men are more or less ardently urged; but still, the great national services, and the national reputation of Gen. Cass, the unspotted purity of his life and character, whether as a great statesman or a private citizen, has elevated him far above all others named, and to a great extent, destroyed all State and sectional pride in a general desire to place him in a position which his deep devotion to Democratic principles, and his eminent genius and statesmanship so fully qualify him to occupy.

THE WORLD CANNOT PRODUCE STRONGER EVIDENCE THAN THIS, kindly handed to us by J. C. Green, of the most respectable and high-toned gentleman extensively and favorably known. The writer of the article, Captain Caut, is the brother of the celebrated physician to Louis Napoleon, President of the French Republic, and the author of the "Vegetable Kingdom," which is published in this city, by the Rev. R. G. Gurley and R. D. Goodloe; after the reading of which, we cordially and earnestly recommend the Christian Statesman to the patronage of the friends of African Colonization throughout the United States.

THE CHRISTIAN STATESMAN. A WEEKLY NEWS-PAPER. Devoted to African Colonization and Civilization, to Literature and General Intelligence.

THE undersigned proposes to publish, in the City of Baltimore, a weekly newspaper, bearing the above title, and dedicated to a sound morality in Politics, to the Union of the States, to the cause of African Colonization and Civilization, and to all topics of a high and general interest to the community. He offers to endeavor to impress upon the People and Government of the United States and of the several States the importance of colonialization, and to instruct in the most judicious and useful manner the people of color of this country, and such as may become free. They will communicate to the public all important information they may obtain in regard to the Geography, Commerce, and Population of Africa, and the progress of the Slave Trade, and the measures best adapted for its suppression; and will enforce the duty of every citizen to render the most active aid in the effort to diffuse the knowledge of our Arts, Liberty, and Christianity, among the barbarous people of that Continent.

He offers to render the most judicious and useful assistance to the cause of African Colonization, and to secure for its columns, as the public favor shall enable them, contributions, literary and scientific, and to receive for the same a liberal remuneration. He offers to receive for the same a liberal remuneration. He offers to receive for the same a liberal remuneration.

CHRISTIAN STATESMAN will be of the size of the Home Journal or National Era, and exceed in size the Intelligence or the Union of this city; and, with but few exceptions, will be more fully filled with matter designed to be of interest to its readers.

It will be printed with new type, on fine white paper, and in due season, be equal to the best newspapers in the country.

TERMS.—The Christian Statesman will be two dollars a year, payable in advance. Any person who may be pleased to act as voluntary agents, will be responsible to those who may apply to them subscriptions; and to the order of such agents, all communications, and to the order of such agents, all communications, and to the order of such agents, all communications.

R. R. GURLEY, R. D. GOODLOE, COLONIZATION ROOMS, Washington, Dec. 11, 1851.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Colonization Society, held on the 10th instant, the Secretary laid before the Committee the Prospectus of a new newspaper, entitled the Christian Statesman, and to be devoted "to sound morality in Politics, to the Union of the States, to the cause of African Colonization and Civilization, and to all topics of a high and general interest to the community." To be published in this city, by the Rev. R. Gurley and R. D. Goodloe; after the reading of which, we cordially and earnestly recommend the Christian Statesman to the patronage of the friends of African Colonization throughout the United States.
