

REMARKS PAPER.—We continue to receive by every mail newspapers containing our little card "To the Public" and asking an exchange. Our offer in that has been long since revoked.

Cuba Again!

The late disastrous expedition to Cuba has entailed upon all who have not united in denouncing it as a piratical expedition all the ills of which a want of success has, throughout the history of the world, been deemed deserving; and the desire every where appears to be manifested by each virtuous and indignant republican to prove his holy horror and sentiments of humanity to have been most excruciatingly excited by the lawless band of Americans and others who desecrated with unhallowed footprints the sacred soil of Cuba.

Could any counsel of ours have influenced these men, gladly would we have restrained them in their perilous adventure; but, however hopeless their cause, either before or after, we could never denounce them to their Spanish captors, nor to the world. There is no room to doubt that they believed not only that the spirit of revolution was rife in Cuba, but that various efforts had been made by the Creoles to effect their desired object. Is this denied?

The National Intelligencer of this morning quotes from the New Orleans Delta, of July 22d, (for the purpose of rebuking, and proving fraudulent purposes upon its editors,) certain accounts of Cuban insurrectionary movements, wherein it was announced that the revolution had commenced, that a battle had been fought, that the patriots were triumphant, and more to the same effect. Whether the Delta did or did not credit these reports, we do not know; but we do know that on the 28th of July, (six days later,) the Intelligencer itself stated that its editors had, on the preceding evening, seen and conversed with a gentleman direct from Havana, who, having been a passenger in the steamer Isabel as far as Charleston, had made the trip from Cuba to this city in less than six days. This gentleman stated that Havana was filled with rumors of a revolt against the Government in the eastern part of the island, which many persons supposed to be of a serious nature. Among these reports, it was further stated, was one that at Puerto Principe three companies of the regiment of Cantabria had thrown down their arms and gone over to the Creole insurgents; and that the remainder of the regiment had been publicly disbanded at Havana.

The Intelligencer, though apparently relying upon this statement, appends an account from the "Gaceta de la Habana," relating the same occurrences, though greatly diminishing their consequence.

That both the journals we have named may have been misled is possible; but that one or both intended deception is not to us apparent.

At the present moment the statement of Lt. Van Vechten is attracting much attention. That this statement is inaccurate in important facts, and that its writer ventures upon very absurd arguments and conclusions, we think is quite obvious to any one who reads with attention. Our first impression on perusing the letter was, that if the writer had received his life and liberty on condition that he would sign and defend as his own a certain letter, this is such a letter as would be presented to him. The New York Sun remarks:

"What he says regarding the character and motives of the expedition, places him in no enviable light before the world. He undoubtedly feels grateful to the Captain General for his life and liberty, but still the style in which he speaks of the gallant Crittenden and his companions, however pleasing it may be to the Spanish authorities and their friends in this country, will only excite contempt for the writer in every manly American breast.

"Mr. Van Vechten alludes to the sale of Cuban bonds in New Orleans, and of these one paper states that Mr. Van V. purchased or obtained to the amount of $10,000. If this be so he has made a bad speculation. He also speaks of having been deceived by Mr. Sigur of New Orleans. We rather think that Mr. S. will consider that he was miserably deceived in Mr. Van Vechten; for if we have learned to judge correctly of Mr. Sigur's character, we feel certain that he would scorn to employ the services of such a man as Mr. Van Vechten confesses himself to be. We do not know Mr. Sigur otherwise than through the testimony of his fellow-citizens of New Orleans, and according to the general opinion there, a more high-minded and honorable man is not in New Orleans.

"Mr. Sigur is a man who despises all mean and deceptive conduct, and unless he should come forward and confess, after the style of Mr. Van Vechten, that he is not the honorable and proud-spirited man which he has been esteemed, we will not believe that he has been seduced by the mean, avicious motives ascribed to him. But Mr. Sigur can and will defend his own character; and he will show, we doubt not, that he cannot be degraded by the statements of a man over-grateful that they have been allowed to return to the United States to serve the ends and interests of Haynau Concha and the hateful Government he represents.

"We have reason to suspect that Mr. Van Vechten's skill in composition would hardly enable him to prepare a document like the above for the press. It would interest the public to know if he had any assistance, and whose. Since the account was published we have heard more than one person remark that Mr. Van V.'s statement about Gen. Lopez applying 'a red raw-hide' to the men, to make them fire quicker, staggered their confidence in the narrative. Had Lopez dared to apply a raw-hide to any American in the party, he would not have lived five minutes after."

TEXAS CREDITORS.—Of the meeting yesterday we find no regular report this morning; but learn, in addition to what we yesterday stated, that the debate on General Hamilton's resolutions continued in an exciting strain. Mr. Houston, of Delaware, stated that the committee had presented their resolutions simply as suggestions for the creditors, without claiming for them any peculiar merit, but as a basis for action. They however, together with numerous other propositions, were laid on the table, and the meeting adjourned sine die, without effecting any thing definite. It is understood that the creditors will rely upon Congress to adjudicate matters between them and Texas.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS SUITS.—We learn from good authority that the President of the United States and Secretaries Conrad and Stuart are expected to return to this city by Sunday next.

The Christiana Murder.

The Philadelphia and Baltimore papers contain very ample and particular accounts of this affair; and nearly their whole tenor appears to have been conveyed by the statements we have already given. The death of the elder Mr. Gorsuch, his severe wounding of his son and injury to his other companions, are the acts that have so intensely excited the public mind in Pennsylvania and Maryland. These acts were committed by a party of negroes, (and none others,) combined for the purpose of preventing the arrest of two slaves belonging to Mr. Gorsuch. If there was the least appearance of tardiness on the part of the authorities and people of Pennsylvania to cause the arrest and punishment of the violators of law, we should look upon the affair as possessing interest of a grave national character. But this is not the case. Every thing is being done that can be toward apprehending and bringing to punishment the offenders; and we believe the precedent will not prove such as to give encouragement to the future resistance of law in Pennsylvania.

The Philadelphia Bulletin of yesterday evening says:

"Our contemporaries of the daily press unite, without distinction of party, in condemning the atrocious outrage at Christiana, on Thursday. The general testimony, however, is that the whites of the neighborhood, though they unanimously refused to assist the slave-owner in any way, did not incite the negroes to riot."

The jury of the coroner are asserted by some, however, to be sympathizers with the negroes. The following is the minute of their doings:

"A coroner's inquest was held by Joseph D. Powell, esq., on the body of Edward Gorsuch, who returned a verdict, the substance of which is as follows:

"Upon the affirmation of Geo. Whitson, John Rowland, Osborne Darr, Hiram Kennard, Sam'l Miller, Lewis Cooper, George Firth, William Knott, John Ellis, Wm. Millhouse, Joseph Richmond, and Miller Knott, good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, who, being duly affirmed, and charged to inquire, on the part of the Commonwealth, when, where, and how the said deceased came to his death, do say, upon their affirmations, that, on the morning of the 11th inst., the neighborhood was thrown into an excitement by the above deceased, and some five or six persons in company with him, making an attack upon a family of colored persons living in said Gap, near the brick mill, about 4 o'clock in the morning, for the purpose of arresting some fugitive slaves, as they alleged. Many of the colored people of the neighborhood collected, and there was considerable firing of guns and other firearms by both parties; upon the arrival of some of the neighbors at the place after the riot had subsided, found the above deceased lying upon his back, on right side, dead. Upon a post-mortem examination upon the body of the said deceased, made by Drs. Patterson and Martin, in our presence, we believe he came to his death by gun-shot wounds that he received in the above-mentioned riot, caused by some person or persons to us unknown."

APPOINTMENT.—We see it stated that the California Land Commissioners have conferred the position of Secretary to the Board on Dr. Charles W. Davis, a gentleman who served with great credit to himself on General Wool's staff in Mexico. Dr. Davis is a ripe Spanish scholar, and it is remarked that the Board will doubtless be greatly benefited by the acquisition of so competent an officer. He was for a short period before his close the Secretary of the late Board on Mexican Claims.

P. S.—We have reason to doubt that this appointment has yet been determined on.

THERMOMETRICAL.—Even in our changeable climate we have seldom experienced so sudden a transition of summer into winter as the past few days have shown us. The last week was quite as oppressive as the severest weather of July or August; while the present week requires closed doors, fires, and cloth apparel.

A writer in this morning's Intelligencer, who resides in an elevated position on Capitol Hill, furnishes a memorandum of the state of a thermometer within his house, and on the sunny side without, during a few days, from which we make the following table:

Table with 3 columns: Date, Shade, Sun. (Sept 12-2 p.m., 94, 132; 13-3 p.m., 94, 132; 14-3 a.m., 73, 67; 15-morning, 45, 45)

The difference between the midday heat of the 13th and the morning temperature of the 14th was therefore, within the house, 21 degrees, and without, 71! and the general comparison of the last and present weeks will give pretty near the same range.

NORTHERN LIBERTIES MARKET-HOUSE.—The Republic of this morning states that the Board of Aldermen, last evening, passed the bill of the Board of Common Council authorizing the Mayor to appoint as commissioners two citizens, freeholders, who, with the Mayor, are authorized to extend the Northern Liberties Market-house to Eighth street west, the said extension to be built of the best materials, and in the most substantial manner, with all the necessary stalls and benches, and other fixtures; the same to be done by contract with the lowest competent bidder. For the purpose of carrying the law into effect, fifteen hundred dollars are appropriated.

MR. WEBSTER'S ILLNESS.—The Lowell Courier, a paper entirely friendly to the distinguished statesman, sincerely hopes his health may be improving, as stated, but adds, that "it is certain Mr. Webster's intimate friends in New Hampshire are very seriously alarmed at the present state of it. They look upon him as a very sick man—his old complaint having recently attacked him with more severity than ever before. We are told that his sudden return to Boston was occasioned by a desire to consult his physician."

PERSEVERANCE ENGINE COMPANY.—We the other day alluded to an instance of insubordination at the engine-house of this company, in which the authority of the Mayor and president of the company was set at defiance. We learn that, at a meeting held last evening, the conduct of the person most prominent in this affair (and, we believe, the only one against whom any proof could be produced) was condemned, and that he was required to resign his position. The action of the president on the occasion was very properly commended by a vote of the company. This is just what we expected of the noble old "Perseus," and is worthy of imitation in every instance of improper behaviour on the part of a member of any engine company in this city.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER EUROPA.

Three Days later from Europe. The Baltimore Sun of this morning, with its habitual energy, contains the following summary, despatched from Halifax at 12 o'clock last night, of the news brought by the steamer Europa, which arrived there yesterday evening, with three days' later news from Europe. She has 161 passengers. The Europa sailed from Halifax for Boston at 10 1/2 o'clock last night.

The political news possesses no feature of striking interest. Advice from the United States are considered unfavorable to the market. British manufactured goods continue brisk, without change in prices. The Manchester market is quiet, supposed to be caused by increased caution which recent heavy failures inspired. Merchants and bankers are contracting.

THE MARKETS.—Liverpool, Sept. 6.—Cotton assumed a dull aspect. Buyers find the feeling much in their favor. The most current qualities of America have declined nearly 1/4 during the week. The authorized quotations are: Fair Mobile 5 1/4; fair Orleans 6 1/4; Uplands 5 1/4. The sales of the week are 36,500 bales, of which speculators took 3,000; exporters 5,000 bales. The sales of Friday were 6,000 bales, 1,500 to speculators and exporters; market closed quiet.

Breadstuffs.—Grain is in demand and brisk at previous prices. A good steady business in wheat and flour at full rates current at the sailing of the Pacific. There is less disposition to press sales.

Provisions.—There is nothing new to report beyond the extreme dullness. Lard continues active. Tallow quiet, but no lower in prices. Groceries.—A larger business is doing in sugar than for several weeks. The prices, however, are the same as at the sailing of the Pacific. Tea, rice, and coffee quiet, and transactions very limited.

Naval Stores.—Tar 12s. 3d. @ 12s. 4d. Turpentine easier; sales of spirits at 33s. Lined oil dull at 33s. 6d. Iron.—This market is dull.

ARRIVAL OF DR. GARDINER.—The well-known "X" of the Baltimore Sun wrote this city to that paper yesterday evening: "Dr. Gardiner has returned in the Pacific, and will arrive here to-night or to-morrow morning early. I have seen and talked with him in New York. He is ready to meet and confound all his accusers."

We have to add that Dr. Gardiner has arrived in this city, and that already he has been in the custody of the Marshal and bailed out, giving security in the sum of $40,000. Dr. Thomas Miller and Mr. Riggs (late a partner of Mr. Corcoran) entered on his bond. Dr. Miller was the security of the brother of Dr. Gardiner in the sum of $8,000. It is reported in this city, however, that a deposit of $70,000 has been made to indemnify Dr. M.

So then, issue will be joined, and the "great Gardiner Claim" will be settled at last. The younger Gardiner has gone to Mexico, it is said, to procure testimony to establish the validity of this claim.

CALIFORNIA LAND COMMISSIONER.—Among the distinguished strangers now in the city is the Hon. HARRY I. THORNTON, of the California Land Commission. Judge Thornton is a native of Virginia, but has been a citizen of the State of Alabama for upwards of twenty years. He is a gentleman of elegant scholastic attainments, an eminent lawyer, and "graced the ermine" on the bench of the supreme court of the State of Alabama for several years. The Judge married the sister of the Hon. J. J. Crittenden.

No man in Alabama is more esteemed than Judge T. for his talents, learning, professional celebrity, high honor, and exemplary deportment.

Colonel James I. Thornton, (brother of the Judge,) formerly Secretary of State of Alabama, is also in the city.

THE CENTRE MARKET this morning was only tolerably full; but the demand was cleverly met at the following prices: Beef (best) 10c. per lb.; veal 12c. do.; lamb 8c. do.; pork 10c. do.; lard 10c. do.; chickens $2 to $3.50 per doz.; eggs 16c. do.; butter 16c. to 31c. per lb.; (good butter very scarce); Irish potatoes, 25c. per peck; sweet potatoes, 25c. do.; tomatoes, 20c. do.; Lima beans 10c. per qt.; beets 6c. a bunch; cucumbers, 25c. to 37c. a hundred; egg plants 4c. to 12c. a piece; corn, 12c. to 14c. a doz.; apples 10c. to 31c. a peck; peaches 25c. to 50c. do.; pears 25c. to 50c. do.; wild grapes 25c. do.

GRAND LODGE OF THE UNITED STATES, I. O. O. F.—The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the United States commenced its session at Baltimore yesterday morning. The Sun states that a very large delegation, numbering about one hundred, was present, nearly every State in the Union being represented. (Among the rest is a visiting delegate from Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, P. G. Webster.) The Grand Lodge proceeded to the installation of officers, as follows, with appropriate ceremonies:

Grand Sire—W. W. Moore, D. C. Deputy Grand Sire—H. L. Page, Wisconsin. Grand Secretary—James L. Ridgely, Md. Grand Treasurer—A. E. Warner, Md. Grand Chaplain—J. M. Willey, Conn. Grand Warden—John Seesford, Jr., D. C. Grand Messenger—J. E. Chamberlain, Md. Grand Guardian—J. L. Lewry, Md.

POLITICAL CAPITAL.—Governor Johnston, of Pennsylvania, has been considered by some not "sound on the slavery question." The recent lamentable occurrence in Chester county has called for a test of his official good faith, and he has stood up to the line of duty. The affair for political uses has proved opportune, and the most will be made of it. We hope, however, too much attention may not thus be given to the subject. Let enough be done to allay the apprehensions of the dissatisfied—nothing to provoke excitement. Arrest the violators of the law, and give them adequate punishment; and there let the matter end.

POLICE.—It is worthy of remark that, on the 12th of September, a sort of half-holiday in Washington, and a military parade day to boot, there was not a single arrest made.

To-day we hear of nothing, except a poor little lost boy, who found refuge at Justice Smith's office.

DEATH OF J. FENIMORE COOPER.—We learn with regret, by a telegraphic despatch of yesterday's date, from New York, that James Fenimore Cooper, the distinguished novelist, died on Sunday at his residence in Cooperstown. He had long been in feeble health, and a fatal termination to his disease was anticipated.
