

Approaching Revolutions!

All minds appear to have attained, with unusual unanimity, the conclusion that the era of general revolution is about to dawn, and that Europe is soon to witness a terrible struggle between the friends of freedom on the one side and the ruling powers and their hired soldiery on the other.

On the part of the republicans, such preparatory measures are being concerted as time and opportunity warrant, while there is little doubt that the rulers of the different governments, from the Emperor of Russia down to the President, or whatever he may be called, of France, are agreed to make common their contests with the people, and to oppose and crush each revolutionary effort by their united power.

We look with awe upon the prospect, anticipating a dreadful conflict, a terrible aggregate of human suffering, and the flowing of blood like water upon the battle-field and scaffold! And what the great result will be, heaven only knows! Whether it is to prove the triumph or the prostration of civil and religious liberty may not be known to man until the great consummation is before us. We are not without our apprehensions as to this result.

In the right of the people of every clime to the enjoyment of "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," we firmly believe; but it has not appeared in the past that a condition of thralldom and oppression affords a good school in which to acquire the moderation and liberality that will prepare men for self-government; nor is the transition through blood and carnage adapted to soothe the harsher asperities of our nature.

Still, if this be the only avenue to freedom, let us enter it, and rest our hopes on the success of a good cause and the courage and endurance of its champions. The blasphemy of those who claim the "divine right of kings" will surely be rebuked, and the miserable absurdity must be swept from before the vision of men. God, and nature, and human experience concurrently approve the spirit of republicanism, and the representative form of government; peace and prosperity attend those governments established in obedience thereto; and the occupant of every throne is unhappy and insecure in his jealous regard of the growth of this spirit in the bosoms of his people. These things are but premonitions that the day of regal and imperial power is passing away, and that thrones can henceforth depend for their perpetuity upon nought but the power of the bayonet and the base servitude of parasites and sycophants.

But how shall men arise in their disunited helplessness, and oppose the organized tyranny by which they are oppressed? How shall the hordes of peace, whose path has ever been in the humble and lowly pursuits of private life, arise in the name of freedom to oppose the tutored and disciplined men of blood, who know nothing of justice or duty beyond obeying a master and receiving for their maintenance the price of the blood they shed?

These are fearful questions, and well may we tremble in anticipation of the realities before us; but let it be remembered that the indomitable will, the consciousness of right, and the glorious end in view, have heretofore inspired such strength and prowess as have banished the most magnificent tyrants in the East, and borne the standard of liberty and justice to triumphant victory!

It is the misfortune of men, in the helplessness of a disorganized condition, to submit too vaguely upon the fearful sea of revolution; and the failure to succeed is hence, by the enemies of freedom, interpreted to denote the impotence of their cause. Often have the soldier-gods posers been thus maligned, and the best of men traduced.

At the present moment, however, another course is being attempted; and men of wider reputation and acknowledged integrity are endeavoring to unite the sentiments and the means of the republicans of Europe in one grand concerted struggle for political emancipation, and they are everywhere calling upon the family of man for sympathy and aid. Shall that call be made in vain? Will the people of a new-born, successful, and glorious republic turn to it a deaf ear, or disregard the cause for which the blood of their fathers was poured out as a willing oblation? Never, never! In every camp there may be traitors—among the scions of gallant men there may be bastards and degenerate sons—but among the true republicans of America there are not, and cannot be, those who would scorn, deride, and repudiate the cause of republican freedom, or silence its cry for sympathy and succor, whether proceeding from Spanish or Italian dungeons, or the gory fields of France, of Poland, or of Hungary!

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.—An election will be held this day for fifteen Representatives in Congress; for State Senators for the Amelia, Bedford, Spotsylvania, Albemarle, Fauquier, Augusta, Shenandoah, and Monongahela districts; and for Delegates to the Assembly from all the counties. This election will be held under the present constitution, and those persons only will be entitled to a vote who are qualified under its provisions. The election will be limited to one day, unless kept open for the special reasons now allowed by law. A vote will be taken throughout the State on the question of ratifying or rejecting the amended constitution recommended by the late State convention. On this question the polls will be kept open three days, beginning with to-day, and all persons qualified under the existing or amended constitution will be entitled to exercise the right of suffrage. If a majority of the votes taken on these three days be for the ratification of the new constitution, and the Governor having proclaimed the fact, an election will be held throughout the State, on the 8th of December next, for a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney General, and for members of the Senate and House of Delegates. All persons qualified according to the provisions of the new constitution, and no others, will be entitled to vote in this election; and it will vacate the seats of the members of the General Assembly elected to-day.

Mr. WEBSTER.—This great statesman was enthusiastically received at Miss Hayes's concert, at Boston, on Tuesday night. He on the same night was serenaded by Bond's Cornet Band. He appeared at the window, and was received with tremendous cheering, and addressed the multitude substantially as follows: "Friends—I am greatly honored by this call, I assure you. Nothing is sweeter than the congratulation of friends, such as has now been given me. Sleep is sweet, but I am always glad to be waked up on such occasions, and at such times. Rest assured, fellow-citizens, I am deeply thankful for this kind remembrance. I wish you all a good night."

Mr. W. retired amidst the most enthusiastic cheers.

BALTIMORE SHOWS.—The Clipper of this morning says, that this is emphatically a utilitarian week in that city, being devoted by citizens and great numbers from the counties to the examination of things of practical utility. The exhibitions at the Maryland Agricultural Society's grounds, near the city, and at the splendid and spacious Hall of the Maryland Institute, engross public attention. They have attracted thousands of persons to that city, and are worthy of all consideration.

So cheerfully and pleasantly does the Philadelphia Sun treat the late Democratic triumph, that we really feel glad it has been lammed so considerably! P. S.—We condole with the North American.

LOLA MONTES.—The Philadelphia Sun says, many editors are advertising this woman by discussing her demerits—(we have seen editorial apologies for them.)—but that the best way to treat her is not to notice her at all. She is a very bad woman—a bawd—but she will soon occupy a prominent place on our theatrical boards, and be patronized by thousands of American ladies. It is a pity, to be sure, but cannot be helped!

TAYLOR & MAURY have received Blackwood, for October, containing the Essays of Mr. Helps; My Novel, or Varieties in English Life, part iv.; the New Zealanders; the Italian Revolution; Levantine Rambles; Day-Dreams of an Exile; a Voice from the Diggings; the Experiment.

THE CIRQUE COMING.—The great Southern establishment of Johnson & May, organized under the name of the "People's Circus," will visit this city on Wednesday next. Their great success, and the high reputation they have acquired during the past summer, prove that the attractions are of the first order. Messrs. Jennings and May are the clowns—each acknowledged as unsurpassed in his peculiar vocation.

TWO WAYS OF THINKING.—A writer in the Norfolk Herald of Wednesday makes the following announcement: "GOOD WORK COMMENCED!—Thomas Harrison, of Princess Anne, has been appointed Light-house keeper at Cape Henry. He is a good Whig, and takes the place of a Democrat that has long enjoyed the 'spoils.'"

The Argus of the same day treats the subject thus: "OFF WITH HIS HEAD.—Two days just before the election a receipt is received from the Treasury Department for the removal of James Atkinson, the keeper of the Cape Henry Light-house. This is one of the most petty and vindictive species of vengeance recorded in the black catalogue of proscription."

A RADISH.—We this morning received as a present from Mr. James Cunningham, of Rock Creek Farm, near Georgetown, a white and firm specimen of this vegetable, weighing four and a half pounds, and measuring eleven inches in length and seventeen in circumference.

NAVAL.—Samuel T. Hart, esq., Naval Constructor, has been detached from the Gosport navy yard, and ordered to the navy yard at Pensacola.

SUFFERING DOWN.—The Winchester Virginian falls of Whig file!

By the President of the United States. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS there is reason to believe that a military expedition is about to be fitted out in the United States for the purpose of invading the Mexican Republic, with which this country is at peace; and whereas there is reason to apprehend that a portion of the people of this country, regardless of their duty as good citizens, are concerned in or may be seduced to take part in the same; and whereas such enterprises tend to degrade the character of the United States in the opinion of the civilized world, and are expressly prohibited by law:

NOW, THEREFORE, I have issued this my PROCLAMATION, warning all persons who shall connect themselves with any such enterprise, in violation of the laws and national obligations of the United States, that they will thereby subject themselves to the heavy penalties denounced against such offences; that if they should be captured within the jurisdiction of the Mexican authorities, they must expect to be tried and punished according to the laws of Mexico, and will have no right to claim the interposition of this Government in their behalf.

I therefore exhort all well-disposed citizens who have at heart the reputation of their country, and are animated with a just regard for its laws, its peace, and its welfare, to discountenance, and by all lawful means prevent, any such enterprise; and I call upon every officer of this Government, civil or military, to be vigilant in arresting for trial and punishment every such offender.

Given under my hand the twenty-second day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and the seventy-sixth of the independence of the United States. MILLARD FILLMORE.

By the President: J. J. CRITTENDEN, Acting Secretary of State.

[Correspondence of the American Telegraph.] Death of Wm. Bailey Tyler—Fatal Accident, and Death of Washington Carr—Religious Revival—The Elections.

LEESBURG, LOUDOUN CO., (Va.) Oct. 21. To the Editors of the American Telegraph. GENTLEMEN: I have painful news to impart to you. William Bailey Tyler, esq., is no more! He tarried in town on Sunday night, on his way from Prince William county to Davis's Mills, in Maryland. Yesterday morning he left for the Mills, and arrived there in the evening, and died in about ten minutes after getting out of his buggy.

This morning a distressing and fatal accident happened near Leesburg: Washington Carr was out gunning, and having stopped at a mill near Mr. N. S. Braden's to see a friend, was standing with his foot on a log, when a fine team of horses passed by. He turned his head to look at them, when his foot slipped from the log, and striking the trigger the gun went off, and the whole load passed through his head. He died in about three hours after he was shot, having never spoken. Mr. Carr was very rich, and is one of the best young men in this county.

The M. E. Church, South, had had some very fine meetings within the last few weeks at Farewell, Belmont, the Grove, Seolin, and White Post, all within a few miles of this town. Some fifty or sixty converts have been made, the meetings being conducted by Rev. G. W. Carter, D. P. Will, and Wm. Berry.

The elections are at hand. Morton will beat Strother in this county roundly. The "Fillmoreites" don't like either of them, as they are too strongly southern. The Whigs have promised to give Summers 1,500 majority in Loudoun. I hear a good deal of complaint in their party, and they don't like mixed bids.

Yours, LOUDOUN. THE AQUA CREEK AFFAIR.—A misstatement has been going the rounds of several newspapers in relation to an affray which occurred at Aqua Creek, on Tuesday last, between J. A. Morrison and J. Cantwell. These papers have it that Morrison stabbed or cut Cantwell so that his (Cantwell's) life was despaired of, &c. This is wrong. Morrison had no weapon at all. It was Cantwell who cut Morrison in ten different places; but, as good fortune would have it, none of the wounds were very serious. Morrison is now at the United States Hotel, and doing well under the care of Dr. May; and Cantwell was arrested promptly, and lodged in jail at Fredericksburg.

DIPLOMACY.—A despatch from this city yesterday says: A communication was recently addressed to our Government by Lord Palmerston, respecting expeditions fitted out in the United States against Cuba; but it was answered in a dignified and truly American paper by Mr. Crittenden, Acting Secretary of State, who intimated in very plain terms, that England had better occupy herself with her own affairs—meaning, in downright vernacular, mind her own business. This reply will probably prevent all European interference, or, at all events, will warn those Powers what may be expected should they obtrude in our concerns. The document does Mr. Crittenden and the Administration great credit.

Sir Henry L. Bulwer has retired from the British mission at Washington, and it is said, is to receive a European appointment.

ANTICIPATED REMOVAL OF OFFICE-HOLDERS.—A special correspondent of the New York Herald says: "It is believed that the personal abuse indulged in by the Johnson papers in Pennsylvania, and especially by the Harrisburg American, (edited by Johnston's brother,) of Mr. Fillmore and Mr. Webster, will have the effect of stirring up the administration to a defence of its friends in that State, and the removal of the Johnson clique, who now fill almost every office in it. There will be some shaking among the dry bones there before long."

W. W. MAN, the Magician and Ventriquist, fills Odd-Fellows' Hall nightly with delighted spectators.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The defeat of the Secessionists in South Carolina, which is complete in every Congressional district except one, affords a striking illustration of the power of a few agitators to make a great noise, and to give to their own clamor the outward appearance of the expression of public opinion.

The co-operationists in South Carolina, it may be urged, are in favor of secession, as well as their adversaries; they only wish to defer it until some other Southern State is prepared to secede with them. If there was no contest then in the State, avowedly on the abstract right of secession, it matters not much since the question of its practical enforcement has been pretty decidedly settled. So long as the question remains abstract, it cannot do a great deal of harm.

The result of the elections in Georgia, Mississippi, and Alabama gives a fair assurance that in the determination of South Carolina not to attempt secession until some of her sister States are prepared to go with her, there is to be found a guaranty against the danger of any such attempt by her. The co-operationists have gained a victory for the Union.

WONDERFUL DISCOVERY! "NONE NEED DESPAIR." All must admit there never has been given such a mass of genuine testimony in favor of any other medicine. Give it a trial! It cures all other remedies. It is the only one. Greater weight of testimony cannot be given. First men in this country. BALTIMORE, Sept. 18, 1851.

GENTLEMEN: After a full and satisfactory trial of the medicine prepared by you, and very generally known as Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, which you recommended me to use as a relief for the debility and general prostration of my system, the result of taking three bottles of this wonderful compound has, I am pleased to say, resulted in a restoration of strength, a keen appetite, and an activity of body which I have not enjoyed for a long time. So satisfied am I of the virtues of this medicine, that I have confidently recommended it to many of my friends and acquaintances, and am happy to learn that in a great majority of cases it has met with the same success. I am satisfied that your advice to me to give it a trial has, under the blessing of a kind Providence, resulted in a restoration to health, which I can truly thank you for. Respectfully, W. M. MORTIMER & MOWBRAY, Baltimore, Md.

MORE HOME TESTIMONY.—NONE NEED DESPAIR! TRY IT AND BE CURED.—WONDERFUL AND PERMANENT CURE OF DYSPEPSIA. BALTIMORE, Sept. 13, 1851. Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray—Gentlemen: This is to certify that in the year 1843 I was attacked with a nervous debility, the result of dyspepsia, and of indigestion, which continued some eighteen months during which time my sufferings were intense, both of body and mind. I tried every thing I could think or hear of, (as a general rule) in the way of medicine, but all without success. I was at length induced to try your invaluable Tincture, the latter being much distended. At this stage of my disorder I could neither eat, sleep or walk with any satisfaction to myself. I felt as if I were burdened to death. My feelings were so oppressed that I could scarcely stand. I continued, with the use of this invaluable Tincture, to improve daily, until I had taken the contents of three bottles, which, under Divine Providence, made a perfect cure of me.

I found I had an excellent appetite, and could partake of any food, which I could not do for a year previously. I was enabled to get good health, and save some years of the last six years; and would say to all afflicted by me, to cast aside your prejudices, and try Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, which you have so liberally and cheerfully described in the afflicted. Yours, WILLIAM M. OLDHAM, Custom-House, dwelling, Fayette st., near Fremont.

SUCH A MASS OF HOME TESTIMONY MUST CARRY CONVICTION TO EVERY MIND. BALTIMORE, Sept. 18, 1851. Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray—Gentlemen: The cure of Mr. Robert Gaunt, by the use of three bottles of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, as per his certificate, I think, is unparalleled. His case is a most extraordinary one, suffering from Chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, came immediately under my own observation, through the last four years, which I considered entirely hopeless. Through my earnest persuasion, he was induced to try your invaluable Tincture. I was prompted to remark at the time that if medicine would cure Mr. Gaunt, it certainly would cure me. The knowledge of this cure has since been a great comfort to me, and I am glad to be able to say that if medicine would cure Mr. Gaunt, it certainly would cure me. Yours, JAMES P. MERRITT, 187 Baltimore street.

HAMPTON'S TINCTURE is the great purifier of the blood, will cure Scrofula, Rheumatism, and all Liver Complaint, Distention of the Throat and Breast, &c.; a certain relief in all nervous complaints. As a female medicine it has no equal. Thousands will be cured by its use. Call on our agents and get pamphlets with certificates of wonderful cures; also the history of the medicine gratis.
