

One of the Proprietors of the American Telegraph, Washington city, wishing to withdraw therefrom, at a very early period, for the purpose of entering upon other pursuits, offers his interest of one-third for sale on reasonable terms. Apply to the publishers.

The Department of State. It appears to be regarded as certain that Mr. Webster will, at an early day, resign his present position, and rumor assigns it to Mr. Crittenden or Mr. Everett, while Mr. Choate is named for Mr. Crittenden's place.

We never have felt any attachment to Mr. Webster, and shall never yield to him our support for the Presidency, to which he aspires; yet we are not blind to his great merits. We shall regret his departure from the State Department, and shall never expect again to see his equal in it. His resignation will be a national loss; and, in view of any present questions of moment pending between the United States and other powers, we should regard it as a national calamity. We doubt that, in relation to any important diplomatic negotiation ever conducted by him for this government, we have ever had cause for regret. His policy has been direct and decided, and the interests and honor of his country have always been safely reposed in his hands. Far-seeing, able, and wise, the arts of the diplomatist are useless in his hands, and unavailing when opposed to him. He rises in his giant might superior to forms and conventionalities—treaties are stripped of all complexity, and their stipulations and implications made so plain that every man of common sense may grasp their import. Had he no ambition but to serve his country, the ladder would be placed before him on which to ascend to the highest honors it can bestow. Departing from the position he now occupies, the shadow of his colossal form will overcast any successor who may be nominated to that place.

The Temptations of Prosperity. There is a tendency on the part of some editors, who grow rich in their pursuits in this country, to become grave, dignified, and very conservative also; and not a few of them cease to urge the rights of labor and the welfare of the masses, and talk pompously of the permanent welfare of society as being dependant upon the prudence and foresight of men of "respectable position and deep interests in the stability of its institutions." Prosperity, however, is not always essential to lead to this way of thinking, as there are toadies as well as lords to be found in every clime—apes as well as lions. It is by such persons that every advancing step of republicanism is ridiculed, and every popular demonstration sneered at as the indiscreet and excitable proclivity of the rabble!

In observing these things, we have often witnessed, with pleasure and admiration, the manly, republican, and straightforward course of one of the most able, intelligent, and elevated journals in the land—and one, too, that is surrounded by every influence calculated to tempt it from its high career. We allude to the Baltimore American. Wealthy and prosperous in the highest degree—the preferred medium of the mercantile classes—the special favorite of the most wealthy and intelligent people of the community, it appears never to forget the duty it owes to the people, but ever to sympathize with them and their cause.

We could cite many instances in illustration of these remarks, but the following eloquent passage from the columns of the American of this morning will, for the present, suffice:

Kossuth.—The exploded calumnies which were sent to this country to the disparagement of Kossuth, for the purpose of chilling the cordial welcome that rises to greet him from the hearts and voices of the American people, may serve as a warning in advance against a too ready credulity of such slander in future. These with which falsehoods may be put upon paper, or circulated in other ways, by those who are wicked enough to forge them, might occur to the public mind, and induce a distrust rather of the calumny than of the calumniator.

No one, surely, can suppose that a man like Kossuth, who has gone through such struggles and trials as those that have marked his career, could live at this day without enemies. To this consideration let it be added, that he who confronted the hosts of despotism on the field, now raises his voice so that all the world can hear it in words of terrible invective against despotism on its throne—so that wherever Kossuth goes, or wherever the echo of his utterance reaches, there, in the eyes of civilization, the ferocity of Russia and the perfidy of Austria stand condemned. The imbecile tyrant of the House of Hapsburg comes cowering before the tribunal of mankind, to which he is dragged by the strong hand of the Hungarian hero, and there is made to know the sentence of ignominy that awaits him.

Washington City Watch-House.—There were no guests here last night, excepting a few poor creatures who applied for protection from the night's inclement weather.

A FINE BUSINESS.—From the recent report of the Methodist Book Concern in New York, it appears that the sales for the last twelve months were more than $200,000, being an increase of $65,000 over the previous year, and exceeding all former years. The profits on the new Hymn Book were $47,461. The Christian Advocate and Journal has a circulation of from 25,000 to 29,000. The Missionary Advocate, 20,000. The Sunday School Advocate, 65,000, with a yearly sale of Sunday School Books amounting to $5,000. The Quarterly Review has 3,000 subscribers.

Rev. NORVAL WILSON.—We regret to learn from the Marlboro' (Md.) Planters' Advocate, that this gentleman met with a serious accident on Sunday last, while returning from Emory Chapel. He was driving a restless horse in a buggy, which, attempting to run away, kicked him, lacerating both legs in a most shocking manner. Indeed his wounds were of such a painful character, that he fainted before he could be extricated from the vehicle. We understand, says the Advocate, that Mr. E. Lloyd Perrio, being on the spot, conveyed him in his carriage to his residence, where he received every attention which his situation required.

Distinguished Visitors. Hon. Mr. Disney, of Ohio, Hon. R. M. Price, of New Jersey, and Hon. W. H. Polk, of Tennessee, members elect of the next House of Representatives, are in this city, quartered at the National Hotel. Captain Long, of the steamer Mississippi, and E. K. Collins, esq., of New York, are at Willard's Hotel.

OUTRAGE.—It is stated in the Chicago Advertiser, that on the 27th ult. sixteen of the Hungarians who left New York recently for the West came to that city from the Southern Michigan Railroad, where they had been at work, and been driven off by a mob, which attacked them in their quarters, on a Sunday, while they were engaged in religious worship.

New Publications.

We are indebted to Messrs. Taylor & Maury for Nos. 2 and 3 of "Arvine's Cyclopaedia of Anecdotes of Literature and the Fine Arts." It is a valuable work, from the press of Gould & Lincoln, Boston, and will be completed in eight numbers.

We are also indebted to Messrs. Taylor & Maury for a pamphlet copy of "A Charge delivered to the Clergy of the Diocese of Ohio," by Bishop Melville, on spiritual regeneration. It is from the press of the Harpers.

INCENDIARIES.—It is seldom that a fire occurs in this city from any other cause than incendiary; and we perceive that in all the other cities the same evil exists. In Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, &c., however, thieves and robbers are the agents; while here, boys who delight in the engines are believed to be almost exclusively concerned. It is said that numbers of these full-grown ruffians are tending this way; and unless great vigilance is used, we may have sad work the coming winter. We would recommend the vigilant enforcement of the vagrant laws.

CATHERINE HAYES.—We understand from the New York Herald that Catherine Hayes, the interesting and fascinating vocalist, who has given so much delight to thousands, has terminated all the troubles and annoyances caused by her recent managers, by separating from all further association with them, during her tour in the United States. To recruit herself, and recover her equanimity, she has retired for a brief space of time—say eight or ten days—to enjoy the Indian summer on Staten Island, from which she will soon emerge, to commence a brilliant career, on her own account, throughout the United States, Cuba, Mexico, and probably other parts of South America.

CALCULATION.—Much as we admire the habit of calculation in the universal Yankee nation, we cannot but feel indignant at the scamp who multiplied 14 by 8, and brought out 112, upon the plaster bust of General Winfield Scott, in a public parlour of the National Hotel. We could keep tally for the man who would lay a cool forty over his bare shoulders with a raw hide.

To-day—clouds and pattering rains, muddying walking, umbrellas, coats, wet gloves, dingy looks, low spirits, in-dooriness, brandy toddies, raw oysters, and drowsy slangwhanging. Oh, how tedious!

Markets this morning—very uncomfortable—very abundant—tolerable cheap—slow sales.

WHO SHALL BE SPEAKER?—Gen. Bayly, of Virginia; Mr. Burt, of South Carolina; Mr. Houston, of Alabama; Mr. Lynn Boyd, of Kentucky, and Mr. Disney, of Ohio, are all talked of—have all claims, qualifications, popularity, and every thing else needful.

WHO SHALL BE CLERK?—Judge Young and Colonel Forney appear to be more frequently named than any others. They have both many warm friends, too.

THE PANORAMA OF THE HOLY LAND.—A beautiful and instructive work—will remain but a little while longer at Temperance Hall. Let all go and see it.

WM. P. BYRD, a respected member of the Richmond bar, from the excitement produced in a dispute with another person on Tuesday last, fell and instantly expired. He had long been affected with a disease of the heart.

EXPEDITION.—We see it stated in some of our exchange papers, that gold bullion deposited in the Mint, at Philadelphia, on Tuesday morning of last week, was paid out in coin the next morning, and was in New York the same evening. At this rate the quartz rock can be gathered in California, the gold extracted from it, and brought to Philadelphia, and then coined, and a hundred dollars of it spent in shopping in the city of London, all in less time than it takes a man in one of our cities to earn a hundred dollars with "a pickaxe and a spade!"

A PRETTY SIGHT.—Anybody's pretty wife or daughter, tidily and appropriately dressed, and on her way to market, with a little basket in her hand, at six and a half o'clock, a. m. That's the wife for a worthy man to choose and never repent of it.

WASHINGTON CITY WATCH-HOUSE.—There were no guests here last night, excepting a few poor creatures who applied for protection from the night's inclement weather.

A FINE BUSINESS.—From the recent report of the Methodist Book Concern in New York, it appears that the sales for the last twelve months were more than $200,000, being an increase of $65,000 over the previous year, and exceeding all former years. The Sunday School Advocate, 65,000, with a yearly sale of Sunday School Books amounting to $5,000. The Quarterly Review has 3,000 subscribers.

THE "REPUBLIC" AND KOSSUTH.—It gives us pleasure to make the following quotations from the Republic of this morning: "We have given no credit or currency to the paragraphs which have appeared in the journals of England and this country in derogation of the character and purposes of the illustrious author of this address. We have sought, on the contrary, to render just homage to his patriotic services and his distinguished achievements. "It is proper that we should distinctly contradict the allegation of some of our contemporaries that we have reprinted or contented the letters of the Newark Advertiser, or of the articles of one of our foreign legations, or of the articles of the London Times in relation to M. KOSSUTH. We have never published a line in disparagement of this eminent man, either in our news columns or our editorials. On the contrary, our files will furnish abundant evidence that, from the very commencement of the Hungarian struggle, we have borne the amplest testimony to the valor, the devotedness, and the heroic deeds and sentiments which have immortalized the name of KOSSUTH."

It was not the magnitude of the Grecian army nor the martial skill of Achilles, their leader, that conquered the city of Troy, but ten years' perseverance. He that is revenged keeps his wounds open, which would otherwise close of themselves. It is said that rats may be expelled from cellars and granaries by scattering a few stalks and leaves of Mullen-wood in their paths.

POSTSCRIPT!

[Despatched to the American Telegraph.]

NEW ORLEANS, November 13. Arrival of the Steamer Louisiana. Description of Troops. The steamer Louisiana has arrived, bringing Galveston troops to the 7th. All the troops but ten, stationed at Fort Ringgold, have deserted to the insurgents. The Mexican government placed Gen. Uraga at the head of five thousand men to quell the insurrection.

Baltimore Markets. BALTIMORE, Nov. 13—2 p. m. Northern markets unchanged. Sales of 800 bbls. Howard street flour at $3 81.

Collision of Two Steamers. MONTREAL, Nov. 12th.—The steamers St. Lawrence and Britannia, laden with flour and ashes, came in collision on the lake, last night, and the former was immediately sunk.

The Syracuse Riot case. BUTTALO, Nov. 12.—Judge Conklin to-day delivered his charge to the Grand Jury in the case of the Syracuse rioters. He carefully reviewed the whole proceeding, and besought the jury to do their duty without favor.

New York Elections. ALBANY, Nov. 12.—From the best information it is believed that the whole Union Safety Committee's ticket for State officers is chosen. The Whigs have elected two of the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the Democrats have the remainder.

It is expected that the shipments of specie to Europe, this week, will reach $1,000,000. $500,000 of Indiana railroad bonds were awarded at 80@85, averaging 82@84. The whole amount taken was $712,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 12.—This evening, at 6 o'clock, the cotton and woolen factory at the corner of Nixon and Hamilton streets was destroyed by fire. It employed some 100 persons. So rapid was the progress of the flames, that several persons are supposed to have perished. Two dead bodies have since been found, supposed to be those of Edward Crook and Mary Ann Brown. The loss is $30,000, with only a partial insurance.

Jenny Lind. HARRISBURG, Nov. 12.—Jenny Lind gives a concert here on the 15th instant.

United States Senator. NASHVILLE, Nov. 12.—The Whig members of the Tennessee Legislature met in caucus on Monday night to ballot for Senator, but adjourned without making a choice. The 10th and last ballot stood—Wilson, of East Tenn., 21; Netherland, of West Tenn., 8; Gustavus S. Henry, of Middle Tenn., 3; Foster, of Middle Tenn., 5—total 55 votes.

Mississippi Election. JACKSON, Nov. 12.—Authentic returns from fifty-five counties in Mississippi give Foote for Governor, 1,000 majority over Davis. Four counties remain to be heard from, which cannot change the result. The Union or State ticket, with the exception of the candidate for Chancery Clerk, is elected.

THE UNITED STATES, SPAIN, AND CUBA.—The correspondent "X" of the Baltimore Sun, says: "Spain is in a fix. Her government is not yet recognized by the absolute powers of Europe, (Russia, Austria, and Prussia,) and the republic of the United States has just given her a box on the ear. She would like to be on friendly terms with the United States, and be rid of the tutelage of France and England. Why not try to satisfy her vanity on condition that she sell the Island of Cuba? If Spain be wise, she will take a hundred millions for it—perhaps a hundred and fifty—pardon all the prisoners, give up Mr. Thrasher, have a tremendous salute fired to her flag, and then withdraw in peace from this continent. Cuba is nothing but an allusion of the United States Army."

Hon. WM. T. HASKELL, a Mexican-war Colonel, late M. C. from Tennessee, is now lecturing through that State on Temperance, in behalf of the Sons.

PRESIDENTIAL MOVEMENTS.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser urges William R. King, as the Democratic candidate for President, and George M. Dallas, for Vice President.

It is said that twenty-three papers in Virginia have run up the Fillmore flag.—Exchange.

The York (Pa.) Advocate, has placed the name of the Hon. Henry Clay at its head as the Union candidate for President.

A convention is to be held at Faneuil Hall, Boston, 25th November, to nominate Daniel Webster, for the Presidency.

ICE CULTURE.—We learn from the Bunker Hill Aurora, published in Charlestown, Massachusetts, that a new plan for the procuring of ice early, or when the season is too mild to freeze over the deep water of Fresh Pond, has been recently adopted by Mr. Tudor. This is, by making an artificial pond of an equal depth, and letting the latter into it as fast as it freezes. Workmen are now engaged in large numbers on the Fresh Pond Meadows in preparing such a pond. It will cover about twenty-five acres of land, with a clay bottom, and so much lower than Fresh Pond that the water of the pond may be let into it in any quantity desirable. As this pond will be very shallow, it will freeze over readily, and, it would seem, must secure a crop of ice in the midst of our winters. Of course it may be cropped as often as it can be frozen of sufficient thickness. The making of the pond, it is calculated, will cost about twenty-five thousand dollars, or one thousand dollars for each acre, and the necessary buildings for storing the ice about as much more.

MINISTERIAL FAMILY.—At the recent meeting of the Presbytery of White Water, in Lawrenceburg, Indiana, there were present the father, brother, four sons, one son-in-law, and a nephew, all preaching the gospel—the father, Francis Monfort, at Concord, Indiana; brother, David Monfort, D. D., at —, Indiana; son, Francis P. Monfort, at Greensburg, Indiana; nephew, J. W. Monfort, at Richmond, Indiana; son, J. W. Monfort, at Liberty, Indiana; son, David Monfort, jr., at —, Indiana; son-in-law, J. Gilchrist, at Dunlapville, Indiana; and nephew, John C. King, at Land Creek, Indiana. There are two or three more that claim relationship, more distant, by marriage. And what is a singular fact, they are all connected with the same presbytery—making ten or eleven in all. Father Monfort has another brother who is a minister in the Associate Presbyterian Church, I believe.—Presbyterian Herald.

J. R. Lowell remarks that "Fanatics are as necessary to human improvement and elevation as philosophers. If a merchant wanted a ship to sail, he would not load her merely with anchors and ballast, but he would reconcile himself to the somewhat violent persuasion of canvass, and even the fiercer enthusiasm of steam."

The man who had to lower his shirt-collar to pass under Wheeling Bridge arrived in Cincinnati last week.

To Subscribers.

Those of our subscribers residing in the route embraced between Twelfth and Fourteenth streets, are notified that J. Q. Adams is no longer entrusted with that route. The paper hereafter will be carefully served. All payments will be made to Mr. Moser & Co. [Nov 11—4f]

MARRIED.

In this city, on Tuesday evening, 11th inst., by the Rev. Father SULLIVAN, J. Q. ADAMS to Miss ANN TULLER, both formerly of Baltimore. (The former and New York papers have not yet published.) At Alexandria, Virginia, on the 11th instant, by the Rev. GEORGE KING, JOSEPH MITCHELL, esq., of Kent county, Maryland, to Miss KATE L., daughter of the late Governor KEAY, of Maryland.

GRATEFUL CURE FOR COUGHS AND COLDS. DR. ROSE'S EXpectorant and COUGH SYRUP, is decidedly the most valuable Remedy for Coughs and Colds. Even Consumption is curable, if attended to in time. It always irritates of the Lungs, removes all Bronchial affections, and is a certain cure for a sudden cold, accompanied with soreness of throat and cough. The great demand for this medicine in Philadelphia and elsewhere is the strongest evidence, as the thousands who are using it will testify, of its superiority over every other cough preparation. Price only 50 cents per bottle. All of Dr. Rose's valuable Family Medicines are for sale by Z. D. Gilman, New York, 116 St. Henry. J. F. Callan, Samuel Butt, John W. Nairn, Washington city, D. C.

DR. ROSE'S DYSEPtic COMPOUND. NEVER FAILING REMEDY.—The Liver, being the largest gland in the human body, is more frequently deranged in its healthy action than any other. The consequences of this derangement are first Dyspepsia, known by belching up of wind, sores in the stomach, and sometimes diarrhoea or loss of the bowels, headache, nervous feelings, cold feet, wakefulness, and variable appetite, &c. I have been called on by over three thousand cases within the last few years, and many of them had tried the various bitter compounds to their delusion; fortunately the most were in time, and were almost cured by this compound, which contains no mercury, and does not injure but always improves the constitution, as thousands can testify. Directions.—Keep the bowels open with my alternative Pills, and take one or two teaspoonful of the Dysepitic Compound one hour before each meal. When much acidity happens, take this dose every three or four hours.

FOR THE BALLS! LADIES HEAD-DRESSES, EMBROIDERED HANDKERCHIEFS, and GLOVES are now opened at Mrs. COLLIER'S, on 517 Broadway, near the corner of Nassau street, ladies attending the balls of the season. (Nov 3—4r)

Also—Rich Silk Scarfs for gentlemen, White Kid and Silk Gloves, with many other desirable goods. (Nov 5—6f)

SWAN'S Empire Enamel Tooth Powder.—This is the best Dentifrice ever offered to the public—warranted free from acids or anything injurious to the teeth or gums, and is of a most refreshing breath pur and sweet. Price 25 cents per bottle. For sale by W. E. LLOYD, Corner of F and 12th sts. Nov 12—1r

GALIE'S American Shaving Soap.—The only perfect Shaving Soap. By its use the act of shaving becomes a perfect luxury. It only wants to be well-known to be generally preferred. Just received and for sale by W. E. LLOYD, Corner of F and 12th sts. Nov 12—1r

MELVILLE'S NEW BOOK—MOBY DICK; or, The Whale; by the author of Type, Omoo, White-Jacket, &c. Lossing's Historical Field-Book of the Revolution, part 18. London Letters and the London Post, &c. Spiritual Regeneration, a charge delivered to the clergy of the Diocese of Ohio, by Charles Pettit Melville, D. D. This day received and for sale by T. A. MAURY, Bookseller, near 8th street. Nov 12—1r

FOR CLOAKS, WRAPPINGS, &c. 10 pieces 4-4 colored Velvets 12 do 3-4 and 4-4 colored Velvets 12 do 4-4 Ermine Cloths and Flannels 12 do 4-4 Ermine Cloths and Flannels 20 do very heavy Poplins, all shades 5 do very heavy black Silk, suitable for Cloaks, &c. With a large and general assortment of all kinds of reasonable Dry Goods, at the lowest market prices. Nov 12—1m YERBY & MILLER.

PROPOSALS FOR GRADING AND FURNISHING TIMBER. THE UNDERSIGNED will receive proposals until the 20th inst. for the construction of all or any part, not less than one mile, of the Washington and Rockville Turnpike from the city boundary to the District Line, and the London Ford, in the District of Columbia. Also, for furnishing and delivering at such points on the above-mentioned line, road, in such quantities and at such time as may be required, all or any specified portion, not less than 100,000 feet, of 75,000 feet, board measure of 8-inch plank, of such lengths as may be required, and in lengths of 8 feet and 10 feet, and in lengths of 13 to 16 feet. The graduation will be done under the direction of the engineer of the company, to be paid for by the cubic yard, and will be measured as excavation only. A profile of the road may be seen at our Banking House, which indicates very nearly the proposed graduation, but from which the company will reserve the right of making such deviations as in the judgment of the engineer may be expedient. The plank must be sound and free from sap. Bidders will state the price per M. for free oak, and for Chesapeake bay pine, and will discriminate between the 600,000 and the 150,000 feet described above. The latter may, if the company see fit, be dispensed with. Nov 12—120th CHUBB, SCHENCK & CO.

MORE CHEAP GOODS!
