Criminals Who Dislike the Restraints of a Prison.

WONDERFUL ESCAPES OF THE DAY

A Tennessee Rascal Forges His Way Out of Jail—McGarigle's Flight to Canada. Bank Breakers Give Their Reasons for Departure—Robbing a Detective's Office.

The starting in the cage "wanted to get out." So does every imprisoned thing that draws the breath of life, but the creature who wishes to get out of a prison is most persistent and resourceful.

J. CLAY JOHNSON, a fugitive from Tennessee justice who was recaptured the other day, is only 29 years old, but he has had a long experience as a law breaker, and particularly as a forger.

Not long after the war a bank failed at Rockford, Ill., under circumstances which seemed to warrant the detention of a few of the officers in the county jail. These gentlemen, who were unable to account for more than 2 per cent of the funds entrusted to their care, evidently divided the apartments given them by Sheriff Ryan.

It was made by D. W. C. Nowlin, J. D. King and J. J. Barlow, of Madison county, Tenn., who had come before the county clerk and qualified as their sureties.

Months later the Carroll county court met, and the startling fact became known that the bond was a cunning piece of forgery perpetrated by Johnson in his cell.

W. French Roth, alias Rogers, alias a dozen other names, is one of the most picturesque rascals of the day. He has been a deputy coroner of New York city, a physician in regular practice, the proprietor of a business, ex-cathedral, matrimonial bureau, detective agencies and other devices, started with intent to deceive and defraud, without number.

William J. McGarigle was for years a prominent figure in Chicago politics and official circles. Beginning as a politician, he rose to the rank of chief of detectives, and then became superintendent of the department.

Paris public schools are overcrowded, and the authorities propose to help to remedy the difficulty by forbidding the attendance at them of children of foreigners.

The Roman theatres were modeled on those of Greece, but the orchestra was much smaller, as the chorus did not occupy such an important part.

How the Mississippi was Made. As a possible theory of the origin of the Mississippi river, among the many that have at different times been brought forward by noted scientists, the most recent is the suggestion that it was formed by means of a mighty canyon, which began to dig down the river, near its original mouth, and by gradual retrograding dug out the valley like gorge.

There is a daring attempt to secure liberty for the Chinese. The steamer Tiamoy had just left Singapore, and was threading her way out through shoals and reefs when the cry of "Man overboard" was raised.

A CHINESEMAN'S DASH FOR LIBERTY. Here is a daring attempt to secure liberty for the Chinese. The steamer Tiamoy had just left Singapore, and was threading her way out through shoals and reefs when the cry of "Man overboard" was raised.

What is Sapolio? It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it...

What will Sapolio do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THERE IS BUT ONE Sapolio. ENOCH MORCAN'S SONS CO., NEW YORK.

A CORNER BY THE FIRE. Let the rain from my roof In a deluge down pour!

Let the dread avalanche From the high mountain leap! Let mud and cinders rage And wild torrents sweep!

Let it freeze! Let the hail Pelt, rattle and rain As hard as it will 'Till my thin window pane!

What rock I while the fire In my grate burns so bright, And the cat on my knee Purrs so loud her delight!

THE LITTLE ROSE OF SHANE. I saw a little rosebud, As I went down the lane, Not yet a bloom, I said I'll wait, 'Till I come back again—

Some Causes of Deafness. Dr. Francis Dowling, in a paper which he read at a recent meeting of the Cincinnati Academy of Medicine, stated that "between the ages of 10 and 40 at least one person in three is subject to partial deafness.

Eye Stones. The little bodies called eye stones are really portions of the covering of certain shell fish. They are placed at the opening of the shell, and serve to close the entrance when the animal draws itself within.

Rose with the Sun. "I rise with the sun," "Commendable habit," "Regular as a clock, you see, Up winter and summer at the same hour."

Art at a Discount. Mr. Elphart—Yes, I believe in the cultivation of art among the masses. Artistic taste, no matter where found or in what walk of life, is invaluable to any citizen.

What He Was Afraid Of. "Were you afraid I would say no?" asked the man who had just said yes.
