San Francisco is certainly a favorable place for the Odd Fellows. Both numerically and financially the order is very strong there as will be shown in the forthcoming report of the condition of the lodges on the last day of 1889. The order has twenty-eight lodges in the city, embracing a membership of 5,502, as against 5,434 in 1888, or a net gain of 63. All of the lodges, excepting three, have over a hundred members. Eleven have over two hundred members, two over three hundred and one over four hundred members. The average age of the members is forty and three-quarter years.

The essets of all the lodges amount to $335,080.28, an average of $97.34 per member. The annual receipts aggregate $110,001.58, an average of $19.99 per member. The total annual expenses last year were Wichita, Call at Misso $105,058.54, an average of $19.25 per member.
