WOOL GROWERS ALARMED.

Proposed Amendment to the McKinley Bill the Cause.

St. Louis, Mo., July 5.—The officers of the National Wool Growers' association are closely watching the course of legislation at Washington and yesterday at Mr. Vernon O., the home of the president, Hon. Columbus D. Harris, they prepared an address to their constituents on the subject, which is furnished to the Associated Press by Mr. George H. Wallace, secretary of the national association. It is as follows:

STRICTLY AMERICAN.

The Control of the Chicago Stock Yards Corporation.

Boston, Mass., July 5.—Messrs. H. F. Bates & Co., who are the authorized representatives of the Chicago stock yards and control company for about $3,000,000, state today that the control of the Chicago stock yards will remain in American hands. The financial reorganization of the company will be upon an American basis with a large majority of the new securities owned by this country and the management will be by Americans. The securities will be listed upon the Chicago, New York, Boston and London exchanges and will thus have an international market. No other stock was ever dealt in upon any exchange and when some years ago the Lake Shore stock was sold, the stock yard shares to improve its road, it could only sell to Mr. Vanderbilt. Much criticism was made when it was discovered later that Mr. Vanderbilt had bought private sale the Lake Shore interest, but Mr. Vanderbilt was the only man knowing its value who could invest two or three million dollars in it at one time. The stock yards company has always been a close corporation financially which has narrowed its market. Lately American bankers have offered to take nearly two-thirds of the new securities which will be offered to the public in Chicago. Now the Chicago stock yards, with full details of the organization of the new company, will be sold to the world wide market, while the Chicago management under John H. Sherman as vice president, will remain in American hands. Mr. Thayer and Mr. Olney, who now represents over 98 per cent of the old stock, have approved of the new plan. The Chicago stock yards, a new corporation will also be in the new one. The new company will be in a position to be more progressive and to make the conditions that are demanded by time and the growth of the Chicago stock yards business.

WITH AUSPICIOUSNESS.

The Second Half of the Year Opens Well Commercially.

New York, July 5.—R. G. Dun & Co's Weekly Review of Trade says: With the beginning of a new fiscal year, we have heavy disbursements and easier money, better crop prospects and a number of larger trades for the season than has been seen in any previous year. At the same time, it is to be admitted that there seems to be within the country a little more than the ordinary hesitation or slacking of trade at the arrival of midsummer and confidence in the future is affected by legislation in rather less degree than it was a fortnight ago. Monetary apprehension, excited by reports of disbursements in dividends and interest, said to be the largest ever made at this season and exclusive of government pay, is estimated at $1,000,000,000 against $500,000,000 last year. Foreign advances and rates of exchange do not at present indicate danger of any serious drain from abroad and the interior money market is all firmly supplied at usual rates.

FOR CO-EDUCATION.

This Method Defended by Speakers at the Educational Council.

St. Paul, Minn., July 5.—The second day's session of the national co-education council was held this morning. The report of the committee on the education of girls was taken up. The chairman of this committee, John H. Burt, of Chicago, gave a paper on the subject, "The co-education of the sexes." This is a subject, he said, on which public opinion has greatly changed since 1870. In our cities, New York and Boston, high schools are still maintained for the sexes. The chairman of this committee is a student in the co-education of the sexes and he advanced many reasons for maintaining his position. The self-will and impetuosity of the boys are the chief and the girls' manners are made more easy.

AN ALLEGED MURDERER.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

MARION, Kan., July 5.—Isaac Vanbrunt, who is alleged murdered the old German farmer near Whitewater six weeks ago and for whose arrest there was a reward of $500 offered, was arrested yesterday night by Deputy Sheriff Marsd. Vanbrunt confesses that he stole the old German's team and wagon and that he hired two fellows to run him down through the country, but denied that he had anything to do with the murder. The prisoner is being held for the reward.

CHARGED WITH POISONING.

GERBER, Ok., July 5.—Henry Epply and wife, residing eight miles from Gerber, were arrested today charged with poisoning Mr. Parr. The report is that they did the act in order to secure the dead man's stock. The prisoners are in jail in this city.

HANLON DEFEATS HOMER.

STOCK CITY, Ia., July 5.—Edward Hanlon defeated George Homer by half a length in a three mile steeple chase on the Big Stone river yesterday afternoon for a purse of $500, of which the winner got $300.

A LAWRENCE CITIZEN DEAD.

LAWRENCE, Kan., July 5.—F. W. Apitz, an old and respected citizen, died this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock of paralysis.

A LONE CRUSADER.

A Girard Lady Breaks Bottles and Whips an Agent.

GIKARD, Kan., July 5.—This afternoon Mrs. James A. Smith went into the Fred Heim original package house and commenced breaking bottles. When the agent, Gus Steinbeck, interfered, she assaulted him with a buggy whip, striking him half a dozen times before he ejected her from the room. He has her arrested and she was fined one dollar in police court, the amount being paid by the bystanders. Her husband has been on a protracted drunk since the house has been opened.

Chicago, Ill., July 5.—It was definitely announced at the Park National bank today that the directors have decided not to resume business. No receiver has yet been appointed and it is further stated that they have received from the comptroller.

FRENCH ARMY DISCIPLINE.

Brutal Punishment Accorded Soldiers for Bad Behavior.

The punishments in vogue in the French army are of a very severe nature, more especially when it is considered that the men thus punished are not by any means criminals, but only soldiers who have not behaved as well as they might. These are deported to Algeria under the name of "Camisards," where they are enrolled in the "compagnies de discipline." Before embarking the man has his boots taken from him, which are replaced by sabots, and on arriving at his destination he is given a uniform of gray wool and a cap with a large brim. The men are farmed out to do work, and are all the time under the supervision of non-commissioned officers, who treat their inferiors with the greatest brutality. It is, however, the punishments in vogue in the French army that are the most trifling offenses which must excite indignation.

KILLED IN A SPARRING MATCH.

Chicago, Ill., July 5.—The coroner's inquest into the death of Billy Brennan, the pugilist who was killed in a sparring match with Frank Garrard, on Thursday night, was held at the coroner's office today. County physician Hektorn was the result of a post mortem examination Brennan's body was introduced. It was the effect of a blow from the right hand and the end of the lungs. The latter came as a surprise. It appears from statements that Brennan was wounded so terribly on the chest that his own consciousness bleeding, probably during the last round, when both the sparrers seemed so groggy. The jury returned a verdict that Brennan came to his death from a blow on the chest and injuries received while sparring with Garrard. The prisoners were released from custody.

WOMAN'S PHYSICAL HEALTH.

Importance of Bodily Training and Hygiene.

Mr. Frederick Trues calls attention to a perfectly new branch of the work undertaken by the society with reference to physical education. Within the last few years an immense deal of attention had been directed to the matter of physical education. It has been pointed out that the education of the mind was well looked after while the education of the body was practically neglected. Parents did not realize that proper physical education must be conducted on as precise and as careful scientific lines as the ordinary education of the mind. Parents were quite content to send their children to gymnasia, and when they had done this they felt satisfied that their physical education was complete. They were unaware that there was no proper control over the teachers of these gymnasia, which are a large number of whom were people totally unfit for their work.

Laying Pipes Under Water.

A civil engineer at Watertown has accomplished in a very simple, cheap and expeditious way what is usually a difficult and expensive task. The laying of a long line of pipe in deep water. He had occasion to lay nearly 1,000 feet of suction pipe at Rouse's point. The water was needed for manufacturing purposes, and as it was more or less impure, it was necessary to place the tube a considerable distance out into the lake. He purchased for the purpose a steel pressure pipe of eight inch diameter. Plugging the end of the first length he pushed it out on the surface of the water, and then he connected the second length, pushing this out in turn until the whole line was completed.

DIED OF HIS WOUNDS.

OSAGE CITY, Kan., July 5.—The burglar who was shot twelve days ago while entering the residence of S. B. Petree, died this afternoon. During the whole time he denied his identity, saying that he was an "outcast." There is no doubt but that he was a professional housebreaker. His pal, who was shot in the right leg at the same time, has not been taken.

A FRUIT PALACE.

CORCORAN BLUFFS, Ia., July 5.—Arrangements were perfected today for the erection of a fruit and vegetable market and store at the meeting of the farmers' national congress which takes place in this city, August 26 to 29. The palace will be an elaborate structure, and will make the congress the most successful yet held.

COLONEL L. A. HARRIS DEAD.

CINCINNATI, O., July 5.—Colonel L. A. Harris died this morning. He was a member of the board of managers of the soldiers' home and served with distinction during the war of the rebellion. He was collector of internal revenue in this district.

EIGHT HOUR DAY GRANTED.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The journeyman stair builders of this city have succeeded in prevailing upon their employers to grant them the eight hour work day with no deduction of wages. The union is unanimous and will affect 300 workmen. The new rule took effect today.

AN ICE FAMINE THREATENED.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 5.—A serious ice famine threatens this city. The manager of one of the ice companies today said that St. Louis had only 28 days' stock of ice. Kansas City is not so well supplied, and southern cities were endeavoring to draw upon the supply, and that just north of here it is likely that the consignments of ice will soon be shipped from here.

ANOTHER RECORD SMASHED.

NEW YORK, July 5.—The world's record in putting a ball over a fence was broken today at the game of the National Athletic club of Brooklyn. George R. Gray, New York Athletic club, put the shot forty-six feet and one inch, being one inch over any previous record.

Call Me Man Fool.

Never call a novice a fool because his work is not up to your standard of excellence, for probably had he your experience he might be able to give you points about your own work that you would not consider yourself the fool. And bear in mind it is not always the smart, bright fellow who readily takes hold of a thing that excels in a pursuit, but it is almost invariably so of the plodding, unflattering, thoughtful man.—Exchange.

Be Thoughtful He Could.

Editor—I want you to write an article on the lively stable keepers of this city. Do you think you can do justice to the theme? I am a stable keeper and I am a very good one. I have a fine lot of horses and I am a very good driver. I have a fine lot of horses and I am a very good driver. I have a fine lot of horses and I am a very good driver.

Floating Islands of the Azores.

Probably the most curious craft—if it may be called a craft—that man ever constructed or handled was the floating island (Chimpanpa) of the Azores. They were the outgrowth of necessity. Being environed by enemies who occupied the main land, the Azoreans were obliged to construct a floating island, a mass of earth and brush, with a garden, a well, and a small house, and other things. These floating islands had one great advantage—if the proprietor's neighbors were undesirable or if the proximity of an ill kept mill endangered his own crop, he could pull up anchor and jumping into his canoe tow his island into a more desirable location. A few years ago there was a natural floating island drifting about near the lower end of the island.

Considering it unethically, Mrs. Van de Juckyness—To what college did you send your son, Mrs. Van de Smythe? Mrs. Van de Smythe—Sidney is at Harvard and Algernon is at Yale.

Mrs. Van de Juckyness—Why didn't they both go to the same place? Mrs. Van de Smythe—Oh, you know Sidney is dark, and crimson harmonizes with his complexion much better than blue does. Algie has light hair and a fair complexion, so Yale's color suits him exactly. Just imagine how he would look playing tennis in a crimson blouse!—New York Tribune.

A Private View. "Hurry up, Bill, an' take a peep. I kin look right down into his stomach!"—Life.

He Caved. A big man, having a big bundle under either arm, bustled into the Third street depot yesterday, and was rushing for one of the gates when an official asked him where he wanted to go.

"To think," was the reply. "When?" "Half an hour ago."

"Then I'll see the company! It lacks a minute now of train time!" "You are off, are you?" "Yes, I am."

"Bet you a million dollars! See here!" He pulled out his watch and triumphantly pointed to the minute, which bore his statement. The other took the watch and held it to his ear, and smiled and said: "Tick tick. That watch stopped last night."

"Kick me for an old cow if it didn't explain the owner as he held it up. 'It is a narrow escape for this railroad, thank you, and I hope you'll resolve it as a great good morning. I'd a peppered you for a good morning sure.'"—Detroit Free Press.
