

THE WILLIARD C. L. & C.

On Friday evening there was an attendance of fifteen at the Willard Circle, and a very interesting program was rendered as follows: English History... Astronomy Questions... From Tennyson's Idyls of the King... Reading... Music-Quartet... Select Reading... Questions on Chautauque articles.

All formalities had been laid aside and the meetings are as pleasant as a home circle. Everyone is interested and seems to be getting all the good out of the work that is possible. Mr. Darney and Miss Josie Miller are new members, and are taking up the work in earnest.

There is a scarcity of young men in the circle, only numbering four, while there are twelve young ladies. A chance for some young man who would like to take the reading for this year.

Miss Nora Woody reported the following interesting program for next Friday night: Table Talk... History Lesson... Music... Roll Call... Questions on Chautauque Articles.

WICHITA & EL PASO RAILROAD. From the Harper Sentinel. Last Wednesday a railroad committee from Wichita, drove over from Norwich to Rummeyville, this county, to consult with Messrs. F. J. S. Turnley and George D. Seppings, representing a syndicate of wealthy capitalists, in reference to an early building of the Wichita & El Paso railroad.

ARRIVING AT RUMMEYVILLE they consulted the matter at some length, and in company with Messrs. Turnley and Seppings came on to Harper and spent several hours in this city consulting with the mayor, railroad committee, and some of the leading men of the city. The result is that petitions asking for an election to vote bonds in Harper ownership and city will be circulated.

A Conscientious Tradesman. Customer-Got any good claims this morning? Dealer-Well, there's my partner; but I can't recommend 'em-Puck. Peas' is the purest and best Soap ever made.

Food, Conscience and Sleep. Never go to bed in any danger of being hungry. People are kept awake by hunger quite as much as by a bad conscience. Remember that sleep is the essential force which the whole scheme starts, decline tea or coffee within the last six hours before going to bed.

A Curious Piece of Tapestry. An extraordinary piece of Japanese weaving, which is now on exhibition in Tokio, will shortly find its way to London, where it will be shown to the public by the owner. It is known as 'tenure-ori,' or pierced weaving. It is of great size, and the design is a equestrian archery, an old world accomplishment in Japan, and one which is frequently used for purposes of illustration and design by Japanese artists.

Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparill, the peculiar medicine. Do not be induced to take any other. Dresses for Evening Wear. For evening wear complete dresses of guipure, princess form without seams, are being made. This guipure is open and worked on net, it is made up over pink or any light colored silk, with a thick ruche at the lower edge. The bodice, draped with crossway folds, has a short pelerine rather resembling the old fashioned berthe.

A Man Who Never Lights His Cigar. Commissioner Edward C. Sheehy, of the board of charities and correction, is a confirmed victim of the dry smoking habit. He keeps a box of the finest cigars in his desk, and may always be found with a weed in his mouth, though he hasn't lighted one or smoked in fifteen years. But he evidently enjoys his dry smokes, for when in good humor he rolls his unlighted cigar lovingly between his lips, and says that the people who burn tobacco have no idea of the pleasures of the dry smoke.

THE WAY MADE CLEAR. One of the most serious obstacles to success in the way of man is planted right in the middle of the road to health. How to restore and to maintain a regular habit of body and digestion is too often a source of needless and, unhappily, of vain inquiry. It is not necessary to inveigh against drastic purgatives. They who have used them continuously know the consequence. A remedy which unites the action of a regulating medicine for the bowels with that of a tonic both for those organs, the liver and the stomach, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, sanctioned by the best medical authority, and receiving daily the endorsement of our fellow countrymen.

Why suffer? Preston's 'Hed-Ake' will cure you. Walking Good People. The general adaptation of rapid transit in Pittsburg, said a popular physician, 'and the spreading of the population over a larger area will have a marked effect on the city's mortality bill. I have lost several patients who have cured themselves of old standing ailments by riding out into the suburbs frequently, and then walking off their dyspepsia. Many business men, who move out in the morning, or cross a few blocks to strike another road. The man who takes walking exercise seldom needs a doctor, and the man who moves out into the newly developed parts of the city can't help walking a good deal, no matter how little he likes it.'

The Cod That Helps to Cure The Cold. The disagreeable taste of the COD LIVER OIL is dissipated in SCOTT'S EMULSION. Of Pure Cod Liver Oil with HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND CODA. The patient suffering from CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGH, COLD, OR WANTING DISEASES, may take the Emulsion with confidence. It is a perfect emulsion, and a wonderful fish product. Take one or two.

THE CURIOSITY SHOP. The Alhambra, That Famous Citadel to the City of Granada. Alhambra is the name given to the fortress which forms a sort of acropolis or citadel to the city of Granada. In which stood the palace of the ancient Moorish kings of Granada. The name is a corruption of the Arabic Kal-at al-Bamra, 'the red castle.'

It cures headache only-Preston's 'Hed-Ake'. ROYAL FLUSHES. Prince Ferdinand of Hohenzollern, heir apparent to the Roumanian throne, is betrothed to a Bavarian princess. The Prince of Naples intends writing a full account of his late journey in the Balkan provinces, in Russia, and in Germany. Only 100 copies of his book will be printed.

The czar's personal bodyguard of private police consists of fifteen specially picked Corsicans, mature and tried men, chosen and trained by M. Celerino D'Arli, nephew of Napoleon III's minister of police. The Prince of Wales is disposed to countenance the recent action of the Duchess of Buccleuch in raising the bars to prevent the admission of undesirable Americans of both sexes into the upper circles of London society.

Female slaves are still given to the sultana in old time pomp. An exquisitely beautiful girl of 16 years, a Georgian, sent to him was taken to the Yildiz kiosk in a gilt coach escorted by a troop of gigantic eunuchs. The queen of Roumania is an indefatigable worker and rises every morning before it is day. She is firm in her refusal to allow her maid to attend her, but lights her own lamp and sits down at her table to spend an hour or two over her MSS.

The late Emperor Frederick made a large collection of the correspondence of the late Queen Elizabeth of Prussia with the intention of writing a biography of his aunt. His death stopped the work, but the materials remain in excellent order, ready for a capable editor. If you have headache try Preston's 'Hed-Ake'.
