

WASHINGTON.

THE SIOUX INDIAN TROUBLE DISCUSSED IN THE SENATE.

The Present Management of Indian Affairs Denounced by Senator Voorhees.

The House Passes Without Amendment the Bill to Enable Foreign Authors to Procure American Copyrights.

A Caucus of Democratic Senators to Outline the Policy of the Party on the Elections Bill—A One-Cent Postage Bill Introduced by Senator Callom—Notes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—In the senate today, Mr. Hawley, from the committee on military affairs, reported and asked to have put upon its passage a joint resolution authorizing the secretary of war to issue arms and ammunition to the states of North and South Dakota.

Mr. Manderson moved to amend it by also including the state of Nebraska, and he referred to the threatened uprising of the Sioux Indians on their reservation there.

Mr. Voorhees said that if the proposition were to issue a hundred thousand rifles of Ross to the Indians, it would be more consistent with Christian civilization. Major Gen. Miles, he said, had stated in public interviews that the Indians were given to revolt and rebellion by starvation; and it was, in his judgment, an inexplicable crime on the part of the government to send them to die of starvation.

Mr. Voorhees said that if the proposition were to issue a hundred thousand rifles of Ross to the Indians, it would be more consistent with Christian civilization. Major Gen. Miles, he said, had stated in public interviews that the Indians were given to revolt and rebellion by starvation; and it was, in his judgment, an inexplicable crime on the part of the government to send them to die of starvation.

THE OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE.

Proceedings of the Territorial Legislators for the Day.

GOVERNOR, Dec. 3.—This morning, immediately after prayer by the chaplain, Senator Brown called Mr. Frank Greer to task about a criticism in his paper concerning the military and naval forces.

Mr. Voorhees repelled the "feeble attempt at a sneer" on the part of Mr. Greer, saying that he was glad that he (Mr. Voorhees) had found out what was the cause of the outbreak of the Indians of the northwest.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

Mr. Voorhees said that he had had an interview with General Miles, that he heard that for the first time since the war the Indians were on the war path because they were starving.

BRITISH POLITICS.

THE OVERTHROW OF PARNELL NOT YET ACCOMPLISHED.

The Irish Nationalist Party Again Adjourns Without Taking Definite Action.

The Irish Bishops and Archbishops Declare Parnell to be a Man Unfit to Lead the Party.

Declarations of Various Irish Civic and Political Organizations For and Against the Irish Leader—Balfour's Land Bill—General Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The meeting of the Nationalist members of the house of commons to further consider the question of the retention of Parnell in the leadership of the party, re-assembled at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the room in the house of commons in which the previous meetings had been held.

During the proceedings, Mr. Parnell, announced that the sergeant-at-arms of the house of commons, had granted the retention of Parnell in the leadership of the party until 7 o'clock.

Mr. Healy disputed that official's right to determine the length of the session, and requested that he be notified to that effect.

Mr. Parnell replied that the message Mr. Healy requested to be sent to the sergeant-at-arms was impermissible.

Objection was raised to telegrams from individuals being received during the proceedings. During the discussion, a telegram from Mr. Parnell was read.

Mr. Sexton said he would persist to the end in his opposition to Mr. Parnell, despite the unflattering attacks that had been made upon him.

A dispatch from Clonmel was read, declaring that the tenants on the Smith-Barry estate were with Dillon and O'Brien in their opposition to the leader of the party.

A telegram from the Belfast branch of the National League was received and read. It declared the members would have no leader but Parnell.

Mr. Sexton, who represents the western division of Belfast, said that if he had looked a day in which to consider Mr. Clancy's proposal, which was cleverly designed in the Parnell interest, with the double object of giving the leadership to himself and further wrong, in the event of the almost certain refusal of Mr. Gladstone to give the required pledge.

Some conversation ensued which resulted in the postponement until tomorrow, when it is expected a compromise will be arranged which will lead to entirely new developments.

Mr. Clancy's motion involves the temporary retirement of Mr. Parnell, subject to certain conditions being exacted from Mr. Gladstone in connection with his proposed home rule scheme.

It is supposed that Mr. Clancy's proposal is left with certain members, who Mr. Parnell's friends allege to be unworthy and unworthy of Christian confidence.

Further, we cannot avoid the conviction that the continuing of Parnell in the leadership of the party will disorganize and range in hostile camps those hitherto united with the force of our country, confronted with the prospect of a complete and utter defeat at the general election.

Mr. Clancy's proposal is left with certain members, who Mr. Parnell's friends allege to be unworthy and unworthy of Christian confidence.

Further, we cannot avoid the conviction that the continuing of Parnell in the leadership of the party will disorganize and range in hostile camps those hitherto united with the force of our country, confronted with the prospect of a complete and utter defeat at the general election.

Mr. Clancy's proposal is left with certain members, who Mr. Parnell's friends allege to be unworthy and unworthy of Christian confidence.

Further, we cannot avoid the conviction that the continuing of Parnell in the leadership of the party will disorganize and range in hostile camps those hitherto united with the force of our country, confronted with the prospect of a complete and utter defeat at the general election.

Mr. Clancy's proposal is left with certain members, who Mr. Parnell's friends allege to be unworthy and unworthy of Christian confidence.

Further, we cannot avoid the conviction that the continuing of Parnell in the leadership of the party will disorganize and range in hostile camps those hitherto united with the force of our country, confronted with the prospect of a complete and utter defeat at the general election.

Mr. Clancy's proposal is left with certain members, who Mr. Parnell's friends allege to be unworthy and unworthy of Christian confidence.

Further, we cannot avoid the conviction that the continuing of Parnell in the leadership of the party will disorganize and range in hostile camps those hitherto united with the force of our country, confronted with the prospect of a complete and utter defeat at the general election.

GENERAL NEWS.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE NATIONAL MEETING.

The Pending Elections Bill Denounced as a Partisan and Sectional Measure.

An Army Officer Gives Some Interesting Information in Regard to the Indian Trouble in the Northwest.

General Miles Preparing to Mount Infantry Regiments—Chicago Railroad Men Alarmed by the Action of the Federal Grand Jury—Kansas Capital News—Notes.

OCALA, Fla., Dec. 3.—The Farmers' Alliance convention met in regular session this morning. A resolution was adopted providing a committee of one from each state delegation to investigate the charges against Mr. McCreary, chairman of the national executive committee.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

Mr. Livingston, rising to a question of personal privilege in the convention, stated that as the charges and rumors affecting him, of unfair dealings in reference to the Georgia senatorship, had been whispered, he demanded a thorough investigation.

STATE CAPITAL NOTES.

THE IRISH NATIONALIST PARTY AGAIN ADJOURNS WITHOUT TAKING DEFINITE ACTION.

THE IRISH BISHOPS AND ARCHBISHOPS DECLARE PARNELL TO BE A MAN UNFIT TO LEAD THE PARTY.

DECLARATIONS OF VARIOUS IRISH CIVIC AND POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS FOR AND AGAINST THE IRISH LEADER.

BALFOUR'S LAND BILL—GENERAL FOREIGN NOTES.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

Mr. Parnell is in the best of spirits, and is expressing with great confidence his belief in the final overthrow of Parnell.

CRIMES AND MISDEAMORS.

A LONDON MURDERER SENTENCED TO BE HANGED.

Tragic Death of Isaac M. Jordan, a Well-Known Cincinnati Lawyer and Politician.

A Large Tobacco Factory at Detroit Badly Damaged by Fire—Six Hundred Girls Thrown out of Work.

Another Ripper at Work in Switzerland—The New York Murderers at Sing Sing Awaiting Execution—The Investigation of the Kansas City Boodlers—Notes.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The trial of Mrs. Nellie Peary on the charge of murder ended today. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

THE SIOUX INDIANS.

An Interview with an Army Officer on the Impending Outbreak.

General Miles Preparing to Mount Infantry Regiments—Chicago Railroad Men Alarmed by the Action of the Federal Grand Jury—Kansas Capital News—Notes.

THE SIOUX INDIANS.

An Interview with an Army Officer on the Impending Outbreak.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—An Inspector, general division of the Missouri, returned this morning from a visit to the scene of the Indian troubles in the northwest. In an interview, he said:

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged. The crime for which Mrs. Peary is to die was committed on Oct. 24, in the morning of Oct. 24, the body of a woman, which was subsequently identified as that of Mrs. Hoag, the wife of a London porter, was found in the South Hamstead locality.

Mr. Peary returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to