

THE TERRITORY.

THE GOVERNOR SIGNS THE SCHOOL BILL UNDER PROTEST.

The Sections Providing for Separate Schools Held to Invalidate the Law.

A Breach Created in the Council by the Publication in the Eagle of President Gardenhire's Speech.

The House Finally Adopts the Memorial to Congress Asking for Permission to Hold an Extra Session and or Further Help for the Needy-Notes.

Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle. GUTHRIE, Ok., Dec. 6.—Following is Governor Steele's message to the legislature accompanying his approval of the school bill.

"GUTHRIE, Ok., Dec. 5, 1890. To the President of the Council, Territorial Legislature of Oklahoma.

"I have the honor to return herewith council bill No. 2. I am fully apprised of the fact that there has been a great deal of difficulty encountered in the formation of this bill, and more particularly so on the subject of mixed or separate schools, embraced in sections 112 to 130 inclusive, said sections, I have no doubt, are unconstitutional, and will not stand a judicial scrutiny, and only have my consent to stand because I am fully advised that to send this bill back will mean no schools for the children of the territory for the next several months. Hence my approval.

"Very respectfully, "GEO. W. STEELE, Governor." We now have a school law. There will be a school election within thirty days. The governor has nominated J. H. Lawhead, former state superintendent of Kansas, for territorial superintendent. T. G. Hixley, the efficient district clerk, has returned from the south. The council appointed the following assistant enrolling and engrossing clerks: Misses Black, Jamison, Lillie Lantz, Annie and Emma Harrington. Representative Lewis is still suffering from his wounds. S. G. Jones Sundays in Arkansas City.

COUNCIL MORNING SESSION.

The legislature is hurrying matters. Bills fly through both houses, and committees work early and late. The enrolling and engrossing clerks has been increased.

Yesterday some members got on the rampage on account of the publication of Mr. Gardenhire's speech. They even went so far as (through W. A. McCartney, of Kingfisher), to present a resolution excluding the Eagle from the territory. The speaker, claiming that the speech purporting to be Mr. Gardenhire's was a fabrication, Mr. Gardenhire, being present, and the one supposed to be the author, was perfectly satisfied with the EAGLE'S report.

The trouble is right here: Tuesday the council had under consideration the bill providing for the burial of old soldiers. At that time the old war spirit was unusually rife, and the ex-confederates were mercilessly scored.

Mr. Gardenhire, an ex-confederate, then delivered a speech, attacking the course pursued by the Republican legislators. It is not exactly the same as the reported speech in the Eagle, but like the one in the Eagle is the one Mr. Gardenhire intended to make, and his subsequent adoption would seem to cure all discrepancies. The Eagle has been, if anything, too careful to report only credible things about the legislature and to shed only a meadow light upon the throne. Some of the confederates are either thin-skinned or superstitious.

In discussing the resolution Mr. Nesbitt said a vote of thanks was due the reporter for not reporting the actions of those opposed.

Mr. Brown of Logan—I would like to have the resolution include in its scope the New York paper that said I had a scrap with Frank Greer.

Mr. Pittman said that it was not becoming in the council to seek to muzzle the press. Mr. McCartney said he didn't believe that either of the EAGLE'S reporters sent in the false report, but that the culprit should be discovered. He said the speech published was delivered by Ben Butler eight years ago.

The matter was postponed until Monday, on motion of Mr. Foster.

Mr. Brown of Oklahoma, presented council resolution No. 3, which reads as follows:

"Whereas, the legislative assembly of the territory of Oklahoma, by an act passed, provided that the superintendent of public instruction should be ex-officio auditor of this territory; and,

"Whereas, the governor has, by a communication to this body, indicated that it might be well to provide for a territorial auditor; and

"Whereas, the territory is small, and the amount of work to be done must be limited; and,

"Whereas, there is liable to be additional expense entailed by the creation of such an additional office, therefore, be it

"Resolved, by this council, That, in deference to the suggestions of his excellency the governor, we again consider the matter of the appointment of a territorial auditor, and inform his excellency that we deem the creation of that office inexpedient until our territory shall be enlarged, and until we have more means with which to pay current expenses."

A bill providing for the office of sheriff, was considered in committee of the whole. An executive session consumed the remainder of the morning.

HOUSE MORNING SESSION.

Sixteen members were present. Prayer by the chaplain.

The reading of the journal was dispensed with.

Council bill No. 36, the university bill, was made a special order for Thursday at 4 p. m.

House bill No. 88, in relation to the office of county clerk, was passed.

House bills Nos. 87, 89, 71 and 98 were referred to the governor.

House bill No. 84 (repe, etc.) was referred to a committee composed of the following gentlemen: Matthews, Wimberly and Campbell.

House bill No. 93, providing for the support of the poor, was read the second time, and set for Monday at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Stover introduced house bill No. 102, an act authorizing George R. Beeler, et al, to construct and operate a railway and railway bridge in Cleveland county, Oklahoma territory. This means a bridge between Lexington and Purcell. Referred to a committee.

Council concurrent resolution No. 11, praying congress to grant the legislature a special session was taken up.

In regard to the resolution, Mr. Campbell said: "This is a remarkable document. If I believed that one half was true, I would not say that I object to some parts of this going to congress. I am ready to act on this bill any time. It may be necessary that we remain longer, but I see no reason why we should be called upon to vote on this."

Mr. Mathews—I have read the bill and I see nothing in it we should not endorse.

KINGMAN NOTES. Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

KINGMAN, Kan., Dec. 6.—According to figures furnished by Mr. Ferguson, a hardware man, and Mr. Griffith, of this place, the Kingman Rock Salt company must be doing a very extensive business. Their figures show that the employees take from the rock bed, eight hundred feet below the surface, and load on elevators, elevate and empty into the cars, 20,000 tons of salt in forty-five minutes, or about 250 tons in twenty-four hours. If there is any place in this country that can touch that, we would like to hear from them. Kingman is surely the salt center of the west.

What is looking fine in all the western counties, and especially in Kingman. The people here would be pleased to see the Wichita and Western people arrange to run a train out here in the morning, so they could get Wichita mails without having to wait till night.

THE ELLSWORTH POULTRY SHOW. Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle.

ELLSWORTH, Kan., Dec. 6.—The first annual exhibition of the Ellsworth Poultry club will be held December 22 and 23, 1890. The display of high bred fowls will be superb, both in numbers and quality. Fancliers from Salina, Abilene, Russell, Wilson and other places have promised to bring their birds. The noted poultry expert, C. A. Emery, of Carthage, Missouri, will judge and score the fowls. No money prizes, but a score card will be given each bird. Indian Games, the new breed recently imported, will be shown, and every standard variety will be on exhibition. Another attraction will be a lot of the Great Dane breed.

There will be no charge for admission, and no entrance fee. Ellsworth pays the expenses, and wishes every one to attend. Birds will be returned free by the express companies on the secretary's certificate.

Billiousness, bad taste in the mouth, headache, and dizziness are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

NEW YORK STOCKS. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The opening sales were made at declines from last evening's figures of from 1/4 to 1/2 generally, while Delaware and Hudson and Rock Island were each off 1 1/2 per cent, sugar receipts and national lead each 1/4, and Western Union 1 per cent. A semi-panicly condition of affairs existed during the first twenty minutes' trading, when, on large transactions, all the active stocks were further depressed from 1 to 1 1/2 per cent, and at the lowest prices then reached, a slight rally followed, when the market for a time became more quiet. But the liquidation had been fairly started, and everything afterwards reached lower figures. The market throughout the list was quite neglected. At 11 o'clock the market was comparatively quiet, and firm, at close to the lowest prices reached.

MRS. CARNEGIE ILL. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Andrew Carnegie is lying dangerously ill with typhoid fever at her home.

SHOT BY BURGLARS. SOUX CITY, Iowa, Dec. 6.—William Deming, who lived with his father Christian Deming, was shot and killed by burglars, who entered his father's house. Although they have real estate and other property valued at $300,000, the two men have lived alone in wretched quarters. The old man, who is 80 years old, was attacked and clubbed to insensibility. The burglars beat a hasty retreat without securing any money, although it is learned that there was $300 in the house. The theory is that the burglars were people living in the vicinity, and one man has been arrested on Deming's identification.

ARMOR FOR CRUISERS. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 6.—Thomas Harrington, of Allegheny, has demonstrated the possibility of thoroughly fusing steel and nickel in any proportions so as to make a material which will be perfectly free from porosity and quite homogeneous. This is a result heretofore unattained, though both here and in Europe metallurgists have been engaged in devising a means of doing this. Harrington yesterday tested a piece of steel with an alloy of a little over 3 per cent of nickel. The stock used in making the steel was ordinary spring steel and having a tensile strength of 60,000 pounds to the square inch, according to the makers--Smith Bros., of the Labelle works. When the melt was ready for pouring Harrington added a flux of his own, and the cast was made into 3 1/2 inch square ingots. One of these was hammered down to an inch square. A test made in the laboratory here showed a tensile strength of 133,500 pounds to the square inch and an elongation of 2 1/2 per cent.

This is regarded as a wonderful result from such a poor stock. Harrington claims to be able to treat open hearth steel, from which armor plates are made, just as easily. The discovery opens up a possibility for making armor plate of great strength and little weight.

FAILURES. NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—The cotton house of V. & A. Meyer has suspended, with liabilities aggregating $25,000,000, and assets of $8,000,000. This is the third largest cotton house in the country, and was supposed to be one of the wealthiest. They will ask for an extension and say they will pay dollar for dollar. The recent financial panic, the slowness of collections, and the decline in the price of cotton, each had its share in the result. The firm was interested in twenty-five or thirty cotton plantations, and owned half a dozen of the best sugar plantations in the state. It is feared that the wreck of this great commercial house may involve several other firms.

FOUND DEAD. KANSAS CITY, Dec. 6.—R. L. Harper, of Kiowa, Kansas, one of the wealthiest and best known cattlemen in the west, was found dead in his bed at the Midland hotel this morning. At 9 o'clock this morning he called a bell boy and had him go for hot water. He told the boy to bring him more hot water at 11 o'clock. When the boy went to the room at that hour, he found Mr. Harper dead in bed. Death resulted from heart disease, which was intensified by consumption. Mr. Harper was 48 years of age, and a native of Jeffersonville, Ohio. He was unmarried and his fortune is said to be his brothers and sisters.

A "QUEER" FIND. ST. LOUIS, Dec. 6.—Yesterday, while laborers were digging for a foundation for a house on a farm near Venice, Illinois, they unearthed a partly decayed box, which contained about a bushel of counterfeit half dollars. They were perfect imitations of the genuine in all but weight. The place where they were found proved to be a place where a house had stood, in which had lived a woman named Abby Wilson, who was in league with a band of counterfeiters.
