A SUMMARY OF THE WORLD'S HARVEST PROSPECTS.

The Grain Deficit in Russia and British India Causing Widespread Famine.

The Distress in the Muscovite Empire the Worst Known in Its History—Famine Prices for Breadstuffs.

The Congressional Council Discusses the Sabbath Question—Gladstone and Spurgeon—Another Court Holds Mrs. Maybrick Guilty of Murder—Russian Persecution of the Jews Relaxing—Notes.

LONDON, July 20.—The Times summarizes the harvest prospects of the world as follows: In Russia there is a grave deficit, the peasantry are starving and there is small hope of relief. In India there is serious anxiety. A famine prevails over a considerable portion of the country. Madras, Rajputana, and the Punjab are the worst sufferers. There is a drought in Bengal and the need of more rain is urgent. Bombay alone promises a good harvest. The American harvest will be good in quality and amount. With the failure of the Indian and Russian supplies, it is of the utmost importance that the English crop should not be short. The prospect for the whole is good. In the chief wheat countries—Essex, Norfolk and Suffolk—the crop is above the average and in other countries up to the average. Their harvest will be late and prices will be high. There is therefore a good outlook for the English farmer, to break the long series of disastrous years.

THE RUSSIAN FAMINE. LONDON, July 20.—America's immense harvest will leave but a small domestic surplus after the hunger of Europe shall have been provided for in the season that is to come. Famine straits Russia square the face. This empire, which usually has so large a surplus of breadstuffs for all its European neighbors, has not enough for its own hungry millions this year. Complete and universal famine is being drawn upon for breadstuffs to take the place of what Europe would ordinarily draw from Russia, but to help feed Russia herself. The English crop shall not be short, therefore, which sends a shudder to all the poorer classes of Russia, will show only its silver lining to the American people, but it is destined to become so largely increased as to bring better prices.

Since the evil days of Boris Godunoff, who first legalized serfdom, before the dynasty of the Romanoffs was seated on the imperial throne, hunger and famine have never been yet so intense or so widespread as they are destined to become in the year 1891. Russian officials have no hesitation in prophesying that the high-water mark of desolation and misery will be left far behind this year. Early frost, destructive drought, which usually have effectually done their work. The official reports from Kherson describe the winter crops as having perished completely and the reports from the spring crops are fast following. Telegrams from Kiev are not a whit more hopeful; prices are rising, not weekly as of yore, but daily. A Russian official from Tzavria is quite as badly off as those of Kiev and Kherson.

From Bessarabia, Podolia, the Volga basin, Tamboff, Tzaricoff, and all central and western Russia and large portions of the south and east come these reports of a famine gaunt and unmistakable. Heretofore in the very worst years of scarcity there were always some districts in which the crops were abundant enough to allow rice to be sold for 50 copecks a peck (only three pounds). This year there are none such, and no part of Russia can be purchased for less than 100 copecks (1 ruble), while in most places the price is considerably higher.

Not until autumn will the real misery be felt in all its intensity; but the symptoms of it are manifesting themselves.

Mr. Battersworth responded and briefly sketched the magnitude and scope of what they proposed to accomplish.

AMERICAN ARTISTS REWARDED. BOSTON, July 20.—The judges at the international art exhibit have awarded gold medals to the American artists Forbes, Stanhope, Shannon and MacEwan. Waterhouse, the American architect, was awarded a gold medal. The exhibition is now open to the public.

RUSSIAN JEWS. ST. PETERSBURG, July 20.—The persecution of the Jews has been somewhat relaxed. The order for the expulsion of Jewish artisans from St. Petersburg has been indefinitely postponed and orders have been issued to the press to refrain from publishing articles likely to excite animosity against the Jews.

PORTUGAL'S FINANCES. LISBON, July 20.—The scarcity of coin in Portugal is severely felt. Commercial houses, both here and in Oporto, are accepting of the paper money, which they take at a heavy discount. The premium on the sovereign is now 13 per cent.

DE COBIAN'S EXPULSION. LONDON, July 20.—In the house of commons today, Thursday, July 20, was fixed upon for the expulsion of De Cobian, the member from West Belfast, who is charged with serious offenses.

FAILURES. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 20.—The Central bank of Kansas City, Kansas, failed this morning. The bank had been in liquidation since the first National bank, which was taken charge of by the bank examiner last Thursday. The liabilities are $25,000, and the assets are $20,000. R. W. Hilliker is the president of the bank. The bank was organized under the state law.

NEWBURGH, Mass., July 20.—The Bayley hat factory in this city made an assignment today. It is expected that the liabilities will reach $175,000. The assets are placed at less than $60,000.

FORT WORTH, Tex., July 20.—The Merchants National bank, by a vote of the directors, closed its doors this morning and was placed in the hands of Bank Examiner H. M. Spalding. The assets are $1,200,000 and the liabilities $200,000. Six months ago rumors, caused a heavy withdrawal of deposits, when in fifteen days $200,000 in deposits were withdrawn, of which $50,000 were taken out by foreign loan companies on account of the alien land law. Mr. Spalding says that the bank is solvent and that the depositors and creditors will be fully protected. A movement is on foot to reorganize the bank under the new law. No other banks are affected.

LAWLESSNESS.

A DEFIANT ACT OF BRICEVILLE COAL MINERS.

The State Militia Captured and Compelled to Leave the Scene of the Trouble.

The Sympathy of the Community Forfeited by Lawless Acts and Threats to Destroy Property.

A Vigorous Effort at St. Paul to Prevent the Fall-Fitzsimmons Exhibition of Prize-Ring Brutality—A Crazy Mother Murders Her Three Children and Then Commits Suicide—Notes.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 20.—The crisis came today at Briceville about 11 o'clock, when the miners and a crowd of sympathizers from the surrounding country gathered around the camp of the state militia and captured the troops and convicts, marching them off to the depot and putting them on a train for Knoxville. The miners and their friends to the number of 1,200 or 1,500 were divided into four equal squads and completely surrounded the camp. The miners sent up a flag of truce and sent in a committee to the officer in command. The committee notified the officer that they had come to take the convicts and that they would by force if necessary. The troops were allowed to keep their arms and ammunition, and they, with the convicts, were marched to the depot and put on a train for Knoxville. They arrived here about 4:30 o'clock. The troops, to the number of 100, were sent to the army of the Knoxville rifles, where they now remain awaiting the governor's orders. The miners made them promise to return to their homes, and the convicts were taken to the jail.

The city is now intensely excited. Leading men of all political parties say that they must be satisfied with the sympathy which has been manifested on the side of the miners is now against them. Governor Buchanan's administration is that of the Alliance, and some politicians are dissenting from the Alliance. The Alliance will do, but the great mass of the citizens say that the law must be obeyed, and Governor Buchanan must enforce it. The superior court today, Fayette alleges that the twenty-four defendants formed a combination at the last session of the legislature for the furtherance of certain measures, and that they conspired to perform a robbery in April last, acknowledged an indebtedness in the sum of $6,000, but failed to pay said amount. The court, for Fayette stated in court today that he proposed to hold that the combine had violated $100,000 among its members.

A BATTLE WITH TOUGHS. NOKS, Mo., July 20.—At the City, McDonald county, last night, a number of roughs attempted to break up a religious meeting. The minister commanded them to be quiet, whereupon one of the roughs knocked him down. The pastor of the church, with Young Hopkins, a son of Postmaster Hopkins, with several others, attempted to arrest the roughs. They met with resistance, and the minister was injured. Young Hopkins then fired upon them, killing John Cook and shooting a hand of one of the rioters. Hopkins surrendered himself to the sheriff. More trouble is expected.

INSANITY AND MURDER. CLAY CITY, Ill., July 20.—This morning all that remained of the James family, consisting of a father, mother, daughter and grandchild, living five miles west of here, was found in the ruins of their home, which had been burned. It is thought that either the father or mother desired the family, then fired the house and committed suicide. The son was addicted to the use of whisky and the father was subject to fits of insanity.

A COURT-MARTIAL. TUCSON, Ariz., July 20.—A court-martial convened today to hear the charges against First Lieut. Kingsbury of the Second Cavalry. The charges are that Kingsbury appropriated $300 in arrears received from auction sales at Fort Lowell. He pleaded not guilty to the specifications and says he can give a satisfactory account of the shortage.

JUDGE M'KAY'S CASE. Special Dispatch to the Daily Eagle. ANTHONY, Kan., July 20.—Notice was served on Judge McKay today, that a motion will be made in the supreme court tomorrow to have him removed from office. The motion is based on the fact that McKay is a member of the supreme court in the H. A. Burr receivership matter. The judge has about concluded to go to Topeka this afternoon to attend to the matter. He has made his threat that the parties in this case will not gain anything by their course in opposing his writs. It is generally thought that the gentleman will have a clearer idea about supreme court writs when he gets through this case than he had before.

The Alliance convention met in the opera house on Saturday and nominated candidates for county offices, as follows: M. D. Lee of Anthony, sheriff; W. M. Halliday, of Pilot Knob, sheriff; W. M. Duff, of Danville, county clerk; J. M. Couch, of Anthony, register of deeds; J. Benjamin Lee of Anthony, coroner; Dr. Goodrich, of Bluff (Ch. coroner); and Amos Fanner, of Bertha, for commissioner of the second district. The platform was brief. It affirmed and endorsed the constitution and the laws of the state, and demanded that the people be allowed to elect their own officers, and that the people be allowed to elect their own officers, and that the people be allowed to elect their own officers.

PARSONS AND PUGILISM. ST. PAUL, Minn., July 20.—A committee representing various churches today petitioned the mayor and Governor Merriam to urge interference with the Hall-Fitzsimmons contest. The mayor reiterated his statement of Saturday—that the contest was in the hands of high-class business men, and would undoubtedly be the best managed and least objectionable of anything of the kind that ever took place in St. Paul, and that he absolutely declined to interfere at this stage, after the Minneapolis club had obligated itself over $15,000, which would be a bad loss. He thought the proper time to have moved in the matter was thirty days ago when the articles were first signed. Governor Merriam told the committee that he was powerless in the matter, and should take action unless the proper authorities appealed to him for aid in a legal way. The sheriff declined to interfere, saying that it is an affair for the municipal court and the city authorities alone. The result is that the fight will take place as advertised. The chamber of commerce this morning adopted resolutions protesting against the fight.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 20.—Hosts of people from all parts of the country arrived here last night and today for the purpose of taking in the Hall-Fitzsimmons contest. There seems to be little doubt in their minds that the fight will come off, judging from the number of tickets purchased. It is fully expected that the seating capacity of the amphitheatre will be completely sold by tomorrow night. The management have no fears that the fight will not take place. This afternoon the court, in the case of the same name, made a lengthy decision, but briefly announced judgment for the plaintiffs or liberal franchise of the church.

The Sympathy of the Community Forfeited by Lawless Acts and Threats to Destroy Property.

A Vigorous Effort at St. Paul to Prevent the Fall-Fitzsimmons Exhibition of Prize-Ring Brutality—A Crazy Mother Murders Her Three Children and Then Commits Suicide—Notes.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 20.—The crisis came today at Briceville about 11 o'clock, when the miners and a crowd of sympathizers from the surrounding country gathered around the camp of the state militia and captured the troops and convicts, marching them off to the depot and putting them on a train for Knoxville. The miners and their friends to the number of 1,200 or 1,500 were divided into four equal squads and completely surrounded the camp. The miners sent up a flag of truce and sent in a committee to the officer in command. The committee notified the officer that they had come to take the convicts and that they would by force if necessary. The troops were allowed to keep their arms and ammunition, and they, with the convicts, were marched to the depot and put on a train for Knoxville. They arrived here about 4:30 o'clock. The troops, to the number of 100, were sent to the army of the Knoxville rifles, where they now remain awaiting the governor's orders. The miners made them promise to return to their homes, and the convicts were taken to the jail.

The city is now intensely excited. Leading men of all political parties say that they must be satisfied with the sympathy which has been manifested on the side of the miners is now against them. Governor Buchanan's administration is that of the Alliance, and some politicians are dissenting from the Alliance. The Alliance will do, but the great mass of the citizens say that the law must be obeyed, and Governor Buchanan must enforce it. The superior court today, Fayette alleges that the twenty-four defendants formed a combination at the last session of the legislature for the furtherance of certain measures, and that they conspired to perform a robbery in April last, acknowledged an indebtedness in the sum of $6,000, but failed to pay said amount. The court, for Fayette stated in court today that he proposed to hold that the combine had violated $100,000 among its members.

A BATTLE WITH TOUGHS. NOKS, Mo., July 20.—At the City, McDonald county, last night, a number of roughs attempted to break up a religious meeting. The minister commanded them to be quiet, whereupon one of the roughs knocked him down. The pastor of the church, with Young Hopkins, a son of Postmaster Hopkins, with several others, attempted to arrest the roughs. They met with resistance, and the minister was injured. Young Hopkins then fired upon them, killing John Cook and shooting a hand of one of the rioters. Hopkins surrendered himself to the sheriff. More trouble is expected.
