Mr. J. Gross, of the Golden Eagle, left for the east last week.

Much of the old-time life of the business streets yesterday afternoon was unmistakable.

The thrashing machines are very busy near Peabody. What is not good as anticipated in many instances.

Miss Dossie Munsell was called to Fred, Chickensaw nation, I. T., to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Jane Munsell.

Speaking of the appointment of W. K. Carlisle as assistant solicitor of the world's fair the Chicago News.

Is it any wonder the jobbers of Kansas complain of railroad discriminations when the rate on sugar is cut from 10 to 12 cents?

Miss Llewellyn Cloud and Miss Margaret Thompson, of Mount Sterling, Ky., nieces of Mrs. R. T. Boon, and who have been visiting Mrs. Boon for several days, visit yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Boon.

The Wichita Athletics returned from Argonia last evening, where they have been playing ball Friday and Saturday with the club of that place.

There was a more unjust abortion of custom than another, it is the lowering of kitchen labor and the degradation with which a portion of the world regards a woman bent upon the calling of a livelihood.

There was placed on the editor's table yesterday a box of blackberries from the farm of C. C. Wickham, seven miles northwest of the city.

Quite a number of black bass, the genuine big-mouthed Oswego article, sweet, solid and toothsome, have been pulled from the waters of the Little river the past week or two.

On the day after the fatal event, the house is thrown in a turmoil by the announcement of this essential personage to her mistress that she must depart forthwith.

Last Friday was Miss Florence Sullivan's tenth birthday, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Sullivan, improved the occasion by giving a very enjoyable children's party at their residence, 412 South Water street.

THE EAGLE'S JENKINS.

MIDSUMMER SOCIETY TALK AND TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

That the Women Will Read and the Men May-Boom Days in the Manitow.

Hypatia-Servant Girls-Rising Journalists.

IT CAN NOW BE SAID that almost everybody in Wichita makes pretensions to suffering extremely from the heat in summer and possessing the inclination and the cash to take a sojourn to some cooler climate or vicinity, have left by this time.

There is another matter that some servant girls are inclined to take umbrage at, and that is eating at the second table. I am told that a banker of this city recently imported a fresh girl from the country who on being told that she could not eat at the table packed up sumptuously and vomited bag and baggage.

Speaking of the management of householders, Mrs. M. J. Sherman was telling me recently of the strict economy, one may say penuriousness, with which a house in Germany is conducted.

A friend hands me a clipping from the Cincinnati Enquirer. It is from the pen of Leonard Washburne. Mr. Washburne was one of the brightest young men who ever struck Wichita.

Leonard Washburne, of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, discusses the new New York pitcher as follows: "Rusie! He is not a handsome man. His legs lack repose, his fists are too large for their age, his face is a clam-chowder dream and his neck is so ineffectual that he cannot wear a collar without embarrassing his ears."

Another young man whom I hear of frequently who is working his way up in a journalistic way is Lew Springer, who used to be with the Eagle. Springer went to New York City and secured a reportorial position on the New York World.

It is different with the individual. He mostly stands alone and his strength may be his only resource. Woe to the poor woe to the unpopular woe to the bereaved; these are favorite subjects with the evil tongues.

Indeed, this might be a problem for psychologists: is memory and affection returning when the victim is conquered? The eyes are closed, the lips are sealed, when the heart beats no more!

THE ORPHAN HOME. The orphan home here has their hands and heads full now. Just at midnight last night there came an energetic jangle at the door-bell of that charitable institution.

On opening the door she saw a basket on the steps. Looking up and down the street and seeing no one, she picked up the basket and carried it into the house.

THE SOUTHERN KANSAS FAIR. "A big fair this year," is the cry all along the line. From the Mississippi to beyond the Rockies comes the inquiry, "What kind of a fair will be held in the Peerless Princess this year?"

Never in the history of the state has so much interest been manifested by the people of our own state, as well as every state contiguous, in a fair of any kind as is now shown in the Southern Kansas district fair.

Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts. Vanilla, Lemon, Orange, etc., hold their unshaken position in the estimation of thousands, that in all particulars that constitute perfect results, they cannot be approached.

One trial will satisfy that for purity, strength, and deliciousness of flavor Dr. Price's Extracts are alone in the market.
