THE EAGLE has the largest circulation of any daily paper in the state. It is published every day except on Sundays and public holidays.

Mr. Cranston of this city has a $2 bank note issued by the State bank at LeCompton, dated Nov. 1, 1856.

An eagle report was present yesterday when a well known calamity howler of this county deposited $800 in one of Wichita's banks.

The Ministerial association will meet at the M. C. church on Monday, at 8:30 p. m. Rev. J. A. Lowe will conduct the prayer service.

A small fire occurred in a pile of boxes in the rear of Swab & Glosser's store yesterday which was put out before the department arrived.

Mr. Black of Garden Plain township was here yesterday on business. He says that the farmers in his locality will vote the Republican ticket.

The grass in the court house lawn is growing nicely and will soon cover the entire surface of the ground. The lawn is getting to look very pretty.

The Coronado club will hold their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the club rooms. Election returns will also be received at the club rooms a wire being put in for that purpose.

Miss Ida M. Ives the agreeable telegraph operator at the Carey hotel for the postal company left last night for Warsaw to spend Sunday at her home. She will return Monday morning.

Mrs. Ella Glenn Shields will give an exhibition of the work of her pupils in China painting on Thursday and Friday, from 4 to 6 p. m., at P. P. Martin's art store, on North Market street.

One of the most popular young ladies in the city will soon quit Kansas for Missouri where a wealthy young man offers to share his heart and good fortune with her. The wedding will take place between Christmas and New Year.

Motorcars were given no end of trouble last night by the festive boys, who were out in full force, celebrating in a most boisterous manner. The trophies of the cars jumped off so often that it pretty nearly taxed the patience of the car men.

Rev. P. H. St. John of Atchua, Kan., will preach this morning and evening at the First M. E. church. Mr. St. John is not the named John P., as seemed to be understood by many from yesterday morning's notice. John P. neither was nor is a preacher.

A SENSIBLE DEMOCRAT.

He Won't Vote for Moore Because it Would Enhance Bab's Election.

There is one mighty good Democrat in town who will not vote for Moore and he is sorry that he can't. He likes Edwin very well but he is compelled to go back on him to save the county from an Alliance judge. He is onto the schemes of the new Republicans, who, for obvious reasons have deserted Judge Reed.

It made my blood boil," said he, "when I saw him do this, and I made up my mind right there that I would vote for the Republican ticket that ever lived before I would vote for an Alliance man who would get off his bench, mingle with the rabble, and enforce the laws on the curbstone and on the gutters without any necessity for doing so.

THEY OVERDID IT. A prominent Democratic business man in this city after reading the rotten screed and infamous stuff published under a Colwich date, last evening, telephoned the editor of the EAGLE that he had voted the Democratic ticket all his life but that the reproduction of the puerile balderdash so disgusted him that he would vote the entire Republican ticket and advise all his employees and associates to do likewise.

A number of the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Curvort assembled at their home, 522 North Emporia avenue, last night to give them a farewell party previous to their departure for Muscatine, Ia., in a few days, where they will visit friends for a month or two.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Curvort, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Richardson, Misses Tressie Shill, Katie and Bridget McGrath, Ellie Holleran, Mary Dooley, Katie O'Connell, Mary McGrath, Emma Schindler, Sallie McGary and Mrs. George Murphy, and Messrs. Charlie Naff, Michael Shields, Clint Stout, John Keegan, Lewis Seidl, Lawrence Seidl, William McCarty, Gus Baldwin, John Stevens, Tom Traudsaie and Robert Turley.

At Colwich in Union township, Friday night, Col. Hallwood addressed a large and enthusiastic audience. The bank hall was filled with voters who listened with capt attention to the speech by the colonel, lasting for two hours. The colonel started out with the proposition that the campaign this fall was a business one—not political. He then took up the Alliance question in relation to national banks, and during the progress of his speech received genuine applause at every point.

AN ALL-ROUND FEELING.

It seemed to be the general impression in town yesterday, and it was the general talk coming in from the country, that the Republicans were ahead in the county, and away ahead in a number of localities.

It was one of those things felt in the air and felt as sensibly by the Democrats as by the Republicans. Nobody seemed to state any reason farther than that the Republicans are not divided or distracted by any side issue this year, that one dose of Alliance rage had proved enough, and that the Alliance itself seemed uncertain and lifeless. It is certain that the Republicans are feeling perfectly confident of a big victory.

THE SICKNER PIANO RECITAL.

The 238th piano recital, given by the pupils of Professor A. W. Sickner's music class, on Friday afternoon, in the professor's music room in the Fletcher block, was one of the finest musical treats ever given in this city. It was witnessed by a large number of persons, including some of the best musical critics of our city and a number of visitors from abroad, to whom cards of invitation were issued.

Professor Sickner spares no cost or care in preparing the programs for these regular weekly piano recitals, and the program on this occasion, as a very fine specimen of printing, was worthy of note, while the selections and arrangement could not have been excelled. Among the auditors were a gentleman and lady from Boston, noted musical critics, who were so well pleased with the selections and the manner in which they were executed that they requested the privilege of copying some of the choicest ones for their use in the east.

GEORGE THORNTON'S DEATH.

Deputy United States Marshal George Thornton who was killed in the Sac and Fox country Friday morning, was well known in this city and had many friends here. He was here about a week ago and an EAGLE reporter had a long talk with him in which he expressed himself frequently that he expected to die with his "boots on" as he himself expressed it. He seemed to have a premonition of the manner of his death but it never seemed to bother him. He was a very courteous fellow and was always very agreeable to reporters when he came to Wichita in the line of giving them information about the charges against any prisoners he might have brought up and the details connected with them.

We left the Sac and Fox agency on Tuesday night about midnight and went to Captain Willey's house, a full blood Creek Indian. He had a warrant for the arrest of Sam Lacey, known as "Nigger Hell Sam," for horse stealing, and a warrant for a man charged with murder for killing a Creek Indian on Indian creek last January. We went to Willey's house and found him absent. His mother told us he went north in the bottom. After searching his house we went to another house about fifty yards south, but finding no one there we went to a third house about 50 yards distant. When we were within about seventy-five yards of the house a party of three opened fire on us from different directions. We returned the fire and rode up within about twenty-five yards of the house and dismounted and commenced firing. Thornton fired three or four shots when he was hit by a Winchester rifle bullet. He at once said, "I am shot," and fell. After a few moments he was dead. I brought him to the Sac and Fox agency, and United States Commissioner Lee Patrick and Claude Parker, sheriff of County A, brought him to Guthrie. I notified his uncle, who lives in the Sac and Fox country. I then went to Oklahoma City and notified his family.

MRS. ELLA GLENN SHIELDS' GOODBYE. At the last meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Christian church at the residence of Mrs. C. Reed, the members presented to Mrs. Ella G. Shields, their retiring president, two beautiful books of engravings and etchings as a gift of remembrance and appreciation.

THE HALLOWEEN SOCIAL. The social given by the Young People's Bible class of the Oak Street Presbyterian church last night, proved to be a very enjoyable occasion as well as profitable. Great credit is due the young folks for their efforts to give of the church dollars. The program was even better than in usual, and with the excellent music and abundant refreshments, was heartily enjoyed by the large audience. The committee desire to publicly acknowledge the very kind assistance rendered by the ladies and especially by Dr. De Ross and his excellent wife, without which the affair could not have been quite a complete success.

THE WHEAT. From various farmhouses from different portions of the county, it is learned that every portion of Sedgewick county is a vast acreage of fall wheat. The ground is in an excellent condition, just right as to moisture, plows nicely and the farmers are improving the elegant weather to put in the largest acreage for years. Much of the fall sown wheat is in the hands of the ground, and presents a most pleasing and attractive sight. Fall wheat sowing will continue well until Thanksgiving day. It is said the wheat acreage in this portion of Kansas for next year will be fully one-third greater than of the present season.

SOUTHWESTERN BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES. Night school opens tomorrow evening. Mr. Joseph Slep accepted a position as accountant with the Ryan Wholesale Drug company of St. Paul, Minn. Miss Kate Colson, of the shorthand department, assumed duties of stenographer at the office of Samuel B. Amidon. The following students entered recently: Mr. P. C. Eldred, Carrollton, Ia.; Mr. R. A. Miller, Mr. W. C. Smaier, Sterling, Kan.; Mr. J. M. Neger, Haven, Kan.; Mr. F. Glanville, Saffordville, Kan.; Mr. W. W. McBeth, Ashland, Kan.; Miss Ester Hale, Miss Camilla Lee, Miss Maggie Major, Mr. Samuel Picken, Mr. Luther Slive, Harry Zimmerman, Wichita, Kan.

BIRTHDAY PARTY. Yesterday being the 14th anniversary of Johnnie and the 9th of Jessie Schumacher, a number of their young friends gathered at their residence on Hillside avenue and celebrated the event in a most enjoyable manner for several hours, when they were served with an elaborate luncheon by Mrs. Schumacher. Those present were Walter and Edgar Hoyle, Fay and Florence Alberts, Johnnie Jessie, Lee and Lydia Williams, Hazel Dutton, Maggie Goodin, Anna Casey, Margaret Smith, Edna and Percy Halliwell, Gertrude and Eugene Calhoun, May and George Wilkie, Kittle Kalsed, Maggie, Frank and Myrtle Ratsell, Clara Hill, Elmore Good, Mervyn Wallace, Callie Newman, Clara Fees, Kattie McGowan, Clarence Hickok, Clara and Frank Sullivan, Katie and Victor Kuder, Carl and Victor Gertrude, Mort Rapan, Gladys Horton, Sammie and Aua Herman, Stacy Thompson, Mamie and Freddie Lankie, Marian Ault, Frank and Jessie Williams and Pitter Horton.

AN OLD TIME MISSOURIAN. Hiram Elliott of Linn, Osage county, Missouri, arrived in the city Friday night, and at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon he had purchased a quarter section of land in Sedgewick county, which he will pay cash down for when the proper title is made out. Mr. Elliott has lived in Osage county for the past forty-six years, and never has been out of the state of Missouri since he first settled there, until he made this trip. He will not move here himself, as he is too old to leave the old homestead, but he has two boys who will at once come here to make the newly purchased farm their home. The old gentleman thinks the Kansas soil is better and Kansas a finer state than Missouri, but says he feels lost since he left the woods in which he has lived for nearly half a century. He cast his first vote for Martin Van Buren, and has been voting the Democratic ticket ever since.

A Warning Word. To all who suffer from catarrh, whether in small or great degree, the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only reliable remedy. It is the only medicine that will develop the system, and purify the blood, and drive out the poison of the system. It is the only medicine that will cure the disease, and prevent its return. HOME CHAUTAUQUA CIRCLE.

Roll Call—Current Events. Social Institutions of America—Maud McLaughlin. Music—Mrs. Fegly. Questions on American Facts and Fancies—Miss Kerr. Select Reading—National Nomenclature—Mary Handell. Pen Portrait of the Four Dutch Governors of New York—Mrs. Fegly.

A CARD OF THANKS. The members of the German Baptist (Brethren) church of Wichita take this method of thanking the trustees of the Fifteenth Street Congregational church for their courtesy in permitting us to use their house for our love feast and communion services on the 24th and 25th day of October. By order of the church. WILLIAM JOHNSON, Elder in charge.

CHOSEN FRIENDS. Wichita Council No. 3, Order of Chosen Friends, met in Council hall, No. 306 East Douglas avenue, on Monday evening last, there was a good attendance of members and several candidates were initiated into the order. The next regular meeting takes place on Monday evening, Nov. 2, at 7:30 o'clock sharp. A full attendance is desired, as matters of great importance will come up for consideration. W. H. OLIPHANT, W. H. A. KAMCOFF, Councilor. Secretary. A. O. U. W.

A BEAUTIFUL WINDOW. The window of Johnson's Meat market on North Main street was all day yesterday the center of an admiring circle of wondering eyes. In artistic design and decorative effect it has been seldom equaled in most displays in Wichita. Roasts gaily bedecked in frosted robes, turkeys, masts of greenery and large platters holding unique and elaborate workings in lard, and everything arranged in neatness made the whole window lighted with a row of candies very attractive. It will remain over Sunday.

RALLY AT AUGUSTA. Yesterday the Republican rally at Augusta was an immense affair. The ladies and gentlemen on horseback looked like a cavalry regiment. There were 116 vehicles in the line of march. There were 300 voters by actual count in the line of march, the estimated attendance being about 1,500. One week ago the Alliance held a rally. They had eighty-six voters in line by actual count, and forty-eight vehicles of all kinds, the estimated number in attendance being 500. If this is a sample of the votes that will be cast next week at the respective parties, Butler county will surely redeem itself from the calamity crowd.

An Inquiry:

Is it not better to purchase Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts,

Lemon, Vanilla, Orange, etc., that have stood the test of a quarter of a century, than adulterated, unhealthy extracts because they are cheaper?

Good pure articles have a valuation, and that Dr. Price's Flavoring Extracts are unequalled in purity and quality, no person who has used them will deny.
