Notes.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—"Oh, my God, my head, my head," said Senator Preston B. Plumb, who, as a representative of the state of Kansas in the United States senate continuously since 1877, had occupied a prominent place in the councils of the Republican party, a few minutes after he fell unconscious, never to regain knowledge of what was going on about him.

It was 6:45 o'clock this morning when he uttered this exclamation. A little more than five hours later, the broad framed, powerful looking Kansas senator was stretched out dead in his modest apartment on Fourteenth street. His physician, Dr. Philip Wales, his clerk, B. W. Flenniken, and his landlady, Mrs. Jennings saw that the senator's condition was serious and at 2 o'clock Dr. Wales was summoned. The doctor alleviated the pain and administered the proper medicines. He stayed with Mr. Plumb from 2 until 6:30 and then left his patient sleeping quietly.

At 6:45 o'clock Senator Plumb
