Interesting Facts About the Prisoners Confin'd Therein.

A few days ago Hon. Wm. T. Harris of the bureau of education, department of interior, forwarded to Sheriff Ault of this county a blank to fill out with information relative to the prisoners confined in the jail of Sedgewick county with a view, evidently, of ascertaining the following causes of crime...

It is general prevailing opinion that ignorance breeds crime, but in this instance the facts do not bear out this idea for only five of the whole number of persons in the jail cannot read while only twenty-four cannot write...

GEORGIA MINSTRELS. As a general rule all minstrel shows are more or less similar. The Richards & Pringle Georgia Minstrel company has an original way of entertaining their audience. It is not the iron-clad minstrel show, the old jokes and the stale comedies. They are new, bright, spicy and witty. The finale of the first part is a novel feature of the show in the way of musical entertainment. The "Kick Patti" is a gem, and the drum major and vestibule car porters cannot be excused for novelty. It would be impossible to do Bill Rice, Mrs. Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. James Menefee, Mr. and Mrs. Hendry, Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell, Mr. and Mrs. Hennessey, Miss Traft and S. The decision of the judges was four affirmative and one negative. Of the audience nine favored the affirmative while eleven voted that the negative made the better argument. Much disappointment was felt when it was known that Mrs. Fellows could not be present to lead in the evangelistic service, but from the emergency hand bag came forth several of Hannah Whitall Smith's beautiful bible readings on "I Can't or Won't," which, and although the ranks were thinned from la grippe and a telegram was handed to President Boyle, saying that Rev. Nubbaum had succumbed to the prevailing disease, and could not be present in the face of the Bible lesson. No one could be discouraged and arrangements were soon perfected for the evening service—commenced as appointed and Mrs. Kate Clark of Valley Center was elected secretary for the balance of the year, taking the place of Mrs. Miller, who had resigned. After the noon hour of prayer, a most bountiful dinner was served in the church, in which hot coffee, tea, and delicious chicken, pot-pie, with an innumerable array of cold meats, baked beans, pickles, fruits, jellies, pies, cake, etc., that it would have been difficult to convince an observer the W. C. T. U. women were not the best of cooks, or that Kansas was not the land of plenty. The genial presence of several gentlemen added to the enjoyment of the dinner hour.

After the dinner, Rev. Arthur led in the devotional exercises, after which Mrs. Fogly's paper on "The Responsibilities of Motherhood" was read by Mrs. Deane. Excellent papers were read by Mrs. Clark and Professor Alexander, after which "The Temperance Temple at Chicago" was read by Mrs. Deane. The subject of Superstitions, Sawyer (who is also ill), the temple time boxes explained, and a resolve on the part of those present to enter more fully into the work of the project. A most tempting luncheon was served, after which the delegates for Wichita left on the belated train, feeling that the evening session was well filled with interesting papers. It is expected that the next project meeting will be held at Clearwater in the early springtime, but this will be definitely settled after the committee on plan project. The case of the state against McPhearson was tried yesterday in Justice Tucker's court, and the defendant found guilty and fined $5 and costs. He appealed the case. The trial attracted a great many citizens of Kechi township to the court. Tom Wilson presented in the absence of County Attorney Morris, while J. E. Conly defended.
