THOSE GAMBLING CASES. To the Editor of the Eagle. I was one of the jurors in the gambling case lately tried before Judge Tucker. There is now a judicial finding that Frost and Jennings do not keep a gambling house over Schmitzler's on Market street.

THE HILLS CASE. The Hills insanity case is still occupying the attention of the probate court. The attendance yesterday was very large, the fair sex predominating. Some red hot testimony was given by the friends of Mrs. Hills. The case was continued till this morning at 9 o'clock, when the arguments will be commenced by the attorneys. Public sentiment around the court house is overwhelmingly in favor of Mrs. Hills, against whom the charge of insanity is being made by her husband.
