DEMOCRATIC TINKERS FALL BACK ON THE MCKINLEY BILL

Amendment to Substitute the Republican Tariff on Iron for the Wilson Bill Schedule Adopted—Spots Hunters in the House Vote to Abolish Civil Service Commission—Several Democrats Refuse to Support the Motion.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The senate disposed of seven paragraphs of the metal schedule today after eight hours of debate. The debate was marked by quite a number of interesting clashes between the republicans and democrats. The sensational feature of the day was caused by the unexpected presentation by Mr. Jones of an amendment substituting the McKinley bill classification and specific rates on round iron in coils, blooms and charcoal iron, somewhat higher than those already proposed.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The question of civil service reform was given full sway in the house today, the occasion being the amendment to strike out the paragraph in the legislative appropriation bill providing for the civil service commission. It gave opportunity for some stirring and not a few amusing speeches.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The fine performance of the triple screw cruiser Columbia on her sea trial is gratifying to the naval authorities. The vessel, which was launched on the 21st of March, has shown a power and speed which are well calculated to give her a peer as a fleet and powerful cruiser, but because of the bearing of the trial on the charges reported by the Kansas committee, the vessel is "jockeyed" on her acceptance trials.

MAJOR BUTTZ RENIGS

Alleged Briber Falls to Appear Before Senate Committee.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—C. W. Buttz, who was very anxious to be present before the senate bribery investigation committee, was not on hand when the committee met today. Instead, he sent his attorney to explain that he was otherwise engaged, and asked to be excused from attendance for the present.

IN OSAGE'S FAVOR

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The house committee on Indian affairs has decided to grant the request of the Osage Indian delegation, which appeared before it yesterday.

HELP IS WANTED

By the women who are ailing and suffering, or weak and exhausted. And to every such woman, help is offered by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For young girls just entering womanhood, and for women at the critical "change of life"; women approaching confinement; nursing mothers; and every woman who is "run-down" or overworked. It is a medicine that builds up, strengthens, and regulates, no matter what the condition of the system.

terday, to detach the Osage reservation from Oklahoma and attach it to the Indian territory. An amendment to accomplish this was proposed to the Indian appropriation bill.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

Meeting of Bimetallic League a Failure in Point of Numbers.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—President A. C. Fiske of Denver called the Pan-American bimetallic league to order today. About fifty delegates were present. In his opening address Mr. Fiske said legislation for the last thirty years in this country had been in the interest of foreign nations. He attributed the existing depression in business to the demonetization of silver, and he believed a revolution would come if relief was not granted in the line of free coinage.

HIS TENURE IN DOUBT

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., May 22.—When the Eastern Minnesota passenger train pulled out today for St. Paul, Engineer Best, whose case nearly caused a second strike on the Great Northern line, was at the throttle. Best has been reinstated conditionally. He is under bonds charged with interfering with the United States mails, and if he fails to resign he will be retained. Otherwise he will lose his position, in addition to the action of the courts in this case.

FRANCIS MURPHY AND DR. KEELY

Francis Murphy, the world renowned temperance reformer, recently said: "I am fully persuaded that the main point for inquiry can justly be called miraculous. I have met multitudes of men from every walk in life, who testify to it saving lives, and restoring health to those who were given up as forever lost; and an eminent judge said to me recently: 'I did not think God could save them, but they took Dr. Keely's treatment and have been cured.'"

RADICAL REBOKE PROPOSED IN THE JENKINS CASE

House Committee on Judiciary Endorses the Boalier Report in the Matter of Judge Jenkins' Famous Anti-Strike Injunction and Will Report a Resolution to the Effect That the Court Exceeded His Powers.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The house judiciary today endorsed the report of the Boalier sub-committee which investigated the matter of the injunction by Judge Jenkins. A resolution was passed which will be reported to the house. The resolution will set forth that the house disapproves of the action of Judge Jenkins and holds that he exceeded his powers in enjoining the railroad men from striking. The two bills to be reported will be drawn to carry into the effect the sub-committee's recommendation regarding compulsory labor, which was as follows:

"Your committee recommends that all courts of the United States to enforce specific performance of labor contracts by legal process or to compel a person to render his services, be and they shall be, subject to be set at rest by a prohibitory statute."

Representative Bailey, (Texas) a member of the judiciary committee, thinks the report of the Boalier sub-committee does not recommend a radical course of action. He thinks Judge Jenkins should be impeached. He reserved the right to propose impeachment proceedings if he should be convinced that any other effective form of procedure in the case.

General Assembly Adopts the Committee's Report Giving a Seminary Board Power to Pass Upon All Appointments of Professors and Directors and Asking the Directors to Declare a Trust in Favor of the Church.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 22.—The question of theological university control, so far as the general assembly of the Presbyterian church is concerned, is settled. By a vote of almost three to one the report of the majority of the committee that considered the matter was adopted today. The report, which was given in full on Friday night last, in the account of the proceedings of the assembly sent out by the Associated Press, provides for gaining the power and right to approve the appointments of professors and directors, and asks the directors of the seminary to declare a trust in favor of the Presbyterian church, which the general assembly may enforce in the civil courts.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Michael Fitzgerald and his band of forty three industrialists arrived in this city shortly after 5 o'clock today and took quarters in the small chapel annex to the Mount Zion Methodist church.

EL RENO, O. T., May 22.—The chase after the escaped bandit continues, with but small chance of success, as he is now in the timber of the Chickasaw nation. He is known to be "Choctaw Jim," a well known horse thief. The captured man was suspected of having made away with the money of the Chickasaw nation. He is confined at Fort Reno, where he was taken under military escort. A mob was expected to lynch him but he was disappointed when he was removed to the fort. He is in very serious condition, neither Nelson nor Paris being expected to recover.

HEAVY JUDGMENT ASSED

STRIKERS GET UGLY

RIOTS AMONG COAL MINERS BEGINNING IN ILLINOIS

Non-Union Men's Houses Set Upon by Strikers at La Salle and Brutally Beaten—Victims Followed Into Their Haven of Refuge and Pounded Into Insensibility—Des Moines Strikers Went Into the City.

LA SALLE, Ill., May 22.—A serious riot occurred here today in which several men were injured. Ever since the mines closed the Union Coal company has kept some men at work to clean up entries. Nothing was said against it by the strikers, but this evening as the men came from work they were set on and brutally beaten by a mob of at least a thousand strikers. Some sought shelter in the company's office and barricaded the doors and windows with office furniture. This only added to the fury of the mob and the doors were battered in and the strikers entered. Edward Cunningham was severely beaten and several other men roughly handled. The strikers arrived in evening and after swearing in defiance went to the mines and dispersed the mob.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 22.—Mayor Mills today met a committee of striking miners and asked that they permit enough coal to be mined to keep the city water works in operation to supply the people with drinking water. The miners informed him that they would not permit it. The water works will be shut down Thursday.

WILL RESIST EVICTION

DES MOINES, Ia., May 22.—State Mine Inspector Reed has gone to Cyprus in response to a call from miners. Serious trouble is expected there, as the mine company has imported Mexicans and put them in the place of the strikers. Mine owners have notified the strikers to move out of the company's houses, and the latter say they will resist eviction, and they also threaten to drive the Mexicans from camp.

MINERS MUST COME OUT

FLORENCE, Colo., May 22.—Seven hundred miners with flags, preceded by a brass band, started overland for Rome, seventy-three miles from here, to-day. They are not armed, but are determined to make the miners in the south come out. Some of the best citizens in company with the strikers are the Italians and Australians. The people in the coal camps are becoming desperate and trouble is feared.

KANSAS MINERS IDLE

PITTSBURG, Kan., May 22.—The strike situation today remains much the same as yesterday. The Missouri delegations, accompanied by the miners from Midway, Minden, Yale and a few from Frontenac, left last night to march to Florence, where it was intended that the meeting should be held today. The same miners are all idle, as before, with no prospect of opening the same later in the week. Many that as soon as the brass band gets out, leave, the men will return to work, but that is doubtful.

STRIKERS BELLIGERENT

ARLINGTON, Ga., May 22.—Such trouble is apprehended among the coal miners of the Tuscarora company, where several mines are being worked. Today the men were driven out of one mine by the strikers and tomorrow the same fate is threatened to the other workers. The sheriff telegraphed Major E. C. Bryan of the Eighth regiment for aid, and he immediately left for the seat of trouble in the morning. How to meet him and order his companies to hold themselves in readiness. The strikers are belligerent and determined that work shall not be resumed.

TO FORCE MINERS OUT

CENTRALIA, Ill., May 22.—Trouble is expected here tomorrow at the Big Four mine. About thirty miners, principally negroes, responded to the call of the employers to resume work. The strikers, who are in the mines this morning and have been working all day yesterday. It is understood here that a delegation of strikers from Big Four and other adjoining mines will be here tomorrow to force the men out.
