

DONE ON SUSPICION

WALSBURG MOB SIMPLY BOUND TO HAVE BLOOD.

MAKE A NIGHT OF IT

CLEAN OUT THE WAGONLOAD, THEN BREAK FOR THE JAIL.

GUARDS ARE PLAYING HIGH-FIVE

THEY OPEN FOR THE SHERIFF AND ARE PARALYZED.

Nearly Placed Hors de Combat, They Witness the Horrible Butchery of Two Utterly Defenseless Suspects.

Denver, Colo., March 13.—A special to the Rocky Mountain News from Walsburg, Colo., says:

Four dead bodies are now in the hands of the coroner of Huerfano county as the result of the vengeance wreaked last night on the Italian miners who were charged with the killing of Abner Hixon in a most brutal manner at Rouse last night by being lashed over the head with a club, and two more Italians have unquestionably been riddled with bullets by friends of the popular saloonkeeper. A few hours will almost certainly bring the discovery of the corpses and every man against whom there is a slightest suspicion of complicity in the killing will be taken with summary and frightful punishment. Three of the four bodies are those of Hixon's alleged assailants. The fourth is that of Joe Welsby who was driving four of the Italians to jail in a wagon when he met his death. The dead are, the first four being in the hands of the coroner:

ANTONIO LORENZO, believed by the coroner's jury to have struck the blow which crushed Hixon's skull and caused his death, 24 years of age, unmarried, an Italian.

NISLAU VITTARI, 30 years of age, married, wife and three children in Italy, intention of becoming an American citizen declared.

FRANCESCO RANCETTO, 27 years of age, unmarried, intention of becoming an American citizen declared.

JOE WELSBY, 23 years old, unmarried.

PIETRO GIACABINO, 31 years old, young son living here, said to have taken out first corpse.

ANTONIO LORENZO, 24 years old, married, wife and three children in Italy, first papers taken out.

FULL NIGHT'S WORK.

Though the mob commenced in the evening when the sun set, it did not until this morning that they completed their work of revenge, after having killed three suspected homicides and brought death to the young wagon driver, who had nothing to do with the killing of Hixon. When the three Italians captured from the wagon at Bear Creek bridge, where Welsby was seen to make a mad dash with the small but determined mob waited for the excitement to subside and then came to the county jail here and a few minutes later a crowd of about 200 men completed the work of revenge on which they had commenced six hours before. Rancetto, who had been wounded in the leg in the Bear Creek trouble, was found asleep in the calaboose with Lorenzo.

The guards on duty at the jail, William Smith and Harry Fay, who were sleeping in the cell, were awakened by the noise of the mob when they were told that it was Sheriff O'Malley who was being taken out of the jail by the mob, and instead of seeing O'Malley, they looked down the barrels of two revolvers in the hands of two masked men.

THREW UP THEIR HANDS.

Experiences of others earlier in the night taught them to obey the command to throw down their pistols and throw up their hands. While the first two men covered their eyes with their hands, another pair with their faces hidden by handkerchiefs and carrying big guns in their hands, stalked into the room from the table the keys to the cell in the jail and going back into the building, unlocked the door where lay the now trembling captives and threw their arms up in the air and in their broken English begged pitifully for mercy. The avengers had some mercy, but not for the doomed Italians. In the cell with them at that time were two more men, one of whom was charged with brutal rape. He was gruffly told to stand aside and slunk into a corner of the cell.

The masked men turned their pistols loose on the Italians who shrieked in agony as bullet after bullet was sent tearing into their defenseless bodies. The first shot struck the man who was charged with rape, and he fell with a groan. The second shot struck the man who was charged with rape, and he fell with a groan. The third shot struck the man who was charged with rape, and he fell with a groan.

TELLS ITS OWN TALE.

A peep through one of the small windows on the south side of the jail tells the story of the night. Two pairs of coarse grey blankets two pairs of coarse grey sheets were to be seen and here and there a tiny rivulet of blood was visible. The men who were killed were lying on their backs, their faces pale and their eyes closed. The men who were wounded were lying on their sides, their faces pale and their eyes closed.

GOVERNOR MENTIRE TAKES STEPS.

Govs Will be Sent to Walsburg if Necessary.

Denver, March 13.—Governor McIntire today received simultaneously from the latest place of killing, Walsburg, and the Italian consul at this point inquiries concerning the Walsburg lynchings. The communication from Walsburg was to the effect that the acting secretary of state asking for particulars and that from Acting Italian Consul Campo at this point a statement that the mob had killed two citizens who might be in danger in Walsburg.

Immediately steps were taken by the governor to comply with the requests from the United States to interfere to protect the commerce of New Orleans as well as foreign shipping.

LIVES LOST IN A HOTEL.

Three Men Burned to Cinders and Three Others Fatally.

Headricks W. Va., March 13.—The hotel here, was burned last night. Three lives were lost and four persons were injured. The hotel was a big two-story frame structure and the fire was sweeping through when it was first discovered by Mrs. Jenkins, who aroused the family and guests as quickly as possible. No effort could be made to save any effects. All had retired when the fire broke out in the kitchen and rapidly spread to the main story. The only two stairways in the building, one

CANT DO IT ALONE

STEAMSHIP AGENTS WANT TO PUT NEGROES TO WORK.

They Hold a Meeting Behind Closed Doors From Which Nothing Transpires Except the General Understanding That the Colored Stevedores are to Resume Work as Soon as Proper Police Protection is Guaranteed—Troops at Each Ship to be Loaded—Street Railway Strike Hangs Fire—Governor Takes Action.

New Orleans, March 13.—The agents of the foreign steamship companies held a meeting at the office of Alfred Le Blanc, agent of the Harrison line, whose wharf was the scene of the day's riot. The proceedings of the meeting were carefully guarded and all of the agents who took part refuse to state what had taken place, or to discuss the situation. Numbers of negro stevedores were gathered about the cotton exchange during the day and it was understood that the steamship agents were arranging with their stevedores to put them to work as soon as possible. A police or military protection is assumed to be necessary.

This evening it is positively announced that a number of the men will commence work tomorrow. A company of state troops is stationed at each ship to be loaded. The agent of the white steamship association says work is going on on all ships which are loaded by the association except one or two, which are out of cotton and are waiting for a fresh supply.

STRIKE THAT HANGS FIRE.

It has been apprehended that the local labor union would be still further complicated by the strike of the street railway employees whose demands have not yet been acceded to by the president of the union. The street railway employees whose demands have not yet been acceded to by the president of the union. The street railway employees whose demands have not yet been acceded to by the president of the union.

ITALIANS TERROR STRICKEN.

The trouble is believed to be over and excitement is fast subsiding except among the Italian miners, of whom there are about 100 in the district who are congregating, terror stricken, at Brunell's saloon. The Italian consul in Italy, Mr. Moran this morning inquiring into the killing of Hixon. It is now doubtful whether complications with Italy will arise, since three and possibly four of the dead men were Italian.

WOULDN'T VENTURE OUT.

Though there was more hurry-scurry during the exciting times of the strike than usual, the Italian miners' feelings as has existed today. Last night people thought the road to Rouse was one that would bring sure death to the Italian miners. The road was a narrow one and the crowd was so dense that the Italian miners were unable to venture out. Today the main wooden bridge where several lives were lost is cautiously examined. The locality is now a quiet one and the Italian miners are allowed to go to work.

WOULDN'T VENTURE OUT.

The little adobe red stuccoed jail, one block east of the end of Fourth street and only half a block from the depot, presents a ghastly sight. It is full of the bodies of the men who were killed. The bodies are lying on their backs, their faces pale and their eyes closed. The men who were wounded are lying on their sides, their faces pale and their eyes closed.

TELLS ITS OWN TALE.

A peep through one of the small windows on the south side of the jail tells the story of the night. Two pairs of coarse grey blankets two pairs of coarse grey sheets were to be seen and here and there a tiny rivulet of blood was visible. The men who were killed were lying on their backs, their faces pale and their eyes closed. The men who were wounded were lying on their sides, their faces pale and their eyes closed.

GOVERNOR MENTIRE TAKES STEPS.

Govs Will be Sent to Walsburg if Necessary.

Denver, March 13.—Governor McIntire today received simultaneously from the latest place of killing, Walsburg, and the Italian consul at this point inquiries concerning the Walsburg lynchings. The communication from Walsburg was to the effect that the acting secretary of state asking for particulars and that from Acting Italian Consul Campo at this point a statement that the mob had killed two citizens who might be in danger in Walsburg.

Immediately steps were taken by the governor to comply with the requests from the United States to interfere to protect the commerce of New Orleans as well as foreign shipping.

LIVES LOST IN A HOTEL.

Three Men Burned to Cinders and Three Others Fatally.

Headricks W. Va., March 13.—The hotel here, was burned last night. Three lives were lost and four persons were injured. The hotel was a big two-story frame structure and the fire was sweeping through when it was first discovered by Mrs. Jenkins, who aroused the family and guests as quickly as possible. No effort could be made to save any effects. All had retired when the fire broke out in the kitchen and rapidly spread to the main story. The only two stairways in the building, one

ARGUMENT IS DONE

INCOME TAX CASES ARE SUBMITTED TO THE COURT.

Mr. Choate Resumes His Interrupted Argument Against the Constitutionality of the Law—Plots for Uniformity—Congressional Errors to be Reviewed—Discriminations Between Individuals and Corporations—Also Between Benevolent Associations and Other Corporations—Decision Not Expected Soon.

Washington, March 13.—At the opening of the session of the supreme court, Mr. Choate resumed his argument against the constitutionality of the income tax.

The inevitable income of all accumulated property, whether the rent of land or the interest on lands is, he claimed, necessarily the subject of direct taxation and of no other. He hoped to establish this fact and subject to the rule of apportionment.

Whatever else was not included in the term direct tax certainly real estate is included. There had been universal assent to this proposition and he would take this as the basis of his first step. He controverted the proposition that this idea was to apply only to unimproved land, but contended that it applied to real estate in the hands of a real estate holder.

He followed this argument with the assertion that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate. He contended that the income from the rent of real estate was indistinguishable from the tax on real estate.

TESTA'S WORKSHOP IS BURNED.

Great Inventor on the Verge of a Physical Collapse.

New York, March 13.—The large factory building at No. 51 West 57th street, New York, which was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop. The building was destroyed by fire today, was occupied on all but the top floor by the Tesla workshop.

CONDEMNED BY THE COURT.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

Returning to the position of the attorney general that the proceeds were not to be used for the purpose of raising money to pay the interest on the debt, the court declared that it was a distinction without a difference and was a fiction which had been stamped upon by the other side.

MILLIGAN IS MINUS

HE AT LAST PAYS THE UTMOST PENALTY FOR HIS O. I. M. E.

HANGED AT MID-DAY

PUBLIC EFFERUALLY CHEATED OUT OF A SPECTACLE.

HYMN IS SUNG ON THE SCAFFOLD

HE PROFESSSES CONFIDENCE IN HIS FUTURE PROSPECTS.

Not a Hitch in the Proceedings and Death is Instantaneous—Crime for Which John Milligan Suffered.

Oklahoma City, O. T., March 13.—(Special).—The first legal hanging under the laws of Oklahoma took place today in the execution of John Milligan, the murderer. The gallows stood in the middle of a high enclosure that was covered with canvas to keep the execution from being witnessed by outside spectators. The rope used was sent from Fort Smith, Ark., and had served as a legal halter many times before.

Milligan ate a hearty breakfast in the morning, observing that it was probably his last meal. He seemed to realize fully that his time had come and was at times quite nervous. During a great part of the morning a few friends and ministers remained in his cell with him, praying, singing hymns and comforting him in every way possible. About 10 o'clock Milligan expressed his conviction that in a few hours he would be sitting with God upon His throne. Shortly after 11 o'clock everyone except the deputies and jurymen who sat at his elbow were shut out of the gallows enclosure. Although the view was entirely cut off, the stacks and out houses near the jail yard were crowded with curious people who seemed to regard the occasion as some sort of a celebration and acted accordingly.

COFFIN BROUGHT IN.

At half past eleven the undertaker, W. H. Harper, had the coffin brought in and placed near the foot of the scaffold. It was a plain smooth box very appropriate for the occasion. It was about one minute before 12 o'clock the sentenced man left his cell and in company with the deputies and a few chosen friends entered the gallows enclosure. His friends were Mrs. C. C. Milligan, Mr. Dustin, Dr. Furlong and the ministers, Ross, A. H. Harper and Joel Harp. He was escorted to the gallows by a great escort to the condemned man.

Milligan walked steadily and with his eyes cast down. His arms were pinched behind his back, both at the elbows and wrists. He appeared perfectly calm and much less concerned than a number of those accompanying him. As he ascended the gallows steps everyone remained silent for a moment. He stepped firmly and easily.

Milligan took his place on the drop with the same stolid composure he showed when he descended the steps of death. Immediately Sheriff DeFord asked him: "Mr. Milligan have you anything you wish to say?" His reply was a simple "No, thank you." The lawyers heard him ask for a song.

SUNG AT THE SCAFFOLD.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Cale and Messrs. Dustin, R. H. Harper and Joel Harp sang "The Rock of Ages." The singing was quiet within the enclosure and Milligan seemed to appreciate the significance of the words. After the singing of the hymn the gallows were stepped to the body and counted the pulse beats. The throbs diminished rapidly and in about two seconds the drop fell and the heart stopped beating. Within twenty minutes the doctors declared the body taken down and in less than an hour the gallows were dismantled and the body was taken to the morgue.

NOT A MOVEMENT.

The first movement of the man made, nothing could have been more perfect. The committee of physicians was composed of Dr. Ryan and Dr. Harp. The committee of physicians was composed of Dr. Ryan and Dr. Harp. The committee of physicians was composed of Dr. Ryan and Dr. Harp.