

WAS HIS LAST RUN

JESSE JENNE DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED ON THE GRIDIRON.

Game at Eureka Proves a Cause of Football... Jesse Jenne, a star player for the Eureka football team, died from injuries sustained during a game at Eureka on Thursday night.

A gloom has been casted over the victorious football players of Wichita, by the announcement that Jesse Jenne, who played quarter back in the game between Lewis academy eleven and the club at Eureka on Thanksgiving day at Eureka. He died at 5 o'clock last night.

Other moments were equally gloomy of the personal effect the fatality would have upon their futures, and also expressed great sorrow over the death of their friendly opponent. They were unable to throw much light upon the manner in which the accident occurred.

Mr. Baldwin is a true and real artist. He not only makes photographs of a field, but also makes photographs of a person. His work is so realistic that it is almost impossible to distinguish between the original and the photograph.

The three rooms are like so many parlors. They have recently been refurnished and refurnished under Mr. Fred Baldwin's personal supervision. It is doubtful whether there is a neater art gallery in Kansas today than his.

For yesterday's reception the rooms were filled with beautiful displays of plants and flowers that were also arranged by the hands of an artistic master.

The reception will continue this afternoon and evening. In the evening the gallery will be illuminated by both electricity and Japanese lanterns.

German Volunteer Drama was Well Received Last Night. The performance of the "German Volunteer" at the opera house last evening was a vast improvement over the last two evenings.

The high school club are fearful that the fatal accident to young Jenne, and the bruised and battered condition of the boys on Monday when they put in an appearance at school will be the means of having the school board take action to stop football playing.

MADE A HOME JUMP

PAOER SMITH GOES THROUGH THE DROP AND BREAKS HIS NECK.

Former Wichita Citizen, Who was Wined and Dined During the Boom, Dies on an Illinois Scaffold for the Crime of Killing His Little Daughter—Strong Drink Reduces the Man from a Powerful Athlete to a Jabbering Idiot, and He Dies Without Friends or Mourners—Scene in the Court Room—A British Crime.

The drop fell and the soul of Charles N. Smith, better known as Paocer Smith, went out to the God who gave it, in the corridor of the county jail at Decatur, Ill.

In 1887, Paocer Smith was given a banquet in Wichita. At that time he was the renowned pitcher of the Wichita baseball club, and sent forth such wistful glances that the opposition were unable to solve his curves.
