BALLINGTON BOOTH DISMISSED FROM THE ARMY.

Inquiry into the Mysterious Disappearance of the Commander and His Wife Shows That Ballington was the Subject of a Commission of Inquiry, Charged With Power to Dismiss Him From the Army Should He Prove Mutinous, Which Events Followed, in Sequence, on Tuesday—Something of the Hot Session.

New York, Feb. 21.—The World tomorrow will publish the following: Ballington Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in America, has disappeared with his wife, Maud B. Booth, from their home in Montclair, N. J., it is closed. They have not been at the army headquarters in this city since Thursday. Herbert Booth, brother of Ballington Booth and commander of the army in Canada, will take charge of the forces here today. He offered a reward yesterday to anyone who would tell him where Ballington is. The army is stirred to great excitement. On the morning of Tuesday, Wednesday night, Eva Booth, a sister, arrived from England. Herbert Booth was hastily summoned to New York by Colonel Nicol, assistant staff officer of the army, who came here ostensibly on a mission to investigate the sentiment of rebellion in this country against the transfer of Commander Booth to another sphere of action. He arrived on Thursday and on that day a court of inquiry was held by three, with Ballington Booth before them. The proceedings became heated. There were charges and incriminations. Ballington Booth was ordered to proceed at once to England.

"I will not go," he said. "This is insubordination," replied Herbert. "You know what that means in the army." "Yes, I know." "Then I will accept it," replied the commander.

In the heat of the argument that followed, the commander complained of the severity of the injustice of his father in removing him arbitrarily from a field where he had labored so long, and in which he hoped to finish his life. He made use of the language of insubordination and criticized the general severely.

"This means a trial by court martial," cried Herbert Booth, springing to his feet. "You have spoken disrespectfully of your father and your general. I prefer charges of insubordination and disrespect against you. I move that this court proceed to try you for the words."

Colonel Nicol supported Herbert Booth. He then made known his full authority. "I have authority to dismiss you from office and to appoint your successor. I demand of you all the property of the army in America in your name. You are dismissed from office."

Then Ballington Booth rose to his feet. "Let it mean dismissal," he said, "I will never stand it."

After receiving the order of dismissal he and his wife spent the evening packing up their personal belongings. The keys were turned over soon afterwards.

Very Awkward Incident. This is precisely the kind of mistake a man makes if he "turns out" on the wrong side of the road when a vehicle comes toward him. No less absurd is the error of the individual who takes drastic medicines to relieve his liver. That organ is on the right side, and the road to its relief is Hoestetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine also adapted to the relief of dyspepsia, constipation, kidney and rheumatic ailments and malaria.

APPLAUSE FOR ALL THREE

Reed, Harrison and McKinley Divide Honors at Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 21.—Five hundred Republicans from all sections of Michigan were present tonight at the annual banquet of the presidency. It is a letter of regret from any distinguished Republican were read. The reading of the letters from Speaker Reed and General Harrison was loudly applauded and vociferous applause greeted the mention of McKinley's name. Among the speakers were General Horace Porter of New York, Colonel William B. Hepburn of Iowa, Powell Clayton of Arkansas, Henry Clay Evans of Tennessee, and United States Senator Arthur Brown of Utah.

THEY'RE NO SECOND CHOICE

Ohio Republicans Know No Other Candidate Than McKinley.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 21.—The Commercial Gazette has made a canvass of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio to ascertain the preferences of the Republican for the presidency. It is ascertained that McKinley, up to the announcement of Senator Quay, was first choice in Pennsylvania, his principal strength, however, being in the western part of the state. Reed was a strong second to the McKinley and the first choice of Philadelphia and eastern Pennsylvania.

It is contended that Quay will have the solid delegation from this state. The Commercial Gazette's canvass from West Virginia show that the delegation from that state will be sold for McKinley unless Senator Eilkins should decide to be a candidate. A partial canvass of Ohio shows that the people there refuse to seriously consider a second choice.

MATTHEWS MAINTAINS HIS DENIAL

Not a Free Silver Candidate Nor a Vice Presidential Aspirant. Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 21.—Governor Matthews said today: "The statement that I have written a letter to anyone announcing that I will be a candidate for a free silver platform is utterly untrue. I have not written any such letter and have not authorized anyone to say that I will be a candidate on the free silver idea. Neither have I said to anyone that I intend to make any such declarations. I cannot believe that Mr. Shanklin has said that I have written any such letter. I may say in this connection that I object seriously to any Indian saying that my chances are probably good for the presidency. I am not a candidate for the vice presidency and shall not be. That is one subject upon which I have made up my mind."

FOR THE NORTHERN PACIFIC

Receivers to be Appointed by Judge Lombard, Subject to Restrictions.

New York, Feb. 21.—At a few minutes past five today, Judge Lombard made his decision on the motion for the appointment of receivers for the Northern Pacific. It is as follows: "In view of the order heretofore made by Mr. Justice Brown, while assigned to this district, I am prepared to sign an order in similar form to that made in the court of so-called primary jurisdiction—consolidating the two suits, accepting the resignations of the receivers, and appointing receivers for the Northern Pacific. The order provides that there shall be kept within this jurisdiction a sum of money not less than $100,000 to provide for the service of papers on such receivers in any county begun here. The order also provides that there shall be no means of enforcing their compliance with the above terms by personal service, they should give a joint bond in the sum of $100,000."

CALDWELL SET THEM WILD

Dumps Broken Tickets Luck on the Issuing Road for Redemption.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 21.—Chairman Caldwell of the Western Passenger Association has a large army of detectives out in the market buying up all the tickets issued by the association roads which he finds in the hands of brokers. All the tickets he buys must, under the agreement, be returned by the roads issuing them at full tariff rates. He is daily presenting large bundles for redemption. In consequence of his operations the market in tickets today has been for months. The roads are getting tired of his incessant calls for redemption of tickets and, to get rid of them, they are declaring off to their dealers with the brokers. The new agreement is to be made in the maintenance of rates that has been in operation in western territory.

TO FURTHER THE EXPOSITION

Trans-Mississippi Directors Hold a Meeting in Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 21.—Directors of the Trans-Mississippi exposition held a meeting this afternoon. A letter was read from New Mexico to the effect that a bill had been introduced in the legislature of that state for the purpose of appointing a territorial governor for appointment as vice president of the exposition for that territory. A letter was also read from Governor Stone of Missouri, stating his friendly interest in the exposition and also that he would write to members of congress from his state and urge them to give their attention to favorable legislation. The matter for a government commission, suggested by the meeting with Senator Thurston, Wednesday was taken up and after consideration the board decided that it did not want any further commission. The most important other than the one provided for already.

READY TO PRESENT

GREAT BRITAIN'S SIDE OF THE VENEZUELA CASE.

Sir Frederick Pollock has it Made Up and it has been Revised by the Attorney General—Government Regards the Case Unassailable Historically, Though in its Diplomatic Aspects it Might be Otherwise—Prediction That the Action of the American Commission will be Awaited—The American Election.

London, Feb. 21.—The Standard understands that the attorney general, Sir Richard Webster, has revised the statement of the British case on the Venezuelan dispute prepared by Sir Frederick Pollock of Oxford university, and that it will be issued early next week with maps and documents. "We believe," says the Standard, "that the government regards the British case as historically unassailable, although the diplomatic aspect is by no means free from confusion."

The Standard also has an editorial on this subject which, recognizing the rapprochement between England and America, protests against undue haste in settling the Venezuelan dispute. It commends the government for going slowly and believes the American government is equally circumspect.

The Standard also claims authority to assert that President Cleveland has refused to assist President Crespo in resisting England's claim for indemnity and it thinks the fact that the Washington government has brought Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador in Washington, into direct communication with Senator Andrade, the Venezuelan minister here, for the resumption of relations between England and Venezuela.

Russian Ex-Convict Opiates the Murder of the Ex-ers at Sacramento, Cal.

Folsom, Cal., Feb. 21.—Ivan Kovalyev, a Russian ex-convict, who escaped from the penal settlement on Sakhalin Island three years ago, was hanged today for the murder of F. L. H. Weber and Mrs. Weber at Sacramento, Dec. 30, 1894. At his trial he confessed that he had witnessed the Weber murders but stated that his companion, Mathias St. Cherbakov, was the murderer. St. Cherbakov was killed while attempting to hold up a San Jose merchant.

COLLEGE MEN MAKE BATTLE

It's Soph Against Freshman at a Connecticut University.

Middletown, Conn., Feb. 21.—The roughest and most obstinate hand-to-hand encounter that was ever known at Wesleyan university took place between the sophomores and freshmen tonight. Both classes, consisting in all of about 200 students, fought nearly two hours on the college grounds. Clothes were torn from the backs of the contestants and blood freely flowed. Six men were carried off the campus either in an unconscious or exhausted condition and many others were injured and hurriedly left the battleground in order to avoid further members of the faculty. It is the custom of the Wesleyan students to fire a cannon every year on the eve of Washington's birthday. The freshmen usually undertake this and the sophomores do all they can to prevent them. This year the bodies met and a desperate encounter followed.

CALLS IT VULGAR FLEECING

London, Feb. 21.—The Field this morning says: "The good effect produced by the impartial report on the Dunraven charges is scattered to the winds by the unreasonable hostility of some of the members of the New York Yacht club toward the club's representative, who appear to have adopted the vulgar fierceness of a portion of the New York press."

MRS. DAVIDSON IN COURT

She Pleads Not Guilty and Her Trial is Set for March 23. San Francisco, Feb. 21.—Mrs. Mary A. Davidson was again in the superior court today to answer the charge of having extorted $500 from Rev. C. O. Brown. The court overruled a motion to dismiss the information against the defendant. The corporation of the defendant, Mrs. Davidson to be Brown's agent was declared by the court to be an assumption entirely unwarranted. Mrs. Davidson then pleaded not guilty. Her trial was set for March 23 and a motion for reduction of bail was taken under consideration. Mrs. Davidson was then taken back to the county jail.

TESTIMONY MORE IN DETAIL

Questions Asked Mrs. Stockton, and the Answers She Gave. San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 21.—There was a serious question of development yesterday on the trial of Rev. C. O. Brown. Mrs. M. A. Stockton became a witness against the accused pastor. She read a series of events and confessed to a relationship with the pastor which far more serious than those which were before included in her public statement. At her own request the doors of the council chamber were closed against the public. Questions and answers were as follows: Woodhams—Tell us if you met Dr. Brown at other times? Mrs. Stockton—Oh, yes; I met him many times—60 many times that I was willing to go to the end of the earth for him. I would no sooner enter my room sometimes than the door would open and the doctor come in. He was my very shadow. I was silly enough to believe he would marry me. He admitted himself that he had wronged me. Woodhams—Have you ever had any criminal relations with Dr. Brown? Mrs. Stockton—I have not said that that was not true. I am here to tell the truth. I have been attacked and it is a great humiliation for me to come here and tell the story. I would have stayed away had it not been for Dr. Brown, and I always thought so much for him. Woodhams—A moderator, that may be protected from such remarks as these. At this point the public was excluded from the room.

A herd of swine scattered in the long grass or among the bushes of a European forest would soon lose sight of one another. But the grunts of each would still advertise his presence to his neighbors, and so the individual members of the herd would not lose touch with the main body. Then there are grunts and grunts. If one of my readers will imitate the ingenious Mr. Turner and take a photograph of the nearest pigsty he might get material to make up a book on the language and grammar of the hog. However thick the jungle, the wild pig could, by taking note of the pitch and emphasis of the grunts to right and left of him tell pretty much what his hidden colleagues were thinking about.—North American Review.'
