

IVES BEATS DALY

BESIDES MAKING A NEW RECORD ON CUSHION CAROMS.

In the Forty-First inning, He Makes Eighty-Five Points, Against Schaefer's Seventy-Seven Record in Public and Schaefer's Eighty-One in Private Practice—Daly is an Expert and Looks the Winner as He Starts Out, But Ives Takes Up in the Twenty-Ninth and Keeps at It.

Boston, April 14.—Ives defeated Maurice Daly of New York in the international billiard tournament tonight and made a new record for a run on cushion caroms, scoring 85 points, against 77, the previous record made by William Rexton in public, and 81 by Schaefer in private practice.

The match was the second game in the second series of international billiard tournaments in which "Jake" Schaefer, Frank Ives, Maurice Daly and Albert Gardner are the contestants. Daly, who is an expert at cushion caroms, looked to be an easy winner early in the game, as Ives was way off in his playing until the twenty-fifth inning, when he made a run of 41. He then pulled himself together and in the 29th, 30th and 40th innings made good runs, paving the way for his record breaker in the 41st inning. Then he tied the world's record, the spectators applauded vociferously, but when he finished with the highest run ever made at cushion caroms, either in practice or at a public tournament, the enthusiasm was unbounded. Schaefer was among the spectators and was one of the heartiest in his applause.

Open table billiards was played throughout the game and using his record run Ives nursed the balls for only twelve or fifteen shots. Daly played a vigorous game, sending the balls all over the table and, though making some remarkable shots, he seemed to be unable to make any large runs in the latter part of the game. Score: Ives—6, 9, 1, 6, 1, 1, 2, 5, 1, 1, 6, 2, 3, 12, 1, 3, 5, 9, 4, 0, 9, 4, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 2, 3, 2, 0, 2, 0, 2, 0, 2, 0, 1, 0, 2, 6, 9, 0, 1, 0, 12, 4, 2.—Total 390. Highest run 85; average 5.55.

Daly—1, 1, 2, 3, 3, 15, 10, 12, 15, 2, 2, 0, 0, 9, 2, 2, 5, 2, 0, 9, 1, 1, 2, 9, 4, 7, 14, 6, 2, 11, 11, 0, 2, 0, 2, 1, 0, 0, 5, 0, 1, 2, 9, 1, 1, 0, 2, 5.—Total 250. Highest run 29; average 4.718.

American Horses at Newmarket. Newmarket, April 14.—There was only the average attendance but many people were present in the Jockey club enclosure. The Prince of Wales, wearing a dark brown suit, a double-breasted overcoat and a derby hat, attended about the enclosure and talked with Lord Marcus Bessford, and the Rt. Hon. James Lowther. The prince seemed to be but little interested in the sport.

Mr. Richard Croker, enveloped in a long cape, mackintosh sauntered about alone, occasionally placing a bet. Talking over the association with a reporter of the Associated Press Mr. Croker said:

"I have no horses running today and am here merely as a spectator. My horses are all in good condition, but I find it takes a long time to acclimate them. I hope however to make a record this summer. I find it different here to what we do in America. Regarding the stable here, a trainer's word is law. I am not allowed to interfere and I do not know much about my own horses. America is in good form and I have great hopes of him."

Mr. Croker was asked regarding the chance of the horses being in good form and he replied in reply and said: "We shall do our best."

The trainer who has charge of Mr. Pierre Lefflard's horses said: "All Mr. Lefflard's horses are in good form and I hope for a creditable showing during the season. I was disappointed at today's performance."

The last race of the day was for the Ashley plate, 200 sovereigns, for 2-year-olds. It was won by Charles Day Ross's Melitana, M. E. Lebaudy's Perceval, second, and Harry Barnato's rown filly, by Gaslop, third.

Mr. Croker's Albany Red Banner and Mr. Lefflard's Astoria had been entered, but all three were scratched.

Helen Nichol, who ran second in the race for the Victoria plate, is an American horse, formerly owned by Mr. W. W. Wisard, who sold out his stable to Duke and Wisard. Wisard was McCafferty's trainer and his partner part of the time.

HE SWEARS IT

Does Leslie Bush, Asst. School Land Commissioner, of Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Territory of Oklahoma, ss. County of Logan, Feb. 12, 1896. Personally appeared before me, Wm. Blincoe, notary public, in and for said county, on the above date, Leslie Bush, who first being duly sworn deposes and says: That for about three years prior to September, 1895, his hair continually dropped out until he had become almost bald; that in September, 1895, he began to take the free treatment for baldness furnished by the Knowlton Dandergate company at their office in Guthrie, Okla.; that in a short time thereafter his hair ceased to fall out and began to thicken; that he continued the treatment daily for thirty days, and that since that time his hair has continued to thicken and grow very fast, until now it is almost as thick and vigorous as it ever was.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of February, 1896. (Seal.) W. M. BLINCOE. My commission expires August 24th, 1896.

Nothing is impossible. A few weeks ago you would have scoffed at the idea of taking a photograph through a brick wall—yet this very thing is being done repeatedly. You doubt that anything can be done on the bald head? Why? Simply because you have never seen it done, or because, perhaps, you have been deceived time and time again by other so-called restorers. Mr. Bush, whose affidavit is given above, had no more faith than you have. His experience is only one in a thousand. You need not take our word alone. Write for the Daughters Herald and read what hundreds say.

Ladies, if you would have beautiful hair—soft and clinging as the snowflake, buoyant and luxuriant—then use DANDERINE—If once, then always.

ALIVE AND KICKING

MISS KATE DURKEE NAILS ONE OF HOLMES' LIES.

She is Mentioned Among the Twenty-Seven Victims Claimed by the Infamous Torturer of Innocence and Helplessness. But Insists That She has Never Been Killed Yet, by Holmes or Anyone Else—She Knew Holmes and One of Her Intimate Friends was One of Holmes' Wives—Insurance Man Gives the Lie. Omaha, Neb., April 14.—The Miss Kate Durkee of Omaha whom Holmes confessed was one of his twenty-seven victims, is very indignant. She says she never was killed by Holmes or any one else. Miss Durkee is living with a brother, who is the assistant auditor of the Burlington. She came to this city about seven years ago from Pennsylvania, her birthplace. She has a sister, who lives in the east, whom she has been accustomed to visiting annually. Whilst on these trips she sometimes stopped in Chicago a day or two to visit the Chicago wife, better known as the Wilmette wife, of Holmes. This woman's maiden name was Belknap. She was a childhood playmate of Miss Durkee in Pennsylvania. It was in this way that Miss Durkee became acquainted with Holmes, who transacted some business for her.

Hamilton, Ont., April 14.—In the list of Holmes' victims, appears the name of Mrs. Hayes Kempt, of Hamilton, a person of that name was ever known here. There is no such name in the directory. The police never heard of such a person and do not believe she ever lived here.

Toronto, Ont., April 14.—Holmes in his confession says he asphyxiated the Pietzel children in the house on St. Vincent street in this city by turning gas into a trunk. There is no gas on the premises.

LIES ABOUT HIS MURDERS. Insurance Official Says Holmes Has Confessed to Ten Murders. Philadelphia, Pa., April 14.—Insurance Inspector Gray of the Fidelity Mutual Life of Philadelphia, in which Holmes' victim, Pietzel, was insured, is in the city. He says Holmes did not commit all the murders he confessed to, Kate Forke is in Omaha, Dr. Russell is in Michigan, Roma York discovered in Kansas and Robert Latimer is in Chicago. Gertrude Connor did not die for six weeks after leaving Chicago for Iowa.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 14.—The North American will tomorrow print a story to the effect that H. H. Holmes, the murderer, will become a Catholic. He will be baptized, says the story, and with all the ceremony of a papal benediction. The ceremony, it is said, will occur in Holmes' cell tomorrow.

STEAK COVERED WITH TIES. Workmen Discover an Obstruction Just in Time to Save Train. Cleveland, O., April 14.—An attempt to wreck the limited express, due in this city at 4:20 a. m., on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road, was made this morning before daylight, near the south end limits of the city. A mill employe on his way to work discovered and removed the obstruction just in time to avoid a terrible wreck. Two heavy railroad ties were placed from trail to trail on the track, and heavy ties were also placed parallel with the rail work on the outside. Scarcely had the obstruction been removed when the limited thundered by at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

TRAINS GO THROUGH BRIDGES. Serious Accidents Reported on the Missouri Pacific and Queen and Crescent. Sedalia, Mo., April 14.—By a rear end collision of two freight trains on the Gasconade bridge, the Missouri Pacific and Queen and Crescent, trains were more or less seriously hurt, and one span of the bridge torn down. The injured are Henry Brennan, W. E. Stansfield, Ed Stewart and Peter Millersbach. None of them are fatally injured, and all are compelled to go by other routes between Sedalia and St. Louis.

New Orleans, La., April 14.—A train consisting of a combination baggage car, two day coaches and a sleeper, plunged through a trestle on the Queen and Crescent road, five miles above Vossburg this morning. WALKER ON COLLIER'S DECREE. It is Preliminary to Enforcement of the Anti-Luau and Pacific. New York, April 14.—Chairman Aldred F. Walker, of the Anti-Luau and Pacific, said today that Judge Collier's decree in the foreclosure case of the United States Trust company against the Anti-Luau and Pacific railroad was a preliminary step towards the foreclosure sale of that line. The decree covers the property in New Mexico, but no decree in Arizona has yet been given. Similar proceedings will be taken in other sections of the company's territory.

DOWNING THE DEALER. How the Neophyte Put the "Kibosh" on the Yorkshireman. It takes a Yorkshire man to make a horse-dealer, but this time the canny Tyler missed his mark when he tried taking in a Neophyte in the horse business.

Said the dealer: "Now there's a little 'oss I can warrant. He's a clever, perfectly-trained, snaffle-bridle hunter, and fast; up to twice your weight across any country. Sold for no fault, well bred and powerful, highly couraged, good tempered and temperate with hounds, quiet and free from vice. Well known with her majesty's, the Surrey, Berks, Cambridge, Essex, Kent, Warwickshire, Mr. Scatton's, the Quorn, Pytchley and several other tiptop packs. Winner of many races, out of constant work; perfectly sound, grand action and thoroughly broken. Goes well in harness; has run a heeler and leader in a team, will work in a cart, plow or harrow. Never out of his place, a capital jumper, never made a mistake in his life over bank, timber, water, stone wall, hill, or rale country. Best lady's 'oss in the country; been ridden as a charger; plenty of quality and manners; splendid mood; don't shy, never stumbles; good walker and first-class trotter; excellent park hack; never sick or sorry when he was foaled, and subject to any vet's examination, and to be sold for a song!"

"Ah," said the Neophyte, "I'm doubtful he's scarcely enough of a 'oss for me. If he could only trap rabbits, manage foreign and fancy poultry, rear pheasants, do a little plain gardening, milk and look after a cow and pig, wait at table, teach in the Sunday school and play the organ in church, why, I wouldn't mind taking him on six month's trial! Eh?"

WOMAN'S ECONOMY. When Exercised for Her Husband Often Leads to Trouble. Peculiar are the ideas of the ordinary housewife on the subject of economy, especially when she goes over into a man's domain in order to practice her theories. It is the extravagance of her husband that bothers her, and when he is away at business and she has leisure hours to devote to deep thought on her serious financial troubles she lays plans by which the household exchequer may be made to show figures of saving at the end of the year. And this is one of her plans:

She knows her husband pays five dollars a box for his cigars and a box is soon consumed. She hunts one of the numerous downtown places where cigar boxes are put up and contained in gaudily decorated boxes or kept for sale to please the eye and nauseate the stomach. She inquires the price and is glibly told by the handsome little girl behind the counter, who knows more of roze leaves than of the leaf of tobacco, they are Key West tigers and sell for 35 cents for a box of 50. Here is a bargain. Four boxes are wrapped up and sent to her home and she figures she has secured the four for one-half the money her husband would pay for one.

These things lead to divorce. Then the matter of neckties: She thinks her feminine taste is far superior to the masculine choice of that half of the family which pays the bills. Some day she finds herself wandering along the street and she gazes rapturously at a show window, the glaring colors of which would madden a bull. But it is not the colors that catch her eye. It is the sign: "This style, worn by the prince of Wales, 35 cents." She purchases six, all in the deepest cardinal colors. Her husband pays one dollar for his ties and buys two a month. The enormous saving can easily be computed—that is, it could be computed were it not for the fact the obliging husband, who would wear red pajamas in public rather than displease his beloved wife, is obliged to devise means by which to leave the house in the morning with the objectionable bit of conspicuous wearing apparel and at the same time avoid becoming the butt of the ridicule of his friends downtown. So he lays in a private stock at his office, all at one dollar apiece. His first business in the morning is to change his tie. He leads a double life.

And these things also lead to the divorce court.—Chicago Tribune.

One as the Other. "It's hard to give satisfaction," said the new congressman, wearily. "It's very difficult to tell what people are going to say about you," assented his wife.

"Yes. But it's pretty sure to be one of two things. They'll either say you're extremely ordinary or else that you're a freak."—Washington Star.

WILL CLOSE IN MAY

WINDOW GLASS COMBINE DECIDES TO SHUT DOWN.

It has been the custom to suspend operations in July and August but May 29 marks the beginning of the coming summer's vacation which will extend, possibly, to October—Fifteen Thousand Men Will be Thrown Out, Five Thousand of Whom are skilled Laborers—Action Taken at Indianapolis. Indianapolis, April 14.—At a meeting of the Pittsburg Window Glass association, held in this city today, it was decided, owing to the glut in the glass market, to close down every window glass factory in the United States on May 29. The two associations control the output of window glass in this country. Thousands of men will be thrown out of employment. The burden will fall heaviest in the east, where many firemen, stokers, coal handlers, etc., are employed owing to lack of natural gas. One factory in Pittsburg will be forced to lay off 2,200 men. There are forty-eight factories in the western association and sixteen in the Pittsburg association. The members state that they have no idea how long the factories will be closed, but in no event will they be opened before October. Tomorrow the vote of raising prices will be taken. Pittsburg, Pa., April 14.—The action taken by the window glass manufacturers at Indianapolis today in deciding to suspend operations in all factories on May 29 will affect 15,000 employees, of which 5,000 are skilled workmen. It has always been the custom to close down during July and August. The suspension this year will begin one month earlier than usual, but the glass workers do not believe resumption will be postponed after September 1. This will be the second suspension of an overstocked market and the employees were not expecting another vacation so soon.

SERVANTS' BALL IN PARIS. A Splendid Affair in Which 6,000 Domestic are Interested. One of the great balls of Paris is that of the so-called "Bal des Gens de Maison" at the Salle Wagram, which has just been held. The "Gens de Maison" are an association comprising some 6,000 of the superior servants, the cream, in fact, and the aristocracy of the 150,000 domestics employed to wait upon the well-to-do citizens of Paris. The union is rich and eclectic, in so far as it will permit no servant to retain his or her name on the rolls who has been guilty of disgraceful conduct.

The president is M. Picard, a butler of imposing presence, who, with a broad, blue sash of office crossing his capacious white waistcoat, as the ribbon of the Legion of Honor crosses that of President Faure, received the guests at the ball with just as much dignity and staidness as if he were the chief magistrate of the republic in person. The demeanor of the guests was irreproachable, and the attire of both men and women compared favorably with that of the people present at the municipal ball a couple of days previously. The men were in full evening dress, while the magnificent jewels that adorned the necks, the arms, and the coiffures of many of the women gave evidence of the fact that their mistresses had allowed them for the occasion free access to their cashlets.

These gems, however, and the costly laces may be said to have constituted the sum total of the borrowed plumes, for it was manifest from the perfect fit of the gowns that they had been made for their wearers. This is by no means surprising when it is borne in mind that the lady's maids, the valets, the butlers and the private coachmen in Paris this Bal des Gens de Maison constitutes the principal social event and festival of the entire year, the one for which they reserve all their finery and all their economies, as well as their best manners. Masters and mistresses seem to take pleasure in helping the members of their household to cut a good figure on this occasion, and many is the lady's maid who can boast of having had the finishing touches given to her toilet and the jewels fastened into and into her ears by the hands of her own mistress. The only feature of the entertainment calculated to cause a smile and to create some amusement was the precedence accorded to the servants of those over those of marquises, and to those of marquises over those of counts, the domestic of ordinary untitled citizens being content to follow meekly in the wake of their betters.—Paris Letter.

A Woman's Courage. I saw a woman do a courageous act in San Rafael yesterday. Some little children were playing ball on the street, when a big black dog ran up and sprang at a six-year-old boy. He threw up both hands and screamed. The dog sprang toward him again, but did not quite reach him. The little fellow was paralyzed with fear, and could do nothing but scream as the dog made repeated springs at him. A woman on the opposite side of the street saw the little fellow's peril, and looked around for help. Then, seeing a large stone, she ran up and hurled it at the brute. It turned tall and ran down the street as fast as it could go, till it overtook the stone, picked it up, trotted back, laid it at the woman's feet, and stood wagging its tail for her to throw it again. The dog wanted to play ball, too.—San Francisco Post.

"Such as what?" "Well, the number of young men who haven't achieved distinction, but who think they have."

And the man with the magazine was convinced.—Chicago Post.
