

Massacre of foreign powers and diplomats called upon President Faure to offer their congratulations and congratulations telegraphed their congratulations upon his escape.

The members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company of Massachusetts, who are in the city did not venture to attend the review on account of the heat.

Many soldiers fell in the ranks during the day from sunstroke. As the troops traversed the streets upon their return after the review it was evident that they had suffered terribly. Many were exhausted and lagged wearily behind. All the ambulance wagons were full. Directly a halt was made, large numbers of soldiers rushed into the houses to get a drink of water. Many slipped their handkerchiefs into the pools in the streets to cool their brows. It is thought probable that today's experience will induce the authorities to adopt the suggestion urged for years in the press, to hold the review of troops on July 16 in the morning, in order to avoid needless suffering.

PERU HAD BETTER PAY UP

MacCord, an American, Abused Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth

Washington, July 14.—It is understood that the secretary of state has instructed the United States minister at Lima to demand the prompt settlement of the claim of Victor H. MacCord, an American citizen, for alleged brutal and inhuman treatment by Peruvian authorities. Mr. MacCord's claim is for $200,000. While Secretary Olney does not specify the amount that should be paid in satisfaction of this claim, it is said that he contends that it is a just and equitable claim and one entitled to prompt satisfaction. The claim grows out of the arrest and imprisonment of Mr. MacCord by the Peruvian authorities in 1935, while he was acting superintendent of a railroad at Arequipa. There was a revolution in progress at the time.

Through the alleged perfidy of the engineer of a train conveying troops on the road, of which MacCord was in charge, it was delivered into the hands of the revolutionists. MacCord was immediately imprisoned and word was sent to him to arrange his affairs on an order and been issued to show that within an hour. He was marched out to the parade grounds before a file of soldiers armed with rifles and asked if he wished to say anything before being shot. He was, however, saved by friends and transferred to another prison. He was released after several days of intense suffering as a result of harsh treatment, and was compelled to pay a fine of $7,500.

Dennis Flynn's Slogan Has Magic Results in Oklahoma

Slusher, O. T., July 14.—The colored voters of township 10-1 east met at the Slusher school house last evening and organized a colored Man's Pylon Press Home club by electing I. W. Williams president, M. Mack, and M. C. Coates, vice presidents; Granville Herd secretary and Price Rose treasurer. There are about fifty colored voters in this township.

Owing to local conditions, such as have been practiced in the south, a number of the colored men voted the Pop ticket, that party being in the majority. This was the first time that a man voted for Dennis T. Flynn.

Next Saturday evening the white voters of this same township will organize a club at the Stella school house. There are 175 voters in this township and Flynn will receive 150 of them.

SEVERE STORMS IN OHIO

Heavy, Hitting Rain Damage Crops About Youngstown and Lima

Youngstown, O., July 14.—The excessive heat yesterday ended in a terrific storm last night. Lightning struck a number of dwellings, among them the Second National bank. Shade trees were blown down and much damage done to fruit trees. The damage to crops in this locality, especially to the oats crop, will amount to thousands of dollars. Oats had grown rapidly during the hot weather, and the stems were rank and tender. The wind and torrents of rain have beaten down hundreds of acres of the damage to that crop will be the greatest in years.

The factories operating there are as follows: Alabama, 138,000 spindles; Georgia, 450,000; North Carolina, 647,000; Tennessee, 80,000; South Carolina, 478,000; Virginia, 13,000; Mississippi, 38,000; Kentucky, 21,000; Louisiana, 57,000.

WATERSON'S NAME SUGGESTED

Gold Men Think He Would be Just the Proper Man

WATERSON'S NAME SUGGESTED. Chicago, July 14.—Henry Waterston is the man, above all others, to nominate for president on a Democratic gold standard platform.

THE CHANCE TO WIN A PRIZE OF GORHAM SILVER

is an incentive which should not be forgotten in planning Summer Sports. Such Trophies, combining artistic merit sterling worth, and emblematic fitness, add both dignity and interest to any contest for their possession, and can be had of any first-class jeweler.

Blood... Bubbles.

Those pimples or blotches that disgrace your skin, are blood bubbles. They mark the unhealthy condition of the blood-current that throws them up. You must get down to the blood, before you can be rid of them. Local treatment is useless. It suppresses, but does not heal. The best remedy for eruptions, scrofula, sores, and all blood diseases, is

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The strong reason set forth as to why Henry Waterston is the right man to stand up for a principle. Advocates of a gold ticket, put up by the Democrats, who cannot stomach Populism and free silver, to say nothing about the income tax declaration and the assault upon the supreme court, say the third ticket is necessary to effectually defeat the nominees and doctrines of last week's convention.

They take the ground that unless a straight Democratic ticket is placed in the field thousands of Democrats, who, under no circumstances could be induced to vote for the Republican candidates, and who rather than lose the opportunity of voting, by staying at home on election day, will swallow the Bryan free silver combination.

This, it is asserted, will be true particularly in the south. The only desire of the honest money Democrats is to do that which will insure an overwhelming defeat at the polls for the nominees and the platform of the Democratic-Populist-free silver convention.

The first concern of the sound money Democrats is to work it so that McKinley can carry several of the southern states. It is conceded that New York, Pennsylvania and the New England states are safely against Bryan and Sewall without the aid of a third ticket. But it is urged that a third ticket would help McKinley to carry Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas, Alabama, North Carolina and probably Virginia.

The scheme, therefore, is to nominate a candidate for president whose popularity throughout these states is such as to arouse the greatest enthusiasm, command the best support, and win the largest number of votes from the silver ticket to those who are potent reasons why Henry Waterston, for the present at least, seems to have been singled out as the most available man. It is predicted that he would get more votes in every one of the southern states than Bryan and so far as the Illinois leaders who are pushing this movement can see, they think he would take well among gold Democrats all over the country.

There is no discounting his position on the money question, and his paper has already taken the action of the Chicago convention.

Whether Mr. Waterston would accept such a nomination or not is a query no one has as yet been able to answer. He is now in Europe and has said he does not intend to return home until after the election.

The Chicago Chronicle, gold Democratic, editorially has suggested Mr. Waterston as an available man to head the ticket to those who are potent reasons why Henry Waterston, for the present at least, seems to have been singled out as the most available man.

OPENS AT SAGINAW

RACING STARTS OFF WITH THE SAGINAW VALLEY STAKE

Conditions Favorable for a Successful Meeting - In the Inaugural Event Packet Leads the Winning, Superseded by Valence, and Both are Crowned Out by Barnetta-Nickel B. Makes it Interesting for the Winner of the 2:15 Pace in the Last Two Heats—Baker Opens the Talent in the Last Event—Other Races.

Saginaw, Mich., July 14.—The grand circuit races opened with good weather, fair track and an attendance of 2,500.

The first race, the Saginaw alley stakes, for 228 trotters, was stubbornly contested. Packet won the first heat and then the Village Farm entry, Valence, driven by Geora, captured two heats and it looked as if the race was over, but Mike Bowerman came to the front and captured the last three heats.

Maxim was the strong favorite in a field of nine in the 2:15 pace. Sally Bronston led in the first heat. After that Maxim went on and won, but the Detroit pacer, Nickel B, gave her a lively argument in the last two heats.

In the 2:15 trot, the talent was thrown down badly. Sunland Clay was a strong favorite but the Saginaw horse, Baker, owned by Isaac Beringer, upset calculations by winning in straight heats. Summaries:

Saginaw Valley stake, 2:28 trotters, purse $1,000: Barnetta won fourth, fifth and sixth heats. Time 2:17 1/2; 2:19 1/2; 2:22. Valence won second and third heats and was second. Time 2:17 1/2; 2:17 1/2. Packet won first heat in 2:19 and was third. Marguerite, Porter, Jack Dawson, Basil Wilkes, Kallene and Miss Spohn also started.

In the 2:15 pace, purse $600, Maxim won second, third and fourth heats. Time 2:15; 2:14 1/2; 2:13 1/2. Sally Bronston won first heat in 2:13 1/2 and was second. Nickel B was third. Bessie B. Ideer, Jack, Sylvia, Marietta Wilkes and Sandy also started.

In the 2:18 trot, purse $600, Baker won in straight heats. Time 2:17 1/2; 2:19; 2:14. Sunland Clay, second; Prince H. 2:14. Bryson, Franklin, Corrollin, Letitia, Essie, Combs, Maggie and Atlantic also started.

AGUEDOT RACES

New York, July 14.—It was still uncomfortable hot at Aqueduct today but the crowd was large and the racing good. Favorites had their full share of winning and the talent was happy in consequence. In the first race Nina Louise was heavily backed, with Full Speed a strong second choice, full speed went to the front at once and led all the way to the last furlong, when Nina Louise won by a length and a half after a hard drive. The Native had a shade the better and so far as the Illinois leaders race, and he, too, had to be driven in the last furlong to get away from the second choice. Salate, Margaret Roth and Courtship II were at about the same odds for the next race and they finished in that order after a hard drive. Sue Kittie was at long odds in the fourth event and won very handsily, the second choice running in second place. Summaries:

First race—Five furlongs: Nina Louise won; Full Speed, second; Favor, third. Time 1:02 1/2.

Second—Mile, selling: The Native won; Premier, second; Emotional, third. Time 1:44.

Robinson Loses a Finger. Louisville, Ky., July 14.—Some time ago Catcher Robinson of the Baltimore club, had the little finger of his right hand injured in a game, and has been troubled with this member ever since the accident occurred. Two days ago inflammation set in and it became evident yesterday that unless the inflamed finger was amputated blood poisoning would result. The operation was performed this morning at Norton infirmary, by Dr. Stuckey, and while Robinson will not be able to play for several weeks the loss of the finger will not render his services in the game in the future less effective.

HE GOT OFF EASY.

Ordinary Incident That Might Have Culminated in a Tragedy

Just as young Mr. Dolley was about to bid good night to Miss Trivet, the gas light in the hall burning low, he drew her to him and stole a kiss. At that moment Mr. Trivet emerged from the library door further along the hall and came forward.

"Oh, dear," said the maiden, in a gasping whisper, "I'm afraid papa saw you."

Her fear deepened into a certainty as her father approached and said to Mr. Dolley:

"Young man, I want to speak to you in the library for a minute or two."

Mr. Dolley followed Mr. Trivet obediently, and the door closed behind them. The girl, pale and breathless, anxiously pictured all over her countenance, hid behind the parlor portiere, that she might have a word with Mr. Dolley in case her father should catch the young man to go to the door unattended. Her eyes were fixed on the closed library door, visible to her from her retreat behind the curtain, and she tried to divine what was passing therein. Would Mr. Dolley be forbidden to come to the house again? Would her papa forbid her to think of him? She had heard of such orders issuing from parental authority, and already she was debating how she and he could evade them.

Whatever was transpiring? It would not require four or five minutes to dismiss an objectionable lover. Perhaps Mr. Dolley was bravely defending himself. Nay, it might be that he had heaved his father in his den and boldly asked her hand in marriage. The door opened. Mr. Dolley emerged alone. As he passed the parlor door Miss Trivet came from behind the portiere.

"Oh, Harry, what did papa say?"

"He asked me to lend him a fiver."—Chicago Journal.

TERRAPIN FARMING.

How the Raising of the Valuable Diamond Back is Now Being Carried On.

While the demand for terrapin is restricted, being confined to the limited portion of the rich who have epicurean tastes, the cultivation, or farming, as it is called, of this priceless little animal is on the increase. It is doubtful, though, whether this great delicacy of the epicure will be cheapened to any appreciable extent by the multiplicity of the farms, for the choice variety, which cost about five dollars apiece, will always be scarce. Still, if inexperienced persons are attracted to the indiscriminate cultivation of the terrapin by the inducement of large profits, it is possible that in time the common varieties, now worth from $15 to $20 a dozen, will thrive to the extinction of the rare "diamond backs."

A typical terrapin farm contains about two or three acres of land and water. It is surrounded by a board fence to prevent the animals from escaping. The interior is divided into lots. There must be sufficient marshy ground provided for the terrapins, which burrow in the mud during cold weather.

The eggs are laid in the sun. The female lays a hole in the sand, following it out in the form of an inverted cone, with the greatest nicety. In this nest she deposits her eggs, usually about a dozen, and then pucks the sand down with the hard shell of her breast. The eggs are hatched by the heat of the sun, ten weeks being the average time of incubation. When the little terrapins dig themselves out of the sand they take at once to the water and are able to look out for themselves.

The terrapin takes his winter quarters at the bottom of the pond. The older ones sleep all through the cold weather, while the younger ones remain around the edges of the bank.—N. Y. Journal.
