FOOLING WITH FIAT

RADICAL POPULISTS REVERT TO FIRST PRINCIPLES

Chairman of the California Populist Central Committee, Assisted by Mayor Sutor's Secretary, Drafts the Banknote Kind of a Financial Plan for the Populist Convention at St. Louis—Out-Fiat the Laissez-Faire That Invented the Fiat Idea—Obtain Southern Populists and Why They Object to Fusion.

San Francisco, July 14.—E. W. Wardell, chairman of the Populist central committee of California and Mayor Sutor's secretary, has prepared a platform which it is proposed to present to the national Populist convention to be held in St. Louis next week. The financial plank follows:

"We demand a national money, issued directly by the general government only, as a full legal tender for all debts, and issued without the agency of any private corporation or bank and in circulating volume subject to law and responsive to our needs, and speedily to the amount of $50 per capita of the entire people."

"Such money shall consist of gold, silver and paper, each dollar thereof endowed with the same function imparted solely from the stamp thereon and not dependent for its money value upon the price of the material used. Each dollar shall be interchangeable with, but not redeemable in, the other and shall be denominated respectively gold, silver or paper money—all national debts being payable in either at the option of the government."

"As the United States is a free and powerful nation, and the financial and industrial liberty of its citizens should be maintained, the action of any other government, we demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver by the United States at their present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without reference to the course of any foreign nation."

"We demand that all national banks be abolished and in lieu of them that the government establish a postal bank in each city, town and village of the United States containing a population of 1,000 or more."

OBSTINATE SOUTHERN POPS

Denver, July 16.—Advices received by the Populist leaders indicate that there will be many difficulties to overcome in the Populist convention before the endorsement of Mr. Bryan for president can be had. The main difficulty, it appears from these advices, will be found in securing the co-operation of the southern Populists in this movement, though many of the northern members of the party are also raising objections. There is special apprehension as to the course of Senator Sutor of North Carolina and of Representative Watson of Georgia, who it is feared, hold out stiffly for the adoption of a straight Populist platform, and the nomination of another candidate than Bryan.

FATE OF THE TARIFF.

Some southern Populists appear to have the same apprehension about the fate of their party in case Bryan is endorsed, and many of them who were formerly Republicans are apprehensive of the fate of the tariff in case of Bryan's success.

THE POPULISTS OF THE MOUNTAIN STATES

The Populists of the mountain states are apparently quite unanimous for Bryan. A majority of the Populists in this section became such on account of the silver issue alone, and they are willing to accept the assurances that will be made the paramount question in the campaign and in the next administration in case of Bryan's election. They consider the financial question of importance so supreme that they prefer talking the chances on other points on which they do not agree with Bryan, to dividing the party vote. They will therefore, support Bryan heartily at St. Louis. They will probably go in for an independent nomination of Bryan at St. Louis rather than his endorsement as the Democratic nominee and will in that case place him on a platform of their own.

standard, but our financial plank does not go to the length, breadth and scope of the Democratic declaration.

Here in what the National party says on the money question: "All money should be issued by the general government only, and without the intervention of any private citizen, corporation or banking institution. It should be based upon the security, stability and integrity of the nation. It should be a full legal tender for all debts, public and private and it should be of sufficient volume to meet the demands of the legitimate business interests of the country. For the purpose of honestly liquidating our outstanding coin obligations, we favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, without consulting any other nation."

"After yourself, who does the National party favor for president?"

"I would vote for BRYAN. "If the National party had no other distinctive principle except free silver we would go over to Bryan, bag and baggage," promptly responded Mr. Bentley, "but we have been contending for other principles for years as Prohibition, the eight-hour day, prohibition and woman suffrage."

"Who do you think will be elected president, Mr. Bentley?" asked the reporter.

"I will answer that question by simply saying that if all the anti-monopoly elements—mind you, I do not say free silver—can be united, I do not think it will be very difficult to defeat McKinley. At present, however, this is rather doubtful," answered Mr. Bentley, guardedly.

War Cloud of Hard Feeling Hanging Over Goodwill of Bryan and Sutor

Topka, Kan., July 15.—The campaign which started off between ex-governor Lewelling and Colonel W. A. Harris for the Populist nomination for governor in friendship and brotherly love, has already reached the stage of acrimony to be remembered that Colonel Harris came to Topeka and had himself interviewed by the reporters a few weeks ago. In that interview he said he would not make an active bid for the nomination, but that he would deem it his duty to accept the honor if it came his way. In conclusion, he declared that he would say no unkind things of any opposing candidate, nor in any way descend to personalities or insults and of extending his adversaries. This high toned expression at once brought out a card from ex-governor Lewelling, in which he, not to be outdone in courtesy, declared that no friend of his would do anything to injure Colonel Harris or his domestic tragedies. On this dignified and amicable platform the two candidates stood resolutely for a space of about ten minutes.
