Hog Market Decidedly Better in All Respects.

BOTH HOGS AND CATTLE

Are in Demand to Which Supply is Unequal.

The hog market was weak yesterday, but remained steady from the decline of the day before. The quality of the hogs was mean, there being too many lights and several loads of badly mixed hogs.

ANTI-CHRISTIAN RIOTS

Blood Flows in the Streets of Plague-Stricken Bombay.

HINDOO AND MAHOMMEDAN

Unite Against a Plague Party

Police Kill Four.

Bombay, March 9.—Serious plague riots have occurred in the night quarter. Several persons have been killed or wounded.

Troops and blue jackets have been dispatched to the scene of the disturbance.

London, March 9.—Special dispatches from Bombay say the riot broke out at noon, among the low caste Hindoos and Mohammedans against the Europeans.

It had its origin in an attack upon a plague search party. Two soldiers, as these dispatches were sent, had already been killed and the police had fired on the mob, killing six persons and wounding many others.

Other special dispatches from Bombay say that a plague inspector and three men of the Shropshire regiment were stoned to death.

London, March 9.—A still later dispatch from Bombay says the mob attacked the hospital, burned the offices and a spectacle was witnessed as the mob and a special army assaulted the doctors, killing one of them. Detachments of the police of the Shropshire regiment and artillery were hurried to the scene, a volley was fired into the mob and seven persons were killed.

Before this the dispatch the two soldiers of the Shropshire regiment and one artilleryman were stoned to death.

The riot is described as causing a tremendous sensation. All the available troops and artillery have been called out and business is suspended.

The trouble arose through a plague party inquiring into the cause of the sickness of a Mohammedan woman. An enormous crowd of castemen gathered and stoned and mobbed the party, which retired for an escort of armed police and a special army.

Long before the time for court to convene there was a big crowd waiting to gain admittance to the court room, and when the doors were thrown open there was a wild rush, but only a limited number were admitted. Judge Woodward did not take his seat on the bench until five minutes after 10 o'clock, the jury coming in a few minutes later. When the jury had taken their seats the roll was called, each man answering to his name. The clerk then asked: "Gentlemen of the jury, do you agree upon a verdict?"

"We do," was the reply.

The jury was then polled and each juror answered not guilty as his name was called.

There was an attempt at applause but it was quickly suppressed. In several instances the jury retired last evening, they took only one ballot and it was unanimous for acquittal. It is said that the jury was prepared for a verdict before leaving the box. After the jury had been thanked and discharged by Judge Woodward, District Attorney Martin asked that the defendants be required to continue their bail bond, as there are still seventeen indictments for murder hanging over them, and thirty-eight for feloniously wounding. The bond was continued as requested.

District Attorney Martin says he has not decided what to do with these other cases. The prosecuting committee, it is said, will insist upon further prosecution.

THOUGHT HE WAS IN LOVE

Boy Gehrig Shoots His Chum, Then Commits Suicide.

Lancaster, Pa., March 9.—Roy Gehrig, of Milton, Pa., shot and perhaps fatally wounded Will B. Davis of St. Clair, Pa., at Millersville today and then killed himself.

The boys were pupils of Pierce's Business college at Philadelphia and went to Millersville Saturday to call upon two study students at the normal college here.

They returned to the village last night about 10 o'clock and securing a room at Hoak's hotel, retired immediately. Early this morning the inmates of the place were startled by a loud crash as a door slammed down stairs with blood gushing from several wounds in his face. Another shot was heard, followed by the sound of a body falling on the floor. Davis ran into the barroom, exclaiming: "My chum shot me."

Davis was in bed, when Gehrig, who was walking down the stairs, drew a pistol and fired three times in quick succession at first fire. They rushed to the room where the tragedy occurred found Gehrig lying on the floor with a bullet hole in his left temple. He died without regaining consciousness. A note written by Gehrig and found near his body gives his explanation of the tragedy, as follows:
