

MAY POLE PARTY

Miss Downing Gives Her Closing Party.

GIVEN A CHARIVARI PARTY

Miss Carrie Crawford Taken By Surprise.

Miss Downing gave her closing party on Friday. It was the swiftest affair of the kind ever given in the city.

The queen of the May party was Miss Clara Warren, who was all that could be expected of a queen.

Miss Florence Cubban gave the skirt dance, which was very cleverly executed. In the butterfly dance Misses Letha Walters, Ada Christopher and Clementine Young did splendidly.

Miss Brillantine Bennett danced the Gipsy dance and received an encore which met with the approval of the large crowd of spectators.

Master Fred Chalm, Florence Cubban, George Chalm, Emma Downing, Clarence Powell, Lulu Burellah, Bay Cubban, Florence Jacks, Herbert Powell, Josie English, Edward Litzle, Letha Walters, Wiley Young, Ada Christopher, Clarence Howell and Laura Donnell took part in the May pole dance.

The hall was handsomely decorated with palms and flowers together with American flags. The queen of the evening, Miss Warren, was handsomely gowned in white satin with point lace long train.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Woods were agreeably surprised on Friday evening by a number of friends forming a charivari party. After the first shock was over the newly married couple threw the doors open and every one was invited to come in.

The evening was passed very pleasantly, and at a late hour every one left, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Woods a long and happy future. Following persons composed the party: Mr. and Mrs. John Reed, Amy Papes, Luma Hartzell, Ross Harrison, Mattie Sellers, Miss Foust of Canton, Ill.; Miss Pouser of Burlington, Kan.; Mamie Geyer, Eddie Dunn, Maude Clark, Grace Gore, Mamie Hoover, Effie Wood, Anna Hornaday, Mabel Berdine; Messrs. Len Papes, Jay Sweet, Jessa Smith, Frank Seaver, Sylvanus Ought, Oscar Ward, Claude Smith, Charles Hoover and Jim Smith.

Miss Carrie Crawford was pleasantly surprised at her home, 20 North Fourth avenue, in honor of her twelfth birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing various games. They were also favored with a few selections of music by the hostess and recitations by Miss Nina Wightman, and Miss Maude Carroll, after which a delicate luncheon was served.

After wishing the hostess many happy returns of the day they departed. Those present were: Nina Wightman, Pearl Green, Mabel Gardner, Lulu Foster, Mamie Dunn, Emma Gardner, Lida Wightman, Nina, Elsie, Maude and May Carroll, Mabel Massey, Beronice Trotter, Mildred Carter, John Khouana, Charlie Khouana, Esther and Roy Crawford.

Mr. Daniel Hicks of Denver, Colo., and Miss Carrie Smith, the daughter of Mrs. Caroline Sumner of Wichita, were happily united in marriage at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Buhmer Swagerty of South City. The wedding was a very quiet one, there being present only the particular friends of the bride and groom.

HE KEPT HIS WORD

Army Regular Writes to an Oxford Man.

From the Oxford Register. While Chauncey Fenton was in Wichita several days ago he happened to be at the depot when the regular from Colorado passed through. During their stop there he handed one of them two bits and requested that he write to him.

Chauncey had his doubts about ever hearing from the fellow and was somewhat surprised when he went to the postoffice Monday and found a letter from the soldier who was then in camp at Chickasha, Okla. He said they expected to be in Cuba before Sunday, and that the boys were anxious to get there and avenge the death of the heroes of the Maine. He agreed to keep Chauncey posted regarding their movements in Cuba.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

GEORGIA MINSTRELS. "Love is not what it used to be," so sings the poet. Well, perhaps the poet is right, for love has, no doubt, changed, as has a great many other things. But there is one thing in particular that has not changed and positively remains the same, and that is the excellence of the entertainments presented by the Georgia Minstrels, who will appear at the Crawford Grand May 8. The annual visit of the minstrels is always classed as an event of the theatrical season, and unusual enthusiasm has been aroused this time through the fact of the "always reliable" show coming with even a stronger company than ever before. It would require too much space to mention the names of the entire company; however, it is sufficient to say that an enjoyable performance may be expected, for the Georgia University Graduates never disappoint.

PROF. GENTRY'S DOGS AND PONIES. The educational possibilities of the brute creation have probably been reached by Prof. Gentry, who is known all over the land as a wonderful trainer of dogs and ponies. His latest effort, however, is said to be decidedly his best and many new acts are added to his already excellent show this year, such as the Gentry fire department, all of the members of which are dogs, ponies and monkeys. They rescue helpless animals from the building, operate the apparatus and in fact do everything that a human company could do. The chief of the brigade is a large monkey and he issues orders and directs the work with the precision of a veteran fire fighter. There are many other novel and interesting acts which will be seen this year for the first time. The exhibition will exhibit under canvas on Main street, next to city hall, three nights, beginning Wednesday, May 11, with matinees Thursday and Friday at 3 o'clock.

All readers of the Chattanooga course and alumni are requested to meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Mrs. J. L. Powell's, 224 North Topeka avenue, for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for the annual banquet.

BREAK STATE RECORDS

High School and Fairmount Contest is a Tie.

RECORD ON HALF MILE

Run is Lowered by Larimer of Fairmount.

The annual track contest between Fairmount college and High school teams was held at the state fair grounds yesterday afternoon. The track was in good condition. The grand stand was filled with enthusiastic, cheering supporters of the two teams. The High school had confidently expected to win the contest, but were disappointed. Fairmount confidently expected to win and they were also disappointed. The contest was hot from start to finish. The score is as follows: each side winning 32 points.

The first event was the 100-yard dash. Sheldon of Fairmount made a beautiful run, and was given first. This was a surprise to all, as this had been conceded to the High school.

The shot put was a one-sided affair. High school way ahead. Alexander broke all previous records, while Clyde Smyser was in for a yard second.

In the 300-yard run, Fairmount again scored first. Claude Larimer made a magnificent run, breaking the state record by a handsome margin. The state record for 300 yards is 2 minutes 16 seconds. Larimer's record is 2 minutes 5-5 seconds.

The high jump was a complete victory for the High school, their high jumpers carrying off every point. The 200-yard dash was called, amid intense excitement. Sheldon again rejoiced the hearts of the Fairmount rooters by passing the tape first. Rogers and Keegan of the High school both made excellent runs.

In the hammer throw, the heavy men of Fairmount easily carried off first and second places. Fleming throwing the hammer 73 feet 7 inches; Dowd, 72 feet.

The next event was the 150-yard hurdle race, with four starters, three from the High school and one from Fairmount. Clyde Smyser won out at the finish, easily taking third, and one point for Fairmount. The pole vault was one of the prettiest events from the grand stand point of view. Jocelyn vaulted in splendid form, winning first, while Lewis of Fairmount showed equally good form, but lacked in staying power. Both Lewis and Chain did credit to their school, for their efforts showed thorough and persistent training.

The mile run was never in doubt as to the final outcome among those who were able to make a fair prediction. The High school man, Mr. Keegan, made a plucky run, keeping close to the heels of Larimer until the three-quarter pole was passed, when Mr. Larimer's ability as a runner began to display itself. He won easily and in fine form.

The 400-yard dash was one of the best races of the day. Sheldon of Fairmount again showed his superior form, winning in beautiful style. Alexander was a close second, being beaten by only about two yards.

At this point the excitement was intense. The scope stood, High school, 15; Fairmount, 25; the former leading only two points or second place in the following event—the broad jump—to win the contest. Fairmount, however, had three good men in the broad jump, Frantz, Andrews and Ellerson. In next to the last trial Burrows of the High school was first, but by a supreme effort Lewis Andrews of Fairmount cleared 17 feet 9 1/2 inches, 6 inches better than the first man thus far. Frantz, in his final effort, made it 17 feet 4 inches, thus leaving the High school to be content with third place.

All interest now centered in the relay races, which the High school needed to win and Fairmount to tie the contest. Sheldon was again called upon to show his mettle, and he responded nobly, holding the lead to the first quarter. In the second and third quarters High school kept ahead, and when Larimer took the flag for the final run he was headed by Rogers of the High school by twenty yards. This lead was not to be easily overcome, especially so short a distance, but Larimer never for a moment slacked his terrific strides as he came rushing down to the wire. By one superhuman effort when within one yard of the tape Larimer forged ahead, winning one of the best races ever run in Wichita.

The contest was an even throughout as to arouse the excitement of the spectators to the highest pitch. While every member of both teams deserved the highest praise, Smith, Alexander, Smyser, of the High school, and Sheldon, Larimer, Andrews, Chain and Lewis of Fairmount, deserve special mention.

The following is a summary of the events. Although Fairmount led eight first out of the twelve events, the High school won a sufficient number of second and thirds to tie with Fairmount: 100-yard dash—First, Sheldon (F.); second, Smith (H.); third, Rogers (H.). Time, 11:3 seconds.

Shot put—First, Alexander (H.), 25 feet 9 inches; second, Clyde Smyser (H.), 23 feet 11 inches; third, Fleming (F.), 23 feet 9 1/2 inches.

300-yard run—First, Larimer (F.); second, Charles (H.); third, Israel (H.). Time, 2:08.5.

High jump—First, Hyde (H.), 5 feet; second, Alexander (H.); third, Burrows (H.).

200-yard dash—First, Sheldon (F.); second, Rogers (H.); third, Smith (H.). Time, 2:25 seconds.

Hammer throw—First, Fleming (F.), 72 feet 7 inches; second, Dowd (F.), 72 feet; third, Clyde Smyser (H.), 69 feet 6 inches.

150-yard hurdle—First, Clyde Smyser (H.); second, Alexander (H.); third, Isely (F.). Time, 20 seconds.

Pole vault—First, Jocelyn (H.), 8 feet 10 inches; second, Lewis (F.), 8 feet 10 inches; third, Chain (F.), 8 feet 9 inches.

Mile run—First, Larimer (F.); second, Keegan (H.); third, Charles (H.). Time, 4:30.5.

THE MEDICINE OF ALL OTHERS. Wine of Cardui. There are thousands of American women who feel just as Mrs. Nicholson does about Wine of Cardui. They know it is the medicine of all others for weak and suffering women. There is a good reason for the unparalleled success of Wine of Cardui. Nineteenths of the sickness of the average woman comes primarily from some derangement or weakness in her delicate menstrual or genital organs. A little trouble there affects her whole system. Wine of Cardui acts directly upon these afflicted organs. It makes them strong and healthy. They do their work painlessly. Then a woman is soon well all over. Often a few doses of this wonderful medicine brings that happy result.
