

BLUE AND GRAY

March in Time Together at Winfield.

ELOQUENCE AND PATHOS

Judge Sluss' Address at the Auditorium.

Yesterday morning at sunup the Decoration Day pilgrimage to the cemetery began. Only now and then at so early an hour were the more anxious and the more lately bereaved seen going out among the white monuments on the hill...

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the ladies of the G. A. R., W. R. C., Garfield and Eggleston Posts, the Sons of Veterans and Ladies Aid Society met at the corner of Main and First streets and under command of Senior Vice Commander Kramer...

Invocation by Rev. Warshaw, in which he prayed that the sentiment of Decoration Day memories might live with the life of the nation.

Senior Vice Commander Kramer then read the orders, followed by a pretty solo by Mrs. Bryant.

Rev. Dr. White, the new pastor of the Ohio avenue Presbyterian church, delivered an eloquent address upon the significance and results of decoration day exercises.

After another song by the High School chorus Judge H. C. Sluss was introduced and delivered an address of an hour and ten minutes, full of pathos and eloquent with the beauty of a lofty sentiment of reverence and sympathy for the mothers of the boys in blue whose sacrifices were no less than that of those who marched and shot.

From the Auditorium the procession turned for the cemetery at 2:15, each wagon decorated in national colors which followed the wagon carrying Senior Vice Kramer and the martial band. The members of the posts started out in wagons, but there was not much regularity.

AT THE CEMETERY. Everybody in the city and the country for miles around is going to the cemetery. Half the time there were two columns—one going and one coming.

After ritualistic ceremonies at Eggleston circle in the old cemetery, Eggleston Circle No. 26, Ladies of the G. A. R. conducted a short but very pretty program. The address was made by Mrs. S. E. Lawrence, whose fine ability in that direction is well known.

Flowers were furnished in abundance by Mesdames Costley, Marsh, Czar, Dillon, Grimes, Grebb, Sawyer, Alexander, Bell, Denny, Nollner, Oliver, Reed, J. L. Ford, Hahn, Hauge, Tucker, Dennis, Thompson, Palmer, Bevan, Ponce, G. W. Peters, Mrs. Clark, one basket of cut flowers; Mrs. Thomas, one basket of cut flowers; Mrs. Bennett, a bouquet of white daisies; Mrs. Hammon, one floral cross; Mrs. Eliza Dennis, one wreath; Mrs. Stone Evans, one cross and one wreath, besides a bushful of very fine cut flowers from friends whose names were not learned.

There were some beautiful floral designs which included twelve wreaths, several crosses, a sword, shield, and anchor.

A pretty incident of the day was the offering of three beautiful floral tributes, two wreaths and a cross, by two little boys, sons of an ex-confederate soldier. The little fellows were much concerned a few weeks ago at the time of the encampment, lest they should not be permitted to march with the school children and carry flags because of their father's disloyalty. Their own patriotism is unquestioned.

The Woman's Relief Corps, assisted by forty young ladies, distributed flowers in the new cemetery. There were flowers everywhere. Every grave space was a wreath of fresh beauty. The members of the cemetery were in bloom and the pink and yellow bells were out on the trees. Both cemeteries were a softened glow of flowerland. ATLANTON WIN TWO

Innes and Company Defeat the Boston Store Clerks.

TWENTY-FIVE TO SEVEN

Largest Crowd of the Season Witnessed the Game.

The Boston Store clerks went down to defeat yesterday afternoon at Athletic park, administered by the clerks from George Innes & Co's. Only five innings were played, which was quite enough playing for the spectators. The score resulted 25 to 7. If full nine innings had been played there would not have been enough paper in the city to keep track of the game. Errors abounded, hits were plentiful, and fun—there was no end of that. Many of the spectators wore the colors of their favorites. The Boston store colors were red and white and Innes & Co's were blue and white. One of the features of the game was the terrific batting of Mr. Henry Wallenstein and the great stop he made of a daisy cutter. Mr. Innes made a sensational play. He stopped a ball and threw a man out at first. Mr. Walker, of the Boston Store, carried off the honors at the bat. He hit one up against the left field fence for three bases. West and Morris, of the Innes base, each hit for two bases. There were very many men given their bases on balls. Mr. Moser's running of bases was something grand. There was not an earned run made by either side. The grand stand was crowded with ladies who cheered the athletes.

ATLANTON-EAGLES. The largest crowd of the year witnessed a hard-fought game yesterday afternoon between the Eagles and the Atlantons. Donovan, a Wichita boy, was in the box for Atlanton and was hit hard, while Jamison, for the Eagles, carried knocked out of the box in the sixth inning. Both pitchers gave way to others, the Yellow Kid taking Donovan's place in the eighth inning and McDonald taking Jamison's place. There were no really sensational plays on either side, but both clubs put up a good, snappy game. The Eagles were defeated by a score of 7 to 6. The playing of Nickell at first and Riggs' catching for the home team was splendid, while the pitching of the Yellow Kid was the principal work of the Atlantons.

The score is as follows: Eagles AB R IB H PO A E. Johnson, 2b... 5 1 2 0 0 5 3. Nickell, 1b... 5 0 1 1 11 0 0. Brockway, cf... 4 3 0 1 1 0 0. Gwinn, ss... 5 2 2 0 2 2 2. No official score was kept of Sunday's game. The Atlantons won by a score of 6 to 2.

Whooping Cough. I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely.
