The correspondent of the Associated Press, who took passage on the Halifax for the purpose of learning from the survivors more of the details of the disaster than had been possible in the short time between their arrival at Halifax and their departure for New York, during the trip to Boston had opportunity to come in contact with very many of those who escaped.

Among the survivors there were a few who could speak English well, but most of them could communicate with the correspondent only through an interpreter.

ALL BELOW DECK. Among those on board the Halifax not one could be found who was on deck at the time the collision occurred.

chief cook of the Stafford hotel, Philadelphia, it appears that the fourth engineer of La Bourgoigne, who was saved, acted in the most brutal manner toward the passengers. The three men agree in the statement that after the collision, when every one was hurrying to the boats, the engineer said: "Damn the passengers. We save ourselves first." He also said that if he had a revolver he would shoot the passengers. Mr. Zeller spoke in great praise of the captain.

On the voyage Liebra became acquainted with Yousouf, the wrestler, who was a passenger. After the collision Liebra says he saw Yousouf struggling in a crowd of drowning passengers, beating them off with a siletto and snatching them and trying to reach a boat.

SOON READY FOR WAR

Oklahoma's Battalion is Rapidly Mustering In.

YOUNG LADIES VOLUNTEER

They Want to Go as Nurses—The "Fighting Parson."

Guthrie, O. T., July 8.—(Special.)—Major Gregor Douglas of Oklahoma City has resigned his commission in the Oklahoma battalion as second lieutenant and the governor has tendered the place to Judge A. R. Mussler of Perry, who has accepted. Judge Mussler is a formerly of Wichita man, where he was elected probate judge.

The governor has received applications from two young ladies who want to go to the front as army nurses—Miss Emma C. Smith of Kingfisher, and Miss Leona Clark of Lily, Kay county.

The latter writes: "I want to go to war but cannot on account of being a girl, but I want to volunteer as a nurse." Miss Smith says she has nursed cyclone victims and has had considerable experience in the line. She has learned that many nurses are needed on the field, and volunteers her services for the war.

The governor received a telegram from the war department last night requesting his authority to recruit the Indian Territory company of volunteers, and the work will be performed by the authorities of that territory. The change is probably due to the vigorous protest sent in from the territory against the extension of the authority of the Oklahoma governor.

Seven prisoners, one of them a woman, confined in the county jail at Norman, Cleveland county, want to be set free in order to enlist.

Rev. J. S. Lincoln came in from Lincoln county yesterday morning, was accepted and was enrolled and left for home to say good-bye to his family and be here again this morning, riding a distance of seventy miles. He is to be the "fighting parson" of the regiment.

The work of mustering in the recruits goes bravely on under the direction of Lieutenant Thompson. As soon yesterday twenty-five men had been examined and accepted and the full company of 100 men accredited to Guthrie was completed last night.

The Pawnee contingent, which is a part of the Guthrie company, contains several full-blood Pawnee Indians, who will make splendid fighting material.

Captain Roy Hoffman left tonight for Shawnee, where he will muster in his company. He has 100 men, the pick of Lincoln and Pottawatomie counties, with many of whom he is personally acquainted and their high qualities as expert shots and fearless horsemen and rough and ready campaigners.

From Guthrie Lieutenant Thompson will go to Perry, where he will muster in Captain Bow Lowry's company.

FIRST SQUAD OF RECRUITS. El Reno, O. T., July 8.—(Special.)—The first squad of recruits for the Oklahoma battalion will arrive at Fort Reno from Guthrie and Shawnee Saturday or Sunday. Lieutenant O'Rourke leaves tomorrow for Shawnee, where he will be sworn into the service by Lieutenant Thompson. Lieutenant O'Rourke has received orders from Major John Stone, commanding the battalion, to not enlist any more men unless they insist on it. Of the thirty-five men enlisted by Lieutenant O'Rourke every man of them insisted that his name should be placed on the roll.

Lieutenant Thompson will be here Monday to muster in the thirty-five men whose names Lieutenant O'Rourke has on his roll.

ABOUT NEW POSTMASTERS. How Samuel Murphy Won and Why George Heidler Lost. Guthrie, O. T., July 8.—(Special.)—The appointment of Samuel Murphy as postmaster at Oklahoma City, which was predicted in the dispatches to the Eagle several months ago, is now an accomplished fact, his nomination having been confirmed by the senate yesterday, as were also the names of E. W. Hoyt, as postmaster at Ponca City, and William McKinley, as postmaster at Kingfisher.

Murphy's appointment is the outcome of Senator Chandler's persistent opposition to the confirmation of George A. Heidler, who was originally named as postmaster at Oklahoma City through the influence, it is said, of the Eagle's publisher, who knew Heidler from his boyhood. The president in his desire to carry out his mother's wish, personally interested himself in Heidler's confirmation, but Senator Chandler remained obdurate. When it became apparent that Heidler's appointment would not be accepted, the president called upon Governor Barnes to name another man, and Murphy's name was promptly sent to Washington, which caused a howl to go up from other postoffice applicants, who demanded time to file affidavits and protests. Several months have elapsed since then without developing anything serious against Murphy, and his appointment has accordingly been made.

The appointment of W. M. McCoy, as postmaster at Guthrie, was confirmed by the senate last Friday.

Reduction in Bicycle Prices. It is said that western capitalists are contemplating the organization of a great bicycle company, which will make first class wheels and sell them as low as 10. Whether this be true or not, the fact remains that Hoetter's Standard Bicycles is a first-class remedy for the stomach, liver and blood, and the price put it within everybody's reach to be well and strong. For fever and ague it is a specific.

TEXAS FEVER BREAKS OUT. In a Pasture Short Distance From Oklahoma City. Guthrie, O. T., July 8.—(Special.)—Spendent or Texas fever has broken out among the town cows kept in the Durand pasture northeast of Oklahoma City and several have already died.

Inspector Sam Matthews has inspected the pasture and has reported to Secretary Edwards that the pasture is infested with the blood sucking alien ticks, and if they are treated in the early stages, and by a process that is neither expensive nor difficult.

Spendent or Texas fever is the result of the bite of the cattle tick. This tick can be distinguished readily from the common dog tick, which will also be found upon cattle.

The cattle tick is a small, bright brown spot about as big as a pin head in the forehead. These ticks distend through sucking with the blood of their victim, just as the dog tick does. The cure is to kill the ticks with kerosene.

The symptoms of the fever are extreme lassitude, loss of appetite, high fever, and finally bloody urine. The animal may be saved if treated before the bloody urine period.

Secretary Edwards recommends the following treatment for infected cattle: Mix one quart of lard with one quart of coal oil. With a sponge thoroughly saturate with the preparation every part of the body. The favorite lodging place for the tick is on the flank, belly, brisket, and on the inner side of the legs, although the ticks are sometimes found on other parts of the body. Keep the sick animal in the shade and give salt and sulphur, with but small quantities of food.

In one week repeat the greasing and put in a pasture which is free from ticks. Every cow in the infested pasture should be thoroughly greased and put up under a shed, kept there for one week, greased again and then put in a pasture that is not infested.

MURDERED AT ARAPAHOE. County Attorney Shive Mortally Wounded by Sam Allen. El Reno, O. T., July 8.—(Special.)—J. T. Shive, county attorney of Custer county, was shot and mortally wounded by Sam Allen, a cowman at Arapahoe last Tuesday afternoon. The shooting took place in front of a saloon. Shive was leaning against a corner of the building when Allen rode up on his horse and without saying a word drew his gun and shot Shive through the left side. After firing the shot Allen waited a moment and then he rode away. He put spurs to his horse and rode off.

Shive J. B. Nicholas and a posse of four citizens started in pursuit of Allen, who it is said, abandoned his horse a few miles from town and took to the ravines and woods about. His capture is only a question of a few hours.

The main cause of the trouble was that two days before the shooting Allen was arrested and tried for committing a misdemeanor. Shive prosecuted and Allen swore he was going to get even, which he did Tuesday evening. The doctors say there is no hope of Shive recovering.

Battles and Diseases.

This is the story of one who participated in many naval and infantry engagements during the war. From wounds received then he suffered for years, but to-day, rejoices in renewed strength.

There is a distinctly peculiar halo that invests the being of an old soldier in the eyes of the present generation. The sight of him arouses a feeling of admiration for his brave deeds and heroic achievements.

Among those who bravely fought was Dr. L. J. Clark, who, when but a beardless boy, heard the tocsin of war sounded.

It fired his patriotic spirit to a fervency that found relaxation only in his realization of fighting in the battles.

To the call of President Lincoln for troops in the latter part of '61, young Clark promptly responded.

There was need of men in the navy, and he joined that service in the mortar fleet of Admiral Porter, which soon after began operations on the Mississippi River.

At the terrific bombardment of the Vicksburg forts, the hero of this story fell on the deck of the Juliette with a shattered arm from a charge of shot and shell.

He lay in the hospital for months, and when he had recovered sufficiently to be moved, was sent to his home at Warren, O.

Though partly incapacitated for active service, his patriotic zeal got the better of him, and when the call for more troops came, young Clark enlisted in a company formed by Capt. Joel I. Asper, at Warren.

It became Co. H. of the 7th Ohio Volunteers and was sent to the Army of the Potomac under General Grant then campaigning in Virginia against General Robert E. Lee.

In a skirmish near Richmond, he was wounded again and was sent to the hospital. He remained there for some time, but finally recovered, and went home.

Shortly after, he began the study of veterinary surgery, and, when completed, went to Chicago, where he has resided for thirty years, and is now one of the leading surgeons of that profession in the city.

His old wounds began to trouble him several years ago. He grew weak, emaciated, and thoroughly debilitated. His friends began to despair of his life.

He was but a shadow of his former self, weighing only 90 pounds, a loss of nearly 50 pounds. He had the best medical attention, but it did not benefit him.

"Finally a friend gave me a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," said Dr. Clark. "After taking the pills I was so much benefited that I purchased a half dozen boxes and took them."

"They were of more benefit than the ablest physicians' treatment. By their aid alone, I soon regained my strength."

"I weigh 150 pounds now, and except for injuries that can never be remedied, I am as well as ever."

"I consider Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People the best remedy I know of to build up a run-down system."

To-day Dr. Clark is a picture of health. He is 59 years old, an active member of Hatch Post, G. A. R., and resides at 4935 Ashland Ave., Chicago.

Many veterans have found Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People of inestimable value in counteracting the unhealthy effects of army life. All druggists sell these pills and highly recommend them.

What You Want to Know When You Want to Know It Explanation of Marginal Index

The ingenuity of the device deserves special explanation, for it is a patent system of instantaneous reference. The indices of each map appear upon each map's border. The information lies in a nutshell. These wonderful plates, compiled by experts and absolutely up to date, are a miniature counterpart of the world's physical appearance as it exists at this moment. The maps are not merely pictorial charts; they are also geographical and gazetteers combined. The ruled border on the four sides of every map is divided into equal distant spaces, designated upon the sides by letters, at the top and bottom by numerals. If lines were projected from these marginal points small squares would be formed by their intersection. On the margin of each page appears a classified list of all the principal cities, cities, and towns identified upon that special map, where they are classified alphabetically and according to their commercial importance and prominence as centers of population.

It is a real blood remedy for all blood diseases. Mr. A. A. Smith, of Ottumwa, Ind., writes: "I had such a bad case of Rheumatism that I became absolutely helpless—unable to take my food or handle myself in any way.
